CLEMSON OPENS CONFERENCE PLAY SATURDAY VS. GEORGIA TECH

Clemson returns to Death Valley this week for its 2021 conference opener on Saturday, Sept. 18 when the Tigers host the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

Clemson enters the contest having won 29 consecutive games at Death Valley, a school record and the nation's longest active streak. With a win on Saturday, Clemson can tie 1928-33 Tennessee, 1952-61 Auburn and 1994-99 Florida (30 each) for the 21st-longest home winning streak in FBS history. It would be the 24th home winning streak of 30 games or more in FBS history.

After being held to two yards on 23 rushing attempts (including seven sacks credited as rushes) in the season opener, Clemson entered last week's game against South Carolina State looking for improved production from its running game. The Tigers succeeded, gaining 242 yards on 36 carries, an average of 6.7 yards per rush. The 240-yard week-over-week improvement in rushing yards is Clemson's largest in a single season since a 276-yard jump from the Florida State game to the Louisville game in 2018.

Exciting true freshman running back Will Shipley led Clemson with 80 yards on eight carries with two rushing touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson true freshman to rush for two touchdowns in a game since Lyn-J Dixon in 2018. Shipley became the fifth true freshman under Dabo Swinney to average 10.0 yards per carry in a game on at least five carries, joining Dixon (twice in 2018), Travis Etienne (four times in 2017), Kelly Bryant (once in 2015) and Sammy Watkins (once in 2011).

Saturday's game will be a rematch of Clemson's 73-7 win at Georgia Tech in 2020, when Clemson's 66-point victory margin was the largest in conference play in ACC history.

In addition to celebrating Family Weekend, Clemson will celebrate Football Reunion Day on Saturday. After last year's Football Reunion Day was postponed during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson will celebrate multiple anniversary teams on Saturday, including squads celebrating anniversaries of five years, 10 years, 25 years and 50 years in 2020 or 2021. In line with those anniversaries, Clemson will welcome back members of the 1970, 1971, 1995, 1996, 2010, 2011, 2015 and 2016 squads for the game.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to win a 30th consecutive home game to extend its school record for both the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history (as well as extend the nation's longest active home winning streak). Of the 135 players on Clemson's 2021 roster, 130 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers. Five sixth-year "super seniors" on Clemson's 2021 roster were on the 2016 team that recovered from a home loss to Pitt by winning the national championship that season.

- Clemson (29) winning a 30th straight home game to record the 24th home winning streak of 30 games or more in FBS history.

- Clemson (29) attempting to tie 1928-33 Tennessee, 1952-61 Auburn and 1994-99 Florida (30 each) for the 21st-longest home winning streak in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to add to its national-best 48-1 record at home in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Clemson attempting to earn its 34th all-time victory against Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech is one of 11 schools against whom Clemson has earned at least 30 all-time victories (South Carolina, Wake Forest, North Carolina State, Furman, Virginia, North Carolina, Duke, Maryland, Presbyterian and The Citadel).

- Clemson attempting to win its seventh consecutive game against Georgia Tech, dating to a 43-24 home win in 2015. It would extend Clemson's longest winning streak in the all-time series, as the current six-game streak already surpassed four-game winning streaks across the 1898-1903 seasons and the 1993-96 campaigns.

- Clemson attempting to win a seventh straight home contest against Georgia Tech, dating back to 2010. The current six-game home winning streak against the Yellow Jackets is already Clemson's longest such streak in the series history.

- Clemson attempting to record its 17th all-time home win against Georgia Tech.

- Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 10-5 all-time against Georgia Tech, including postseason play. Georgia Tech would become the fourth school against which Swinney has recorded double-digit victories (Boston College, 12; Wake Forest, 12; NC State, 10).

- Swinney attempting to win an 86th ACC regular season game to break a tie with George Welsh for second-most regular season conference wins in ACC history.

- Swinney attempting to earn his 142nd career win to tie Steve Spurrier for the sixth-most wins through the first 15 years of a coaching career in FBS history. Of note, Swinney is only in his 14th season (including an interim season in 2008).

- Clemson playing its first conference game of the season against the Yellow Jackets for the fourth time in a six-year span (2016, 2018, 2019 and 2021). Clemson is 42-25-1 all-time in ACC season debuts, including a 10-2 mark against Georgia Tech in those games.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 43-25-1 in conference openers since joining the ACC.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 53-3 against ACC opponents (including postseason play) since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 34-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. That figure includes games against traditional Coastal opponents in a divisionless season in 2020. Clemson has won 19 of its last 20 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 25-1 in September games since 2015. Clemson and Alabama are currently tied for the best September record in that span at 24-1 each.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 69-4 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to win a 36th consecutive game against teams unranked in the AP Poll. Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad came in 2017 at Syracuse. Clemson is 109-12 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson entering the game having not surrendered a defensive touchdown this season. The only touchdown allowed by Clemson this year came on a pick-six against Georgia.

- Clemson attempting to hold three consecutive offenses out of the end zone for the first time since 1990 (Appalachian State, Duke and Georgia).

- Clemson attempting to not allow an offensive touchdown in all of the first three games of a season for the first time since 1950, when Clemson shut out Presbyterian, Missouri and NC State in the season's first three contests.

- Clemson attempting to hold three consecutive opponents under 275 yards for the first time since a four-game stretch against Florida State, Louisville, Boston College and Wofford in 2019.

- Clemson attempting to hold an opponent to 10 or fewer points for the fifth time in six games, dating back to last season.

- Clemson, which held SC State to nine first downs a week ago, attempting to hold consecutive opponents to single-digit first downs for the first time since last year's Miami and Georgia Tech games.

- Clemson attempting to hold a third consecutive opponent to 150 or fewer passing yards for the first time since a six-game streak in the middle of the 2019 season. It would be Clemson's first time doing so in the first three games of a season since 2000 against The Citadel, Missouri and Wake Forest.

- Clemson attempting to produce back-to-back 500-yard games offensively for the first time since last year's Miami and Georgia Tech games.

- Clemson attempting to score 40 or more points in consecutive games for the first time since a three-game streak against Notre Dame, Pitt and Virginia Tech last season.

- Clemson attempting to compile 600 yards of offense against Georgia Tech for a third consecutive meeting between the two teams. Clemson has accrued 632 and 671 yards, respectively, in the teams' last two meetings. It would represent Clemson's first time recording 600 yards in three consecutive meetings with a single opponent.

- Clemson attempting to rush for five touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since 2019 (vs. Wofford and NC State).

- Clemson attempting to hold consecutive opponents without a sack for the first time since the 2018 season finale against Alabama and 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon attempting to become the first Clemson running back with a receiving touchdown in consecutive games since his position coach, C.J. Spiller, against Florida State and NC State in 2009.

- Placekicker B.T. Potter (253 career points) needing eight points to tie or nine points to pass Chris Gardocki (261 from 1988-90) for 10th-most career points in Clemson history.

- Potter (33 career field goals) needing one more field goal to enter the Top 10 in Clemson history in career field goals.

- Potter (154 career PATs) needing 10 more PATs to tie Aaron Hunt (164 from 2000-03) for third in Clemson history in career PATs.

- Potter entering the game with five career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is presently tied for the school record for career 50-yard field goals with Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross attempting to catch a touchdown pass in consecutive games for the first time since 2019 against South Carolina and Virginia.

- Ross (1,943) needing 57 receiving yards to become the 16th player in school history to reach 2,000 career receiving yards.

- Ross (18) needing one receiving touchdown to tie current Clemson graduate assistant Artavis Scott (19 from 2014-16) for seventh-most career receiving touchdowns in school history.

- Ross (18) needing two receiving touchdowns to join DeAndre Hopkins (27 from 2010-12), Sammy Watkins (27 from 2011-13), Tee Higgins (27 from 2017-19), Mike Williams (21 from 2013-16), Aaron Kelly (20 from 2005-08) and Deon Cain (20 from 2015-17) as on the only players in Clemson history with at least 20 career receiving touchdowns.

- Running back Will Shipley attempting to become the first Clemson true freshman with a rushing touchdown in back-to-back games since Lyn-J Dixon against Wake Forest and NC State in 2018.

- Shipley attempting to become the first Clemson player to rush for multiple touchdowns in multiple games as a true freshman since Travis Etienne (three) in 2017. To date, Etienne (three in 2017) and Deshaun Watson (two in 2014) are the only true freshmen to accomplish the feat in the Dabo Swinney era.

- Punter Will Spiers starting his 59th game to add to his school record for career starts broken last week. Wide receiver/holder Will Swinney's career total as Clemson's primary holder parallels Spiers' run as starting punter.

- Spiers, Swinney and linebacker James Skalski each playing in their 59th career games to tie the school record for most career games played shared by tight end Cannon Smith (2015-18), defensive tackle Christian Wilkins (2015-18), safety Tanner Muse (2016-19) and safety K'Von Wallace (2016-19).

- Quarterback DJ Uigalelei entering the game having thrown for 300 yards in two of his four career starts. He is already one of only 13 Clemson quarterbacks with a 300-yard passing game to their credit and one of only seven with multiple 300-yard passing games. Another 300-yard passing game would be his third and would bring him within one of tying his position coach — Passing Game Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach Brandon Streeter (four) — for fifth-most in school history.

- Uigalelei attempting to score a rushing touchdown in back-to-back games for the second time in his career (vs. Boston College and at Notre Dame in 2020).

- Uigalelei attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in consecutive games since Kelly Bryant's three-game streak in September 2017.

SERIES HISTORY VS. GEORGIA TECH

Georgia Tech holds a 51-33-2 lead in the series against Clemson, but Clemson has a 22-17 lead since Georgia Tech joined the ACC prior to the 1983 football season.

Clemson has won a program-record six in a row against Georgia Tech. Prior to the current six-game winning streak, Clemson had won four in a row over the Yellow Jackets just three times, including the first four games of the series from 1898-1903 as well as a four-game stretch from 1993-96.

Dabo Swinney was already the first Clemson coach to beat Georgia Tech four consecutive times and will attempt to push that streak to seven with a win this year. Clemson had multiple coaches in the two Clemson four-game winning streaks in the series predating the current streak.

The series dates to a 23-0 Clemson win in Augusta, Ga. in 1898, just the 11th game in Clemson football history. Clemson won the first four games of the series, including games in 1902 and 1903 when John Heisman was at the helm. Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 73-0, in Atlanta in 1903 with Heisman as head coach. Heisman then left Clemson to become Georgia Tech's head coach.

SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

- Every game between the two teams between 1907-74 was held in Atlanta. Clemson's only wins in those 36 meetings came in 1907, 1936, 1945 and 1969, the last of which was Frank Howard's final season as head coach. Howard won just twice (1945 and 1969) in his career in Atlanta, but Clemson made the trip every year to help balance the athletic department budget. Howard was also athletic director his entire time as head coach (1940-69).

- The two teams have played on a neutral site just three times. Clemson won a 23-0 victory in 1898 in Augusta, Ga. and earned a 41-5 win in Greenville, S.C. in 1899. Georgia Tech won a later-vacated ACC title game in Tampa in 2009, 39-34.

- The first time Georgia Tech played at Memorial Stadium in Clemson was 1974, a 21-17 Clemson victory. Clemson won that game on a three-yard touchdown pass from Mike O'Cain (later a head coach at NC State) to All-America tight end Bennie Cunningham with 8:26 left.

- Woodrow Dantzler had one of the best all-around games of his career with 164 yards rushing and 254 yards passing in Clemson's victory in Atlanta in 2001. He threw for two scores and ran for two, including a 38-yard "Hail Mary Run" on the last play of the first half to cut Tech's lead to 19-14 at intermission. His 63-yard scoring pass to J.J. McKelvey with 1:58 left put Clemson ahead by three, but Tech tied the count with a 20-yard field goal with just six seconds left. Dantzler's "walk-off" 11-yard touchdown in overtime gave Clemson the win.

- Clemson has had just five games in its history in which both teams scored in the 40s. The first two took place at Georgia Tech. Tech won, 45-42, in 1999 and Clemson won, 47-44, in overtime in 2001 in Atlanta.

- One of the most unusual statistical occurrences in Clemson history took place during Clemson's 33-12 victory over Georgia Tech in 1987 at Clemson. Clemson entered the game with a streak of 999 consecutive combined punt returns and kickoff returns without a touchdown dating to 1970. Then, on the 1,000th return, Donnell Woolford raced 78 yards with a punt return for a touchdown. Then, later in the game Joe Henderson returned a kickoff return 95 yards for a touchdown. It is one of just two games in Clemson history that the Tigers have returned a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown. The other took place in 2009 when Clemson defeated Middle Tennessee State.

- C.J. Spiller had arguably the best game of his Clemson career against Georgia Tech in the 2009 ACC Championship Game. The unanimous All-American had a career-high 233 yards rushing in 20 attempts and scored four touchdowns. He had 301 all-purpose yards and was named the MVP of the game even though Clemson lost 39-34. It is the only time a player on the losing team has been named the MVP of any conference championship game.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 73, Georgia Tech 7

(Oct. 17, 2020, Atlanta, Ga.)

ATLANTA — Clemson piled up 52 points in the first half behind five touchdown passes from quarterback Trevor Lawrence in the top-ranked Tigers' 73-7 win over Georgia Tech. Clemson pushed its school-best road winning streak to 14 games and its ACC-record regular season winning streak to 34 games.

Clemson's 52 points were its most in a first half against an ACC opponent, breaking its previous record of 49 against Wake Forest in 1981. Lawrence completed 22-of-27 passes for 391 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone. Lawrence finished with a career-best 404 yards through the air.

Wide receiver Amari Rodgers found the end zone twice and recorded the third 100-yard game of his career in a career-high 161-yard performance. Running back Travis Etienne recorded a touchdown on 11 rushing attempts for 44 yards, giving him a touchdown in 40 of his 48 career games to that point.

The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled five sacks. It marked the 11th straight game Clemson recorded multiple sacks.

Clemson opened the scoring when Lawrence found Cornell Powell for a five-yard touchdown. The Yellow Jackets responded with a 59-yard touchdown pass to even the score at 7-7.

The Tigers came back on the first play of their ensuing possession with an 83-yard bomb of their own from Lawrence to Rodgers to start their run of 66 unanswered points. The play was the longest of Clemson's season and the second-longest connection between the pair.

After a fourth down stop by the Tiger defense, Lawrence delivered a 34-yard touchdown pass to Davis Allen for his second career touchdown reception and second in as many weeks to give Clemson a 24-7 advantage.

Defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney got in on the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The Tigers would add three more second quarter touchdowns, scored by Frank Ladson, Jr., Travis Etienne and Rodgers before entering halftime with a commanding 52-7 lead. Etienne's three-yard rushing touchdown gave him 408 career points which broke Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404.

Cheer Mellusi, Kobe Pace and Ajou Ajou would add second half touchdowns. Pace's was the first of his career and came on Hunter Helms's first career touchdown pass. Ajou's touchdown marked the first of his career. The Tigers defense closed out the game as Clemson cruised to its sixth consecutive victory over the Yellow Jackets.

RECORD DAY IN 'THE A' LAST YEAR

Clemson's 73-7 win at Georgia Tech in 2020 resonated historically. Among the superlatives from that contest:

- Clemson's 66-point victory margin was the largest in a game between two ACC teams since the conference's inception in 1953.

- The 66-point victory margin tied for Clemson's seventh-largest in school history and its largest since a 66-point win against South Carolina State in 2014. It was Clemson's second-largest win all-time against a school presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision, trailing only a 73-0 victory against Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson's 73 points represented Clemson's third-most against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing its 82-point performance against Wake Forest in 1981 and its 77 points against Louisville in 2018. However, both of those performances came at home, so Clemson's output against Georgia Tech was the most scored by Clemson in an ACC road game all-time, passing its 63 at Wake Forest in 2018.

- Clemson's 73 points tied for Clemson's second-most points in a road game in school history, trailing its 94 against Furman in 1915 and matching its 73 at Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson opened the game with a modern-era school-record 52 points in the first half. Clemson's previous high against an ACC opponent in a first half was 49 in its opening two frames against Wake Forest in its national championship campaign in 1981.

- Clemson produced 473 yards in the first half, only 14 yards shy of the school record for yards in a half (487 vs. Duke in 2012).

- Clemson tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the second quarter, matching its second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981 and its third quarter against North Carolina in 2011.

- Clemson threw seven passing touchdowns, breaking the school record of six set previously against Central Michigan in 2007, against Duke in 2012, against North Carolina in 2014 and against South Carolina in 2016.

- Four different players (including starting punter and emergency quarterback Will Spiers) completed at least two passes and 17 different players caught a pass to contribute to the Tigers' second 500-yard passing day in school history. Clemson's 17 different players recording a reception were its most in a single-game under Dabo Swinney.

- Walk-on quarterback Hunter Helms threw two touchdown passes, becoming only the third quarterback who joined Clemson as an original walk-on since 1954 to throw a touchdown pass, joining Nick Schuessler (three touchdown passes in 2016) and Donny McElveen (one in 2010). Helms and Schuessler are the only original walk-on quarterbacks to throw multiple touchdown passes in a game for Clemson, as Helms' two-touchdown game at Georgia Tech joined Schuessler's two-touchdown performance against Syracuse in 2016. However, Schuessler had been placed on scholarship by that point of his career, making Helms the first Clemson quarterback to throw two touchdown passes in a game while still on walk-on status.

LAST MEETING IN CLEMSON

Clemson 52, Georgia Tech 14

(Aug. 29, 2019, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. – Behind a then-career-high 205 rushing yards from Travis Etienne, No. 1 Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 52-14, at Memorial Stadium on a Thursday night. Clemson rushed for 411 yards, the most in a season-opener since 1957 and the most allowed by Georgia Tech since 1975. The victory was Clemson's 16th in a row, dating to the start of the 2018 season.

The Thursday night game, which debuted the new ACC Network, was the earliest game in school history. Etienne found the end zone three times, rushing for 205 yards on just 12 carries.

The highlight of the night for both the Tigers and Etienne came on a career-long 90-yard touchdown run in the opening quarter, the longest run in Memorial Stadium history and tied for the longest run in school history. Quarterback Trevor Lawrence opened the scoring for the Tigers with a six-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Lawrence completed 13-of-23 passes for 168 yards and one touchdown.

Wide receiver Tee Higgins finished with four catches for 98 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown from Lawrence with 4:34 to go in the first half to put Clemson ahead 28-0. Higgins upped his touchdown streak to five-straight games.

The Clemson defense forced four turnovers, with Tanner Muse and Denzel Johnson recording interceptions. The four turnovers were the most the Tigers forced since 2015 against Notre Dame. Isaiah Simmons led the defense with 10 tackles in the first game of his Butkus Award-winning campaign.

CLEMSON IN ACC OPENERS

The 2021 season marks Clemson's 69th year of membership in the ACC, dating back to the conference's first year of play in 1953. In its previous 68 seasons of ACC membership, Clemson has posted a 42-25-1 record in conference openers.

Clemson has won its last six ACC openers, including road victories at Louisville in 2015 and 2017, road wins at Georgia Tech in 2016 and 2018, and season-opening wins in 2019 (vs. Georgia Tech) and 2020 (at Wake Forest). The 2019 conference opener broke a streak of seven consecutive years that Clemson had to travel to open ACC play. This year will represent only the second time in 10 years that Clemson will open ACC play at home.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 8-4 in ACC openers at Clemson, with all four losses coming to Top 20 opponents, including No. 15 Georgia Tech in 2009, No. 16 Miami (Fla.) in 2010, No. 4 Florida State in 2012 and No. 1 Florida State in 2014. Three of those four contests were on the road.

The Tigers are seeking a seventh consecutive victory in conference openers, which would add to the longest streak in school history. With a win on Saturday, the 2021 senior class would become the eighth senior class in Clemson history to win all four of its ACC openers, joining 4-0 records posted by the 1983, 1984, 1989, 2005, 2018, 2019 and 2020 senior classes in ACC debuts.

The state of Georgia has produced each of Clemson's last two Heisman Trophy finalists. Deshaun Watson set Georgia state high school records for total offense yards, passing yards and touchdowns during his four-year tenure at Gainesville High School. His marks for passing yards and touchdowns would later be broken by Cartersville High School's Trevor Lawrence. Though their Clemson tenures did not overlap, the prodigious Peach State quarterback duo combined for 66 wins as starters, six 10-win seasons, five College Football Playoff berths, four National Championship Game appearances and two national titles in their respective eras at Clemson spanning 2014-20 (excluding 2017).

Including Homer Jordan, an Athens, Ga. native who started at quarterback for Clemson's 1981 national title team, all three starting quarterbacks for Clemson's three national championship squads have hailed from the Peach State. Georgia-raised signal callers have also played a significant role in Clemson's in-state rivalry, as starting quarterbacks from Georgia are 17-0 for Clemson against rival South Carolina since 1979. Clemson's last starting quarterback from Georgia to lose to the Gamecocks was Billy Lott (Jessup, Ga.) in 1979.

Including Jordan, Watson and Lawrence, Georgia has been a key pipeline for many of Clemson's best squads. Clemson's 1981 national championship team featured 22 players from the state of Georgia. Clemson's 2016 national championship team had 19 Georgians on the roster. Clemson's 2018 national championship squad included 21 Georgia natives, including six players who started that year's 44-16 national title game win against Alabama.

FOOTBALL REUNION DAY

After last year's Football Reunion Day was postponed during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson will celebrate multiple anniversary teams on Saturday, including squads celebrating anniversaries of five years, 10 years, 25 years and 50 years in 2020 or 2021.

Included below from Clemson historian and former Clemson SID Tim Bourret are overviews of the anniversary teams being honored on Saturday.

- 1970 (50-year anniversary in 2020): The 1970 Clemson squad ushered in a new era, as it was the first football team in 30 years that was not coached by Frank Howard. Hootie Ingram's first team won its first two games, including a comeback 27-17 win over Virginia. The season featured the greatest return game by an individual in ACC history, as Don Kelley had a still-ACC-record 223 return yards on 167 punt return yards and 56 interception return yards against Maryland on Halloween. The 167 punt return yards are still 41 yards more than any player in Clemson history.

- 1971 (50-year anniversary in 2021): Hootie Ingram's second Clemson team won five of its last eight games, and two of the losses were to fifth-ranked Auburn and 19th-ranked North Carolina. A 3-0 win over 14th-ranked Duke was certainly a highlight in addition to a 17-7 win at South Carolina that closed the season. Future Super Bowl Champion John McMakin was the top receiver from his tight end position. The defense featured a secondary that was led by Ben Anderson, Marion Reeves and Bobby Johnson, who had four interceptions apiece. Only three Clemson teams in the last 50 years have had three defenders with at least four interceptions.

- 1995 (25-year anniversary in 2020): Tommy West's second Clemson team was his best. The Tigers finished 8-4 that year, including a five-game winning streak to end the regular season that moved the Tigers into the AP Top 25 and the Gator Bowl. The winning streak included victories over Maryland, Georgia Tech and North Carolina, teams that finished the year with a winning record. The Tigers defeated rival South Carolina, 38-17, in Columbia thanks to a dominant 323 rushing yards. The 1995 Tigers finished the year 5-0 on the road, the only Clemson team to do that between 1981 and 2015.

- 1996 (25-year anniversary in 2021): Clemson's 7-5 team of 1996 featured the running of Raymond Priestner, who gained 1,345 yards on the ground, now fourth-best in Clemson history. The Tigers started 2-3, then posted a five-game winning streak that included wins over 22nd-ranked Georgia Tech and a road win over 15th-ranked Virginia. The Tigers defeated NC State, 40-17, in the final ACC game to finish second in the ACC behind Florida State. The Clemson defense that year included first-round draft choices Anthony Simmons (178 tackles), Trevor Pryce (20 tackles for loss) and Antwan Edwards (83 tackles).

- 2010 (10-year anniversary in 2020): Clemson's 2010 team set the tone for the culture of Dabo Swinney's program despite finishing one game under .500. The team lost five games by a touchdown or less, including a five-point bowl game loss to South Florida in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Seniors, led by current staff member DeAndre McDaniel, did not hang their heads, and went around the locker room encouraging the returning players to work hard and not let that season happen again. Said Bourret, "I will always believe this act jump-started the program on its current streak of 10 consecutive 10-win seasons."

- 2011 (10-year anniversary in 2021): The 2011 Clemson team broke a lot of streaks. At the forefront was Clemson's first ACC Championship in 20 seasons, a 38-10 win over third-ranked Virginia Tech. That win also gave Clemson its first 10-win season in 21 years. Thanks to wins over ranked teams, including defending national champion Auburn (ended 17-game winning streak), Florida State and 10th-ranked Virginia Tech on the road, Dabo Swinney's team started the year 8-0 and reached No. 6 in the nation. It marked the first time an ACC team had three straight wins over AP Top 20 teams.

- 2015 (five-year anniversary in 2020): The 2015 team will be remembered as the team that brought Clemson to its first College Football Playoff. The season included a 24-22 win over sixth-ranked Notre Dame in a driving rainstorm in early October, a 58-0 win at Miami that led the Hurricanes to change coaches, a 23-13 win over 15th-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee, and an ACC Championship win over eighth-ranked North Carolina in the ACC Championship Game. Clemson then defeated third-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to advance to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

- 2016 (five-year anniversary in 2021): "It's been 35 years. It's finally coming home." Those were the words of linebacker Ben Boulware during the trophy presentation after Clemson defeated No. 1 Alabama, 35-31, to win its first National Championship since 1981. The Tigers won a school record seven games by a touchdown or less in running up its 14-1 record. A key win was a 42-36 victory over third-ranked Louisville that was a battle of Heisman Trophy finalists Lamar Jackson and Deshaun Watson. The Tigers defeated No. 2 Ohio State, 31-0, in the semifinal, the first shutout of the Buckeyes program since 1993.

ON THIS DATE

- Sept. 18, 1954: Clemson Head Cheerleader George Bennett fired a cannon after each Tiger score. The cannon was purchased by Bennett's father and became a staple in the years to come.

- Sept. 18, 1965: Hugh Mauldin scored on a 2-yard run on Clemson's opening drive as the Tigers opened the 1965 season with a 21-7 win against NC State. Prior to the game, an impromptu line of students flanked

Clemson's players en route from the dressing room to the field. Said Coach Frank Howard, "I don't know who was responsible for the students lining up to welcome us, but thank them for me, will you? I didn't see anyone I knew, but I know why they were there. It meant a lot to me." Linebacker Bill Hecht added, "You just cannot imagine how great it makes one feel to be backed in such a manner."

- Sept. 18, 2010: Clemson lost a 27-24 overtime contest at Auburn, the closest Auburn came to suffering a loss in 2010. Auburn won the national title with a 14-0 record. Andre Ellington had 140 rushing yards and Kyle Parker passed for 220 yards to lead the Clemson offense, while DaQuan Bowers had four tackles for loss.

- Overall: Clemson is 4-3 all-time in games contested on Sept. 18, including wins against Erskine (1926), Presbyterian (1937 and 1954) and NC State (1965).

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. SC STATE

- Clemson held SC State without an offensive touchdown. Clemson has not surrendered a defensive touchdown through the first two games of the season, Clemson's first time doing so in the first two games of the season since holding Kent State and Auburn out of the end zone to open 2017.

- Clemson has now held opponents to 10 or fewer points four times in its last five games, dating back to last season.

- Clemson allowed only 235 yards and has now held consecutive opponents under 275 yards for the first time since the Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech games last season.

- Clemson finished with 504 total yards, its 68th 500-yard game under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 66-2 in those contests.

- Clemson exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards, the 54th such occurrence by Clemson under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is undefeated when reaching the 200-yard mark in both categories under Swinney.

- Clemson scored 28 first-quarter points, tied for the third-most first-quarter points in Clemson history. It was Clemson's sixth time scoring 28 or more points in a first quarter in school history. All six have occurred under Dabo Swinney, including four since the start of the 2019 season.

- Clemson scored a touchdown on each of its first four possessions, its first such performance since doing so against The Citadel in the second game of 2020.

- Trailing 35-0, South Carolina State scored a field goal with 19 seconds left in the first half that ended a run of 94 straight points for Clemson in its series with the Bulldogs. Clemson won the teams' most recent meeting prior to Saturday by a score of 59-0 in 2016.

- All of Clemson's points came on offense. Previously, Clemson had scored at least one non-offensive touchdown in all four previous games against SC State all-time.

- Clemson's five rushing touchdowns were its most in a game since 2019 at NC State (five).

- Clemson won the game despite finishing -2 in the turnover margin. Clemson has been able to post a 6-1 record when finishing -2 or worse in the turnover margin since 2017, with the lone loss coming at Notre Dame last season.

- On preliminary count, Clemson played 102 players in the game, the third-most in Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, trailing 111 vs. Charlotte in 2019 and 105 vs. Wofford in 2019.

- Clemson did not allow a sack. It was Clemson's second time in five games dating to last season that it has held an opponent without a sack (at Virginia Tech in 2020).

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 14-of-24 passes for 171 yards with one touchdown. He also rushed five times for 23 yards with two rushing touchdowns.

- Uiagalelei's 171 yards rank as the second-best passing performance for a Tiger against SC State in five games in the all-time series. Current Clemson support staff member Cole Stoudt passed for the most in a game in the series, throwing for 302 yards against SC State in 2014.

- Uiagalelei's two rushing touchdowns tied his career high, set against The Citadel last season.

- The two rushing touchdowns were Uiagalelei's first two of the season and pushed his career rushing touchdown total to six.

- Uiagalelei opened the scoring on a four-yard rushing touchdown on Clemson's opening drive. Clemson improved to 59-2 when scoring first since 2015.

- The touchdown marked the third straight season that Clemson's first touchdown of the season came via a quarterback rush, as Trevor Lawrence scored Clemson's first touchdown of both the 2019 and 2020 seasons on the ground.

- With Uiagalelei's second rushing touchdown of the game, Clemson eclipsed 1,500 points scored (42.2 per game) against FCS opponents all-time.

- Running back Will Shipley recorded his first career touchdown on a seven-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

- Shipley added his second touchdown of the day on a 13-yard scoring run in the third quarter. He became the first Clemson true freshman with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since his teammate, Lyn-J Dixon, rushed for two touchdowns at Wake Forest in 2018.

- Shipley's team-high 80 rushing yards ranked as the third-best rushing performance for a Tiger against SC State in five games in the all-time series. James Davis rushed for 95 yards in 2008 and Tavien Feaster rushed for 83 yards in 2016.

- Running back Kobe Pace added his first career rushing touchdown on a two-yard run in the first quarter. The lone touchdown of Pace's career prior to Saturday came via reception at Georgia Tech in 2020.

- Wide receiver Justyn Ross recorded his first touchdown reception of the season in the first quarter. It was his first touchdown since the 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia prior to missing the 2020 season.

- The receiving touchdown was Ross' 19th of his career, tying tight ends Glenn Smith (18 from 1949-51) and Jordan Leggett (18 from 2013-16) for eighth-most career receiving touchdowns in Clemson history.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon recorded his first career receiving touchdown, a 14-yard catch-and-run on a pass from Taisun Phommachanh in the third quarter.

- The passing touchdown was Phommachanh's first of his career, and it came in the same end zone he was driving toward when he tore his Achilles 161 days earlier during Clemson's spring game on April 3, 2021.

- Phommachanh finished 7-of-10 for 75 yards with a touchdown in his season debut.

- Wide receiver Beaux Collins recorded his first career reception in the third quarter. He caught the pass from his high school teammate, Uigalelei. He finished the contest with three catches for 36 yards.

- A total of 13 different Clemson players caught a pass, one shy of tying for Clemson's fifth-most in a game under Dabo Swinney.

- Safety R.J. Mickens recorded his first career interception in the second quarter.

- Linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr. recorded his first career sack.

- Punt returner Will Taylor recorded a 51-yard punt return in the first quarter. The 51-yard return was the longest by a Clemson player since a 53-yard return by Amari Rodgers against Wake Forest in 2019.

- With seven points Saturday, kicker B.T. Potter (253) became the 12th player in school history to reach 250 career points. He is the eighth Clemson player to reach 250 kicking points.

- On his third PAT of the game, Potter (154) joined Greg Huegel (217 from 2015-18), Chandler Catanzaro (203 from 2010-13) and Aaron Hunt (164 from 2000-03) as the only players in school history to convert 150 career PATs.

- The game was Clemson's 121st home opener in its 126-year program history, as there were five seasons in which Clemson did not play a game at home.

- Punter Will Spiers started his 58th game to break the school record held by tackle Mitch Hyatt (57 from 2015-18). Will Swinney has also served as Clemson's primary holder in 58 games as well.

- Spiers, Swinney and linebacker James Skalski each played in their 58th career games to tie tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015-18), tight end Milan Richard (2015-18) and linebacker Chad Smith, (2016-19) for fifth in school history.

- Captains for the contest were offensive lineman Matt Bockhorst, defensive end Justin Foster, defensive end K.J. Henry and running back Darien Rencher.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson improved to 96-17-8 in home openers all-time.

- Clemson won its 18th straight home debut, breaking Clemson's longest winning streak in home openers all-time (17 from 1944-60).

- Clemson improved to 5-0 in its all-time series with South Carolina State. Clemson previously earned wins against SC State in 2008, 2013, 2014 and 2016.

- Clemson improved to 36-0 against Football Championship Subdivision teams since the NCAA formed the division prior to the 1978 season.

- Clemson improved its national-best record at home in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014) to 48-1.

- Clemson won its 29th consecutive home game to extend its school record for both the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history (as well as extend the nation's longest active home winning streak). Of the 135 players on Clemson's 2021 roster, 130 have never experienced a home loss in their Clemson careers.

- With the 29th straight home victory, Clemson pulled within one home win of recording the 24th home winning streak of 30 games or more in FBS history.

- With Ohio State's home loss earlier in the day, Clemson stands as one of only three schools with an active home winning streak of 20 games or longer (Notre Dame and Cincinnati).

- Clemson improved to 27-7 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson has now won 88 of its last 90 games, including each of its last 51, when leading at halftime. Clemson is also 110-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson improved to 109-2 when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson is now 69-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 54-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson improved to 24-1 in September games since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 68-4 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson won a 35th consecutive game against teams unranked in the AP Poll. Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad came in 2017 at Syracuse. Clemson is now 109-12 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney

- Clemson won its 23rd consecutive home non-conference game, the longest such winning streak in program history. Clemson's last loss at Death Valley in non-conference play was in 2012.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's six-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins in that span, with the two teams combining for five out of six national championships in that time frame.

4.	Ohio State	69	9	.885
5.	Georgia	64	17	.790
	Appalachian State	64	16	.800

Clemson won 69 games during the 2015-19 seasons, the most in a five-year period in the AP Poll era (since 1936). Clemson's accounts for three of the six best five-year runs in terms of total wins in the AP Poll era.

14-WIN SEASONS

There have been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

12-WIN SEASONS

Prior to a 10-game regular season impacted by COVID-19 in 2020, Clemson had won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2021 riding a streak of 10 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least 10 straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 17 10-win seasons in school history, with 10 coming under head coach Dabo Swinney.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Each of Clemson's last four senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 12 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

"A"NOTHER "C"LEMSON "C"HAMPIONSHIP

With its sixth straight conference title last year, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15.

Clemson was the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 26 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

Clemson Football's sixth straight conference title extended a program record and tied for the third-longest ACC championship streak in Clemson Athletics history.

The record is eight in a row by Clemson's men's soccer program between 1972-79. Dr. I.M. Ibrahim was Clemson's coach for all eight of those titles. Ibrahim also led Clemson to national titles in 1984 and 1987 and sits aside Dabo Swinney as the only Clemson coaches in any sport to win two national championships.

Chuck Kriese took the Tigers men's tennis program to seven straight titles from 1983-89. The Clemson women's tennis program won six straight between 1982-87. Mary King won the first title and Andy Johnston won the last five in that run.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

That includes 13 wins against Power Five opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last four recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson and LSU are the only teams in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson.

Clemson, LSU and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson, Georgia and USC (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 11 recruiting cycles, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is six (Florida).

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings for signing smaller recruiting classes as a function of lower attrition than other programs, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson finished 13th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-17 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average, a ratings bump of nearly 10 full spots. Each of those Clemson classes won at least 50 games in their four-year window.

IN SEARCH OF WIN NO. 150

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 141-34 in 175 career games and needs nine more wins to reach 150 career victories.

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 15 have ever reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less. Fourteen of the 15 are College Football Hall of Famers, with the 15th — Urban Meyer — likely to be inducted upon meeting eligibility requirements.

Note: Includes victories at all levels recognized by the NCAA; must record five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach to qualify; Swinney (141-34 in 175 games) and Kansas' Lance Leipold (147-40 in 187 games) can add themselves to the list in 2021.

The fastest Swinney could reach 150 victories would be 184 games if Clemson were to win its next nine games. That would tie him with Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno as the fourth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins and the third-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, is the only coach to reach 150 career wins as Clemson's head coach. He recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

According to data furnished by Sports Reference, only five active coaches have recorded at least 150 career victories as an FBS coach (excluding wins coaching at other levels). All five needed at least 200 games to reach 150 career wins, led by TCU's Gary Patterson, who recorded win No. 150 in his 204th career game.

Notes: Coaches with 150+ FBS wins entering 2021 included; Kelly reached 150 total wins across all levels in 207 games including his time at Division II Grand Valley State, but coached 209 at FBS programs before earning 150 FBS wins; Brown reached 150 wins across all levels in 243 games including his time at then-Division I-AA Appalachian State, but coached 239 games at FBS programs before earning 150 FBS wins.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 13+ SEASONS

Dabo Swinney is tied for the seventh-most wins through the first 15 years of a head coaching career in FBS history.

The most impressive part of that? Swinney is in only his 14th season (and his 13th full season) in 2021.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last six seasons, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Nick Saban's Final Four history includes three championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and two semifinal losses.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet is also illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represents the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 19th overall season at Clemson in 2021, including his 13th full season as head coach (and his 14th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2020, there have been nearly 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

A year ago, Clemson opened the 2020 season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 represented the sixth straight year in which Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (14 from 2008-21) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Note: Alabama already extended its streak in 2021. Clemson was No. 1 for nine polls in 2020 and can extend its streak with at least one appearance at No. 1 in 2021. Those two schools represent the only programs with active streaks at No. 1.

Clemson has played 22 games all-time as the nation's No. 1-ranked team in the AP Poll, tied with mid-century powerhouse Army for 14th-most in poll history. Twenty-one of those games have been coached by Dabo Swinney, 17th-most all-time.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Seventeen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the incoming freshmen, all of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Much like Clemson's recruiting classes that have delivered above national expectation (see "Sign and Develop" section above), Clemson's current decade of 10-win seasons has been built upon exceeding national expectations.

While Clemson's national cache has resulted in elevated preseason perches in recent years, prior to 2019, Clemson equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings in eight straight seasons. That included little margin for error in both 2016 and 2018, as Clemson finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its USA Today coaches poll preseason ranking eight straight years from 2011-18, the longest such streak in poll history.

Clemson is also 12-6 (.667) against AP Top 10 opponents in that time frame, one of only five teams in college football to produce double-digit wins against Top 10 foes in that span.

Clemson's success hasn't been limited to teams ranked at the time of the game. Since 2015, Clemson's 52 wins against teams that finish above .500 leads the nation and its .882 in winning percentage against teams that finish the season above .500 ranks second.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With six consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than:

- All 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 28 of 31 NHL teams
- 28 of 30 NBA teams

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 117 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only six teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's six:

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

After opening the 2020 season as the preseason No. 1, Clemson held firm as the nation's No. 1 team in the AP Poll until Nov. 8, 2020, when the Tigers dropped to No. 4 following a double-overtime loss at Notre Dame. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, though opportunities have been limited, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 26-5 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Before a loss to Georgia to open 2021, Clemson had won its previous 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is also 27-7 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history. Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011.

STREAKS OF EXCELLENCE

Included below are a number of additional historically profound streaks presently being produced by Clemson:

- Has won 83 of its last 91 games overall dating to 2014.
- Has won 52 of its last 55 games against ACC teams.
- Has won 88 of its last 90 games, including each of its last 51, when leading at halftime.
- Is 110-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.
- Is 59-2 when scoring first since 2015, with both losses coming in the Superdome in New Orleans.
- Has a 109-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.
- Has a 64-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Is 69-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 54-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 52-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.
- Is 52-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.
- Has won 28 of its last 30 games away from home against ACC teams.
- Has won 27 of its last 29 road games.
- Has won 43 of its last 50 games away from home.
- Has won 50 of its last 51 games at home, including a school-record 29 in a row.
- Has won 37 of its last 38 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams, including games against typical Atlantic division foes in a division-free season in 2020.
- Has won 25 of its last 26 games in September.
- Has won 27 of its last 28 games in October.
- Has won 15 of its last 16 games in November.
- Has won 14 games in a row in December.
- Has won 24 of its last 30 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season. That includes a 23-6 mark against AP Top 25 teams.
- Has won 90 of its last 91 games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010), including 89 straight prior to a season-opening 10-3 loss to Georgia in 2021.
- Has won 27 of its last 33 one-possession games since 2011, the highest winning percentage in the country in one-score games in that span.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Clemson has won 35 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad came in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 109-12 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 86 of 88 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

-- NO. 5 QB DJ UIAGALELEI --

"BIG CINCO" ON BIG STAGE

Asked for the proper pronunciation of his name, Clemson quarterback DJ Uiagalelei will walk you through the syllables of his surname of Samoan descent:

"ooh-ee-AHN-guh-luh-lay"

But he'll also offer a helpful tip:

"Or you can just call me 'Big Cinco.'"

Big Cinco is the 250-pound quarterback wearing No. 5 who assumed Clemson's starting role in 2021 after starting two games as a true freshman in the absence of Trevor Lawrence in 2020.

Uiagalelei was thrust into the starting lineup vs. Boston College in 2020 after Lawrence was diagnosed with COVID-19. With the win in his first start, Clemson improved to 20-13 all-time in games started by true freshman quarterbacks. He joined Steve Fuller, Willie Jordan, Patrick Sapp, Nealon Greene, Deshaun Watson and Lawrence as one of only seven true freshmen ever to start for Clemson at quarterback, and he joined Watson and Lawrence as the only true freshmen to win their starting debuts.

Uiagalelei impressed against Boston College as Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit to record the largest comeback win in the history of Death Valley. He completed 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards with two passing touchdowns and no interceptions, and also rushed six times for 25 yards with a rushing touchdown. His 342 passing yards were the third-most by a Clemson freshman (true or redshirt) in his starting debut, trailing Deshaun Watson's 435 yards against North Carolina in 2014 and Charlie Whitehurst's 420 yards against Duke in 2002.

A week later, Uiagalelei completed 29-of-44 passes for a career-high 439 yards with two passing touchdowns in a double-overtime contest against No. 4 Notre Dame. His 439 passing yards were the third-most in a game in school history and broke Watson's school freshman record of 435. The 439 passing yards were the most ever thrown against Notre Dame by an opposing quarterback, breaking the mark of 425 held by USC's Carson Palmer in 2002.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

Uigalelei's explosiveness in the vertical passing game and his deft decision-making in the running game made highlight reels from 2020, but his ability to protect the ball was elite in his debut season as well.

Uigalelei became only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns and no interceptions, joining Georgia Southern's Shai Werts from 2018.

Uigalelei's first career interception came on his 12th pass of the 2021 season opener, the 129th pass attempt of his career. His interception-free streak of 128 passes concluded only 37 attempts shy of the Clemson record for most pass attempts without an interception to start a career, held by Cullen Harper (first 165 passes of his career that spanned 2005-07).

He remains Clemson's career leader in interception percentage among qualified passers.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson has won 75 of its last 78 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl, followed by a 15-0 campaign in 2018 and a 14-1 season in 2019 in which its only loss was on a Monday in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Clemson then went 10-1 on Saturdays in a 10-2 season in 2020.

Before a loss to Notre Dame on Saturday, Nov. 7, 2020, you had to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,456 days prior to that Notre Dame game for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday. Clemson's 50-game Saturday winning streak was the longest winning streak in Saturday games in FBS history, surpassing the 45 straight Saturday tilts Oklahoma won in the midst of its FBS-record 47-game winning streak in the 1950s.

The Tigers' record streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

300-YARD GAMES

Despite starting only two career games prior to 2021, Uigalelei is already one of only 13 quarterbacks in Clemson history to record at least one 300-yard passing game and is one of only seven to record multiple 300-yard passing games. He is already two 300-yard games shy of tying his position coach, Brandon Streeter, for fifth in school history.

COMEBACK CINCO

Last year, Clemson trailed Boston College at home, 28-10, with 1:02 remaining in the first half. With no timeouts, Uigalelei led a 10-play, 42-yard drive in 55 seconds to get a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal before half. The drive jumpstarted Clemson's comeback 34-28 victory, as the Tigers scored 24 unanswered for the win. Of note:

- Clemson trailed by 18 points in the first half, making the win Clemson's largest home comeback victory in school history.
- The win tied for the second-largest comeback win in school history at any location, matching an 18-point comeback at Maryland in 2011, which had also stood as Clemson's largest comeback win under Dabo Swinney.

-- NO. 8 WR JUSTYN ROSS --

AN IMPACT RETURN?

Clemson's biggest impact among returning players could potentially come from one who didn't play a snap in 2020: wide receiver Justyn Ross.

Ross missed the 2020 season after surgery following the diagnosis of a congenital fusion in his spine. Ross participated in spring ball in a non-contact capacity with an eye toward full participation in fall camp, a plan that was successful in current NFL receiver and former Clemson star Mike Williams' return from a neck injury in 2016 en route to becoming the No. 7 overall pick in the NFL draft.

Ross played his first game action in exactly 600 days in the season opener against Georgia, recording Clemson's first reception of the season to a standing ovation from Clemson faithful in Charlotte and finishing with four catches for 26 yards.

Even though he missed the entire 2020 campaign, Ross is tied for eighth in school history in career touchdown receptions and is on the cusp of becoming the 16th player in school history with 2,000 career receiving yards.

Ross had two of the most productive first two seasons by a Clemson player in school history, recording 1,865 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns from 2018-19. His 17 touchdowns through two seasons were the most through two years in school history, and his 1,865 yards in those years trailed only Sammy Watkins (1,927) and Artavis Scott (1,866) during the first two years of a Clemson career.

Included below is how Ross' first two seasons stack up against the first two seasons of the players that populate Clemson's Top 10 list in career touchdown receptions.

OPPORTUNITY AWAITS

Lyn-J Dixon, a senior running back from Butler, Ga. enters his fourth season at Clemson with the largest window of opportunity of his career after the departure of ACC all-time leading rusher Travis Etienne. Despite recording fewer than 70 carries per year through his first three seasons, Dixon has averaged 6.62 yards per carry, second-most among qualified players in school history.

The only thing standing in Dixon's way from major productivity from 2018-20 was the All-American in front of him for three years wearing No. 9. With Etienne's departure, opportunity awaits for Dixon or another from Clemson's bevy of talented backs to seize the moment.

Dixon teased his explosiveness in his true freshman campaign in 2018, averaging 8.82 yards per carry. Among his five rushing touchdowns that year were scoring scampers of 65, 52 and 55 yards, and his three career rushing touchdowns of 50 yards or more are already tied for fourth-most by a Clemson player since 1950, trailing only Travis Etienne (10), C.J. Spiller (six) and Andre Ellington (six).

His 8.82-yard average in 2018 remains a Clemson single-season record among qualified players.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

From 2015-20, the Tigers produced a total of 24 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 24 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Alabama for the third-most in that span.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 40-4 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 149-62 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +87 margin in sacks since 2018 is the top differential in the country.

-- DEFENSE --

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last seven seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in all of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category).

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

Year	Yds/G	Rank	Pts/G	Rank

The defense is led by Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables, whose track record as an assistant is nearly immaculate. Teams with Venables on staff posted winning seasons in all 25 of his seasons prior to 2021, including 21 seasons with 10 wins or more. The oldest members of the 2021 Clemson defense — super seniors Nolan Turner and Regan Upshaw — were born in November of 1997. Not only does Venables not have a losing season in their lifetime, teams with him on staff won at least 10 games in 21 of those 24 seasons.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson has held opponents under 300 yards of offense 30 times since the start of the 2018 season, the most in the country.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.15 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.96 points allowed per possession since the start of the 2018 season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to FBS opponents.

Clemson's 46 sacks tied for the national lead in 2020. In doing so, Clemson past the 40-sack mark for a seventh straight season — every year of the CFP era. Clemson's seven 40-sack seasons in that time are the most in the country.

SOPHOMORE SACK PRODUCERS

Clemson entered 2020 missing two presumptive preseason starters at defensive end in Justin Foster and Xavier Thomas, perhaps leaving the uninitiated to wonder from where Clemson's pass rush might come.

America then met Myles Murphy, Bryan Bresee and Trenton Simpson, all three of whom were true freshmen in 2020.

Bresee joined Clemson as the consensus No. 1 player in America for the class of 2020. Murphy joined the Tigers as ESPN.com's third-ranked player in the class, while Simpson was 247Sports' No. 13-ranked player in the group.

It had been five years since a Clemson true freshman had recorded a sack in a season opener, when Dexter Lawrence and Tre Lamar each did so in the 2016 season opener at Auburn. Both Murphy and Bresee got on the stat sheet in the opener against Wake, with Murphy compiling two sacks among a team-high seven tackles and Bresee adding half a sack and the Tigers' first blocked field goal since Week 2 of 2018.

Bresee earned Freshman All-American in 2020, joining Lawrence as the second ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year in Clemson history. Murphy collected de-facto consensus Freshman All-America status from The Athletic, ESPN, Rivals and the Football Writers Association of America and was named ACC Co-Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press. The duo was joined by a midseason surge by Simpson, the former high school running back whose presence as an edge rusher and growth at Clemson's nickel/sam linebacker position was part of former starter Mike Jones Jr.'s decision to transfer to LSU.

All three members of the trio recorded 4.0 sacks in 2020, tying William "Refrigerator" Perry and others for third in Clemson history in sacks by a true freshman.

MOST SACKS BY A TRUE FRESHMAN (SINGLE-SEASON, CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk	Player	Season	Sacks
1.	Dexter Lawrence	2016	7.0
2.	Tyler Davis	2019	6.5
3.	Bryan Bresee	2020	4.0
	Myles Murphy	2020	4.0
	Trenton Simpson	2020	4.0
	Shaq Lawson	2013	4.0
	Ricky Sapp	2006	4.0
	William Perry	1981	4.0

Among Murphy's impact plays in 2020 were three forced fumbles. Murphy became the first Clemson true freshman in the Dabo Swinney era to record three forced fumbles in a season as well as the first Clemson freshman (true or redshirt) with three forced fumbles in a season since redshirt freshman Ed McDaniel in 1988. He tied for the national lead in forced fumbles by a freshman, and his three were the most by a freshman defensive lineman.

Meanwhile, Bresee led all FBS true freshman interior linemen in sacks, Clemson's second straight season producing the leader in that category (Tyler Davis in 2019).

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's headline defensive line is a pair of hard-hitting veteran linebackers that led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin the duo as "The Bruise Brothers."

Middle linebacker James Skalski, the only player ever to play in (and win) five ACC Championship Games, returned for his sixth season at Clemson in 2021 following an all-conference performance in 2020. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others called "the sweetest gig on the team" before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 led Swinney to call him "a war daddy" and call his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

Skalski's running mate at the second level of the defense continues to be fifth-year linebacker Baylon Spector, whose strong performances in 2020 included an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged 2020 Lou Groza Award semifinalist has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 154-for-155 on PATs, and his 122 consecutive PATs prior to his first miss shattered Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 5-for-7 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, tying Clemson's record for career field goals of 50 yards or more. His lone misses in that range came on attempts of 61 and 58 yards.

- Will Spiers, P: Already a four-year starter at punter entering his "Super Senior" campaign in 2021, Spiers already holds school records for starts by a punter, career punts, punts downed inside the 20 and total punting yards. His 2020 season was his best to date, as his 44.0-yards-per-punt average in 2020 represented the second-best single-season mark in school history. He averaged at least 50.0 yards per punt in three-straight games against Miami, Georgia Tech and Syracuse in 2020, a career-long streak and a Clemson record with a minimum of three punts per game.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter "Super Senior" among Clemson's special teams corps. The 2021 season will be Swinney's fifth as Clemson's primary holder, as he has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 473 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 466 of those 473 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 472 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only seven kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his second year as Clemson's starting long snapper after earning the job in the spring of 2020. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and in August 2020, he was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket that semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August 2020. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walk-on became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his 2020 debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

-- NOTES & NUGGETS --

PLAYERS PER GAME

Announcers, you're going to need a bigger board. In each of the last four seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. The last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

ANNUAL POWER FIVE CONFERENCE LEADER, AVERAGE PLAYERS PER GAME

Year	Leader	Avg.
2016	Ole Miss	63.6
2017	Clemson	68.4
2018	Clemson	72.5
2019	Clemson	76.0
2020	Clemson	72.0

Note: includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with Power Five conferences

Clemson has not only led the nation in that category, but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game. Clemson's lead in that category in 2020 was more than seven players per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson played 102 players against South Carolina State in the second game of the 2021 season, its third-most in a game under Dabo Swinney.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

In 2020, Clemson played 27 true freshmen, tied for the most in the country at the end of the regular season. Seventeen first-year freshman have already made their debut for Clemson this season. Coinciding with redshirt rule changes, Clemson's three most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

Clemson's previous average under Venables had been 16.5, and Clemson's two national title teams of that era in 2016 and 2018 started 16 and 15 different players, respectively.

In the season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Marcus Tate earned the nod at left guard, becoming only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015). Meanwhile, safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973. It marked only the second time in that span Clemson started two first-year freshmen in a season opener, joining the 1980 opener against Rice.

Particularly on defense, Clemson's youth from 2020 has turned into experience for 2021. Though Clemson officially returned nine primary starters from 2020, the Tigers welcomed back 20 different defenders with at least one career start, including seven defensive linemen, four linebackers, five safeties and four cornerbacks.

Said Georgia Head Coach Kirby Smart prior to his team's season opener against Clemson: "They are probably one of the best defenses I have ever seen returning in terms of number of starts and number of games played. The volume of experience is unmatched anywhere, anytime — and I have been in college football a long time — just in terms of how much football those guys have played."

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson reached the 400-yard mark in all 12 games in 2020, the second-longest streak to open a season in school history, behind only the 2018 Tigers, who reached the 400-yard mark in all 15 games of their 15-0 national championship season.

Clemson's 12 400-yard games in 2020 were second-most in the country, and its 75 400-yard games since 2015 lead the nation.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson's distribution of talent throughout its offense and its willingness to adapt to how defenses are game planning has resulted in the Tigers fielding one of the nation's more balanced offenses in recent years. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. In 2020, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 54 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 20 such games since the start of the 2018 season are tied for third-most in the country.

From 2018-20, Clemson was the only program in the country to both throw and rush for 9,000 yards in each category. Lowering the bar, Clemson was one of only six teams to reach 8,000 yards in both categories.

Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in both 2018 and 2019, two of three 3,000/3,000 seasons in school history (2015).

A LEGEND RETURNS

Among the lengthy list of moments that have led to Clemson's recent seat among college football's oligarchy, one came at Union County High School in Lake Butler, Fla. on Feb. 1, 2006. It was that day that a five-star running back named C.J. Spiller publicly supported the vision of his recruiter, a young wide receivers coach named Dabo Swinney, by committing to Clemson on National Signing Day.

Spiller spent four years building a sparkling on-field and off-field legacy at Clemson, and now, Clemson has welcomed Spiller back as one of its 10 full-time assistant coaches.

In February, 33-year-old Spiller officially assumed leadership of Clemson's running backs, a role previously held by Tony Elliott, who assumed the title of Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach.

"[Spiller] is one of the greatest ambassadors that we've had for our program for a long time and now for him to be able to come back and be able to sow seeds into these young men and teach all the things he's learned throughout his career, there's not a guy on this staff that's more committed and more ALL IN for Clemson than C.J. Spiller, that's for sure," Swinney said.

Spiller joined Clemson's staff on a full-time basis after joining the program as an unpaid coaching intern in 2020 while pursuing his Master's degree in athletic leadership. Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Spiller was one of the most decorated players in Clemson history, earning selection last month for induction in the College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2021.

"It doesn't happen very often that you're able to coach at your alma mater, especially in your first gig, and for me to have that opportunity, I don't take it lightly," Spiller said.

Spiller's historic Clemson playing career covered 2006-09, including a senior campaign in which won ACC Player of the Year and was a unanimous first-team All-American en route to finishing sixth in Heisman Trophy voting. That year, he joined Reggie Bush as the only players in college football history with 3,000 rushing yards, 1,500 yards in kickoff returns, 1,000 receiving yards and 500 yards in punt returns. He became the fourth Clemson graduate among the Tigers' 10 full-time assistant coaches, joining Brandon Streeter (1999), Tony Elliott (2002) and Tyler Grisham (2009).

TIGHT END RENAISSANCE

Dabo Swinney has often mentioned tight ends as being a foundational piece of Clemson's offensive identity for the balance they provide in both the running and passing game in Clemson's base 11 personnel.

So when Clemson tight ends combined for 43 catches for 400 yards and two scores across both the 2018 and 2019 seasons, the familiar refrain outside the program became, "Where are Clemson's tight ends?"

The tight ends returned to public consciousness in 2020, as the group combined for 50 receptions for 664 yards and seven touchdowns, the position group's most in a season in all categories since 2016.

The group now falls under the direct purview of playcaller Tony Elliott, the Offensive Coordinator who assumed control of Clemson's tight ends after sliding over from the running backs group in 2021 upon the hire of C.J. Spiller. Elliott returned a strong group for 2021, as Braden Galloway and Davis Allen were primary contributors for two of the tight end group's best games in the Dabo Swinney era in 2020 against Wake Forest and Miami (Fla.) That 2020 Miami game represented the first time that Clemson tight ends combined for three scores in a game.

Clemson's most productive tight end output by yardage came from its 2016 National Championship team that featured the play of All-American Jordan Leggett. Clemson tight ends had 797 receiving yards that year, most in the Swinney era, on 52 catches. The record for receptions for the tight end position under Swinney is 65, in 2011 when the Tigers featured John Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Clemson then averaged 6.69 yards per play in 2020, giving Clemson its top three yards-per-play averages in school history all within the last three years.

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

Collectively, Clemson averaged 7.2 yards per play across the 2018-20 seasons, joining Oklahoma (7.9) and Alabama (7.8) as the only programs to average at least seven yards per play across those three seasons.

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent years, but the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 33 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .818 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Clemson had 15 giveaways in 12 games in 2020, a 1.25 turnovers-per-game mark that ranked 10th in school history. Four of Clemson's 10-best seasons protecting the ball have come in the last four seasons.

One year after the 2019 Tigers won the turnover margin 11 times, Clemson's most in a season under Dabo Swinney, Clemson won the turnover margin six times in 2020.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 286-69 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. In 2020, Clemson outscored opponents 114-31 off turnovers, with 21 of the 31 points allowed surrendered directly by the Clemson offense on defensive touchdowns.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of six consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 54 times since 2015, posting a 52-2 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

Clemson is still awaiting its first winning Middle Eight performance of 2021.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent national figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. From 2009-10 through 2018-19, only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs were the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span. Clemson would have earned a 10th APR Public Recognition Award for 2019-20 after recording a perfect 1000 for the term, but the NCAA suspended national APR reporting as a function of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting, Clemson was one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also included Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson was the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Note: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the most recent academic year during the COVID-19 pandemic, but Clemson internally recorded a perfect 1000 for the 2019-20 year.

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

TIGERS DOMINATE FALL 2020 SEMESTER

In the face of one of the most abnormal learning environments in the history of the university, Clemson's student-athletes responded to academic adversity impressively last fall. Among Clemson's academic achievements for the Fall 2020 semester were:

- A program-record 74 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better, including 11 perfect 4.0s. Among the freshmen, seven of Clemson's eight summer enrollees earned a 3.0 or better in their initial semester on campus, as did three of the four summer preferred walk-ons.

- Seventeen current football student-athletes graduated in December, including Elijah Turner, who earned a second degree by securing a Master's in athletic leadership and graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA. Twelve different majors were represented by this year's graduates.

- Three players completed their undergraduate degrees in three years (K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence and Xavier Thomas) after all enrolled in January 2018. In recent history, the only other scholarship players to graduate from Clemson in this time frame were Christian Wilkins (2.5 years), Deshaun Watson and Artavis Scott (three years).

- Eight of the 17 fall graduates did so with honors, completing their degrees with a cumulative GPA over a 3.0: Matt Bockhorst, Peter Cote, Justin Foster, K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence, Darien Rencher, Will Spiers and Elijah Turner.

- Clemson entered 2020 bowl season with 23 graduates on the roster. Included in this number were double graduates Nyles Pinckney (Sociology and Criminal Justice) and Elijah Turner (Communication and Athletic Leadership).

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

Over the previous three seasons, Clemson games accounted for the four most-watched college football games and five of the 10 most-watched games since 2018.

Clemson once again drew the nation's attention in its 2021 season opener. Via ESPN PR: "The top-five faceoff between Georgia and Clemson averaged 8,863,000 viewers, making the matchup the second-most-viewed Kickoff Saturday game in the past 20 years (Florida State vs. Alabama, 2017). The contest ranked in the top five regular season college football games on ABC the past five years."

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the great in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2021 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 40 straight seasons. Clemson finished third nationally in cumulative total attendance in 2020.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2021 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Davis Allen, TE: Son of John Allen, a linebacker who lettered at Georgia from 1989-91; also the brother of Reed Allen, who played defensive end at the United States Air Force Academy.
- David Cote, LB: Third Cote sibling to play for Clemson. His brothers, Kyle (2016 and 2018) and Peter (2018), both won national championships as walk-on safeties at Clemson.
- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.
- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.
- K.J. Henry, DE: Son of Keith Henry, current cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator at Western Carolina.
- Tye Herbstreit, WR: Son of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.
- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.
- Tristan Leigh, OL: Father, Stan, played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.
- Armon Mason, DE: Father, Anthony, played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award.
- Myles Murphy, DE: Father, Willard, played at Tennessee-Chattanooga.
- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.
- Ruke Orhorhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).
- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

- Will Swinney, WR, and Drew Swinney, WR: Sons of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- James Skalski, LB: Father, John, played football at Oklahoma.

- Baylon Spector, LB, and Brannon Spector, WR: Sons of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector.

- Will Spiers, P: Son of former Clemson punter and baseball All-American Bill Spiers.

- Jeremiah Trotter Jr., LB: Son of Jeremiah Trotter Sr., a four-time Pro Bowler who played 12 NFL seasons for the Eagles, Redskins and Buccaneers from 1998-2009.

- Nolan Turner, SS: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who also played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles.

- Regan Upshaw, DE: Son of nine-year NFL defensive tackle Regan Upshaw; brother of Michigan defensive lineman Taylor Upshaw.

- Jake Venables, LB, and Tyler Venables, S: Sons of Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables.

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt freshmen in 2021 did not officially redshirt in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2021 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

	CLEMSON	3
	SEPT. 4, 2021 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – No. 3 Clemson and No. 5 Georgia played only the fourth season opener between two AP Top 5 teams since 2000, as Georgia won a defensive slugfest with the Tigers, 10-3, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

James Skalski finished with a game-high 14 tackles as the Clemson held Georgia's offense to just three points. The lone touchdown of the contest came in the second quarter, when quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw his first career interception to snap his interception-free streak of 128 consecutive passes, which Georgia's Christopher Smith returned 74 yards for a touchdown.

Clemson's stout defense allowed only 256 total yards. The 10 points surrendered also marked the eighth time in history that Clemson held an AP Top 5 opponent to 10 or fewer points. It was Clemson's first loss when holding an opponent fewer than 23 points since 2010.

Clemson was led offensively by wide receiver Joseph Ngata, who finished the game with six catches for 110 yards, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who was 19-for-37 with 178 yards passing. Ngata recorded his first career 100-yard game.

Clemson was hampered offensively by a 7-1 deficit in sacks. The Tigers ultimately got the board with 9:08 left in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard field goal from B.T. Potter.

True freshman guard Marcus Tate and true freshman safety Andrew Mukuba both started, marking only the second time since 1973 that Clemson has had two true freshmen start a season opener (tight end Jeff Wells and center James Farr in 1980).

The loss concluded Clemson's streak of 127 consecutive games since losing back-to-back contests, the longest such streak in ACC history.

	SEPT. 11, 2021 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Five different Tigers found the end zone and Clemson amassed 262 passing and 242 rushing yards, as the sixth-ranked Tigers downed SC State, 49-3. A stadium full of 78,609 fans gathered to celebrate Clemson's first home contest of the season, as well as tributes to 9/11 first responders and C.J. Spiller's College Football Hall of Fame induction.

DJ Uiagalelei finished the day 14-for-24 for 171 yards and a touchdown while also scampering for 23 yards and two touchdowns on five carries. Will Shipley led the Tigers' ground game, carrying the ball 80 yards on eight carries for two touchdowns. Thirteen different players caught a pass, led by Justyn Ross, who scored his first touchdown since the 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia prior to missing the 2020 season.

Clemson's defense held SC State to 235 total yards of offense and held an opponent without an offensive touchdown for the second-straight game. Ruke Orhoro and Jeremiah Trotter, Jr. tied for the team lead in tackles with five each, while Trotter led the team in solo tackles with four. Clemson tallied one sack on the day but combined for 10 tackles for loss.

The bulk of the Tigers' offense came in the first quarter, when Clemson put up 28 consecutive points in the opening frame. The Tigers jumped out to a 35-0 lead with just under 7:00 left in the second quarter, before the Bulldogs got on the board just before half with a 27-yard field goal.
