KEY STORYLINES

Let's Run It Back: The Radford women's basketball team began their 55th season and 41st at the NCAA Division I level on Monday, falling in a hard-fought loss to Wake Forest, 71-64, in Winston-Salem. The Highlanders look to avoid starting the season 0-2, which last occurred during the 2021-22 season (L 82-63 at Pittsburgh, L 68-64 vs. Marshall). Georgia Tech begins the Karen Blair era today after long-time Head Coach Nell Fortner announced her retirement last March. This is the first meeting between the two schools in women's hoops. It's also Radford's first women's basketball game in the state of Georgia since traveling to Statesboro to face Georgia Southern on January 3, 1992 (L 86-82). This is the first time Radford has opened with consecutive road games since going to North Carolina (L 90-61) and Marshall (L 69-58) to begin the 2020-21 season.

McGuire Milestone Watch: With a win, Head Coach Mike McGuire will tie Radford Hall of Famer and first women's basketball coach Pat Barrett (1971-84) with 193 career victories. McGuire begins his 13th season leading the program and is the longest tenured active coach in the Big South. He's looking for his fourth triumph against a power opponent, having beaten Wake Forest (2016-17), Penn State (2017-18), and Virginia (2018-19).

Georgia on my Mind: Freshman Georgia Simonsen made a big impact for the Highlanders in her first collegiate game, leading the team with nine rebounds and tying for the team lead with 11 points. Simonsen is the first freshman to total double digits in scoring in the opening game since Joi Williams scored 14 and Terissa Lavoile-Brice added 10 vs. Concord on Nov. 6, 2023.

Welcome Back, Ellie: Grad student Ellie Taylor made her return for the Highlanders after missing the 2024-25 season due to an injury suffered in the 2023-24 season finale in the Big South Tournament. Taylor totaled 11 points which included some points in the paint and a three-pointer.

Joi to the World: Junior Joi Williams converted from beyond the arc three times for 11 points in the loss to Wake Forest. She now has 102 made three-pointers in her career at Radford, just outside the top 10 all-time. Her 313 career three-point attempts ranks seventh on the Radford career list.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH (13TH SEASON)

► @coachmcguire

► @mamcguire77

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons, leading his teams to four WNIT postseason appearances as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2019. He is currently ranked sixth for overall wins, seventh for tournament wins and fifth for conference wins in Big South Conference history.

McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage and second-most overall wins in program history with an overall record of 192-174 (.525). He has gone 133-87 (.605) in Big South play leading the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships and one tournament championship. Opponents beware, as the Highlanders have defended the Dedmon Center to the tune of a 100-47 record at home in the McGuire era.

The 2025-26 season will mark his 16th year at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition. For the past eight seasons the Highlanders have been selected in the top-6 of the Big South preseason poll, including a three-year span being selected as No.1 (2017-2019).

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat and fourth in Big South history to have three or more. He collected his 100th career Big South win, the first Highlander coach to do so in program history, during the 2020-21 campaign against Charleston Southern on February 20, 2021. Under his direction there have been 28 Highlanders named All-Big South including 2018 Defensive Player of the Year – Jayda Worthy, the 2018-19 tournament MVP Lydia Rivers and 2023 Freshman of the Year Ashlyn Traylor-Walker. The program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years. Academically during McGuire's tenure, Radford has had 12 conference All-Academic selections with Jen Falconer named to the VaSID Academic All-State team after the 2018-19 season.

The Highlanders have a history of upsetting the powers of the women's basketball world and that trend has continued under McGuire. Over 11 seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Penn State, Virginia and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNCG, Davidson, Liberty and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

McGuire is happily married to his wife, Nataleigh. The couple has three beautiful daughters named Harper, Ellie, and Reese. The trio have already proven to be some of Radford's biggest fans!

ON THE BENCH

JESSICA JACKSON
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
(FIRST SEASON)
WESTERN CAROLINA '10

Jackson enters her first season with the Highlanders. She brings a wealth of experience after spending the last four seasons as an assistant coach with Florida Atlantic. With the Owls, Jackson spearheaded all recruiting efforts. She successfully recruited student-athletes who would earn awards such as C-USA Freshman of the Year and C-USA All-Conference. Jackson also led team defensive concepts and guard development at FAU. Prior to her time in Boca Raton, Fla., Jackson served as the director of recruiting operations at Tennessee for two seasons. She helped guide the Lady Vols to a 38-18 record and 19-10 in SEC play. She's also had stops at Missouri State (18-19), Samford (17-18), Appalachian State (14-17), Kent State (12-14), and NC State (10-12).

ALLEY ODELL
ASSISTANT COACH
(FIRST SEASON)
CONCORD '17

Odell begins her career at Radford this season. She spent the last three seasons with the Mary Washington coaching staff, helping guide the Eagles to several successful seasons which include a NCAA Division III Sweet Sixteen appearance and part of the Coast-to-Coast Conference Women's Basketball Coaching Staff of the Year in 2023-24. Prior to Mary Washington, Odell was an assistant coach at Manchester University in Indiana. She got her coaching start in Virginia as part of the College coaching staff. A native of Richmond, Va., Odell graduated from Deep Run High School and later received her bachelor's degree in psychology and social work from Concord University. She played four seasons for the Mountain Lions from 2013-17. She also holds a master's degree from Liberty University.

BEN EDELBURG
ASSISTANT COACH
(SECOND SEASON)

Edelburg begins his second season with the Highlanders after spending last season with the Morehead State women's basketball program where he served as a graduate assistant. Edelburg has deep and extensive experience with developmental programs in the basketball coaching scene. While at Morehead State, Edelburg completed full scouts on multiple opponents assisting in every scout throughout the season. He also coordinated team travel for all conference games, participated in all recruiting efforts including portal tracking, JUCO, International and high school evaluations while also developing practice plans and skill development sessions.

JOE REID
ASSISTANT COACH
(FIRST SEASON)

Reid begins his first season with the Highlanders after joining as an assistant coach in June. Reid spent the past two seasons as the varsity head coach at Blacksburg High School. He helped lead the team to a 100% eligibility rate showcasing strong dedication to academic success. Since 2016, Reid has also worked as a private player development coach, training athletes ranging from elementary school to NCAA Division I. Before taking over at Blacksburg, Reid was an assistant coach and player development director for the program. He also played professionally for the Roanoke Rising Stars from 2018-20 in the American Basketball Association. Prior to that, he spent two seasons playing at New River Community College, where he ranks fourth on the all-time scoring chart.

CARLIE CLARY
D.O.B.O.
(FIFTH SEASON)
RADFORD '18

Clary was promoted to Director of Basketball Operations for the Radford women's basketball program on July 3, 2019 and is entering her fifth season in this position and seventh overall. Clary served as the Assistant Director of Basketball Operations for Radford in 2018-19. Clary has been with McGuire since 2017 where she put in time as the head manager for the 2017-18 season. She assisted the Director of Operation in all day-to-day activities, coordinated meal arrangements for all away activities for student-athletes and managed team stats for practices.
