A MONMOUTH WIN WOULD...

Give the Hawks their first three-game win streak of the season and first win over a power-five school this year.

MORE INFO ON THE ALL-TIME SERIES

Monmouth is looking to earn its first victory against the Yellow Jackets, having dropped the lone previous matchup in 1985.

DEFENDING NEW JERSEY

The Hawks earned a victory over Princeton on Wednesday in a defensive battle in West Long Branch, defeating the Tigers 63-58. Jason Rivera-Torres scored 20 points for the third straight game and Monmouth held a team under 70 points for the first time this season.

2-1 AT LAFAYETTE CLASSIC

Monmouth went 2-1 at the Lafayette Classic, earning wins over Ball State and host Lafayette.

RAY AND RIVERA-TORRES

Justin Ray and Jason Rivera-Torres combined for 41 points in Sunday's win over Lafayette.

Rivera-Torres has reached double figures in six of the first eight games for the Hawks this season.

He has grabbed at least five rebounds in all eight contests and leads the team with 8.5 boards per game.

OVERTIME THRILLER AGAINST RMU

Against Robert Morris, Spartalis hit a pair of free throws with 2:03 to play to put Monmouth back in front by two, 60-58. After the Hawks missed a free throw with 19 seconds left, Robert Morris ran the length of the floor and hit an off-balance shot to tie the game with 6.1 on the clock. Rivera-Torres was unable to connect as the buzzer sounded, sending the game to overtime knotted at 60.

The teams traded layups to open the extra session, but Robert Morris scored five in a row to take a 67-62 lead with 2:30 to play. Ray answered on the other end with his third three-pointer of the game, but another trey from the visitors on the ensuing possession re-established the five point edge with two minutes on the clock. Monmouth got back within 70-69 after Ray knocked down a pair from the charity stripe with 28 seconds left.

Andrew Ball forced a steal on the ensuing inbounds play, allowing Spartalis to earn his way to the free throw line with 8.6 remaining, where the freshman hit both to put the Hawks back in front, 71-70. RMU got off a pair of last second shots, but Ball soared high to grab the game-ending rebound as the buzzer sounded, giving the Hawks their second victory of the year.

SPARTALIS STEPPING UP

Following an impressive two-game stretch, freshman forward Stefanos Spartalis was named the CAA Rookie of the Week, as announced by the league office last Monday.

Spartalis averaged 18.0 points per game for the week, highlighted by his standout performance in the Hawks' come-from-behind win over Robert Morris on Sunday.

During the week, he shot 40.7 percent from the field and was a perfect 14-for-14 from the free-throw line while adding 4.5 rebounds per game. Tuesday, he opened with an 18-point, five-rebound effort at Syracuse – finishing 6-for-14 from the floor in a narrow loss to the Orange.

The Chios, Greece, native followed with another 18-point performance in Monmouth's 71-70 overtime victory against Robert Morris. Spartalis delivered the go-ahead free throws with 8.6 seconds remaining in the extra period to cap the Hawks' comeback win.

BLOCK PARTY

Monmouth ranks 13th nationally in blocks per game, averaging 5.9.

Against La Salle, the Hawks finished with 11 blocks with three players having three or more blocks in the contest (Andrew Ball, Jason Rivera-Torres, Dok Muordar).

DYNAMIC DUO

Jason Rivera-Torres led the Hawks with 20 points against La Salle. He was the first Hawk to score 20 points since Abdi Bashir Jr. had 24 against Charleston last year in the CAA Tournament.

Andrew Ball finished with a season-high 15 points against the Explorers, it was one shy of his career-high.

BANGING THE BOARDS

Monmouth dominated the inside game against Caldwell, finishing with 53 rebounds. Eleven of the 15 Hawks who appeared in the contest recorded at least one rebound. Andrew Ball led the efforts with nine rebounds.

It was the most rebounds in a game by a Hawks squad since 2017 when the Hawks had 57 against Fairfield.

NEWCOMERS MAKE THEIR MARK

Six of the Monmouth newcomers made their debut in the season opener. That group combined for 50 points and 27 rebounds. Stefanos Spartalis led the Hawk newcomers in each of those categories as he finished with 16 points and eight rebounds.

DISHING OUT THE ASSISTS

Jack Collins led the Hawks with six assists against La Salle and seven assists in the season opener.

He has logged five or more assists 17 times in his career.

Collins has 255 career assists for the Hawks. He needs 27 more assists to move into the top 15 for career assists at Monmouth.

CAREER PERFORMANCES

A pair of Hawks had career performances in the season opener.

Justin Ray tossed in 16 points, after going 4-for-5 from behind the arc. Stefanos Spartalis matched Ray with 16 points in his collegiate debut.

TAKING THE CHARITY

Jason Rivera-Torres was an impressive 6-for-6 from the foul line against Caldwell.

He was the first Hawk to go at least 5-for-5 from the foul line since Madison Durr did so against Towson on Feb. 15 of last year.

TAKING ADVANTAGE

Monmouth took advantage of 18 Caldwell turnovers. The Hawks scored 25 points off the Caldwell miscues.

WE'LL TAKE THAT

Monmouth registered 13 steals in the win over Caldwell. Seven different Hawks had at least one steal in the game. That group was led by Jason Rivera-Torres who had four steals.

It was the most steals by a Hawks squad since they had 15 against Campbell on 2/15/24.

FRESHMAN STARTER

Freshman guard Anthony Martinez earned the start in the season opener against Caldwell. Martinez and Spartalis were the first freshmen to start the opener for the Hawks since Jack Collins at Seton Hall to start the 2022-23 season.

CENTURY MARK

With his appearance in the season opener, guard Jack Collins played in his 100th career game for the Hawks. Collins is the 49th player in program history to reach the mark.

COLLINS NEARING 600

After entering his final season with 540 career rebounds, Jack Collins has logged 49 boards over the first eight games.

The guard needs 11 more rebounds to become the seventh player in program history to reach 600 career rebounds and the first since Chris Brady (625, 2013-17).

PRESEASON AWARDS

For the second straight season, Jack Collins has secured Pre-season All-CAA accolades.

After being named Preseason Honorable Mention a year ago, Collins was named to the Pre-season All-CAA Second Team this fall.

HOME DOMINANCE

Monmouth has been stellar of late while playing in the confines of the OceanFirst Bank Center.

Since the start of the 2023-24 campaign the Hawks have gone 23-3 while playing at home. Monmouth tied the program record for longest win streak at home during the 2023-24 campaign after winning 13 straight.

OUTPERFORMING THE PRESEASON POLL

In 14 seasons under Rice, Monmouth has outperformed its rank in the preseason coaches poll ten times. The Hawks were picked sixth in the CAA prior to this season.

Rice, Monmouth has finished over .500 in conference play ten times, doing so in three different leagues. Since 2010, no CAA team that went over .500 in league play placed lower than sixth until Monmouth two years ago. Similarly, in 2019, MU became the first ever MAAC team to finish over .500 and not receive a conference tournament bye.

DOK WITH THE BLOCKS

Dok Muordar continues to make his presence felt in the lane. Muordar had a rejection in the season opener. His 43 blocks during the 2024-25 season, ranked 11th in single-season history at Monmouth.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

Monmouth made a pair of adjustments to its coaching staff. After serving as a volunteer, Justin Dempsey has moved into a full-time role. In addition, former Hawk Max Dileo ('15) has returned in a volunteer role. Dileo still ranks in the top 15 for career steals at Monmouth.

NEXT UP

The Hawks will remain on the road to face Fairfield next Sunday, Dec. 14, at 2 p.m.

HEAD COACH KING RICE

North Carolina, 1992 | | 15th Season | | 225-232 Overall | | 25-29 CAA

King Rice has been on the Monmouth sideline for 14 seasons and leads the Hawks into his 15th in 2025-26. In February 2022, Rice became the winningest Division I Head Coach in Monmouth Basketball history. He has 220 victories to his credit, as well as a trio of MAAC Coach of the Year honors and three MAAC regular season titles. Rice has set Monmouth records for wins in a season with 28 and consecutive victories with 17. Rice also set a MAAC Record in 2016-17 by winning 18 league games for the first time ever. He has won the John McLendon National Coach of the Year honor, while being named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award. Rice has beaten nine high-major opponents as the MU head coach.

In 2024-25, the team's third season in the CAA, the Hawks won 10 conference matchups, earning a CAA Tournament victory over Hofstra and advancing to the quarterfinals for the second year in a row. Rice's Hawks squad won 13 games overall, including a road victory over in-state rival Seton Hall. Under Rice's guidance, forward Jack Collins rose to eighth place on the program's all-time rebounding list while Abdi Bashir garnered All-MET and All-CAA First Team honors.

The 2023-24 Hawks won 18 times, including a signature victory at Big 12 member West Virginia. Rice's son, Xander, joined the Hawks for his final collegiate season and scored the second most points in a season and fourth most threes in program history. Monmouth won 13 consecutive home games to close out the year, and topped Campbell in the CAA Tournament. Xander Rice was a First Team All-CAA, NABC All-District and All-MET selection, while redshirt freshman Jaret Valencia earned CAA All-Defensive Team and All-Rookie Team.

Rice led Monmouth into the CAA in 2022-23, the third league he has coached the Hawks in. Freshman Jack Collins became MU's first ever CAA honoree, earning CAA All-Rookie honors after averaging in double figures. MU posted four wins in five games down the stretch of the season, and set a CAA Tournament record with a 36-point win over Hampton in the opening round.

A native of Binghamton, N.Y. and a 1992 graduate of North Carolina, Rice had 13 seasons of experience in the collegiate coaching ranks, 10 of which came with current Pittsburgh head coach Kevin Stallings. For the previous five seasons before joining the Hawks, Rice was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt under Stallings, where the Commodores made the NCAA Tournament four of those years out of the Southeastern Conference. Rice served as an assistant to Stallings for five seasons at Illinois State from 1994-98, helping the Redbirds advance to postseason play four times, including two appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Rice helped spearhead recruiting efforts and was noted for his solid relationships with players. Prior to his stint in Normal, Ill., Rice began his coaching career as an assistant on Jerry Green's Oregon staff during the 1993 campaign. Following his five seasons with Stallings at Illinois State, Rice was an assistant for two years (1999-2000) at Providence under Tim Welsh.

As a point guard at North Carolina from 1988-91, Rice played for legendary coach Dean Smith, helping the Tar Heels to a 29-6 overall mark and appearance at the 1991 NCAA Final Four. He finished his career ranked third on the Tar Heels' all-time assist list with 629, and that mark ranks 11th all-time in Atlantic Coast Conference annals. Rice, who was a team captain in 1990-91 alongside Pete Chilcutt and Rick Fox, earned North Carolina's Carmichael-Cobb Award as a junior, and as a senior was tabbed the Foy Roberson Award recipient as the team's Most Inspirational Player. Rice, who played in 140 career games for the Tar Heels and once had 13 assists in a single-game versus Kentucky, earned his bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina in 1992. Rice also served as head coach of the Bahamian National team for three seasons from 2001-2004. Rice also worked as a professional trainer to Fox for five years. Fox played 13 seasons in the NBA with the Boston Celtics and Los Angeles Lakers from 1992-2004.

A 1987 McDonald's High School All-American, Rice is married to Summer and the couple has two sons, Alexander and Julian James.
