Tech Begins A New Era

Georgia Tech men's basketball begins a new era as Scott Cross was announced as the program's 16th head coach in history on March 21. Cross arrives at Tech with seven conference championships and 350 career wins in 19 seasons as a head coach. He has led teams to five-straight 20-win seasons and back-to-back Sun Belt Conference regular-season and tournament titles at Troy where he spent the last seven seasons. Cross also served as head coach at UT Arlington for 12 years (2006-18).

In all, Cross has led his teams to four regular-season conference championships, three conference tournament titles, three NCAA Tournaments and eight total postseason berths as a head coach, to go along with his 350-260 career record.

2026-27 Storylines

- Georgia Tech and Hampton are meeting for the first time in program history on Tuesday night in the season-openers for both teams
- The Yellow Jackets have won the last three-straight season-openers dating back to the 2021-22 season and are 10-3 in season-openers in McCamish Pavilion, which opened for the 2012-13 season
- Head coach Scott Cross is 16-2 in season-openers as a head coach, including a 6-1 record while at Troy and a 10-1 ledger at UT Arlington

2026-27 Storylines

- Georgia Tech welcomes in a new era of men's basketball with several new faces, including head coach Scott Cross. The first-year head coach quickly got to work on campus, hitting the transfer portal and adding 13 'OKGs' (Our Kind of Guys) to the roster in addition to its two returners.
- The Yellow Jackets return just two players from the 2025-26 squad: 5th year Kam Craft (Chicago, Ill.) and sophomore Cole Kirouac (Cumming, Ga.). Craft and Kirouac played in a combined 52 games with 14 starts last season.
- Craft finished second on the team in three-pointers made (47) and averaged 7.3 points per game. Kirouac chipped in 1.7 points per game off the bench and averaged 11.4 minutes per game.
- Tech's 13 newcomers include seven transfers and a six-member freshmen class. Highlighting the transfer class are upperclassmen Jackson Fields (5th year/West Virginia/Missouri City, Texas), Colby Garland (Sr./San Jose State/Magnolia, Ark.), Víctor Valdés (Sr./Monterrey, Mexico/Troy) and Nasir Whitlock (Sr./Brooklyn Park, Minn./Lehigh).
- International flair: Georgia Tech's roster features three international student-athletes, all brought in under Cross. The group includes veteran Víctor Valdés from Monterrey, Mexico and a pair of freshmen in Moustapha Diop (Thies, Senegal) and Ilja Kurucs (Cēsis, Latvia).
- Tech's 13-member newcomer class is highlighted by 410 career games played with 199 career starts, three all-conference honorees (Garland, Valdés, Whitlock) and three conference champions (Fields, Valdés, Whitlock).
- Garland played his junior season at San Jose State and was named to the All-Mountain West third team. He averaged 20.3 points 4.6 assists and 3.3 rebounds in 35.1 minutes per game, while finishing second in the league in scoring and 26th in the nation. He was voted Missouri Valley Conference All-Bench Team his freshman season at Drake (2023-24).
- Whitlock spent his first three seasons at Lehigh where he helped guide the Mountain Hawks to a 2026 Patriot League Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament berth. He was tabbed 2026 All-Patriot League first team and Patriot League Tournament MVP. He led the Patriot League at 20.5 points per game (23rd in NCAA DI).
- Tylis Jordan (Milledgeville, Ga.) redshirted his freshman season at Ole Miss before transferring to Georgia Tech.
- Jackson McVey (Ellijay, Ga.) redshirted his freshman season at Georgia. Played final 2:57 of exhibition game against Troy prior to the season.
- Courtland Muldrew (Bentonville, Ark.) played his freshman season at Washington, helping the Huskies to 16 wins and a Big Ten Tournament second round victory.
- Common threads: head coach Scott Cross will see some familiar faces on the hardwood this season as Cross added veteran players Jackson Fields and Víctor Valdés to the Yellow Jackets. Fields played his first three seasons at Troy with Cross before spending the 2025-26 season at West Virginia, while Valdés also played his freshman through junior seasons at Troy. The dynamic duo were members of the 2025 Sun Belt Championship team and NCAA Tournament squad, while Valdés also helped lead the Trojans to the 2026 Sun Belt regular-season and tournament title. Valdés was named all-Sun Belt third team in 2026.
- Tech's six-member freshman class ties for the largest

• Tech finished with four Jackets averaging double-figure scoring totals last season, including Baye Ndongo. Ndongo finished second on the team in scoring (11.8 ppg) and led on the glass (8.1 rebounds per game).

• Tech finished the regular season 10-9 on its home court, while picking up a pair of ACC wins against Boston College and NC State on the road.

• Tech lost 11 letterwinners to either eligibility or transfer from the squad, including all five starters.

Series vs. Hampton

• Georgia Tech and Hampton have not met in program history. Tuesday's season-opener for both teams will mark the first meeting in program history between the squads

Let's Get It Started

• A new era of Georgia Tech basketball under head coach Scott Cross officially gets underway on Nov. 3. But the Yellow Jackets got a couple preseason tuneups before the action really gets started

• The Yellow Jackets met Maryland on neutral ground for its first of two exhibition contests on Oct. 11. The once conference foes haven't played each other in over a decade, but will provide Tech its first true test of preseason

• Tech then headed to Rhode Island to face Providence in its final preseason test on Oct. 24.

• Despite dropping both exhibition contests, Tech saw valuable production from a number of Yellow Jackets against tough competition before regular season play begins

• Nasir Whitlock led Tech offensively with 26 points (13.0 ppg), shooting 52.9 percent (9-17), including 36.4 percent from three (4-11) and 66.7 percent (4-6) at the charity stripe

• Colby Garland produced 18 points, six rebounds, five assists and five steals, while shooting 41.7% (5-12) from the field and 7-for-9 (77.8%) at the free throw line

• Kam Craft added 17 points in the contest at Providence, hitting a team-high five three-pointers

• Tylis Jordan, who has not taken the floor in a regular season contest in his collegiate career after transferring his true redshirt season last year, added 22 points, 5 rebounds, one steal and one assist between the two preseason contests.

• Tech saw playing minutes from five of its freshmen class with Moustapha Diop earning the start at Providence. The group combined for 32 points and 12 rebounds, hitting a pair of three-pointers and accounting for six assists. Kayden Allen chipped in 15 points against Maryland, going 7-for-7 at the free throw line.

• Tech used different starting lineups to get experience on the floor. Jackson Fields, Tylis Jordan and Nasir Whitlock started both contests, while Kam Craft and Jackson McVey completed the starting five against Maryland, while Moustapha Diop and Colby Garland started at Providence.

What Returns

• Georgia Tech returns only 10.9% of its scoring from last season

• Georgia Tech is one of three schools in the ACC to return 12% or less of its scoring from last season - joined by Louisville (10.3%) and Florida State (4.7%)

In Good Company

• A native of Monterrey, Mexico, Víctor Valdés is in elite company as one of only seven Division I men's basketball players listed from Mexico (according to NCAA rosters)

• Amongst the seven, two compete in the Atlantic Coast Conference - Valdés and Syracuse's Iker Martinez

• Valdés, Jerry Guerrero, Diego Trejo-Delgado and Aram Soqui Urbano have played together on the Mexican National Team on both the U17 and U18 teams

Final Preseason Tuneup

• The Yellow Jackets wrapped up preseason play with its final exhibition at Providence on Oct. 24, dropping a 101-73 decision on the road

• For the second time, three Jackets finished in double-figures: Kam Craft leading with 17 points, followed by Colby Garland with 12 points and Courtland Muldrew with 10 points

Just Georgia Tech, please...

The Georgia Institute of Technology is the official title, but Georgia Tech will work fine, or just Tech (unless you're in Virginia or Texas). We would appreciate it if you would use our name in those ways. Georgia Tech University is incorrect. Thank you.

• Tech dished out 14 assists on 28 made field goals with Colby Garland, Courtland Muldrew, Jackson Fields, Víctor Valdés and Kaiden Bailey all recording multiple

A Matchup with the Terps

• The Jackets got their first taste of preseason play with an exhibition against Maryland on Oct. 11

• Tech saw court time from 11 different Jackets in the 85-70 loss, with offensive contribution from seven

• Nasir Whitlock was one of three Jackets in double-figures, leading the offense with 17 points, followed by Kayden Allen (15) and Tylis Jordan (13). Jackson Fields just missed a double-double with a team-high 10 rebounds and nine points

• Three freshmen saw playing time to make their first appearance - Kayden Allen, Kaiden Bailey and Moustapha Diop - each contributing double-digit playing time and combining for 25 points, 7 rebounds and 4 assists

• Tech converted 20-of-29 free throw attempts, led by a perfect 7-7 effort by Allen

Take Me to Paradise

• Georgia Tech went to paradise over the summer, taking a foreign tour to The Bahamas for a pair of international exhibition games. Tech went 2-0 with victories over Bahamas Raw Talent and Dalhousie University.

• Over the two games, Nasir Whitlock averaged 19.5 points, while Courtland Muldrew followed closely behind at 19.0 points per game. Tylis Jordan added 16.5 points and Colby Garland chipped in 11.5 points per game.

• More importantly, with 13 new faces on the Georgia Tech roster, the foreign tour provided a week of team bonding as the Jackets took in Bahamian culture with dinners and excursions

Time for a Rebuild

• Georgia Tech's roster features 15 Yellow Jackets, but 13 are new for the 2026-27 season

• Only two Yellow Jackets returned from the 2025-26 season - fifth year Kam Craft and sophomore Cole Kirouac

• With only two returners, Tech returns just 10.9% of its scoring from last season

• In national research conducted (as of Oct. 9 via NCAA Mailbag), 30 NCAA Division I men's basketball programs return 12% or less of their scoring from last season, including three from the Atlantic Coast Conference - Georgia Tech (10.9%), Louisville (10.3%) and Florida State (4.7%)

Reunited, and It's Good

• When head coach Scott Cross arrived at Georgia Tech, he immediately got to work building his roster. And some familiar faces will be apparent

• Jackson Fields, Víctor Valdés and Haiden Harper were all under the direction of Cross at Troy. While Fields and Valdes played for Cross, Harper originally committed to Troy.

• The connections extend beyond the playing roster and Cross built his staff around knowledge and success. Kenneth Mangrum worked with Cross at both UT Arlington and Troy before transitioning to New Mexico State and Vanderbilt, where he helped turn around the Commodores. Brandon Gilbert, who was teammates with Mangrum in college, moved into the college coaching ranks after a successful run at the high school level, joining Cross at Troy. Gilbert spent six seasons at Troy. The Cross-Lewis connection comes full circle - Kelvin Lewis, who was recruited by Cross from North Crowley High School but spent one year at Auburn and three at Houston, got into the college coaching scene with his first full-time position as director of player development at Troy. Lewis spent three years as a member of Troy's coaching staff.

A Family Tradition

Basketball runs in the family - at least for the Yellow Jackets.

• Kam Craft - father, Mark Craft, was a letterwinner in both basketball (1988-90) and baseball (1987-90) at VMI. He ranks 8th in single-season field goal percentage records, converting 55.9 percent from the field in the 1988-89 season. Mark was a two-time Robert L. Watson '64 Award winner for leading rebounder in both 1989 and 1990. On the baseball side, Mark was drafted in the 10th round of the 1990 MLB Draft by the Oakland Athletics. He played one season in the minor leagues for Southern Oregon A's.

• Jackson Fields - mother, Jacqueline (Jackie Farmer) played her freshman season of collegiate basketball at Georgia Tech (1986-87) before finishing her career at Clemson. She then went on to play professionally overseas.

• Tylis Jordan - mother, Tonya Scott, played college basketball at UAB (1992-94)

• Nasir Whitlock - father, Sean, played basketball at Minnesota for one season (1993-94) before transferring to St. Cloud State. His older brother, Amir, played basketball for two years at the Naval Academy (2021-22; 2022-23)

Two Jackets on 2026-27 NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 42 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Two former Georgia Tech players are on NBA rosters for 2026-27 - Jose Alvarado in his second season with the New York Knicks after helping his hometown team to an NBA Championship in his first year, and Josh Okogie in his first season with the Utah Jazz, having signed a two-year deal with the organization in July. He played his first four years in Minnesota and then three with Phoenix before one year in Charlotte and the 2024-25 season with Toronto.

Pre-Season Storylines for 2026-27

• 111 seasons - Georgia Tech has played 111 seasons of basketball, having compiled an all-time on-court record of 1,479-1,359 (22 wins and one loss from the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).

• Tech in the ACC - Tech has played 47 seasons as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, having won the conference championship in 1985, 1990, 1993 and 2021. Prior to that, Tech competed in the Metro Conference for three seasons from 1975-78, was an independent from 1964-75, and was a member of the Southeastern Conference for 32 years from 1932-64, winning one title in 1938.

• Tech's projection in the 2026-27 ACC poll, as voted on by the conference's official media panel, has yet to come, but Tech has finished ahead of its media projection eight of the last 10 seasons.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech has compiled a 155-90 record at home in 14 seasons in McCamish Pavilion. Tech is 57-63 on its home court in ACC games, 44-40 over the past eight seasons.

Tech set a program record for wins at home (17) in 2016-17, including a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

McCamish Pavilion was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Prior to the opening of McCamish Pavilion, Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at State Farm Arena and Gas South Arena.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 17 times in its history. Sixteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

The most recent was 2021, when the Yellow Jackets won the ACC Championship and earned an automatic bid, then fell 71-60 to Loyola Chicago in the opening round of the Midwest Regional.

That ended an 11-year hiatus from the NCAA Tournament that dated back to 2010, when the Yellow Jackets defeated Oklahoma State in the first round before losing to Ohio State in the round of 32 of the Midwest Regional.

Tech has a record of 23-17 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were Tech's first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 17 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Tech's ACC Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in 45 ACC Tournaments and has a 30-41 all-time record in the event. The Yellow Jackets have won four championships, in 1985 (Atlanta), 1990 (Charlotte), 1993 (Charlotte) and 2021 (Greensboro).

Tech has been a runner-up four times (1986, 1996, 2005, 2010). The 1986, 1996 and 2010 runs to the finals occurred in Greensboro. Tech also made the finals in 2005 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

Tech was 0-2 in the ACC Tournament under coach Dwane Morrison, 15-16 under Bobby Cremins (including three titles), 9-11 under Paul Hewitt (runner-up in 2005 and 2010), 2-5 under Brian Gregory, 3-5 under Josh Pastner (won 2021 title) and 1-2 under Damon Stoudamire.

Tech did not play in the 2020 tournament while serving an NCAA postseason ban.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Scott Cross • 1st season at Tech

Scott Cross, who has won seven conference championships and 350 games in 19 seasons as a head coach – including five-straight 20-win seasons and back-to-back Sun Belt Conference regular-season and tournament titles at Troy – has been named the 16th head coach in Georgia Tech men's basketball history, Georgia Tech vice president and director of athletics Ryan Alpert announced on Friday, March 20, 2026.

Cross, who comes to the Yellow Jackets after seven successful seasons as the head coach at Troy (2019-26), also served as the head coach at UT Arlington for 12 years (2006-2018). He earned his 350th career victory in this month's Sun Belt Conference championship game, which lifted Troy to its second-straight conference title and NCAA Tournament berth. The Trojans won at least 20 games in each of Cross's final five seasons at the helm, and he has 10 20-win seasons in all as a head coach, including five at UT Arlington.

In all, he's led his teams to four regular-season conference championships, three conference tournament titles, three NCAA Tournaments and eight total postseason berths as a head coach, to go along with his 350-260 career record (.574).

He was named the 2026 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year after leading Troy to the league's regular-season and tournament crowns. It was the third coach-of-the-year honor of his career (2017 Sun Belt, 2012 Southland).

Player development has been a staple of Cross's career. He's coached three conference players of the year (2025 – Troy's Tayton Conerway, 2017 – UTA's Kevin Hervey, 2010 – UTA's Marquez Haynes) and 25 players that have earned all-conference honors in his 19 seasons as a head coach, including 12 first-team selections. The total includes four first-team all-Sun Belt honorees and six total all-conference selections in his seven seasons at Troy.

In his seven successful seasons at Troy, he also coached two Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year (2024 – Myles Rigby, 2022 – Duke Deen), an SBC Newcomer of the Year (2022 – Efe Odigie) and the league's Sixth Man of the Year (2024 – Conerway).

In his 19 seasons as the head coach at Troy and UTA, 19 of his players have gone on to sign professional contracts, highlighted by Kevin Hervey, who became the first UTA player ever selected in the first two rounds of the NBA Draft when he was picked 57th overall in 2018.

In addition to his three coach-of-the-year honors, Cross is also a two-time National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District Coach of the Year (2012, 2017), was a 2012 finalist for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year award and was recognized for his actions on and off the court when he was named a finalist for the 2016 Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award.

Cross took over a program at Troy that had only posted one winning record in the previous nine seasons and quickly established it as the Sun Belt's premier program, as it is the only team in the conference that has recorded five-straight 20-win seasons and is also the only team with five-straight 10-win seasons in Sun Belt play. The Trojans' success under Cross resulted in a boom in fan support, as Troy set both single-season and single-game attendance records during his seven seasons with the program.

He first established himself as an elite program builder at UTA, where he took over a program that hadn't recorded a 20-win season since 1990 and went on to reach the 20-win mark five times in his 12 seasons at the helm. He coached the Mavs to the five highest win totals in school history, including a school-record 27-9 mark in 2016-17, which included a regular-season win over Texas and postseason triumphs over BYU and Akron that lifted UTA to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. In 2015-16, the Mavs earned road victories over Ohio State and Memphis en route to a 14-3 start, the best in school history.

Cross was named the head coach at UTA, his alma mater, in 2006 after serving as an assistant coach for eight seasons (1998-2006). He also spent one season as an assistant at TCU (2018-19), where he helped lead the Horned Frogs to a 23-14 record and an NIT semifinals berth.

Cross starred as a player at UTA from 1995-98, appearing in 82 games and making 58 starts in his three seasons with the program, gaining a reputation as a fierce competitor on the court and a scholar-athlete off the floor. As a senior, he averaged 11.9 points, 3.7 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game with a .415 3-point percentage, which ranked second in the Southland Conference.

In the classroom, he was a two-time Academic All-American (second-team as a senior, third-team as a junior) and graduated from UTA in 1998 with a perfect 4.0 grade point average in marketing.

Cross and his wife, the former Jennifer Harris, have three sons: Austin, Cody and Tyler.
