STORYLINES FROM THE FLATS

AT TIP-OFF

• Georgia Tech women's basketball is back home Sunday inside McCamish Pavilion for a 2 p.m. tilt with reigning Big 12 Champs No. 24/24 West Virginia.

• Tech is looking to cut into the Mountaineers' 3-1 series lead, with the Jackets' lone win coming on March 23, 2021 (73-56) in the NCAA Tournament. This is Tech's first home game vs. West Virginia since Feb. 16, 1983 - the first meeting in the series.

• Tech is looking at its second-straight game against a team that won its conference tournament last season after defeating reigning SoCon Champion Samford, 84-58, Thursday night on The Flats.

• Jordan Ode led Tech's offense with 18 points on an efficient 8-for-12 clip while also grabbing six rebounds. La'Nya Foster and Talayah Walker each scored 16 points (with 8 and 6 rebounds, respectively) in addition to 14 points from Erica Moon.

• Tech led after the first quarter but had to fight back from a flurry of Samford scores to open the second period. After an 11-2 run to retake the lead from the Bulldogs, the Jackets didn't look back and cruised to the 84-58 win.

• Tech improved to an impressive 95-12 against non-conference opponents all-time inside the friendly confines of McCamish Pavilion, and 7-0 all-time under head coach Karen Blair when scoring 80 points or more.

• Tech is shooting 50.4% from the floor through its first two games and if 32-for-36 (88.9%) from the free throw line.

TODAY IN TECH WBB HISTORY

• Georgia Tech is 2-0 all-time when playing on Nov. 8, last defeating in-state foe Georgia State, 67-47, in the 2024-25 campaign.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

• West Virginia is one of the 16 games (out of 30) for Tech this season against teams that made the 2026 NCAA Tournament. That number is tied for the most in the ACC this season (Notre Dame) and tied for seventh-most among Power Four squads.

• The Yellow Jackets also face seven teams this season that either 1) won their conference's regular season and/or tournament title or 2) were runner-up in the conference championship game. Each of their first three games fall into that criteria (win over Hofstra Monday, win over Samford Thursday and No. 24 West Virginia - Sunday).

NUMBERS TO KNOW

4 - Georgia Tech had four players in double figures scoring Thursday vs. Samford.

5 - With a win, Tech will secure its fifth 3-0 start in the last six seasons.

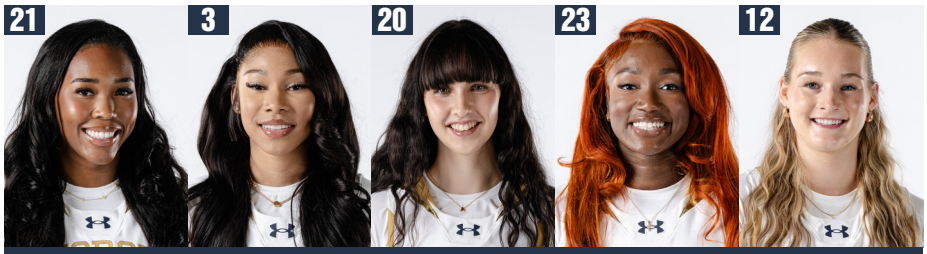

7 - Tech is 7-0 under head coach Karen Blair when scoring 80 points or more.

11 - Through two games, Tech is 11th in the nation with an 88.9% average at the free throw line. That mark leads the ACC.

28 - Talayah Walker is averaging 28.0 PPG through the season's first two games - 13th nationally and second in the conference.

It is incorrect to call it "Georgia Tech University."

Officially, it's The Georgia Institute of Technology. But just call us "Georgia Tech."

LET'S RUN IT BACK

Georgia Tech women's basketball enters the 2026-27 season with significant returning production compared to year one of the Karen Blair Era in 2025-26.

In Blair's first season, the Yellow Jackets returned just three student-athletes from the 2024-25 NCAA Tournament Team. This season, Tech more than doubles that number with seven returners including four of the primary five starters from last year.

The Karen Blair Era opened in style on Nov. 6, when the Yellow Jackets took down Radford, 82-36, for 'Education Day' inside McCamish Pavilion. After a tight first quarter and only up by three, the Tech defense rose to the challenge and did not allow a single basket in the second quarter - the first scoreless defensive quarter in program history - holding the Highlanders to 0-for-12 from the floor. GT outscored Radford 69-26 in the final 30 minutes of game time and out-rebounded the Highlanders 51-23 in the game.

The victory marked the 13th-straight home-opening win for Tech and the fewest points allowed in a head coach's debut game in program history.

Talayah Walker led the charge with 16 points while Brianna Turnage led the team in rebounds (11) and Erica Moon in assists (6).

Second Season

IG • @coachkarenblair

Head Coach since April 6, 2025

Karen Blair was named the seventh head coach in Georgia Tech women's basketball history on April 6, 2025. A coaching veteran and one of the nation's top recruiters, Blair brings over 25 years of coaching experience to The Flats. Blair most recently spent the last seven seasons at Maryland, serving as associate head coach the final five, helping the Terrapins to three Big Ten titles and NCAA Tournament berths every season the tournament was held. During her tenure, the Terps advanced to four Sweet 16s and made an Elite Eight appearance in 2023.

In her first year at the helm in 2025-26, she led Tech to 10 wins on home court and a WBIT berth – becoming the first Yellow Jacket head coach to do so in their first season. Prior to her seven successful seasons at Maryland, Blair held coaching stops at VCU, North Texas, Texas-Arlington, Colgate, and her alma mater, SMU.

One of the most decorated players in SMU women's basketball history, Blair was a three-year starting point guard and helped the Mustangs to NCAA Tournament berths. She graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in business administration from SMU in 1999.
