Located in Vaughn, NM, where U.S. Highways 54,60, and 285 meet, this former convenience store presents a practical investment opportunity for a business owner looking to serve the area's ranching community, travelers, and pass-through traffic.

Once a bustling railroad town, Vaughn played a keyrole in early transportation and commerce in the region. While now a small, quiet town, its strategic location at a major highway junction makes it a natural stop for those on the road. This property is well-suited for a general store, feed or supply shop, catering to both locals and long-haul drivers

Property Benefits

- Former convenience store with existing infrastructure for retail use
- Large lot size
- Strategically located at the intersection of three U.S. highways: US-285, US-60 and US-54
- Affordable investment in a low-competition market
- Excellent visibility and easy access from US-285
