One Bellemead Centre is a BOMA 360® Performance Program–designated building, a recognition awarded by the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) International to properties that meet rigorous standards for operational excellence.

The BOMA 360® designation evaluates a building's day-to-day management practices across multiple operational categories including building operations, life safety and security, energy performance, sustainability, and tenant relations. Buildings earning this designation demonstrate a commitment to maintaining high standards in both physical operations and tenant service.

For prospective tenants, this certification reflects a professionally managed property where building systems, safety procedures, and operational practices are regularly evaluated against industry benchmarks—supporting a reliable, well-maintained, and responsive office environment.

What BOMA 360® Certification Means

For Tenants:

- Professionally managed building operations aligned with national industry standards.
- Strong focus on life safety, security protocols, and build-ing preparedness.
- Efficient building systems and operational performance.
- Responsive property management and tenant service practices.
