SWC OF INTERSTATE 20
AND TARBUTTON ROAD, RUSTON, LA

RUSTON, LOUISIANA is located in North Louisiana between Shreveport and Monroe, and is the parish seat of Lincoln Parish. Other Lincoln Parish communities include Choudrant, Dubach, Grambling, Simsboro, and Vienna. With a population of 48,396, Lincoln Parish is a thriving area covering 472 sq. miles of land. Ruston is known for its lively college-town atmosphere, 25-block historic downtown district, thriving arts culture, scenic sports and outdoor attractions, peach orchards, and the Louisiana Peach Festival. Ruston lies at the intersection of Interstate 20 and Highway 167, providing easy access to a number of national markets. Lincoln Parish is also home to a diverse economic base of both domestic and internationally based companies, including advanced manufacturing, technology/support services, healthcare, and financial services.

Commercial real estate investment continues to grow not only in the heart of downtown, but along I-20 as Ruston invests in infrastructure. Construction on Buc-ee's travel center is set to begin in 2024 on the new Tarbutton Exchange with more than 50 adjacent acres for further development. Several hotels and restaurants have already secured land in the development.

With Louisiana Tech University, Grambling State University, and Louisiana Delta Community College nearby, education is an economic anchor for our city. The universities are large employers in the area, contributing to Ruston's healthy and growing economy.

ECONOMIC NEWS AND DRIVERS

Louisiana Tech University's College of Business was named to U.S. News & World Report's 2024-2025 list of Best Graduate Schools of Business. The university tied for the highest-ranked public business school in Louisiana at spot 97. Other recognitions include being named the Best College of Business in Louisiana by Niche and the second-best value MBA by College Consensus.

2024 / 2025

The first-ever Buc-ee's in Louisiana will open in Ruston in late 2025. Conveniently located off I-20 across from Ruston Junior High School, the new Buc-ee's will bring 250 jobs to the area. As of May 2024, there are 48 Buc-ee's stores in the United States.

New Sports Complex

In January 2022 the $35 million Ruston Sports Complex opened. In 2023 it saw 210,000 annual visitors and in 2024 they are on track to see 410,000 visitors. The complex hosts baseball, softball, soccer, tennis and football, and attracts sports enthusiasts in the region. The complex is expected to generate $1.2 billion over the next 20 years, making a tremendous economic impact. The indoor and outdoor complexes includes a 62,470-square-foot indoor facility features a multipurpose room, meeting rooms, offices and concession area, plus six multi-use courts that can simultaneously host six basketball games, eight volleyball games, 15 pickleball games or six indoor soccer games. The outdoor facility features 15 turf multi-use fields, nine tennis courts, three grass soccer and football fields, seven grass baseball and softball fields, three playgrounds, a six-acre pond, a walking trail, charging station areas, concessions and 10 full-service RV slots.

2023 - Reports confirmed that JPMorgan Chase is planning to build a new 50,000-square-foot operations center in Ruston, La. The project would be a minimum $30 million investment and would create 200 full-time jobs when completed, with an average wage of $50,000 per year. The building would be located on the North Frontage Road of Interstate 20.

2024 Tourism Update

The Ruston Lincoln Convention & Visitors Bureau (Experience Ruston) is pleased to share that 2023 was a strong year for tourism in Lincoln Parish. Based on proprietary visitor intelligence data, the parish saw an 18% increase in new visitors to the area, and a 7% increase in total trips to the area. It was a record setting year for the Louisiana Peach Festival, which saw more than 24,000 festival attendees, a 10% increase from 2022.
