Investment Highlights

- Offered at $367,000, this 1,458 SF building provides a turnkey office solution with modern upgrades. The full 2025 renovation minimizes upfront costs for the next owner.
- Recent improvements include a new roof, flooring, paint, and lighting. These updates create a polished, low-maintenance environment.
- The layout includes two private offices, a large open work area, a kitchenette, and an ADA-compliant restroom. It supports a wide range of professional, medical, and creative uses.
- The 72' x 72' lot includes roughly 10 dedicated parking spaces. This on-site parking enhances convenience for both employees and clients.
- Located in Covington's Central Business District, the property sits in a high-demand office market. Its size, condition, and location make it a strong value at its price point.

Location Summary

- Positioned in Covington's Central Business District, the property sits among established offices, medical providers, and local businesses. This setting supports steady activity and visibility throughout the day.
- The site offers direct access to major roadways, providing smooth connectivity for staff and clients commuting from surrounding areas. This accessibility enhances operational convenience for daily business functions.
- Nearby amenities include restaurants, retail, and civic services within minutes of the property. These surrounding conveniences contribute to a supportive work environment for employees and visitors.
- Covington's CBD is known for its stable commercial presence and strong local reputation. This contributes to long-term demand and a reliable business climate for office users.
- The surrounding area is well-maintained and continues to experience consistent professional growth. This ongoing development further strengthens the property's position within the market.
