The Ritz-Carlton, a name forever synonymous with luxury, has remained at the forefront of the world's most exclusive list of prestigious hospitality brands for its revolutionary approach to affluent living. Now, the coveted namesake gears up to redefine the notion of resort-style living as it touches down in Pompano Beach with a two-towered residential building suited for both boaters and beachgoers.

While these two distinct groups have had to seek out waterfront properties with the proper accommodations to enrich their way of life, the innovative endeavor provides them with the luxury of no longer having to choose between a beach or a marina while being equipped with exuberant accommodations tailored to both. Serving as the first of its kind in South Florida, The Ritz-Carlton Residences, Pompano Beach consists of two towers split
