SPARKLING

Champagne, M. Gonet, "Les 3 Terroirs", Blanc de Blancs, Extra Brut, 2017 76

On one hand Champagne is a beverage that seamlessly represents celebration for many, and on the other is one of the most meticulously handled wine products on Earth. At Michel Gonet the care goes from vineyard to cellar, from hand harvest to long lees aging and the result is a Champagne of the highest quality and finesse.

WHITE WINE

Sancerre, Domaine Vacheron, 2020 79

The Vacheron family name in Sancerre is viticultural royalty. Three generations ago the family took over their first vineyards. As their family grew so did the pedigree of their bottlings. It is not a wine trying to reinvent Sancerre, but to be an elevated version of the classic style.

Chardonnay, Soliste, "L'Age D'Or", Russian River Valley, 2015 43

Burgundy born and raised, Claude Koeberle is considered one of the world's foremost experts in winemaking, and his wines never cease to disappoint. "Soliste" comes from the name that winemakers in Burgundy use for a special barrel reserved solely for family and friends.

RED WINE

Chassagne-Montrachet, Domaine Guy Amiot et Fils, " Vieilles Vignes", 2019 79

In 1920, Founder Arsène Amiot started acquiring parcels in Chassagne including several premier crus and a few rows of Le Montrachet. By the time Guy Amiot, the domaine's namesake, took over in 1985, the domaine had built up very impressive holdings and had passed the knowledge of how to best care for the vines down from generation to generation. There was a continuity of work in the vineyards that led to solid consistency in the wines.

Cabernet Sauvignon, Sinegal, St. Helena, 2021 76

Although one of Napa Valley's newest wineries, Sinegal inherits a long tradition at the property it now inhabits: Inglewood Estate. This is the epitome of Napa Valley Cabernet. A combination of power and elegance in your glass.
