

--- Australian National Championship Competitor Qualification ---

The International Sports Karate Association Australia Incorporated (ISKA) annually will conduct an invitation only event for the purpose of determining calendar year Australian Champions & Grand Champions.

The invitation & selection process for this event will use the rankings generated from that calendar years pre finals & State finals round tournaments in the following way -

- Competitors placing in the Top 10 in any division in Queensland will be invited to compete in any division
- Competitors placing in the Top 10 in any division in New South Wales will be invited to compete in any division
- Competitors placing in the Top 10 in any division in Victoria will be invited to compete in any division
- Competitors placing in the Top 3 in any division in Western Australia will be invited to compete in any division
- Competitors placing in the Top 3 in any division in Australian Capital Territory will be invited to compete in any division

(This provision to be updated should Western Australia, Australian Capital Territory or any other state operate a circuit with more than 4 annual events)

Competitors placing first in any division at the following events will be invited to compete in that division only, as recognition of being the state champion regardless of their individual overall ranking in the above.

- New South Wales State Final - "CCP"
- Queensland State Final
- Victorian State Final

(This provision to be updated should Western Australia, Australian Capital Territory or any other state operate a circuit with more than 4 annual events)

International competitors who are ranked in the "top 10" in their home country or who are currently rank as their home countries national champion can be seeded into the Australian National Championship at the discretion of the ISKA.

ISKA reserves the right to allocate wild card entries to any competitor who does not qualify via the above selection criteria.

The ISKA may at its discretion offer "open" events at the Australian National Championship these events will be clearly gazetted as such and will require no pre selection criteria.
