All of us keep a secret now and then, but at least one out of fifteen people is a chronic Secret Keeper. These are persons whose secrets have power over them and make them misbehave, become sick, or violate others. Burdened by unhealthy secret-keeping habits, they "steal hours" away from their public lives to act out their secret behaviors or passions; sometimes for decades; but rarely get found out. Many are everyday folks. Your next door neighbor. The person ahead of you in the superma ...
