CHINESE TEA

Jasmine, Fujian	310	Oolong	360
A Chinese specialty since the Song Dynasty, famed for its subtle sweetness and distinct, fresh fragrance.		The dark green, well twisted leaf, with a touch of roasted aromas. A delicate and mild tea, produces a yellow cup that is famous in East Asia.
Jasmine Flower Infused Green Tea	360	Tie Guan Yin	360
The natural sweet smelling jasmine flowers are mixed with green tea. A delicious palate cleanser after strong tasting or rich food.		A light yellow brew produces a refreshingly green character with a slightly roasted aftertaste.
Moroccan Mint Green Tea	360
A pleasing all natural combination of gentle green tea with peppermint leaves.

SPECIALTY DRINKS

Matcha Latte 265

Matcha Latte topped with whipped cream and complemented by grissini breadstick dipped in green tea white chocolate.

COCKTAILS

Old Fashioned 660

Maker’s Mark, Mancino Vermouth, Angostura bitters, Sugar syrup

Cosmopolitan 460

The Toby Cecchini version based on Cheryl Cook South Beach Miami original creation back in 1985 or 1986: vodka, Cointreau, cranberry juice and freshly squeezed lime.

Mai Tai 415

“Mai Tai Roe Ae”, meaning “out if this world” was the reaction of Victor Bergeron’s Tahiti friends when they taste his new creation in 1944 at his original Trader’s Vic bar in San Francisco. A perfect blend of rum, dry orange curacao, lime juice, orgeat, bitter and sugar.

Margarita 415

A recipe that’s oftenismade a million times, we are proud to serve you what is the closest thing to the original Danny Negrete’s 1936 recipe: tequila, Cointreau and lime juice shaken or frozen up to your taste.

Bloody Mary 415

A blend of vodka, tomato juice, seasoned with salt, pepper and cayenne, based on Fernand Petiot’s Harry Bar original creation – Paris 1929.

COCKTAILS

Daiquiri

415

Made popular in the early 1900's at the Floridita in Havana Cuba, the daiquiri was already invented in 1896 by an American engineer named Jennings Cox near Santiago one night where he was mixing up drinks using the white rum and what ever was on hand... being lime + sugar!

Whiskey Sour

415

Eliott Stubb, sailor in the British Navy was the creator of the whiskey sour around 1874 to 1879. Bourbon whiskey, fresh lemon juice and simple syrup shaken over ice.

Blood and Sand

660

It was named after Rudolph Valentino's 1922 bullfighter movie Blood and Sand. The red juice of the blood orange in the drink helped link it with the film. The recipe first appeared in the 1930 Savoy Cocktail Book. It is one of the few classic mixed drinks that include scotch whisky, cherry brandy, vermouth rosso and fresh blood orange.

Long Island Iced Tea

660

"LiIT" at its best using only the finest spirits to create a well balanced cocktail with a nice citrus finish that will please the most avid "LiIT" drinker. Vodka, gin, rum, tequila, cointreau, lemon juice topped with Coca-Cola.

Piña Colada

660

The Puerto Rico's national drink invention is claimed by many, but our piña colada (strained) at his best can hardly be beaten: white rum, coconut, pineapple and sugar either shaken or frozen.

Singapore Sling

660

Invented back in 1915 by Ngaem Tong Boon at the Long bar of the Raffles Hotel Singapore, the world famous cocktail is a fruity blend of gin, Cointreau, DOM Benedictine, cherry herring, angostura bitter, lime juice, pineapple juice and grenadine.
