Mountain West Conference

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide academic assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 14 years, 41 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 28 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Named a Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport in 1998, Commissioner Thompson has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the Mountain West implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 793 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 14 years, including a league-record 83 All-America honorees in 2010-11. A total of 131 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 14 years, capturing three team national championships in women's cross country and producing 33 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 56 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games. The MW has earned 68 postseason bids in men's basketball, including 38 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 60 postseason slots, including 32 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 36 NCAA bids with eight Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 27 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. MW men's golf has had at least four representatives in 13 of the last 14 NCAA Golf Regionals, while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 11 of the last 14 years.

Head Coach Jeff Leightman

6th season • Binghamton University, '95

A Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Coach of the Year, Jeff Leightman was named San José State University women's soccer head coach in February 2008.

In the program's 18-year history, Leightman is the only coach to lead his team to back-to-back regular season conference titles. His five-year record is 40-47-11, and his 2009 squad was the first since 1999 to post a winning record. In each of his first four years, he led the Spartans to a WAC Tournament bid.

In his 2010 campaign, Leightman led the team to its second-straight winning season. San José State broke a team mark for most single-season WAC wins with six. With a shutout victory at home on senior night, San José State clinched a share of the 2010 WAC regular season title. The program received numerous honors from the 2010 All-WAC women's soccer awards with the Freshman of the Year distinction and three players earning All-WAC honors. Three additional players were named to the WAC All-Tournament Team.

The Spartans set a single-season school record with a 14-match unbeaten streak, ignited by five-consecutive shutout victories. Four Spartans were first-team All-WAC selections and one earned second-team conference honors. In addition, Leightman became the second San José State women's soccer coach to be named WAC Coach of the Year.

Leightman's success on the pitch in his first five seasons with the Spartans parallels the team's academic success. San José State players have 52 Academic All-WAC awards since the 2008 season. In 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012, the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) recognized the Spartans with one of its Team Awards for achieving a team grade point average over 3.00 on a 4.00 scale. Since beginning his tenure at San José State, Leightman's athletes have earned three Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sports Scholar awards.

A COAST-TO-COAST PROGRAM BUILDER

Coaching at his alma mater, Leightman seamlessly transitioned Binghamton University's women's soccer program from a mediocre Division III team to a regionally-ranked Division I force in the east. Leightman left Binghamton for San Jose State as its winningest women's soccer coach, compiling an overall record of 102-66-1 from 1998 through 2007.

In 2004, Binghamton won the America East Conference title and earned an NCAA Championship Tournament berth in just four seasons competing at the Division I level. The Bearcats' success resulted in Leightman receiving America East Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Through seven years of Division I competition, Leightman directed his squad to top-10 Northeast Region rankings by both the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz magazine. In 2001, Soccer Buzz ranked Binghamton as the top first-year Division I program in the nation. Respected by his coaching colleagues, Leightman served as the America East Women's Soccer Coaches' Chair from 2005-07, the National Chairman for the NSCAA/Adidas rankings and the East Region Chairman for the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete All-America Committee.

A NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP COACH & ODP EXPERIENCE

Leightman's coaching career began with a three-season tenure in 1993 as an assistant at Binghamton. The Bearcats went 39-13-8 overall during that span, earned a conference championship, was ranked second nationally in 1995 and played in the 1995 NCAA Division III Championship. He moved to the University of North Carolina for the 1996 season and was an assistant coach on the Tar Heels' NCAA Division I championship team. After a year as a Villanova University assistant coach, he returned to Binghamton as the women's team head coach.

Since 1999, Leightman has worked for the Olympic Development Program. He is currently the head coach of the De Anza Force U16 team in Cupertino, Calif. The Force competes in the Elite Club National League (ECNL), an elite program in girls' youth soccer. He was a United States Youth Soccer Region I staff coach and was the Director of Coaching for the BC United Fusion, a premier girls' youth soccer program, from 2004-07. In 1999-2000, he was the girls' head coach of the New York State West ODP U16 and U17 teams.

Leightman earned a bachelor's degree in biological sciences from Binghamton in 1995. He holds an NSCAA Premier diploma and a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" license.

Assistant Coach David Lovercheck

5th season • Hunter College

David Lovercheck enters his fifth season in 2013 as an assistant coach with the San Jose State women's soccer team. His primary responsibilities include recruiting, compliance and on-field training.

Alongside his work at San Jose State, he is a Region IV Olympic Development Program staff member. He was the head coach of U15 Pride Elite Clubs National League (ECNL) in Los Altos, Calif., which he led to the ECNL National Championships in Richmond, Va., in July 2013. Before coaching at San Jose State, he worked for the FC Gold Pride in its inaugural season as a Women's Professional Soccer League club.

Lovercheck's collegiate coaching career began in 2007 with a one-year stint as a Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) (New York, N.Y.) assistant men's soccer coach. That season, the team was the City University of New York Athletic Conference (CUNYAC) Regular Season and Tournament champion.

Lovercheck's tenure at BMCC followed a four-year playing career for conference-rival Hunter College in New York, N.Y., where he was a four-year captain and a two-time all-CUNYAC selection. From 1999 to 2008, Lovercheck was involved with the Downtown United Soccer Club (DUSC). Most notably, he was the program director for a soccer clinic developed by the DUSC to provide free soccer instruction to inner-city elementary schools.

Lovercheck earned a bachelor's degree in Organizational Behavior and Leadership from the University of San Francisco in 2010. He holds a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "B" License. A Bay Area native, Dave, his wife, Jen, and their daughter, Emily, live in San Jose, Calif.

Assistant Coach Niki Brooks

1st season • Portland State University, '06

Niki Brooks begins her first season as an assistant coach for San José State's women's soccer team in 2013. She brings six years of collegiate coaching experience, four years of strength and conditioning knowledge and a four-year career as a Division I goalkeeper to the Spartans.

Brooks joins San José State following a two-year assistant coaching stint at the University of Wisconsin – Green Bay. Working primarily with the team's defensive corps and goalkeepers, Brooks' 2011 squad allowed one or fewer goals in 14 of its 18 matches.

Her first Division I assignment was as an assistant coach at the University of Idaho (2010), a season during which the Vandals appeared in their first conference tournament. A record-setting season, Idaho set school marks for wins and posted the second-lowest goals against average in program history.

Brooks began her collegiate women's soccer coaching career in 2006, serving two years as Linfield College's (McMinnville, Ore.) defensive tactician and strength and conditioning coordinator. A second two-year assignment in 2008 followed at Pacific University (Forest Grove, Ore.), where she was the Goalkeeper Coach and Recruiting Coordinator. Her first position following her undergraduate career was as a graduate assistant coach in Portland State University's strength and conditioning program.

Brooks also has experience coaching at the youth level. Alongside her assignment at the University of Wisconsin – Green Bay from 2011 to 2013, she served as the Head Girls Soccer Coach and Goalkeeper Coach from FC Green Bay Soccer Club, and an Assistant Coach, Goalkeeper Coach and Development Coach for the Wisconsin Olympic Developmental Program. While working in Oregon from 2006 to 2011, she was the Head Girls Soccer Coach, Goalkeeper Coach and Director of Fitness Programming for the Tualatin Hills United Soccer Club.

Brooks was a four-year member of the Portland State University women's soccer team. The school's record holder in career saves and shutouts, she was a member of the 2004 Big Sky Conference Champion team and a 2005 All-Big Sky Conference honorable mention goalkeeper.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Brooks graduated from Portland State in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in physical activity and exercise, minoring in sociology. She earned a master's degree from her alma mater in secondary education with an emphasis in health and physical education in 2010.
