About Women's Gymnastics

TEAM SCORING

Each team can field up to six competitors on each event, but only the top five scores will count toward the team score. Collegiate competition requires at least two judges evaluate each athlete's performance. The average of the two scores is the final mark. A perfect team score would be 200, and the top college teams score in the 194-197 range.

SCORING

With the exception of vault (which has a predetermined start value for each vault), routines are judged on a 9.5 point scale, with an additional .5 bonus available for meeting special requirements. Judges use the following criteria:

Value parts (difficulty*)2.2 points
Special requirements1.2
Execution, combination and artistry (bblfx)6.1
Additional value0.5
Total10.0

* Skills are classified by difficulty (A, B, C, D, E) with E being the most difficult.

SCORING DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor0.5
Heavy brush of feet or hand touch on floor0.3
Intermediate swing on bars0.3
Presentation to judges omitted before or after1.0
Stepping out of bounds on floor0.1
Other deductions up to 0.3 are taken for form breaks such as bent arms and legs or leg separations. There is also a team deduction of 0.3 for competing out of order in the lineup.

VAULT

VAULT

The vault in gymnastics could best be compared to the dive in aquatics. Scores are awarded on the basis of difficulty and execution. A vault consists of two principle elements - pre-flight (the approach to the horse) and post-flight. The faster the approach and the higher the vault, the better the score.

UNEVEN BARS

A routine requires at least 10 moves including the dismount. The key to a good score on bars is continuous movement; breaks or pauses in the routine result in point deductions. The gymnast must move from one bar to the other with a series of swings, twists, somersaults and handstands. The dismount is the most dramatic movement.

BALANCE BEAM

Despite the 4-foot height and 4-inch width of the beam, the gymnast is expected to do what amounts to a floor-exercise routine. The key word is balance, as the judges deduct points for stumbles and falls. The routine includes dance movements (leaps, turns and jumps), acrobatic and tumbling movements and maximum use of the entire beam. The routine lasts 90 seconds.

FLOOR EXERCISE

The favorite of most gymnasts and fans, the floor exercise lends itself to personal expression. The only music-accompanied event, the floor exercise routine contains tumbling movements, dance movements and a maximum use of the floor area. There must be at least three tumbling passes in the routine (passes from one spot of the floor to the other). The routine lasts a minimum of 70 seconds and a maximum of 90 seconds.

Wayne

Head Coach
*Academy of Health Sciences, 1984
8th Season*

Wayne Wright is in his eighth season as the head coach of the San Jose State women's gymnastics team. The Spartan program has made significant strides during Wright's tenure, breaking school records, winning conference championships and receiving team invitations to the NCAA West Regional.

Wright and the Spartans recorded one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2008. The team advanced to the NCAA West Regional for just the third time in the program's history. The Spartans finished second at the WAC Championships by just .200. Two gymnasts were first team All-WAC honorees, Veronica Porte and Emily Stebbins, while Shanice Howard, Renae Moneymaker and Porte all received second team All-WAC recognition.

In 2007, two Spartan gymnasts, Porte and Alise Blackwell, competed in the all-around at the NCAA West Regional. Porte received All-Western Athletic Conference honors in the all-around and on the vault and floor.

Wright helped lead the 2006 Spartan team to its second team appearance at the NCAA West Regional. San Jose State finished fourth, the best in program history. The Spartans broke the school vault team and individual records during the year. Wright also helped the Spartans transition to competing in the Western Athletic Conference. Three gymnasts received All-WAC honors - Renae Moneymaker, Veronica Porte and Kelsey Spellacy.

The 2005 team had a 17-5 overall record and placed second at the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Championships. Three gymnasts - Jennifer Greene, Greta Leach and Michelle Minotti, qualified for the NCAA West Regionals in the all-around.

The 2004 season was a successful year as the Spartans recorded a 16-9 record and won the MPSF Championship held at Spartan Gym. Three individuals won MPSF titles - Shirla Choy, bars; Amberly Klein, beam; and Jennifer Greene, floor. The first 10.0 score was posted by a Spartan gymnast as Greene was perfect on the floor at the MPSF Championships.

For the 2003 season, Wright posted an overall record of 12-9. The team broke every event record in Spartan history under his instruction. For the first time in school history, the Spartans qualified as a team for the NCAA West Regional competition. The team placed second at the MPSF Championships, and Wright was named the MPSF "Coach of the Year."

In 2002, the Spartans were 12-9-0. Wright coached four individuals at the NCAA West Regional meet, the most in school history. The team broke the school floor record and placed third at the MPSF Championships.

Spartan Coaching Staff

Wright believes firmly in the importance of academics and athletics in a college education. Five teams, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005, had the highest grade point average among San Jose State's 16 intercollegiate athletic teams. Three gymnasts were named 2007 Scholastic All-Americans by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, and 10 were named to the Academic All-WAC team. In the past five years, 26 gymnasts have received "Scholastic All-America" honors.

As an assistant coach, Wright was at Stanford from 1996- 2001 and at San Jose State from 1987-1996. While at Stanford, Wright helped coach the team to its first Pac-10 title in 1998 and an NCAA West Regional championship. During his first stint at San Jose State he coached Tara Law, the 1996 Big West floor champion, to the NCAA West Regional.

Before he began collegiate coaching, Wright served as program director and head coach of the Kokokahi Gymnastics Center in Kailua, Hawaii, developing Class I National Junior Olympics gymnasts. He also worked with U.S.A. Gymnastics at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta and was on the floor when the team won the gold medal.

This past summer, Wright served on the local organizing committee for the 2007 VISA U.S.A. Women's Gymnastics Championships held at the HP Pavilion in San Jose. He helped to insure that the meet was run smoothly for all participants and spectators.

Wright has an extensive background in nursing and physical education. He graduated from the Academy of Health Sciences in Texas with a degree in nursing. He also studied physical education and recreation at the University of Hawai'i.

Wright served three years in the U.S. Army as a nurse attached to Tripler Army Medical Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. He is a certified phlebotomy technician and a candidate for a California Nurse's License.

Spartan Gym

Spartan Gym is the home of the San Jose State women's volleyball and women's gymnastics teams. Seating capacity of the gym varies from 1,000-1,500 people depending on the gym setup. The gym is located on the corner of Fourth and Paseo de San Carlos Streets. Housed in the Spartan Gym complex are two training rooms, locker rooms and an uneven bar training room for gymnastics.

During the summer of 2005, Spartan Gym underwent extensive renovations to update the facility. New paint, new ceiling, new windows and new scoreboards highlight the many changes to the facility. The locker rooms also were redone.
