2015 Coaching Staff

LAUREN HANSON

Head Coach
Second Season
Portland, 2003

On December 18, 2013, Lauren Hanson, winner of NCAA Women's College Cup championships as a coach and player, was made the sixth head women's soccer coach at San José State University.

Hanson won both of her NCAA Women's Cup championships with the University of Portland. In 2005, she was an assistant coach with the Pilots and in 2002, was the team captain of Portland's championship team.

"I'm excited about coming to San José State and am very thankful that the committee and Gene gave me this opportunity," said Hanson about her first major college head coaching position. "I'm looking forward to turning the program into a future Mountain West powerhouse.

"There is a lot of potential to grow San José State's women's soccer into a strong program. The university is located in a recruiting hotbed and San José State has great opportunities to offer student-athletes."

"We are very pleased that Lauren has agreed to be our next women's soccer head coach," said Bleymaier. "We were very impressed with her background and her experience. We believe that she is a great fit for San José State and that she will be very successful here."

Hanson has seven seasons of NCAA Division I coaching experience. As the University of Oregon's Associate Head Coach during the 2009 through 2011 seasons, she coached the Ducks' backline and was the program's recruiting coordinator.

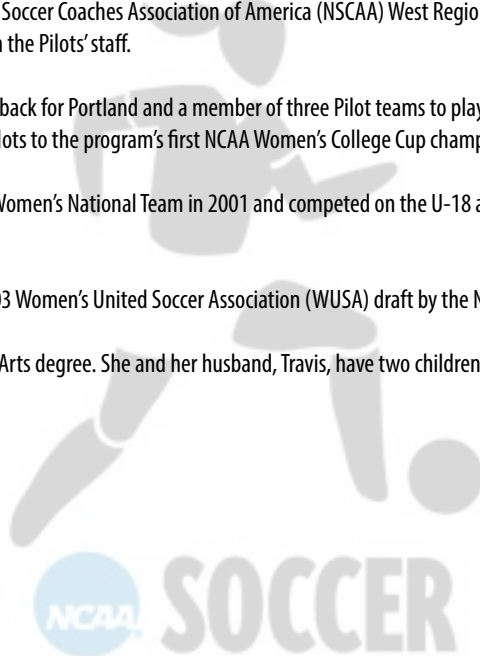

Hanson began her college coaching career at her alma mater, the University of Portland, in 2004. In 2005, Portland completed an undefeated season (23-0-2) en route to its second NCAA Women's College Cup championship. In 2006, Hanson was named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) West Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Portland earned a berth to the NCAA Women's College Cup in four of her five seasons on the Pilots' staff.

As Lauren Orlando, Hanson enjoyed an illustrious playing career. She was a four-year centerback for Portland and a member of three Pilot teams to play in the NCAA Women's College Cup. The 2000 and 2001 clubs reached the semifinals, and she captained the 2002 Pilots to the program's first NCAA Women's College Cup championship.

Hanson also has national team playing experience. She was a member of the United States Women's National Team in 2001 and competed on the U-18 and U-21 U.S. women's national teams.

Hanson played one season professionally after she was the ninth-overall selection in the 2003 Women's United Soccer Association (WUSA) draft by the New York Power.

A native of Lake Forest, Calif., Hanson graduated from Portland in 2003 with her Bachelor of Arts degree. She and her husband, Travis, have two children, Cole and Taylor.

DOMINIC DOTY

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Santa Clara, 2007

Dominic Doty, an experienced collegiate coach, is in his first year as an assistant coach for the San Jose State University women's soccer team in 2014.

Doty joins the Spartans' coaching staff after four years as the head coach of Linfield College's (McMinnville, Ore.) women's soccer team. The winningest coach in Linfield women's soccer history, Doty compiled a 70-28-8 record. During his first full season as head coach in 2009, he guided the Wildcats to its first winning season in program history and highest Northwest Conference finish in seven years.

In the 2010, 2011 and 2012 season, Linfield set school records each year in wins and Northwest Conference placing, as well as racking up three-consecutive second place conference finishes in 2011, 2012, and 2013. Twenty-seven of his athletes earned All-Conference honors, and four were awarded conference Offensive or Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

As a collegiate coach, Doty also places heavy emphasis on the importance of academics. During his tenure, Doty coached four NSCAA All-Region players and a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree.

While at Linfield, Doty also served as an assistant coach for the men's basketball team from 2007-13 and an assistant coach for the men's soccer team from 2007-08. His father, Larry Doty, was head coach of the men's basketball team for 26 years and is the winningest coach in program history.

Doty graduated from Santa Clara University in 2007 with a Bachelor's degree in management. Doty competed for the men's soccer team for two seasons.

ADRIANNE FASS

Assistant Coach
First Season
Florida, 1999

Adrienne Fass was appointed as an assistant coach women in July of 2015, one year after she joined the Spartans as a volunteer assistant in summer of 2014.

Fass came to the Spartans after serving as an assistant coach at Foothill College for five seasons. During that time, the Rams won Coast Conference championships in 2009, 2010 and 2012. The 2013 team advanced to the California Community College Final Four and finished ranked 17th nationally for two-year institutions.

Fass also held various coaching responsibilities and administrative positions with the De Anza Force Soccer Club of Northern California since 2001.

The 1999 graduate of the University of Florida majored in exercise and sports science. As a college player, she played on Gators teams that compiled a combined record of 82-11-3 during the 1995 through 1998 seasons, made three NCAA Tournament appearances and won the NCAA Championship her senior season in 1998.

An outstanding defender, she was an honorable mention All-America choice by Soccer Buzz as a sophomore, a two-time all-region selection and a two-time, second-team All-Southeastern Conference pick. She was named her team's Most Valuable Player as freshman as Florida shutout 11 opponents that season.

Fass earned United States Soccer Federation (USSF) Class C, B and A coaching licenses and a National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Director of Coaching License. She is a past recipient of the USSF's Robert McNulty Award given to the coach who best exemplifies performance, attitude and devotion when earning the Federation's Class C coaching license.
