Jolene Shepardson Head Coach

Jolene Shepardson begins her third season at the helm San José State University women's volleyball program.

Shepardson begins the 2016 season with a mix of talented returning players and impactful newcomers. The Spartans feature players from five different countries - United States, Brazil, Czech Republic, Estonia and Iceland.

In two years, her teams have also made an impact in the classroom. Eight players received Academic All-Mountain West honors for 2015-16, and five players were named Mountain West Scholar Athletes, given to student-athletes who maintain a 3.50 or higher grade-point average. In two years, 1

Shepardson took over the program at Bakersfield in 2011 season and coached a 0-31 team in 2010 to an 8-18 record in her first year. The improved number of 10.5, determined by adding the difference in victories between the two seasons to the difference in losses and dividing by two, was the sixth-best improvement in the NCAA. The 2012 team continued the upward progression, finishing with a 14-17 record in the team's final season as an NCAA Division I Independent.

Her 2013 team ended the season with a 21-12 overall record and 12-4 mark in the Western Athletic Conference, setting a school record for the most wins in a season. The team finished second in the WAC regular-season standings and advanced to the championship match of the WAC Tournament. Three Roadrunners earned first or second team All-WAC honors for their play, and four players received Academic All-WAC honors.

"I am honored to accept this position and grateful to the entire search committee for trusting us with the San Jose State volleyball program," said Shepardson. "My aim is that San José State Volleyball will be known for its passion for the game and commitment to the team. With everything San José State has to offer, I believe that the program will compete at the top of the Mountain West."

Shepardson spent the 2010 season as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech. The Hokies played in their first NCAA Tournament match in school history that season and advanced to the second round to play eventual national champion Penn State. Two Virginia Tech players earned All-America honors (Felicia Willoughby and Cara Baarendse).

Prior to her time at Tech, Shepardson was an assistant coach at recruiting coordinator at American University in 2009, coached with Front Range Volleyball Club in Colorado from 2006-08 and was a volunteer assistant coach at Winthrop (2005) and at Regis University (2004-05).

“We are very thrilled that Jolene will be our next women’s volleyball head coach,” said Bleymaier. “She brings a wealth of volleyball experience to our program, and her proven track record as a head coach is impressive. We welcome Jolene and her family to San José State.”

As a collegiate player at the University of South Florida, the former Jolene Patton helped the Bulls win two Conference USA Regular-Season Co-Championships (2000 and 2002) and make two NCAA Tournament appearances those seasons. The 2002 team advanced to the second round of the tournament, sweeping Florida State in the first round before losing to host Florida 3-1.

Shepardson graduated from the University of South Florida in 2002 with a degree in psychology. She is a National Academy of Sports Medicine certified Personal Trainer.

She and her husband, Aaron, have two daughters Mirabelle (4) and Marielle (1) and a son McCoy (2).

Aaron Shepardson begins his third season the associate head coach for the San José State women's indoor volleyball team in addition to serving as the Spartan beach volleyball head coach.

Shepardson has been a key reason for the Spartans upswing. He is responsible for the team's hitting and is instrumental in the recruiting of international players to San José State. The Spartans currently have seven international players from four countries - Brazil, Czech Republic, Estonia and Iceland.

He came to San José State after three seasons with similar responsibilities at CSU Bakersfield. In indoor volleyball, the Roadrunners went from a winless program prior to his arrival to setting a school record for single-season victories with 21 in 2013. CSU Bakersfield reached the 2013 Western Athletic Conference championship match.

In sand volleyball, the Roadrunners played their first season of sand volleyball in 2013, finishing with a 5-7 win-loss record. CSU Bakersfield played half of its 12-match schedule against top-five ranked teams nationally.

His other major college indoor volleyball experiences include serving as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech (2010), American University (2008 and 2009), Winthrop University (2005) and the University of Denver (2002). Winthrop won the 2005 Big South Conference championship. Shepardson also was a volunteer assistant the University of Florida in 2004. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Baylor University in 1996 and held that position for two years.

Shepardson was the head coach of the Front Range Volleyball Club - Mountain Division from 2006 to 2008. He also was the assistant coach for Front Range's 18-Open National Championship team in 2002.

A native of Littleton, Colo., Shepardson graduated from Baylor in 1998 with a degree in psychology. He played on Baylor's men's volleyball club as an outside hitter and setter and was a member of the USA Men's National Volleyball team in 2000 and 2001. ## Ian Choi Assistant Coach

Ian Choi joined the San José State University volleyball program as an assistant coach in the Spring of 2015.

Choi came to San José State after spending the 2014 volleyball season as the volunteer assistant coach at the University of Kansas. He worked primarily with the defensive specialists and liberos and handled many of the day-to-day tasks including team travel and Data Volley stats. Kansas held opponents to just 60 service aces and 0.51 aces per set, one of the lowest totals in Big 12 and school history. Kansas held opponents to just 60 service aces and 0.51 aces per set, one of the lowest totals in Big 12 and school history.

Prior to Kansas, Choi was a head coach at the Austin Junior Volleyball Club for eight seasons (2006-2014). He coached primarily the 17s and 18s and was the 2013 Coach of the Year on the club circuit. His 2013 team finished 11th at nationals and won the Lone Star Regional Championship. The 2014 team placed third at the Pacific Northwest Qualifier.

During his time in Austin, he was also the head coach of the University of Texas Women's Volleyball Club team (2005-2012). Choi was responsible for two competitive teams, serving as the head coach for one and overseeing the development of the second. He coached the team to the National Collegiate Volleyball Federation (NCVF) national championships in 2006 and 2007, while the 2008 team finished as the runners-up.

Choi also served as a team manager for the Texas women's volleyball team that was a 2013 NCAA Semifinalist and the 2013 Big 12 Champions. He kept statistics during matches using Data Volley and aided in team drills during practice.

A setter on the Texas men's club volleyball team, Choi helped lead the team to an eighth-place finish at the 2005 NIRSA Tournament.

Choi graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor of science degree in applied learning and development.
