Mountain West Tournament

6:00 p.m.

Las Vegas, Nev.

UNDERSTANDING UNLV

Wednesday's meeting will serve as the 17th game of the season for UNLV. The team currently owns an 8-8 record and has won five straight games. The Lady Rebels are off to a 4-1 start to Mountain West play this season and sit just a half game back of San José State in the conference standings.

It's senior Rodjanae Wade who paces the UNLV offense with an average of 14.3 points per game. Wade also tops the team on the glass, pulling down an average of 9.8 rebounds per game.

The Lady Rebels are 3-3 on the road this season and have won two straight away from home, taking down both Utah State (60-46) and Air Force (67-60).

SJSU VS. THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Overall, San José State is 116-221 against the current make up of schools in the Mountain West. The Spartans enter having won nine of their last 12 conference games, the most recent victory coming at Colorado State on Saturday.

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo led her team in the 58-53 victory at Moby Arena, tallying 26 points in the winning effort. After Wednesday's tilt, San José State's next Mountain West game will come back at home against New Mexico on Jan. 22.

ROAD WARRIORS (OR SPARTANS)

San José State has won its first four road games of conference play for the first time since the 1978-79 campaign, when the Spartans won at San Francisco, Santa Clara, Stanford and Fresno State in NorPac action. Its four-game road winning streak is tied for the 14th longest in Division I and is the best in the Mountain West.

SJSU already has five road wins on the 2019-20 campaign. The program has not had a season with more than five road victories since winning eight in the 2004-05 season. Finally, last week's wins at Nevada and Colorado State marked the program's first road sweep since the 2015-16 campaign (won at Air Force and Fresno State).

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

San José State is off to a 5-1 start to conference play, marking the program's best six-game start to conference play in 38 years. The 1981-82 Spartans opened that league season with a 5-1 mark in NorPac action.

CALL IT A COMEBACK

The Spartans now own six victories on the year after trailing at halftime: at UC Santa Barbara (down four at half, win by three); Buffalo (down seven, win by seven); San Diego (down seven, win by six); at New Mexico (down 10, win by one); at Nevada (down six, win by two); at Colorado State (down nine, win by five).

BASALLO BREAKDOWN

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo is playing as well as any guard in the country, ranking 10th nationally in points per game (20.8) and No. 23 in assists with 5.3 per game. Basallo currently has an assist on 34% of her teammates' baskets while on the floor. She is also one of the nation's top free throw shooters, slotted fifth in Division I with a 92.3% clip at the charity stripe.

Basallo is one of just two players nationally averaging 20+ points and 5+ assists per game. She has scored in double figures in each of her 14 games against Division I opponents and has reached the 20-point plateau in nine of those.

AYZHIANA'S AWARDS

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo has already garnered five weekly awards this season. The guard was named the College Sports Madness High-Major Player of the Week (and Mountain West Player of the Week, her second of the year from CSM) back on Dec. 9 after leading her team to a pair of victories to tip-off conference play. Basallo had previously earned back-to-back Mountain West Player of the Week awards from the conference office in November.

20/20 CLUB

Grad transfer Tyra Whitehead became just the second player in program history to join the 20/20 Club on Jan. 4, tallying 22 points and 20 rebounds against Fresno State. Whitehead was just the 13th player in all of Division I to accomplish the feat this season and is the first to do so at San José State since Lora Alexander poured in 27 points and grabbed 20 rebounds against UC Santa Barbara on February 23, 1989.

MORE WHITEHEAD

Forward Tyra Whitehead has been producing all year in her first season on-campus at San José State. The Wake Forest transfer ranks No. 12 in all of Division I and is first in the Mountain West with 172 rebounds. Her seven double-doubles on the season slots her at second in the conference and 27th nationally in that category.

ACTUALLY, STEALING IS GOOD

San José State is ranked No. 6 nationally with 202 steals in 17 games. Forward Tyra Whitehead is slotted 24th in the country in that category with 43 thieveries on the year. Fieme'a Hafoka (30 steals) and Cydni Lewis (26) are also stealing the ball at a high rate as the month of January rolls on.

THIRD QUARTER SUCCESS

The Spartans have been one of the nation's top third quarter teams this season, outscoring its opponents to the tune of a 366-290 (+76) margin. They posted a pair of 35-point third quarters in an 18 day span earlier in the year, coming out of the locker rooms red hot against La Verne and New Mexico.

MAKING SOME HISTORY

San José State set multiple school records in its Dec. 14 victory over La Verne. The 128 points scored by the Spartans set a program record for scoring in a single game, topping its previous high of 119 (vs. Columbia, 2014). Its 66-point win broke a record for margin of victory that had stood since 1979 (65 vs. Cal Poly, 1979). In addition, SJSU's 44 made field goals matched the school record for makes in a single game (44 vs. Arizona on Jan. 4, 1979).

Furious Comeback Falls Short At UNLV

Las Vegas, Nev. — Trailing by 12 points late in the fourth quarter, the San José State women's basketball team went on an 11-0 run over two minutes and 30 seconds to close to within one point, but could get no closer and fell to the UNLV Rebels 74-70 on Saturday afternoon.

"I was really happy with our effort tonight," head coach Jamie Craighead said. "We got it down to a one-possession game and gave ourselves a chance to win, but we didn't get a few calls which could have made it a different outcome."

The Spartans (2-21, 1-11 MW) were down by as many as 13 points in the second half and trailed 71-59 with 2:48 to play. Fieme'a Hafoka hit a three and 20 seconds later Megan Anderson hit another to make it a six-point game with 2:09 on the clock. Three straight free throws, two by Anderson with 1:36 left and another from Raziya Potter at the 1:27 mark made it 71-68.

Mikaylah Wilson hit a jumper with 18 seconds to go to bring San José State to within a point, 71-70. With no timeouts left, the Spartans were forced to foul. UNLV hit three of their last four to secure the 74-70 victory.

The Spartans were led by a season-high 16 points from Anderson, who also equaled her career-high with nine rebounds. Danae Marquez had 12 points, including a pair of threes, five rebounds and four assists. She moved into a tie with Natalie St. Mary for 17th place on the program's career-assists list with 188 and moved into a 22nd-place tie on the career three-point list with Andrea Kohlhaas with 53 threes.

The other Spartan in double figure scoring was Cydni Lewis. She had 11 points, four rebounds, one assist, two steals and a block.

Alexis Harris added six points and blocked a pair of Rebels shots. She has 44 blocks in her career and ranks 24th on the career-blocks list. Wilson scored four points, grabbed four boards and with her one block, the 45th of her career, is 23rd on the SJSU blocks list.

The Spartans struggled out of the gate. They were getting the shots they wanted but couldn't knock them down. Twice they found themselves down by 10 points; 12-2 with 4:11 into the game and 18-8 with 4:07 left in the period. But then they caught fire from long distance.

Fieme'a Hafoka started the rally with a three. Marquez then hit one on the next possession and Hafoka made her second right after Marquez. With 1:13 to go in the quarter Lewis hit the team's fourth trey of the period, which pulled SJSU to within four at 24-20.

Lewis made the teams next two buckets to tie the game at 24-24 inside 10 seconds to play. UNLV hit a bucket with a second to go and the score was 26-24 after one.

Five straight points from Megan Anderson to open the second gave SJSU its first lead of the game, 29-26. A Potter layup with 7:18 to go before half put the Spartans up 31-29, but in the last 5:21, UNLV (9-15, 7-6) outscored San Jose State 11-4 and took a seven-point lead into the locker room, 44-37.

Coming out of halftime, the Rebels extended its lead to as many as 12 points in the third before SJSU got it down to eight, 59-51, heading into the final 10 minutes.

UNLV pressed its advantage bock to double digits early in the fourth and had its largest lead 69-56 with 4:46. The Spartans comeback commenced a few minutes later, but UNLV held on for the four-point victory.

Jamie Craighead was named the eighth head women's basketball coach at San José State University on September 16, 2013.

Entering 2019-20, her seventh season leading the Spartans, Craighead's teams have set and then broken the program's record for points scored in a season, and in 2014-15 set a San José State and Mountain West Conference single-game record when the Spartans scored 119 points in a win over Columbia.

Under Craighead's guidance the Spartans reached the semifinals of the 2015 Mountain West Championship Tournament. It marked just the second time in the 42-year history of the program that the team advanced that far in its conference championship tournament. In addition, the team's 15 wins were the most since the 2004-05 team won 18 games.

The 2013-14 squad established single-season marks for free throws attempted (726) and made (493) as well as three-pointers attempted (793) and made (245). In 2014-15, the Spartans set new marks for three-pointers attempted (872) and made (271), assists (501) and total field goal attempts (2,262).

In her six seasons, Craighead's players have earned nine conference post-season awards for their play on the court. In addition, they have earned 32 Academic All-Mountain West (3.0+ GPA), 13 Mountain West Scholar-Athlete honors (3.5+ GPA), five Dean's Scholar (3.65+ GPA) and three President's Scholar designation (4.0 GPA+) as well as nine Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sport-Scholar Award and a first-team Capital One Academic All-District VIII honor. Finally student athletes, Ta'Rea Cunnigan, the school's all-time leader in scoring, and Emily Vann graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Craighead came to San José State after spending four seasons at Sacramento State (2010-13), where she was the winningest women's head basketball coach in 20 years and the only coach to post a winning conference record at Sacramento State since they entered the Big Sky Conference in the 1996-97 season. Under her guidance the Hornets reached the Big Sky Conference Tournament for just the fifth (2012) and sixth (2013) times in program history. In those appearances, Sacramento State earned its first tournament wins and reached the semi-final round both years.

The youngest head coach in Division I when she took over the Hornets, Craighead's teams, playing a fast-break type offense, led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in each of her four seasons. Sacramento State set several program records in 2012-13 including field goals made, assists, blocked shots and fewest turnovers committed. In addition, the team's 19 wins equaled the program's single-season record, which was set in the 1990-91 season. The Hornets led the Big Sky in points, 3-pointers, and assists and on the defensive end, topped the league in steals and blocks.

Also in 2012-13, Craighead coached Kylie Kuhns and Megan Kritscher, two of the top post players in the Big Sky Conference. Kuhns, at only six feet tall, broke the school and Big Sky career rebounding records during the year, while also leading the team in scoring.

In four seasons, nine of her players garnered All-Big Sky honors. She coached 2011-12 Big Sky Freshman of the Year Fantasia Hilliard, and 23 of her athletes received Academic All-Big Sky Conference honors for their work in the classroom.

Prior to accepting the top job at Sacramento State, Craighead spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant for the Hornets before being promoted to Associate Head Coach the following year.

Craighead started her coaching career in 2002 under two-time NCAA Division II Coach of the Year Gordy Presnell at Seattle Pacific University. In her three years at SPU, the team posted an 89-5 record, won three PacWest Conference titles, qualified for the NCAA Division II Tournament each year and reached the championship game in 2005. After her success in Seattle, she spent two seasons as an assistant at Portland State University before taking a position at Sacramento State.
