Scouting the Spartans

San Jose State enters Friday with a 4-6-0 overall record and a 1-1-0 mark in league action. The Spartans most recently logged a 2-0 home win over Colorado College to improve to 3-2-0 in games played at the Spartan Soccer Complex.

Taylor Phillips leads SJSU with a pair of goals this season. Seven other Spartans have scored once this fall.

Both Autum Monty and Shayla Sugai have taken on goalkeeping responsibilities for SJSU. They have alternated starts in net the last three games.

The series has resided fairly even in recent past. Wyoming is 2-2-1 in its last five against the Spartans, winning 3-2 in 2018 – the last time the two competed in San Jose.

Scouting the Bulldogs

It's a similar story between the Cowgirls and Fresno State. Wyoming is 2-1-2 in its last five against the Bulldogs, as the two squads tied in its last meeting in Fresno.

The Bulldogs come into their pair of home games – against Colorado State on Friday and Wyoming on Sunday – with a 3-3-3 overall record and a 1-0-1 mark in MWC play. The Bulldogs opened league play at Colorado College and at Air Force, tying the Tigers and defeating the Falcons.

Kassandra Ceja paces Fresno State offensively with three goals this season, while three players own a trio of goals. Ella Wilson has played the most minutes in net for the Bulldogs this fall, owning 19 saves and a GAA of 0.93.

Fresno State enjoys a great deal of success at home. The Bulldogs have not fallen at the Fresno State Soccer Stadium since 2019.

About the Cowgirls: The University of Wyoming soccer team takes to the road for a pair of Mountain West Conference matches this week. The Cowgirls play at San Jose State on Friday at 5:30 p.m. before traveling to Fresno State for a 1 p.m. game Sunday.

UW, sitting at 5-4-1 overall and 1-1-0 league action, is fresh off its most complete performance of the season in its conference home opener against San Diego State. The Cowgirls controlled the contest from the outset en route to a 3-1 victory over the Aztecs – their largest margin of victory against SDSU since 2003.

"I really do believe it's a maturity thing, and I think this group is still learning how to be consistently consistent," head coach Colleen Corbin said. "It's a confidence thing. They need to understand that what we did against San Diego State is possible against everyone we play."

The victory included a spectacular display of skill from redshirt-junior midfielder Jamie Tatum, as she netted the game's first goal. It also featured a score from senior defender Savannah Warner – her second in as many games – and plenty of flip throws, and one goal, from sophomore forward Alyssa Bedard.

Those are just three examples of the diversity of skills within UW's roster. Plenty of other players possess varying skills that make the Cowgirls difficult to scout against.

"It's really cool to have a bunch of different types of players that can all play in the same system," Corbin said. "Figuring out what somebody's strengths are and allowing them to utilize those strengths in the best way possible is part of the goal. It's not expecting everyone to play the same way or do the same things, you just want everyone to operate in the same system."

That system has created a balanced scoring attack. Tatum, Bedard and junior forward Faith Joiner lead the way with three goals apiece. Warner has a pair of scores, while five others have also found the back of the net.

Statement win over the Aztecs: Wyoming toppled San Diego State in its conference opener 3-1. It marked the largest margin of victory over the Aztecs since 2003.

Starting fast: Wyoming netted a third-minute goal, from senior Savannah Warner, at New Mexico on Friday. That's the quickest score for the Cowgirls since scoring in the second minute against Nevada during the 2018 season.

Balanced scoring attack: Numerous Cowgirls have found the back of the net this fall. Nine different players have accounted for 16 goals this season, and that's the third-highest number of goal-scorers in the league behind Boise State and UNLV. Redshirt-junior Jamie Tatum, junior Faith Joiner and sophomore Alyssa Bedard lead the way with three scores apiece. The offensive balance was on full display in this season's 4-0 victory over Omaha. It marked the first time since 2017 where the Cowgirls had four different goal scorers in any one contest.

Youth movement: Six starters for Wyoming are either freshmen or sophomores. Two freshmen, Maddi Chance and Liv Stutzman, have started all 10 matches.

Finishing strong: The Cowgirls have consistently turned in strong second-half performances. UW is out-scoring foes 10-3 in second halves. The Cowgirls have also logged 80 shots in the final 45 minutes compared to just 44 in the first 45 minutes.

Best start in program history: The 3-0-0 start to the season represented the best beginning to a season in school history.

Wyoming selected 10th in preseason MWC poll: The University of Wyoming was picked to finish 10th with 31 points. New Mexico was pegged as the favorite, collecting 118 points and nine first-place votes. San Diego State was selected to finish runner-up with 111 points and three first-place votes, while Boise State rounds out the top three with 93 points.

A quote from Corbin: "It's really cool to have a bunch of different types of players that can all play in the same system," Corbin said. "Figuring out what somebody's strengths are and allowing them to utilize those strengths in the best way possible is part of the goal. It's not expecting everyone to play the same way or do the same things, you just want everyone to operate in the same system."

Colleen Corbin

(Oregon State, '12)
University of Wyoming, Head Coach

University of Wyoming Director of Athletics Tom Burman announced the hiring of Colleen Corbin as head coach of the Cowgirl Soccer Team on June, 21, 2021. She is the fifth head coach in the program's history. Corbin comes to Wyoming from James Madison University, where she spent three seasons as an associate head coach.

"We are excited to have Colleen Corbin lead the Cowgirl soccer program," Burman said. "She will bring a renewed energy to the team and brings great enthusiasm to our student-athletes."

Corbin brings a tremendous amount of experience in her days as an All-American at Oregon State, a professional player and as an assistant and associate head coach. She will make being a Cowgirl a great college experience for our student-athletes."

Corbin started her collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Cal State-Northridge before stops at Arizona State and James Madison. In the summer of 2016, Corbin was selected for the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) 30 Under 30 program, an initiative designed to give participants exposure to the Association's membership, and the opportunity to take advantage of educational offerings, such as diplomas and the NSCAA Convention. Corbin was chosen for the program from a pool of 350 applicants.

"I want to thank Athletic Director Tom Burman and Associate Athletic Director Peter Prigge for the opportunity to lead the Cowgirl Soccer Program and their professionalism during the hiring process," Corbin said. "For my fiancé and I to be in a place like Wyoming is special for us. Seeing the campus and facilities and meeting the people in Laramie verified that this is an incredible opportunity."

Corbin was a two-time All-American at Oregon State. A standout goalkeeper, Corbin also earned All-Pac 12 honors and All-West Region honors. She ended her career with the most shutouts and lowest goals-against-average in Oregon State history. Corbin was a two-time captain.

"I got into coaching to create the same experience I had as a student-athlete," Corbin said. "We want to build a culture that is competitive and feeds off hard work and high energy. Cowgirl Soccer will be committed to excellence on and off the field by producing well-rounded human beings. That starts by getting myself and the program involved in the Wyoming community. I'm so excited for this opportunity and ready to get started."

After her time at Oregon State, Corbin played two seasons of professional soccer in the WPSL for the Western New York Flash based in Buffalo, New York. Corbin helped lead the squad to the league championship. She also played a season for the Boston Breakers as part of the NWSL.

At James Madison, she helped lead JMU to the Regular season CAA Championship. Corbin helped the Dukes lead the league in regular-season shutouts in her first season, highlighted by Hannah McShea setting the program record for solo shutouts by a junior with seven. McShea was named Second Team All-CAA in her first season as the Dukes' starting goalkeeper.

At CSUN from 2014 to 2016, Corbin guided the Matador goalkeepers from two shutouts in 2013, the season before her arrival, to a combined 15 shutouts across the next two seasons, while dropping CSUN's goals-against average from 1.64 in 2013 to 1.12 from 2014-15.

She is a 2012 graduate of Oregon State and is a native of La Cañada, Calif. Corbin, formerly Colleen Boyd, married Nick Corbin in July of 2020.

Julie Spracklin

(Monmouth, '17)
Assistant Coach

University of Wyoming head coach Colleen Corbin announced Monday the addition of Julie Spracklin to the UW coaching staff. Spracklin joins Wyoming after spending time with Corbin on the staff at James Madison.

"I could not be more excited to have Julie join our already dynamic, talented staff at Wyoming," Corbin said. "It was important for me to bring in an assistant that I not only trusted, but also someone who believes in the future of the Cowgirl women's soccer program as much as I do. Julie is a phenomenal coach, but she is an even better person and I can't wait to watch the positive impact she will have on the success of our program and lives of our student-athletes."

Spracklin spent one season at James Madison, prior to that she spent three seasons at Misericordia, an NCAA Division III institution. She helped lead over 40 wins in those three seasons and helped guide her team to the Elite Eight in 2018.

"I'm so incredibly excited to be joining the Cowgirl soccer staff," Spracklin said. "I cannot thank Colleen and the administration enough for providing me the opportunity to help impact the women's soccer program with positivity, integrity and a competitive mindset. I have so much respect for Colleen and so excited to grow alongside of her in Wyoming. She truly has a contagious personality that I know will shine through as she steps into this head coaching role."

She was a four-year starter at Monmouth University. After earning MAAC All-Rookie honors as a freshman, she was named First Team All-MAAC three times in the next three seasons, serving as the Cougars' captain as a junior and senior.

She earned her bachelor's degree in health studies in 2017 from Monmouth.

Taylor Burton

(Wyoming, '19)
Assistant Coach

University of Wyoming head coach Colleen Corbin announced the addition of former Cowgirl Taylor Burton to the staff as an assistant coach. Burton comes to Laramie after spending time on the staff at Evansville.

"We are thrilled to have Taylor join our staff at Wyoming," Corbin said. "Taylor was a very accomplished and impactful player during her career at UW and was an integral part of the 2018 Mountain West conference championship. She is passionate about the game, organized, eager to learn and brings so much energy and enthusiasm to the table."

She helped lead the Cowgirls to a share of the Mountain West regular-season championship in 2018. It marked the first regular-season championship for Cowgirl soccer. That team went on to tie the school record for wins in a season with 12.

Burton was a standout for the Cowgirls from 2015-18. As a senior, Burton was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year, as she became the first Cowgirl in school history to do so. She also earned First Team All-Mountain West honors and earned First Team All-Pacific accolades.

"I'm so thankful to have an opportunity to be back in Laramie and be part of this team again," Burton said. "Being a student-athlete at the University of Wyoming was unforgettable. Being on the other side is different, but I'm thrilled to have such an amazing staff and team to be able to work with."

She ranks in the Top-11 all-time in Wyoming history in games played, games started and game-winning goals.

She graduated from Wyoming with a degree in elementary education and teaching.
