Coaching Staff

John Dormann Head Coach 14th Season at SJSU

Continuing to establish the Spartan name among national contenders, John Dormann is in his seventh season as the San Jose State University women's golf head coach. Now in his 14th season affiliated with the San Jose State golf programs, Dormann was the assistant for both the men's and women's teams from October 1998 through 2005 when he took over as the head coach for both teams. Dormann was named the women's head coach in April 2005.

As head coach, the Spartans played at the 2010 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championships in Wilmington, N.C., the NCAA Regional Championships each of the last five seasons, won the 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2011 Western Athletic Conference Championship, captured eight in-season tournament titles and been ranked in the top-30 of the GolfStat rankings. The 2008-09 team won four regular season titles along with the WAC Championship and played at the NCAA West Regional. Former Spartan Erica Moston won the individual WAC title twice (2007 & 2009).

Dormann has recruited effectively and honed the games of young talents into tournament-proven skilled players. The two-time WAC Coach of the Year (2006, 2009) has coached two of the past three WAC champions including Moston, and two WAC Freshmen of the Year. San Jose State players have received seven first team and seven second-team all-conference honors with Dormann as head coach.

As proficient in the classroom as on the golf course, the 2008-09 team received the Order of Spartan Team GPA award for the highest combined team grade-point average for the fall and spring semesters.

As the assistant coach for the men's and women's programs, the Spartans women's teams finished in the top-20 at the 1999 through 2001 NCAA Championships including a 15th place finish in 2000. San Jose State men's and women's golfers received All-Western Athletic Conference first or second-team recognition 24 times while he was the assistant coach. Ashley Gomes, a 2004 honorable mention All-American, was the 2004 WAC Champion and Player of the Year.

In the classroom, Spartan golfers received 25 Academic All-WAC awards and 10 national awards for academic excellence from the Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) and the National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA) during his tenure as the Spartans' top assistant.

"In addition to building a national championship-caliber team, we want to develop a program and student-athletes that represent the best in San Jose and the university," says the Spartans' coach.

Before coming on board with the Spartans, Dormann was a professional caddy on the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour. He worked for Meg Mallon, the 1991 LPGA Player of the Year and two-time U.S. Open champion, and his wife, Dana Dormann, when she, too, was one of the LPGA's top players of the 1990's. Though Dana no longer competes as a LPGA touring pro on a regular basis, the Dormanns have reunited as player and caddy at three of the past four U.S. Open Championships.

The native of Daly City, Calif., is a 1979 graduate of Riordan High School in San Francisco, Calif. A 1989 graduate of San Jose State, he majored in social studies. John and Dana have two sons, William and Jason, and reside in Pleasanton, Calif.

John Dormann was the 2006 & 2009 WAC Coach of the Year. He has caddied at every LPGA major championship.

Dana Dormann Assistant Coach 8th Season at SJSU

Dana Dormann begins her eighth season as the associate head coach. Dormann played on the San Jose State University women's golf teams during the 1985 through 1988 seasons. She was a member of the Spartans' 1987 NCAA Championship team. Dormann was a four-time tournament winner: the 1987 Pacific Coast Athletic Association "Player of the Year" and a three-time All-American. Her 76.46 stroke average for 141 rounds of college competition puts her in the top-10 all-time on the San Jose State list.

In the fall of 2011, Dormann was named the Coach of the Year for the Western Section as selected by the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Teach and Club Profession (T&CP) membership. She was one of five collegiate coaches selected for the award.

Dormann was the 1985 U.S. Junior and Junior World champion. The win at the U.S. Girls Junior Championship earned her an invitation to the 1986 U.S. Open. The native of Oxnard, Calif., began her professional career on the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET). In her first LPGA event, the 1991 Oldsmobile LPGA Classic, she finished in second place. She won the 1992 Las Vegas LPGA International, birdieing her last hole, and won the 1993 McCall's LPGA Classic in Stratton Mountain, Vermont.

Dormann was also a member of the 1992 and 1993 U.S. Nicheri Cup teams that competed against teams from Japan. She was the 1993 Most Valuable Golfer of the competition.

She was one of five Spartan All-Americans to make the cut at the 2006 U.S. Open after qualifying for her 13th Open of her career. She won the 2005 LPGA T-and-CP Championship for teaching and club professionals. That win garnered her an invitation to the 2006 LPGA Championship. Retired from the LPGA Tour, she is a teaching professional at the Pleasanton (Calif.) Golf Academy.
