Utah Valley-San José State Post-Match Notes

The three goals scored by San José State on Friday matches the most Utah Valley has allowed in a match this season.

The Spartans have now recorded two home shutouts in conference play this season, the program's most since 2015.

Forward Rodolfo Castro's seven goals and 16 points in conference play leads the WAC in both categories. His eight total goals in 2019 tops the team.

Goalkeeper David Sweeney's 39 saves in conference play has him currently slotted second in the WAC.

Friday's 3-0 victory marked the second career shutout for the freshman keeper.

San José State now owns a 3-2-1 record all-time against the Wolverines.
