COACH JOHN KENNADAY

John Kennaday was appointed the San José State men's golf coach in April 2005. His hire 15 years ago marked a return to his alma mater, where as a senior he was a 1987 All-American. Under his watch, SJSU opened a spectacular 15-acre on-campus practice facility in 2017. For years, he pursued upgrading the college game through live television and saw his vision become a reality in 2019 with GOLF Channel's unprecedented daily live coverage of the 73rd Western Intercollegiate presented by Topgolf. The Western Intercollegiate, founded by SJSU in 1947, is played at the Pasatiempo Golf Club in Santa Cruz, Calif. Highly respected and acknowledged by his peers, he is completing his fourth year on the Golf Coaches Association of America's National Advisory Board. For the 2018-19 academic year, he was the GCAA's first vice president. Previously, he also served a full three-year term as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee. As the head coach of the Spartans, San José State has made NCAA Regional Championship appearances in 2011, 2012 and 2019. In 2012, he was named the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Coach of the Year after leading the Spartans to a conference championship and three other tournament victories.

TEAM NOTES

SEASON CANCELED

The NCAA and the Mountain West shut down all sports as of March 12 due to the outbreak of COVID-19. The Bandon Dunes Championship was the Spartans' final tournament of the 2020 spring season. The NCAA has stated it will look at adding another season of eligibility for all seniors who had their final season cut short.

YU WINS GENESIS COLLEGIATE SHOWCASE

Sean Yu grabbed a spot in the PGA TOUR Genesis Invitational by winning the Genesis Collegiate Showcase on Feb. 10 at The Riviera Country Club. Yu bested a field of 13 top collegiate golfers with a 1-under par 70. Yu missed the cut in the Genesis Open, but improved from a 78 in his first round to a 73 in his second. His driving distance improved from 270.4 in his first round to 321.8 in the second.

SPARTANS SWEEP PACIFIC INVITE

San José State won both the team and individual titles at the Visit Stockton Pacific Invite to close out the fall schedule. SJSU shot 16-under for the tournament, three strokes better than No. 4 ranked BYU in second, its first team win since 2012. Sean Yu claimed his first career win, shooting an 11-under. Both the Spartans and Yu led the tournament wire-to-wire over three days.

YU'S RECORD ROUND AT ALISTER MACKENZIE

Senior Sean Yu had a round to remember to open the Alister MacKenzie Invitational. Yu posted a school-record 61 in his opening round. The 10-under par card matched the school record (62 on a par 72). Yu took second at the tournament with a 15-under 198, the second lowest three-round score in program history. As a team, the Spartans tied for seventh.

NICK WATNEY INVITATIONAL

San José State took third for a second straight tournament at the Nick Watney Invitational. The Spartans were 23-under par for the tournament, led individually by Parker Sisk and Sean Yu, who both tied for 11th at 7-under. Sisk had the best tournament of his collegiate career, shooting 69-69-68.

THE GOLFWEEK CONFERENCE CHALLENGE

The Spartans had the lowest final round of the tournament to take third at the Golfweek Conference Challenge in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. SJSU climbed from 11th to fifth after the second round before jumping to third. Freshman Caleb Shetler was SJSU's top finisher, taking sixth at 4-under.

CORPUS COMPETES WITH PHILIPPINES

Competing for his native Philippines at the 2019 Southeast Asian Games (Nov. 30-Dec. 11.), freshman Carl Corpus took sixth individually (74-69-68) and then helped his home country to a third place showing in match play. After losing to Indonesia in the third place match last year, Corpus and the Philippines got revenge with a playoff win this year.

THE 74TH WESTERN INTERCOLLEGIATE

San José State is honored to host the longest running men's collegiate golf tournament west of the Mississippi River. For the second consecutive year, the Western Intercollegiate presented by Topgolf will be aired live on the Golf Channel, the only regular season collegiate tournament on live TV. The 2019 Western Intercollegiate will feature Arizona, California, Colorado State, Hawaii, Oregon, Pepperdine, San Diego State, Stanford, UC Irvine, USC, UTEP and Washington.
