New Mexico-San José State Postgame Notes

San José State's 89-85 victory improves the team to 8-0 at home in regulation this season.

The Spartans are now 7-1 in Mountain West play, the program's best eight-game start to conference play since the 1978-79 season (went 12-0 in NorPac action).

Six of San José State's last seven games have been decided by two possessions or less (with the other ending in overtime).

SJSU enjoyed a stretch of five consecutive possessions with a made three-pointer in the contest's second quarter.

San José State's 54 first half points was the program's most in the first 20 minutes of a conference game since Dec. 29, 2016 (56 vs. Nevada, won 107-84).

The Spartans led for 39 of the game's 40 minutes.

Wednesday's win gave SJSU its first regular-season sweep of New Mexico in program history.

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo led all scorers with 26 points in the victory. The point guard entered the day leading the Mountain West in scoring.

Junior Tyra Whitehead (18 points, 16 rebounds) tallied her eighth double-double of the season in Wednesday's game.
