HOMECOMING OF SORTS FOR SEVERAL RAMS

HEAD COACH WHITNEY GOLDSTEIN

Whitney Goldstein came to URI after a highly successful eight seasons at WPI, where she led the Engineers to four regular-season titles, two NEWMAC Championship crowns, three NCAA Regional appearances and two Super Regionals. A two-time NEWMAC Coach of the Year, she also was the ECAC Regional Coach of the Year in 2016.

In 2016, her WPI squad was No. 1 in New England, and a year later the team was ranked No. 11 in the country by the NFCA. She set WPI's single-season win total in three consecutive seasons, winning 30 games in 2014, 34 games in 2015 and 38 games in 2016. Over her nine seasons as a head coach, Goldstein has a .719 winning percentage,

Before her time at WPI, Goldstein spent three seasons at Amherst College, including one as the interim head coach. She also was the director of softball operations at UMass in 2010. In nine seasons before coming to Rhode Island, Goldstein had a career record of 230-90.

During her playing career, Goldstein was an All-American for legendary head coach Elaine Sortino while leading Massachusetts to four straight Atlantic 10 championships from 2006-09. The Minutewomen made four straight appearances in the NCAA Championship, including a run to the Super Regionals in 2006.

As a freshman, Goldstein was the first A-10 player in league history to be named both the Player and Rookie of the Year in the same season. She was a three-time A-10 First Team All-Conference selection, a three-time NFCA All-Region honoree and an Academic All-Conference pick. She started all 217 games she played at UMass, batting .341 with 28 home runs and a program record 156 runs batted in.

Goldstein is the granddaughter of the late baseball legend Don Zimmer, who spent 65 seasons in Major League Baseball as a player, manager and coach.

In 2009, Goldstein graduated from UMass Amherst with a degree in Sport Management. She also holds a master's degree in Recreation and Sport Sciences with a concentration in Coaching Education through Ohio University.

Goldstein and her husband Matt have a daughter Madison and two dogs, Jack Russell Zona and new quarantine puppy, Black Mouth Curr mix, Lilly.
