SAN JOSE STATE

Don W. Kassing President

Don W. Kassing was appointed president of San José State University, the oldest and one of the largest universities in the 23-campus California State University system, in May 2005.

Kassing has moved the university forward in several key areas. Under his leadership, the campus is engaged in university-wide strategic planning, with the goal of making San José State University a university of choice by 2010. In February 2006, he accepted the largest single private donation to the university in its history, a $10 million gift from alumni Donald and Sally Lucas, to create a new graduate school of business.

As president and in his former role as vice president for administration and finance, Kassing led the development, construction and successful opening of two major campus facilities: the award-winning Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, based on a first-of-its-kind and highly successful partnership with the city of San José; and Campus Village, a state-of-the-art residence complex for students, faculty and staff, the largest such project in the California State University system, and the focus of a renewed sense of community on campus.

Before his appointment to the presidency, Kassing had served for more than a decade as vice president for administration and finance and as chief financial officer. As CFO, he had responsibility for all business and financial affairs of the university.

His previous 18 years of experience in higher education includes service as:

- * Vice President for University Relations and Administrative Services - Murray State University (Kentucky)
- * Vice President for Development and Public Affairs - Western State College of Colorado.

From 1975 to 1986, Kassing served at Belleville Area College, in Belleville, Ill., where he taught management and marketing, served as department chair, and for two years was president of the Granite City Campus. Before that, he worked for 11 years in private industry, including eight years in corporate finance and operations management for Brown Group, Inc., and three years with General Motors Corporation.

Active in the community and the region, Kassing serves on the following boards:

- * San José Sports Authority
- * United Way Silicon Valley
- * San Jose Chamber of Commerce
- * Silicon Valley Leadership Group
- * Joint Venture Silicon Valley
- * Silicon Valley Higher Education Roundtable
- * Western Athletic Conference

Kassing holds a master's degree in business administration and a B.S. in economics from St. Louis University. He is married with three children and five grandchildren.

- Ben Nighthorse Campbell of Colorado, the first Native American to serve in the U.S. Senate
- Valerie Coleman-Morris, anchor for CNN Financial News
- Christopher Darden, attorney and member of the prosecution team in the O.J. Simpson trial
- Charles Gingold, vice president, Discovery Channel
- Fashion designer Jessica McClintock

Tom Bowen Director of Athletics

Tom Bowen was named San Jose State University's director of intercollegiate athletics on December 20, 2004. Under his leadership, the Spartans have made significant and meaningful strides forward as a viable Division I-A intercollegiate athletics program.

As the director, Bowen has overhauled the department's infrastructure; invested resources both in external and internal operations; initiated an enhanced website presence; and expanded marketing, promotions and advertising opportunities locally, regionally and nationally with the creation of Spartan Sports Properties. The Spartan Foundation, the department's fund-raising component, has enjoyed its most successful two-year period, generating just over $2.0 million in personal and corporate contributions.

As an integral member of the University's presidential staff, he has created new short and long-term revenue streams for intercollegiate athletics and many other campus extracurricular activities. His initiatives and leadership have created new energy department-wide and throughout the university.

His vision for student-athlete success and excellence led to the creation of a Student Success Services component. Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores as measured by the NCAA have risen dramatically under his watch. Above all, his goal for San Jose State University athletics is building a "Culture of Champions" academically, athletically and in the community.

He has appointed new head coaches in football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's golf and women's swimming and diving. In 2005-06, San Jose State won the Western Athletic Conference women's golf championship, recorded its highest finish ever at a NCAA regional championship in women's gymnastics, produced seven teams out of 16 with its best conference finish in years, and had WAC "Coaches of the Year" in women's golf and softball.

Bowen came to San Jose State after serving three years as the director of community affairs and the executive director of the 49ers Foundation for the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League. He directed all of the team's fund-raising activities and was responsible for alumni and current player participation in the community. San Francisco was the first NFL franchise to implement an annual giving program.

His Division I experience at the college level includes athletic administration positions at the University of California and Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif.

As an assistant and associate director of athletics at the University of California from July 2000 through September 2002, he was responsible for all athletic fundraising. Bowen was credited with developing the first comprehensive planned giving program for the Golden Bears.

At Saint Mary's College, he was the Director of Foundations and Corporate Relations from May 1995 to January 1997 before being appointed to an associate director of athletics position by the president of the college. His grant proposal acumen helped raise $6.1-million in academic funding for the institution. From January 1997 through April 2000, he managed the athletics department's budget, directed a corporate sponsorship program and interacted with the academic senate, faculty and university personnel on student-athlete issues.

The 1983 graduate of the University of Notre Dame played high school football at Moreau High in Hayward, Calif. He majored in theology/sociology and spent six years studying for the priesthood with the Holy Cross Fathers. Bowen went on to earn a master's degree in administration/education from the University of San Francisco in 1990.

His first professional leadership appointment in athletics was at De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif. From 1987 through 1995, he held the positions of assistant football coach and athletics director.

He is a Level 2 certified member of the College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA), the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the National Society of Fund Raising Executives and an associate member of the Indiana University School of Philanthropy.

Bowen currently is an adjunct professor at the University of San Francisco School of Sports Management. A senior faculty member of the Capital Campaign Institute based in Minneapolis, Minn., from 1996 through 2002, he has been a guest lecturer at several Bay Area university campuses. Bowen continues to speak before major corporations headquartered locally on the topics of leadership, management and motivation.

The Denver, Colo., native was born on May 27, 1961. He and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children. In 2007, Andrew will be nine years old; Peter, five; and daughter, McKenna, four.

"Spartan Strength – We Build Winners"

In November 2001, the Koret Athletic Training Center, a major cornerstone of "The Campaign for Student-Athletes...Building a Proud Future," opened at San Jose State University. The Koret Athletic Training Center is a state-of-the-art facility that encompasses over 10,000 square-feet of training space.

The Koret Athletic Training Center also contains a 1,000-square foot rehabilitation and training room that services physical therapy and sports specific rehabilitation. The facility enables the sports medicine staff of athletic trainers, doctors, surgeons, specialists and physical therapists to provide the best possible care to help prevent and rehabilitate injuries.

"Our Philosophy"

- Our goal is to teach student-athletes how to use their bodies for conditioning and competition.
- We emphasize skill development.
- Every element of our program is grounded in the sciences and draws on many training disciplines.
- Speed training, resistance exercise, and flexibility development are components of our program.
- We focus our training on "fine tuning" the nervous system which will enable our student-athletes to perform at very high levels with a minimal amount of stress.
- Every exercise, every piece of equipment, and every drill we conduct is tailored to help our student-athletes perform their best and to remain injury-free.
- We don't align ourselves with the idea of coming into the weight room every day and lifting tons of weight simply to achieve a standard.
- We believe that strength is not an attribute nor a by-product of weight training, but its own unique skill.

The Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is located in the Koret Athletic Training Center. This interactive display features great athletes, great teams, great events and moments in San Jose State Athletics history. Former Spartan athletes that became famous after graduation, great donors, great coaches and administrators are on display. A larger-than-life sized Spartan mascot is located outside the Hall of Champions. Also displayed in the Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is the San Jose State Sports Hall of Fame, which includes over 300 former players and coaches.

The Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is located inside the Koret Athletic Training Center.

"I am excited to be able to give something of this magnitude back to San Jose State University," Garcia said. "They have been such an integral part in my life. I am just happy to be at a point in life that I can do something like this.... My family and I are proud to create this legacy that will always serve as a reminder of how much San Jose State means to me."

Jeff Garcia played his 13th season as a pro in 2006.

Garcia was a quarterback on the 1991, 1992 and 1993 San Jose State teams. As a sophomore, he was third nationally in passing efficiency. He led San Jose State to its first win in school history over a Big Ten Conference team, the University of Minnesota, and went on to receive honorable mention All-America recognition in 1992. The school record holder for total offense with 7,274 yards was named the "Outstanding Offensive Player" at the 1994 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in Palo Alto, Calif.

Neil Parry's inspirational story can be seen in the Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions.

"San Jose State has been a stepping stone that has provided me an education, a degree and of course, the tools I needed to be successful in the NFL." – Jeff Garcia

The Hall of Fame has more than 300 inductees.

Professionally, he played five seasons (1994 through 1998) for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League, was a four-time all-star and led the team to the 1998 Grey Cup championship. Garcia joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1999 and took the team to playoff appearances in 2001 and 2002. He was a Cleveland Brown in 2004, a Detroit Lion in 2005 and a Philadelphia Eagle in 2006. Garcia earned his undergraduate degree as a business administration major from San Jose State University through the National Football League's Continuing Education Program.

The new Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Library, located on the main campus of San Jose State University, one of California's leading institutions of higher learning, opened on August 16, 2003. A first-of-its-kind collaboration between a city and a university, the $177-million, 475,000 square-foot library provides a center for life-long learning. Students, faculty and the community have access to the information they will need for educational and personal growth throughout their lives.

"...The King Library will provide a center for life-long learning opportunities where our students and faculty as well as the community can connect with both technology and human expertise to help them succeed in today's information society," says Patricia Breivik, dean of the university library.

Among the features of the 10-acre, 10-floor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Library on the northwest corner of the main campus are:

"It is clear that SJSU is beginning to be a leader among campuses in ensuring that its graduates will be on the 'HAVES' side of the digital divide, and that is something of which we can all be proud," - Patricia Breivik, retired Dean of the San Jose State University Library.

- 3,623 seats
- 1,800 seats wired for internet connections
- 400 public computers
- 135 databases of information
- 4 computer instruction laboratories
- 112 workstations available in the computer instruction labs
- 37 group-project rooms
- 8 built-in projector screens

The collaborative design of the new Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Library provides many opportunities for academic, cultural and community programs. Multilingual and special collections for San Jose's diverse ethnic groups are available. A special adaptive technology area in the library assures all people have ability to access the information and databases available.

Students can walk from classes on the main campus directly to the new Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Library without crossing a street for study sessions, general research work and a state-of-the-art world of learning opportunities.

Located at the core of Silicon Valley, San José State University is an exceptional place for hands-on learning, professional development and personal growth. Whether you are a graduate or a friend of the university, there are many reasons you can be proud of San José State. From an award-winning faculty and high-achieving students to cutting-edge programs and growing collaborations with the community and the corporate world, SJSU is on the move as it meets the challenges of the 21st century.

Known for the high quality of its academic programs, its excellent faculty (87 percent hold doctorates or the highest degrees in their academic disciplines), and its diverse and committed student body, San José State successfully educates students to compete in today's complex, high tech and global economy.

For the past six years, San José State has been ranked among the top ten masters-level public universities in the West by U.S. News & World Report's survey of "America's Best Colleges." In the 2006 survey, the College of Engineering is ranked 14th among the nation's Best Undergraduate Engineering Programs (in addition, electrical engineering ranks 11th; civil engineering, 16th; mechanical engineering, 16th).

San Jose State is the number one supplier of education, engineering, computer science and business graduates to Silicon Valley, the world's high tech capital. The oldest and one of the largest universities in the 23-campus California State University (CSU) system, SJSU attracts students from throughout California, the United States and 100 countries of the world.

Located in the nation's 10th and California's third largest city, San José State had a fall 2005 enrollment of 29,975 students. Approximately 75 percent of the students were undergraduates; 25 percent were graduate students. Almost 59 percent of the student population had an ethnic affiliation. More than 100 different languages are spoken on campus.

Founded in 1857, SJSU is the oldest public institution of higher education on the West Coast. From its beginnings as a normal school to train teachers, the campus has matured into a comprehensive university offering 134 bachelors' and masters' degrees.

San José State is one of the largest public-sector employers in Silicon Valley, with about 2,500 full-time employees and an annual budget of $472 million (2005-06).

Some 7,862 bachelors' and masters' degrees were awarded in 2005-06 — continuing to support the region by supplying Silicon Valley with more graduates at the baccalaureate and masters' levels than any other school in the nation.
