San José State-Nevada Postgame Notes

San José State's 72-70 victory marks the team's third straight road win (all coming in conference play).

The Spartans are now 4-1 in Mountain West play, matching the program's best five-game start to conference play since the 2015-16 season.

SJSU now owns an overall record of 10-6 on the season, making this team the quickest to reach 10 wins since the 2004-05 campaign (also started 10-6).

San José State improved to 10-2 on the year when leading after three quarters.

Forward Tyra Whitehead (18 points, 14 rebounds) tallied her seventh double-double of the season in the victory.

The Spartans had four players finish the night scoring in double figures. Whitehead led the way with 18 points and was followed by Ayzhiana Basallo (16), Raziya Potter (15) and Fieme'a Hafoka (11).

Wednesday's game featured 17 lead changes and 13 ties. Neither team held an advantage of more than two possessions.
