Sacramento State-San José State Postgame Notes

San José State improved to 3-2 with the victory, the program's best record through five games since the 2013-14 season.

The 73-67 win marked the program's fourth victory in its last five meetings with Sacramento State.

The Spartans have won their first two home games of the season for the first time since the 2014-15 campaign (119-76 vs. Columbia, 110-91 vs. Southern Oregon).

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo is now averaging 22.2 points per game to lead the Spartans.

Basallo is leading the Mountain West in scoring after this week's games. The guard set a career-high with 29 points in Tuesday's game and dropped another 21 points in Sunday's win.

San José State is led on the glass by forward Tyra Whitehead, pulling down an average of 9.8 rebounds per game.

Both Basallo (21 points and 11 assists) and Whitehead (15 points, 14 rebounds) tallied double-doubles on Sunday. Whitehead now has three double-doubles on the young season.
