John Kennaday was appointed the San Jose State University men's golf coach in April 2005. His hire marked a return to his alma mater, where as a senior he was a 1987 All-American.

Kennaday is responsible for helping re-establish San Jose State's golf legacy. In the 2011-12 season, Kennaday became the first Spartans coach since 1982 to have a team win four times in the same season and the first since 1979 to win three consecutive tournaments.

A record setting day at the 2011 Dash Thomas Memorial (9/26-27) was just one of many highlights during the Spartans' fall run. Kennaday's team shattered the school record for a 36-hole score with a 542. Their 265 (-19) in the second round broke a 13-year school record for lowest 18-hole team score. The Spartans ended the season just as strong as they started, winning their first ever Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Championship and earning a second consecutive bid to NCAA Regionals. Senior Jay Myers also took medalist honors at the WAC Championship, making it two in a row for the Spartans after Mark Hubbard won it in 2011.

In the 2010-11 season, the Spartans received their first NCAA Regional Championship invitation in 14 years, posted a program-best second-place finish at the WAC Championship and placed in the top-half of the field in 10 of 12 tournaments.

Individually in 2010-11, Hubbard and Myers were first and second-team All-WAC players, respectively. It was the second time in three seasons the duo achieved the honor. During Kennaday's tenure, his players earned all-conference honors six times and academic All-WAC recognition 10 times. Hubbard is also the most recent of eight Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) Scholar All-Americans which Kennaday has coached in his career.

Kennaday returned to San Jose State after spending six seasons as the head coach for the Santa Clara University men's golf team. The once-dormant program became competitive in the West Coast Conference and regionally under Kennaday. In 2001, he was named the conference Coach of the Year.

Kennaday currently manages and directs The Western Intercollegiate, the longest running men's college golf tournament west of the Mississippi River. "The Western" is in its 66th year at the famed Pasatiempo Golf Course in Santa Cruz, Calif. He also oversees the Spartans' Friendraiser event that attracts Spartan alums and PGA Tour winners such as Ken Venturi, Roger Maltbie, Mark Wiebe and Arron Oberholser for a day of instruction and goodwill.

Besides his San Jose State duties, Kennaday is the personal coach for Oberholser, a two-time Spartan All-American, winner of the 2006 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and a former top-50 ranked player in the world. In 2011, Kennaday was named one of two current coaches serving on the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee.

As a player, Kennaday was a two-time Coast Conference Most Valuable Player at Monterey Peninsula College before transferring to San Jose State. He was a 1986 and 1987 first-team All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association pick, and helped the Spartans to a 12th-place tie at the 1987 NCAA Championships.

He went on to play professionally on the Canadian PGA, Nike and Golden State Tours for seven and a half years. Kennaday set two course records during his playing career, at Rancho Canada West in Carmel, Calif., and at Spring Valley Golf Course in Milpitas, Calif.

His teaching career began in Milpitas, where he served as a teaching pro at the Mark Docak's Complete Golf School. He also was an assistant pro at the Spring Valley Golf Course.

John and his wife, Christina, have two sons, Jack and Benjamin. The Kennaday family resides in San Jose.

(I) - Played as an individual

San Jose State reached the NCAA Regional Championship for the second year in a row in 2012. After a regional invitation in 2011, San Jose State returned in 2012 as conference champions. On his way to earning the individual Western Athletic Conference Championship, senior Jay Myers helped the Spartans win their first ever WAC championship and get an automatic bid to NCAA Regionals.

Sophomore Justin Estrada jumped out to a hot start shooting a two-under par 68 in the opening round at the Stanford Golf Course in Palo Alto, Calif., and was inside the top-10 thru 18 holes.

Myers shot a 67 in his second round in Palo Alto, Calif., and tied a school record for lowest 18-hole score at an NCAA Regional. Arron Oberholser shot a 67 (-5) in the opening-round of the 1994 NCAA Regional in Tucson, Ariz. Myers went on to finish in a tie for 18th with a 208 (-2) and the Spartans finished in 11th place.

PASATIEMPO  GOLF CLUB

The Western Intercollegiate, hosted by San Jose State, has flourished since its inception as the Northern California Intercollegiate in 1947 and is in its 66th year in 2012.

Early on, area junior colleges, business colleges and four-year schools comprised the fields. The 1950's brought inevitable growth until a gigantic field of 35 teams and 210 golfers descended upon Pasatiempo in 1962.

“The Western” became a prestigious invitational with a limit of 25 teams beginning in 1968. Since then, the strength of the field has grown, drawing teams from as far away as Hawaii and Duke to the Alister MacKenzie-designed course.

The Western has served as a springboard to the PGA Tour. The late-Bob Rosburg, Ken Venturi, Johnny Miller, Ron Cerrudo, John Lotz, Dave Stockton, Al Geiberger, Tom Watson, Roger Maltbie, Peter Jacobson, Bobby Clampett, Mark O’Meara, Duffy Waldorf, Tiger Woods and Arron Oberholser have gone after the Western Intercollegiate championship during their college days.

The 50th Western Intercollegiate, held in 1996, became the first nationally-televised in-season collegiate tournament. In a stunning manner, San Jose State’s Arron Oberholser overtook Tiger Woods of Stanford on the final four holes for the individual title.

The 500-yard par five ninth hole heading into the clubhouse at Pasatiempo Golf Club is one of many risk/reward challenges for the field at the Western Intercollegiate.
