Dick Tomey Head Coach

One of the most respected and accomplished men in college football, Dick Tomey returns for his third season as the head coach of the San Jose State Spartans. Tomey was named the 26th head coach in school history December 29, 2004.

Under his guidance and with the support and vision of athletics director Tom Bowen, Tomey has resurrected the Spartans football program. With a 9-4 overall record and a 2006 New Mexico Bowl championship, San Jose State posted its finest season since 1990 and snapped a 16-year bowl draught. A plus-six turnaround in the win column and the school's first winning record in six years have led to home attendance increasing 300 percent since he took over as head coach.

The highlights of 2006 were frequent and plentiful for Tomey's Spartans:

- A victory over Stanford
- Defeating San Diego State for the first time in 31 years
- Defeating Fresno State for the first time since 1990 and
- A 20-12 victory over New Mexico in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl.

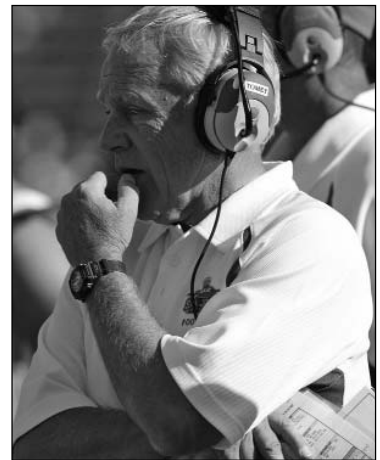

With the bowl win, Tomey became the sixth known active head coach to reach nine victories at three different NCAA Division I-A institutions.

Tomey's instruction and leadership led to multiple individual accomplishments, too. Linebacker Matt Castelo was named the New Mexico Bowl 'Defensive Most Valuable Player' and returns as the nation's leading tackler. Cornerback Dwight Lowery burst onto the scene, finishing second nationally with nine interceptions and earning multiple All-America honors.

Wide receivers James Jones and John Broussard both were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft. Jones went in the third round to Green Bay (78th overall) and Broussard in the seventh round to Jacksonville (229th overall). Jones was also named the 'Offensive Most Valuable Player' of the New Mexico Bowl for his two-touch-down performance.

Running back Yonus Davis became the first Spartan to rush for 1,000 yards in a season in six years. Five San Jose State seniors participated in the IntaJuice North-South All-Star Classic in Houston, Texas – a game that featured Tomey as head coach of the North team.

Despite the numerous individual highlights and accolades, Tomey remains steadfastly focused on "team first" as the cornerstone of his coaching career.

AMONG THE BEST

That focus has served him well over the years as he ranks among the winningest active coaches in college football. His 170 career victories, all at the Division I-A (Football Bowl Subdivision - FBS) level, rank fourth among active coaches. When the Spartans take the field September 1, 2007, against Arizona State, it will mark his 300th game as a FBS head coach. Only three other active head coaches, Joe Paterno (Penn State), Bobby Bowden (Florida State) and Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech) have coached in more games.

Entering 2007, his overall head coaching record from his years at San Jose State University (2005-06), the University of Arizona (1987-2000) and the University of Hawai'i (1977-86) is 170-122-7.

The 2006 season marked his 43rd year coaching football. His impact, dedication and love for the game are evident in his role as Second Vice President of the 10,000-member American Football Coaches Association. His standing within the coaching profession led to USA Football selecting San Jose State University as its summer training home in preparation for the 2007 World Championship of American Football in Japan. Tomey's presence also led the Spartans to return to ABC-TV for the first time in a decade. Additionally, he is a voting participant in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll.

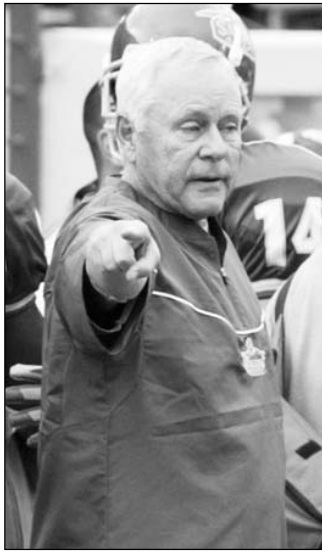

In his San Jose State debut season of 2005, the Spartans posted a winning home record for the first time since the 2000 season, were the Division I-A category leader in home attendance increase with a 95-percent year-over-year upgrade and were one of 11 teams whose defense allowed more than 100 fewer points (112) than it did in 2004. The Spartans were second in the WAC, stingily yielding opponents an average of 3.5 yards per carry. San Jose State reduced the number of times its quarterback was sacked from 29 to 14. Five of his Spartans participated in post-season all-star games, including four in the Hula Bowl where he was an assistant coach.

Before joining San Jose State, Tomey spent the 2004 season as the University of Texas assistant head coach. His enthusiasm for the game and encouragement of the Longhorn players contributed to a 2005 Rose Bowl win and carried over to Texas' national championship the following season. The Longhorns were one of the nation's top defensive units ranking in the top-30 nationally or higher in every major statistical category.

A REVERED FIGURE IN HAWAII

Tomey's first head coaching job came at the University of Hawai'i in 1977. He remains a revered figure in the Islands. In February 2006, he was inducted into the University of Hawai'i "Sports Circle of Honor." Tomey was the first coach at Hawai'i to lead the Rainbows to an in-season national ranking when the 1981 team cracked the top-20 in both the Associated Press and United Press International polls. The 1981 Western Athletic Conference 'Coach of the Year' also produced Hawai'i's first Associated Press first-team All-America player in defensive lineman Al Noga, a 1986 selection. Home attendance, averaging 20,236 the season prior to his arrival, grew to 44,651 in his final year at Hawai'i (1986). His teams fashioned a 63-46-3 win-loss record and eight .500 or better finishes in 10 seasons.

PAC-10 SUCCESS

Moving to Arizona in 1987, his Wildcat teams were the second winningest Pacific-10 Conference program in the decade of the '90's, trailing only the University of Washington. Arizona, with just one bowl win in 85 seasons prior to his arrival, appeared in seven post-season bowls over a 14-season span and won the 1989 Copper, 1994 Fiesta, 1997 Insight.com and 1998 Culligan Holiday Bowls. The 1994 Fiesta Bowl win over then-No. 10 Miami (Fla.), 29-0, was the first shutout victory in the bowl game's history. The 1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl triumph was a 23-20 victory over then-14th-ranked Nebraska. Tomey's Wildcats were the only program to beat both Miami (Fla.) and Nebraska in bowl games in the decade of the '90's.

"Not only was it (Arizona) the most enjoyable five years of my life, Coach Tomey helped me grow into the man I am today." – Tedy Bruschi, New England Patriots All-Pro linebacker

His 1993 and 1998 Arizona teams were the first two at the school to finish as a consensus top-10 program in the final national polls. The 1993 team that had a 10-2 win-loss record was ninth in the USA Today coaches and 10th in the Associated Press final polls. The 1998 Wildcats were fourth in both polls' final balloting. The 1989 (25th) and 1994 (20th) Arizona teams also finished the season nationally ranked.

At Arizona, the Wildcats accumulated a 95-64-4 win-loss record covering 14 seasons and his 60 Pacific-10 head coaching triumphs still ranks eighth best on the all-time confer-

His defensive units trademarked the 'Desert Swarm' nickname in the early 1990's leading the nation in scoring defense in 1992 and rushing defense in 1993.

FORMATIVE YEARS & FAMILY

The native of Bloomington, Ind., is a 1960 graduate of DePauw University where he played football and baseball. He began his coaching career in 1962 at Miami University (Ohio) as a graduate assistant coach under Johnny Pont and Bo Schembechler. Tomey was an assistant coach at Northern Illinois (1964), Davidson (1965-66), Kansas (1967-70) and UCLA (1971-76). While at Kansas and UCLA, he worked for Pepper Rodgers, San Jose State graduate and Super Bowl winning coach Dick Vermeil and Terry Donahue.

In addition to his conference 'Coach of the Year' honors, he was inducted into the DePauw University Hall of Fame in 1994. Tomey was a 1999 recipient of a 'Provost Award' as the University of Arizona's 'Outstanding Teacher' - the only coach in school history to be so honored by the university faculty.

"...He's the type of guy who can help you through hard times and really makes you want to win," - Adam Tafralis, San Jose State quarterback

Marcus Arroyo Co-Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks Coach

A former starting quarterback for the Spartans, Marcus Arroyo is in his fourth season as a member of the San Jose State coaching staff, his second as quarterbacks coach and his first as co-offensive coordinator.

Truly a rising force in college coaching circles, Arroyo's influence and impact on the development of quarterback Adam Tafralis is undeniable. Under Arroyo's guidance, Tafralis completed 65.89 percent of his passes for 2,075 yards and 18 touchdowns during the 2006 season. Contrast that to 2005 in which Tafralis completed 49.7 percent for 1,810 yards and 11 touchdowns.

A graduate assistant in 2005 at San Jose State, Arroyo is in his fifth season of major college coaching. He entered the coaching field in 2003 as a San Jose State undergraduate assistant, and in 2004, he was the offensive coordinator at Prairie View A&M University in Prairie View, Texas.

Arroyo was a signal caller for the 1998 and the 2000 through 2002 Spartan teams. He became just the second true freshman to start a game at quarterback at San Jose State. Arroyo was a starter five times in 1998 and directed the Spartans to conference wins over New Mexico and Rice.

In 2000, Arroyo enjoyed his best statistical season in passing for 2,334 yards and 15 touchdowns. The Spartans won four times on the road that season including a win over Pacific-10 Conference foe Stanford for the third consecutive year. Arroyo went on to lead the San Jose State offense to a 27-24 come-from-behind upset triumph over #9-ranked and then-unbeaten Texas Christian in front of an ESPN audience.

During his career, he led the Spartan offense to some of its highest scoring games. The most memorable may have been his NCAA record-setting performance in a 64-45 victory over the University of Nevada in 2001. Arroyo recorded a single-game passing efficiency rating of 298.02 throwing for 476 yards and five touchdowns in the triumph.

On the San Jose State career lists, Arroyo ranks eighth in passing yards (4,603), ninth in completions (348) and total offense (4,525 yards), and tenth in passing efficiency (115.6). He still holds the school records for single-game passing efficiency and average yards per completion.

The 2003 graduate majored in kinesiology.

Jeff Gordon is in his fourth season as a San Jose State University football staff member. In 2007, his second season as a graduate assistant, Gordon will be working with the offense.

Previously, he was an undergraduate assistant in 2004 working with the offensive linemen. In 2005, he was a staff assistant. A year ago, he was a graduate assistant who also served as the tight ends coach.

The native of Iowa City, Iowa, was a starting offensive lineman for the Spartans in 2002 and 2003. He played both tackle positions and served as a long snapper.

Gordon began his college career at Northern Illinois University in 1999 and redshirted the season. He transferred to the University of Iowa in 2000 and then to Iowa Central College for his sophomore year. He was a 2001 first-team All-Iowa Community College Athletic Conference selection.

An all-state football selection while attending Iowa City (Iowa) West High School, Gordon helped Iowa West win state championships in football and basketball his senior year. He was recruited by Air Force, Iowa and Iowa State.

The 2005 San Jose State University graduate majored in history. He has particular interests in American history and the history of Western Civilization. Gordon is working towards a master's degree at San Jose State in international tourism.

Kinji Green Graduate Assistant – Defense

Kinji Green is in his second season working with the San Jose State University football coaching staff. In 2007, he will be the graduate assistant working with the defense. During the Spartans' 2006 New Mexico Bowl-winning season, he was an operations assistant.

Green was a four-year starting defensive lineman on the San Jose State teams (2002-05). As a senior, he was named a co-captain, the team's 'Most Valuable Player' and was a second team All-Western Athletic Conference selection.

Originally, a walk-on offensive lineman in 2001, he received the 'Outstanding Scout Team' award as he learned the defensive tackle position during his redshirt season. In 2002, The Sporting News named him to its Western Athletic Conference (WAC) all-freshman team.

He completed his college career playing in the 2006 Hula Bowl and went on to earn a spot on the San Jose SaberCats and the Chicago Rush practice rosters for the 2006 Arena Football League season.

The 2005 San Jose State University graduate majored in kinesiology. He was a four-time San Jose State University 'Scholar-Athlete,' a three-time WAC 'All-Academic' team honoree and was named to the 2004 and 2005 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII football teams. Kinji is pursuing a master's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in exercise physiology.

Chris Holder Director of Strength & Conditioning

Chris Holder was named San Jose State University director of strength and conditioning in April, 2007. A staff member since January 2006, he originally joined the Spartans' athletics staff as the director of football strength and conditioning. His impact was noticeable in the team's New Mexico Bowl-winning season. The highly-conditioned Spartans shut out five opponents in the second half and recorded four comeback victories a year ago.

Holder came to San Jose State after spending four football seasons (2002-05) at Cal Poly as the strength and conditioning head coach. He and his two-person staff designed and implemented the strength and conditioning programs for the 500-member Mustang student-athlete population. The progress was most notable in football. Cal Poly produced three consecutive winning seasons in football from (2003-05) for the first time in 25 years and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 2005. Six Mustang football players were named to 2005 Division I-AA All-American teams.

In his eighth year as a strength and conditioning coach, he began his professional career at Eastern Kentucky University in January 2000 as an intern working with the football and volleyball teams. Holder moved to Cal Poly in May 2000 as a strength and conditioning coach. He was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Appalachian State University the first half of the 2002 calendar year before returning to Cal Poly.

The 2000 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University majored in physical education and earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Cal Poly in 2005. He was a starting center for the Colonels' 1997 and 1999 football teams. The 1997 Eastern Kentucky team was the Ohio Valley Conference champion.

Holder is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a Russian Kettlebell certified instructor. In 2007, he was promoted to RKC-Team Leader, the second highest distinction a Russian Kettlebell certified instructor can achieve. Only 31 people in the world have reached this level of achievement. He also is certified in CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) and first aid by the American Red Cross.

Season Outlook

Few programs have improved like San Jose State University recently. The Spartans head into 2007 with the afterglow of their first winning season since 2000 and first bowl-game victory since 1990 as the winners of the inaugural New Mexico Bowl. Nine wins in 2006 exceeded the University's total for 2003, 2004 and 2005 combined. San Jose State's success in its last 15 games dating back to the end of Dick Tomey's first season with the Spartans in 2005 is one of the top-25 records in Division I's Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Even with one of its best core of returning players (42 letterwinners - 15 of whom were starters) San Jose State has had in years, the challenge to complete back-to-back winning records for the first time in 15 seasons, capture a Western Athletic Conference championship and experience another bowl game is daunting. The Spartans open the season with four straight games on the road as opposed to last year when the team played four of its first five games at home. Five teams that played in a bowl game last year are on the schedule including non-conference opponents Arizona State and Kansas State to begin 2007.

"Facing the toughest schedule since we've been here, we have to be greatly improved. We're working hard to make that happen." -- San Jose State head coach Dick Tomey

TAKING NOTHING FOR GRANTED

"Facing the toughest schedule since we've been here, we have to be greatly improved. We're working hard to make that happen," says head coach Dick Tomey about his third season leading San Jose State and his 27th as a major college head coach.

"Just because somebody did something one year doesn't mean it's going to be automatic the next year. The good news for me is when you come out and watch our players work, they are taking nothing for granted. They are not taking for granted that we will be a better team. They are not taking for granted that we will pick up where we left off and be a better team. They understand it will be a very difficult challenge and are working hard to meet that challenge."

A DEFENSE CAPABLE OF MORE

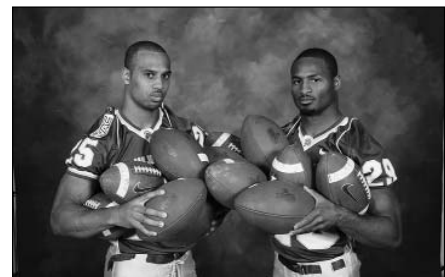

As one of the nation's most improved defensive teams a year ago, the Spartans gave up 20.8 points per game - more than an 11-point improvement per game over 2005 and nearly 22 fewer points per contest than in 2004. There is proven quality at the core led by linebacker Matt Castelo (5-10, 228, SR, 3V) and extending to the perimeter with the outstanding cornerback tandem of Dwight Lowery (6-1, 185, SR, 1V) and Christopher Owens (5-10, 170, JR, 2V).

Charles Ohaeri, 5-11, 230, FR, RS
Braden Storaasli, 6-0, 213, FR, RS
Jason Swisher, 6-0, 216, FR, RS

Castelo has garnered recognition with his career average of 9.42 tackles per game - tops among all FBS returning players. In 2006, the middle linebacker was second nationally in total tackles, a second-team All-Western Athletic Conference choice, the New Mexico Bowl's Defensive Most Valuable Player and a member of ESPN.com's All-Bowl team. Starter Demetrius Jones (6-1, 230, SR, 3V), third on last year's team with 9.0 tackles for loss, Ryno Gonzalez (6-1, 215, SO, 1V), Chris Reese (5-9, 205, JR, 2V) and Travis Jones (6-1, 220, SO, 1V) should be four more key contributors at linebacker in 2007.

Cornerbacks Dwight Lowery (left) and Christopher Owens combined for 13 interceptions in 2006.

 Duke Ihenacho, 6-1, 200, FR, HS

No other pair of cornerbacks matched the 13 combined interceptions by Lowery and Owens last year. Lowery returns after a record-setting season with nine interceptions and first-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America. Owens had four interceptions, all of them in the final five games of 2006, as teams shied away from Lowery's direction.

Who plays with Owens and Lowery in the secondary should be resolved as fall drills unfold. Andrew Ryan (6-0, 195, JR, JC) joined the team in the spring and competed favorably with letterwinners Dimitrous Chattman (6-0, 190, JR, 1V) and Dominique Hunsucker (5-10, 194, SO, 1V) and redshirt Pompey Festejo (6-0, 200, FR, RS). Four more safety prospects this fall will be on a fast track to earn significant playing time.

The Spartans hope the progress made by the team's inexperienced group of safeties matches or exceeds the rapid growth of last year's defensive line. Largely untested at the start of 2006, seven freshmen keyed the defense's surge off the ball. Overall, San Jose State returns 10 of its 12 rotating defensive linemen. Ends Justin Cole (6-3, 240, SO, 1V), a 2006 honorable mention freshman All-American who was credited with 9.5 tackles for loss, and Jarron Gilbert (6-6, 280, JR, 2V), whose 5.0 quarterback sacks led the team, had the most playing time.

"Our line of scrimmage on defense will be much improved, because we were so young a year ago," Tomey stated about the defensive line unit that is dominated with sophomores.

PLAYMAKERS RETURN ON OFFENSE

On offense, the Spartans feature a successful and experienced record-setting quarterback, one of only two returning players nationally to average 6.0 or more yards per carry each of the last two seasons and five offensive linemen with starting experience. Adam Tafralis (6-2, 219, SR, 3V) completed a school-record 65.6 percent of his passes, threw for 21 touchdowns and finished 11th nationally in passing efficiency with a 155.13 rating, the second best single-season figure at the school, in a marvelous 2006 season.

"A year ago, the quarterback position was very much a question mark. I said the quarterback position would be better and it was," remembers Tomey, who welcomes the return of Sean Flynn (6-4, 220, SR, SQ), Chad Bozzo (6-0, 215, SO, SQ), Myles Eden (6-1, 182, SO, SQ) and Jordan LaSecla (6-3, 198, FR, RS). Flynn, Bozzo and Eden have seen game action.

Two-time second-team All-WAC choice Yonus Davis (5-7, 185, SR, 3V) tops a group of six returning running backs. Davis averaged 6.28 yards per carry and rushed for 1,007 yards in 2006. James T. Callier (6-0, 222, SR, 3V) returns with three touchdown grabs and a 4.4 yards per carry average. Patrick Perry (5-10, 205, JR, 2V), second on the team in rushing with 444 yards, topped the Spartans with seven rushing touchdowns. In all, the returning backs averaged at least 4.0 yards per carry.

The ball handlers benefit from an experienced group of offensive linemen led by two-year starting center Justin Paysinger (6-1, 298, JR, 2V), named to the 2007 Rimington Award 'watch list,' and three-year starter John Booker (6-4, 345, SR, 3V). Booker is capable of playing any of the guard and tackle positions in the San Jose State scheme. Ronnie Castillo (6-0, 292, SO, 1V), Ryan Simone (6-3, 306, SR, 1V) and Bradis McGriff (6-6, 355, JR, 1V) each started five or more games a year ago. All-purpose player Jibri Sharp (6-3, 350, SR, 1V) along with Chris Danser (6-6, 290, JR, 1V) and David Giesen (6-2, 288, SR, 2V) also have starting experience at San Jose State. Newcomer Isaac Leatiota (6-4, 295, FR, HS) made a positive impression in spring practice and figures prominently in the team's plans.

"The line of scrimmage on offense will be much improved, because we are stronger," says Tomey, who credits the continuity of and dedication to the team's strength and conditioning program.

Jeff Clark (6-5, 250, SR, 1V) tops a group of returning tight ends. Clark caught eight passes in 2006 and is capable of a more prominent pass catching role. Julian Harris (6-2, 250, SO, TR), Nick Marchini (6-2, 280, SR, 2V) and John Konye (6-4, 270, FR, RS) give the Spartans flexibility at the position.

The greatest change offensively is at wide receiver. James Jones, a third-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers, and John Broussard, picked in the seventh round by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2007 NFL Draft, accounted for 122 out of 187 receptions and 17 touchdown catches. Jalal Beauchman (6-4, 220, SO, 1V) and Michael Hooper (5-9, 163, SR, SQ) played sparingly last year and combined for five receptions. Kevin Jurovich

(6-0, 183, JR, 1V) moved from safety to wide receiver in the spring. Jacob French (5-10, 205, SR, 1V), a running back a year ago, also spent much of spring practice as a wide receiver.

The Spartans signed five wide receiver prospects last season, three from the junior college ranks and two high school seniors, who expect to compete for a spot in the playing rotation. David Richmond (6-4, 200, JR, JC) was a junior college All-American. Michael Avila (5-9, 165, FR, HS) and Josh Harrison (5-11, 170, FR, HS) qualified for the California state high school track and field championships in the sprint events.

Punter Waylon Prather and placekicker Jared Strubeck are returning All-WAC players who are listed on the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) pre-season All-America Checklist.

SPECIAL TEAMS CORE INTACT

The Spartans also return the nucleus of their special teams unit. Punter Waylon Prather (6-3, 225, SR, 3V), a 2006 first-team All-WAC pick, helped San Jose State improve 33 places in team net punting figure nationally with his 43.98 average. Jared Strubeck (5-8, 176, JR, 2V), a returning second-team All-WAC selection, upped his field goal accuracy and remained a crafty kickoff specialist. The Spartans have five onside kick recoveries in Strubeck's two seasons and lowered the opponent's kickoff return average for the second year in a row. In the middle of Prather and Strubeck's success is long snapper Grant Izkovic (6-0, 240, SR, 2V) who returns for his third season.

IT'S A NEW SEASON

"Coming off a nine-win season, we had to get our guys to understand that we are building an entirely new team. It has to be built one practice at a time," says the Spartans' head coach. "Each team is different. You can't assume anything.

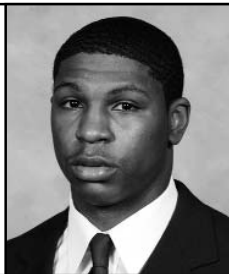

"Obviously, we've had players that played really well last year, look to be incumbents at a position and look to be difficult to unseat. That's true, but all jobs are up for grabs, because some people have changed physically and/or our needs are different.

"We expect to be a better team than a year ago, but there is a lot of work to make that a reality," concludes Tomey on the 2007 Spartans.

Western Athletic Conference

In its 46th year, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and features some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the nine schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. Over the past five years, it has won 61.1 percent of its bowl games, the best winning percentage of any conference in the nation. In the past four seasons, the WAC has sent a total of 15 teams to bowl games. Boise State has won 58 games since joining the conference, the second most in the nation.

In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 23 of the past 24 seasons. Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990.

WAC alums have made their presence felt as well. David Carr (Fresno State) was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN and added a regional network for unprecedented coverage of football and basketball. Over the past four years, the networks have shown more than 80 football games, by far the most in a four-year period in WAC history.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences.

Karl Benson
WAC Commissioner

Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series. Rice was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2003.

Since that year, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew.

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor

Did You Know?

San Jose State was scheduled to play two games in Hawaii to end the 1941 season. The Spartans were in Honolulu when the attack on Pearl Harbor occurred on December 7, 1941. Many players immediately joined the local police force or the armed services. The games against the University of Hawai'i on December 13 and Willamette College of Oregon on December 16 were cancelled.

Did You Know?

In 1981 and 1987, San Jose State was the "mythical champion" of the San Francisco Bay Area. The Spartans defeated both California and Stanford in those two seasons.

The San Jose State University football team has played its home games in Spartan Stadium since 1933. The Spartans won the first football game played in the stadium, 44-6, over San Francisco State, on October 7. Since then, the Spartans have played 337 games over 71 seasons in this grass-field facility. The team's 100th win in the stadium came on October 21, 1968, against New Mexico, 52-14. The 200th victory occurred in the debut of head coach Dick Tomey in 2005. SJSU's home field record is 208-112-17 entering the 2007 season.

Spartan Stadium currently seats 30,456 for football. Every seat puts the spectator either close to or right on top of the action. Two stadium expansions and renovations in the 1980's increased the seating capacity from 18,000 to over 30,000.

The multi-purpose facility is the site of the school's annual commencement ceremony. Concerts, professional and collegiate soccer, religious convocations, band competitions and high school football games also take place at Spartan Stadium.

The 1999 Women's World Cup and 1999 NCAA Women's College Cup soccer events attracted record-setting crowds.

Five Silicon Valley Football Classics were held in Spartan Stadium. Air Force in 2000, Michigan State in 2001, Fresno State in 2002, UCLA in 2003 and Northern Illinois in 2004 were bowl-game winners.

The largest attendance at a home football game was a 31,681 sellout crowd at the 2003 season-opening win over Grambling State. The game marked the first time under the current stadium configuration that San Jose State had a "sell-out" prior to game day.

The largest crowd to attend any event in the stadium was estimated at 37,000 for a ZZ Top music concert.

City of San José

The skyline of downtown San Jose

Situated at the hub of Silicon Valley is San Jose – the third largest city in California and the 10th largest in the nation. San Jose, strategically located at the sunny, southern tip of the San Francisco Bay, is surrounded by rolling hills and striking mountains. San Jose’s vibrant and growing downtown is the setting for San Jose State University and the focus for important financial, commercial and arts communities.

“ San José is a confident and exciting city, full of optimism and opportunity. We treasure our past. We embrace our diversity. We nurture our future, in our children and through stewardship of our resources. People are proud to live here. Our city is committed to sustaining and improving the quality of life in every neighborhood, for every resident, now and in the future.” – www.sanjoseca.gov

San Jose offers a neighborhood feel in a metropolitan environment.

Regional growth and stability are complemented by an active cultural life. San Jose is the home of the Silicon Valley High Technology and the Children’s Discovery museums, the San Jose Museum of Art, San Jose Symphony, the San Jose-Cleveland Ballet, numerous galleries and arts centers, Opera San Jose, the Winchester Mystery House and other respected professional and community theater groups. Light rail and historic trolley lines, the 18,000-seat HP Pavilion at San Jose, convention facilities, shops and a diverse night scene add to the excitement. Reflecting the cultural richness of the community is a wide range of restaurants.

A reason the South Bay has grown so dramatically is its quality of life. The mild climate encourages an active and casual lifestyle. There are more than 100,000 acres of land for biking, rollerblading and other outdoor activities. Boasting nearly 300 days of sunshine

San Jose State University will host the 2010 NCAA Division I Men’s Basketball Championship First & Second Round at the 18,200-seat HP Pavilion in downtown San Jose.

San Jose State University, Silicon Valley's metropolitan university, is pre-eminent in broadly educating leaders and professionals for an increasingly complex and global society.

Located in the heart of the Silicon Valley, this university has aided the development of the computer industry and the resulting technological advances in our nation by providing the largest source of engineering, science and business graduates to Silicon Valley companies.

Graduating about 7,000 students annually, San Jose

State University also provides the professional infrastructure for the region – from teachers to social workers to artists to law enforcement officers to nurses. The terms, “leaders and professionals,” describe not just the types of graduates who earn their degrees at San Jose State, but also the roles they assume in their communities and in their fields of endeavor.

San Jose State University's place in history is well-established. Founded in 1857, it was the first public institution of higher education on the West Coast. From its humble beginnings as a normal school to train teachers for the developing frontier, it has matured into a master's university offering 191 bachelor's and master's degrees.

The university's 30,000 students study in eight fully-accredited colleges: Applied Sciences and the Arts, Business, Education, Engineering, Humanities and the Arts, Science, Social Sciences and Social Work. One strength of the academic program is the broad general education curriculum that brings common elements -- critical thinking, writing and communication skills, and cultural pluralism -- to diverse studies. Academic strength also is seen in the university's nationally-recognized programs. Examples include the School of Music, the School of Art and Design, the School of Journalism and Mass Communications, the School of Nursing and the School of Library and Information Science.

In each discipline, quality teaching remains a priority. Tenured faculty teach introductory as well as advanced courses with an emphasis on small classes. Learning facilities include computer-equipped classrooms, the Western world's only undergraduate nuclear science facility and North America's largest Beethoven Center. Focusing on applied research, faculty receive a growing number of contracts and grants each year. From Moss Landing Marine Research Laboratory to the NASA Ames Research Center, faculty are exploring everything from the depths of the ocean to the surface of Mars.

San Jose State University

also finds strength in its diversity. For many first-generation students, it is a gateway to economic independence and social mobility. It is also an incubator of cultural and intellectual development and an opportunity for lifelong learning. Students range in age from first-time freshmen to college transfers to professionals seeking additional education. Student demographics – with ethnic pluralism – provide the benefits of multiple cultures and diverse student interests and activities. From residence life to athletic teams to social clubs to co-op jobs – student activities meet the needs of this diverse student body.

The Koret Athletic Training Center

The Koret Athletic Training Center, opened in November 2001, is a state-of-the-art facility that encompasses over 10,000 square-feet of training space and is located adjacent to Spartan Stadium, the athletic locker rooms and the football practice field.

The Koret Athletic Training Center also contains a 1,000-square-foot rehabilitation and training room that services physical therapy and sports-specific rehabilitation. The facility enables the sports medicine staff of athletic trainers, doctors, and physical therapists to provide the best possible care to help prevent and rehabilitate injuries.

“Our Philosophy”

- We teach a hands-on approach where the student-athlete is expected to develop a comprehensive understanding of not only the How’s, but also the Why’s of our program.
- We teach correct movement patterns to optimize efficiency and performance.
- Our program design is centered on ground-based, free weight, multi-joint movements that will transfer to the playing field and keep our student-athletes out of our sports medicine facility.
- Our primary concern is the development of speed in all our sports.
- We develop speed and flexibility through strength.
- Our speed program consists of functional and straight-line speed training. Functional means acceleration, deceleration and change-of-direction work.
- We train through an entire range-of-motion in all lifts to enhance active flexibility, develop strength to prevent injury, and unlock joints with mobility issues.
- Olympic-based movements are utilized for speed of movement, active flexibility and dynamic stability.
- Squats and deadlifts have a permanent home in our program for developing hip strength and back stability. Single-leg variations are used to fix strength imbalance and lateral deficits.

Koret Athletic Training Center

"The Koret Athletic Training Center is one of the 'crown jewels' of the San Jose State University athletics program. The sheer size of the facility stops you in your tracks. We have everything a strength and conditioning program could conceivably need at our fingertips. Our student-athletes and coaches are truly blessed to have such a beautiful facility." – Chris Holder, San Jose State director of football strength & conditioning

Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions

The Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is the latest addition to the San Jose State Athletics Department. Located in the Koret Athletic Training Center, this interactive display features great athletes, great teams, great events and moments in San Jose State Athletics history. Former Spartan athletes that became famous after graduation, great donors, great coaches and administrators are on display. A larger-than-life sized Spartan mascot is located outside the Hall of Champions. Also displayed in The Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is the San Jose State Sports Hall of Fame, which includes more than 300 Spartan greats.

The Jeff Garcia Hall of Champions is located inside the Koret Athletic Training Center.

"I am excited to be able to give something of this magnitude back to San Jose State University," Garcia said. "They have been such an integral part in my life. I am just happy to be at a point in life that I can do something like this...My family and I are proud to create this legacy that will always serve as a reminder of how much San Jose State means to me."

"San Jose State has been a stepping stone that has provided me an education, a degree and of course, the tools I needed to be successful in the NFL." – Jeff Garcia

Jeff Garcia is entering his 14th season as a pro in 2007.

Garcia was a quarterback on the 1991, 1992 and 1993 San Jose State teams. As a sophomore, he was third nationally in passing efficiency. He led San Jose State to its first win in school history over a Big Ten Conference team, the University of Minnesota, and went on to receive honorable mention All-America recognition in 1992. The school record holder for total offense with 7,274 yards was named the "Outstanding Offensive Player" at the 1994 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in Palo Alto, Calif.

Professionally, he played five seasons (1994 through 1998) for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League, was a four-time all-star and led the team to the 1998 Grey Cup championship. Garcia joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1999 and took the team to playoff appearances in 2001 and 2002. He was a Cleveland Brown in 2004, with the Detroit Lions in 2005, led the Philadelphia Eagles to the 2006 National Conference playoffs and signed with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for the 2007 season. Garcia earned his undergraduate degree as a business administration major from San Jose State University through the National Football League's Continuing Education Program.

An interactive display features Spartan highlights.

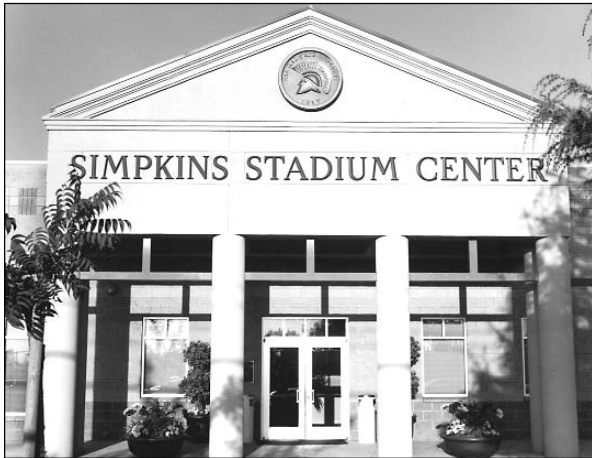

The Hall of Fame has more than 300 inductees.

San Jose State's 10 NCAA team championships are featured in one display.

The football offices, team meeting rooms, Student Success Services personnel and Scott Gadway Academic Center are in the Simpkins Stadium Center, which is located between Spartan Stadium and the Koret Athletic Training Center.

The Event Center located on the San José State campus is home to the men's and women's basketball teams. Seating capacity is 5,000. The recreational area includes indoor basketball, handball, and squash courts.

The San Jose State Softball Field is an on-campus facility located across the street from Spartan Stadium. Barbeques behind the outfield fence are a very popular activity.

The Aquatics Center, across the street from The Event Center, is the home of the women's swimming and diving and water polo teams. There is plenty of pool area for recreational swimming.

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics is housed in the Alan B. Simpkins Intercollegiate Athletics Administration Building. The street address is 1393 S. 7th Street, next to the corner of 7th and Alma.

Muni Stadium (left) and Blethen Field (right) are the two homes of the San Jose State baseball team. The facilities are across the street from one another and a short walk from Spartan Stadium.

Today's Spartan student-athlete has more opportunities to succeed academically than ever before. Located in the Simpkins Stadium Center, the Scott Gadway Academic Center was dedicated in January 2003. Here, student-athletes have a place to study, work with tutors, utilize computers or seek academic advice.

"Our academic commitment will continue growing. We are creating a more academically-energetic place in the Gadway Academic Center. The Student Success Services staff is a strong presence in the Simpkins Stadium Center. There's a great commitment on the part of our athletics director and president to support student-athletes and their academic pursuits." - Dick Tomey, San Jose State head football coach

The Scott Gadway Academic Center is a gift from alums Stan and Marilyn Gadway, to honor their late son, Scott, a 1991 San Jose State graduate who majored in aeronautics. He died in a 1996 sky-diving accident.

The facility's spirit is echoed at its entrance:

"May all students who use this room share Scott's love and lust for life and his desire to be the very best that one could be in every pursuit."

The Student Success Services team is readily available to help student-athletes achieve their academic goals. Cindy Kato, in her third year at San Jose State, is the director of the Spartans' Student Success Services unit. She was the assistant director for learning in academic counseling and student services/intercollegiate athletics at the University of Minnesota. Kato joined the Big Ten school in 1990 as its original learning specialist for intercollegiate athletics.
