Jason Hawkins Head Coach 1st Season

Western Oregon State College, 1995

Jason Hawkins, who played an integral part of two baseball programs playing in the NCAA tournament the last four years, was appointed the head coach of San José State baseball on July 2016.

Hawkins brings five years of head assistant coach experience at the Division I level, including stints at the University of Utah and University of Santa Barbara.

The Albany, Ore., native comes to San José State after the University of Utah won the 2016 Pac-12 Conference regular season championship, the school's first baseball title in the Pac-12 and first in any conference since 1997. The Utes concluded 2016 with their first NCAA Division I Baseball Tournament appearance in seven years.

Hawkins joined the Utes in 2015 as the associate head coach. Utah became the first team in Pac-12 baseball history to go from last place to conference regular season champion in back-to-back years since the league instituted the single round-robin format in 1999.

His responsibilities at Utah included management on all sides of offensive development, game planning and strategy, helping the Utes lead the Pac-12 in runs scored and RBI in 2016. They were second in the league in batting average and on-base percentage and third in slugging.

Hawkins coordinated the recruiting in California and in the Pacific Northwest, helping the Utes land its highest ranked class in history in 2016.

Hawkins was instrumental in UC Santa Barbara's recent baseball turnaround as the head assistant coach with the Gauchos during the 2012 through 2014 seasons. In 2013, the UC Santa Barbara program earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament in 12 years ending the school's longest period between post-season play.

The new San José State head coach implemented and managed a highly aggressive offense in the Big West Conference. The Gauchos led the conference in stolen bases in each of his three seasons. They were second in the Big West in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, runs and RBIs in 2014.

In the last five seasons at UC Santa Barbara and Utah, 24 players he coached or recruited (22 at UC Santa Barbara and two pitchers at Utah) were selected in the annual Major League Baseball First-Year Draft. Players he coached at the two schools also earned 24 post-season all-conference honors in the Big West or the Pac-12.

The 1995 Western Oregon State College graduate majored in English and history. He earned a master's degree in teaching from Pacific University in Oregon in 1998.

Hawkins began his coaching career at Springfield (Ore.) High School in 1995. He also coached at North Eugene High in Eugene, Ore., and at Desert Hot Springs (Calif.) High.

His first college coaching position was at the University of Redlands in 2005. The Bulldogs won 104 games and the 2006 Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) in his four seasons. Hawkins was the head coach at Occidental College in Southern California during the 2009 through 2011 seasons. His Tigers' teams had three sixth-place SCIAC conference finishes – compared to two sevenths and three last-place finishes the previous five seasons.

He and his wife, Angela, have two sons, Will and Cal, named after Major League Baseball stars Will Clark and Cal Ripken, Jr.

The talk about Jason Hawkins:

“First of all, I’m happy for Jason for an opportunity that’s well deserved. For two years, he established a really good culture in our team, as he was an integral part in helping us win the Pac-12 Championship this past year. San José State is getting a relentless worker and a good baseball guy. And that combination is really good in baseball.” – Bill Kinneberg, University of Utah baseball head coach.

“Jason is a fantastic coach, administrator and leader. Everything he’s touched has turned into gold. He’s going to be a great addition to the program. He’s extremely organized, detail oriented and his work ethic is off the charts. Jason is a tremendous communicator as he has a great balance with the players as a mentor and as a friend. He’s smart and has a great baseball mind. His development of players and leaders is what separates him from other coaches. San José State is lucky to have him.” – Andrew Checketts, UC Santa Barbara baseball head coach.

“If Jason brings the level of energy to the program that I’ve seen from across the country, then San José State has hit a ‘home run’ with this hire. He is a tireless recruiter who recognizes great talent and will bring great energy as the head coach.” – Dave Serrano, University of Tennessee baseball head coach.

Dean Stiles Assistant Coach 1st Season Oregon, 1982

Dean Stiles joined the San José State University baseball program in July 2016 as an assistant coach.

Stiles spent the 2016 season as the pitching coach for Florida International University (FIU), helping pitcher Williams Durruthy get drafted in the 31st round by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Prior to FIU, Stiles spent the 2012 to 2015 baseball seasons as the Oregon baseball program's volunteer assistant coach in charge of pitching, in his second stint with the Ducks. Stiles was instrumental in the development of one of the top pitching staffs in the nation, helping lead the team to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances. In Stiles' first two seasons in 2012 and 2013 working with the Ducks' pitchers, Oregon finished in the top 15 in the country with consecutive sub-3.00 ERAs.

Stiles' first stint with the Ducks program spanned from 2009 to 2011 as an administrative assistant and bullpen coach.

While at Oregon, Stiles coached Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year and Golden Spikes finalist Alex Keudell (2012), three All-America selections (Keudell - 2012 and Jimmie Sherfy - 2012 and 2013) and seven first-team all-conference selections.

Since 2009, 28 pitchers that Stiles coached have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams including 14 in the top 10 rounds including first-rounder Tyler Anderson (Colorado Rockies) who is currently on the MLB roster.

Following the 2015 season, Stiles served as the bullpen coach for the Eugene Emeralds, a Class-A (short season) affiliate for the Chicago Cubs.

Between his stints at Oregon, Stiles spent one season as the head coach at Lane Community College in Eugene. The Titans finished the year with a 26-20 record and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges Tournament.

Stiles played infield at San Joaquin Delta College in Stockton, Calif., before transferring to Oregon and finishing his career with the Ducks. He graduated with a degree in journalism in 1982, and in 1986 completed his secondary teaching credential at the University of Oregon College of Education. In 1988, Stiles completed his Oregon secondary education teaching license at Lewis and Clark College.

Stiles has two sons, Taylor and Cooper, and a daughter Chloe.

Damon Lessler Assistant Coach 1st Season

Mississippi Valley State, 2006

Damon Lessler joined the San José State University baseball program in July 2016 as an assistant coach.

Lessler comes to San José State from Cal Poly where he served as an assistant coach for the Mustangs program during the 2016 season.

Prior to coaching at Cal Poly, Lessler was an assistant coach at the University of Southern Mississippi in Conference USA.

At both stints, Lessler assisted with all areas of the game, including hitting, defense and base running as well as preparing scouting reports.

Prior to his time at Southern Miss, Lessler spent two and a half years serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Chico State, focusing his coaching duties toward infielders, hitters, and base runners.

The 2014 season saw Chico State post a 43-15 record and earn a trip to the NCAA Division II College World Series. Chico State ranked first in Division II in overall fielding percentage at .977 in 2014.

Lessler's first season at Chico State saw the Wildcats compile a 37-18 record in 2013 and reach the NCAA Division II West Region finals.

In 2012, Lessler spent a year as an assistant coach at Oakland (Mich.) University serving as the Golden Grizzlies' catching coach under head coach John Musachio. He coached MLB draft picks Jake Morton (Cleveland Indians), Hayden Fox (Miami Marlins) and Jake Paulson (Cincinnati Reds).

Lessler also served as the Associate Head Coach for the Bellingham Bells of the summer collegiate West Coast League in 2012.

As a player, Lessler was a shortstop at Castro Valley High School before going on to play collegiately at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College, Sonoma State and Mississippi Valley State. He played professional baseball, including stints with the Sioux Falls Canaries, Fargo-Moorhead Redhawks and the Winnipeg Goldeyes of the American Association and the Frontier League's Traverse City Beach Bums. Lessler also played abroad in Germany, Sweden and Australia before embarking on his coaching career in 2011.

Lessler received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Mississippi Valley State in 2006, earning valedictorian honors at the university, before obtaining a master's degree in sports administration from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2007.

Anthony Claggett Volunteer Assistant 1st Season

University of Phoenix, 2015

Former major league pitcher, Anthony Claggett, begins his first year as a volunteer assistant coach for the San José State University baseball program. Claggett will help Spartans pitching coach Dean Stiles with pitching development and coach first base.

An 11th round draft pick in 2005 by the Detroit Tigers, Claggett made his major league debut in 2009. His 11-year professional playing career includes seven minor league seasons where he won 35 and saved 39 games.

In 2006, MiLB.com named him Minor League Class A Relief Pitcher of the Year. Pitching for the West Michigan Whitecaps, the right-hander posted an ERA of 0.91 over 59 1/3 innings and finished with a record of 7-2 and 14 saves.

Claggett comes to San José State from Riverside Community College. He was the pitching coach and assistant recruiting coordinator in 2016.

Prior to coaching at Riverside Community College, Claggett was the pitching coach for the New Jersey Jackals of the Canadian-American Association of Professional Baseball league in 2015. The Jackals had the best staff ERA in the Can-Am League and reached the championship round.

Claggett started his coaching career in 2014 at the College of the Desert serving as the pitching coach and recruiting.

Claggett received his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Phoenix in 2015.

He began his college career at UC Riverside and played three seasons for the Highlanders as a middle infielder and relief pitcher. Claggett was the team's closer and was credited with four of the team's six saves in 2005.

Eric Deovlet Director of Operations 1st season San Diego State, 1999

Eric Deovlet was named the Director of Operations for the San José State University baseball program in September 2016.

Deovlet comes to San José State from Chapman University where he served as an assistant coach for the Panthers from 2011 to 2016. Deovlet served as the hitting instructor and coached at first and third base at Chapman. He also coached at Chapman from 2002 through 2004. He helped guide the offense to a .323 batting average and the 2003 NCAA Division III championship.

Between his stints at Chapman University, Deovlet was the associate head coach/recruiting coordinator at Lewis and Clark College from 2005 to 2010. He was promoted to interim head coach for the 2010 season.

At Lewis and Clark, he coordinated the recruitment of student-athletes with emphasis in the southern California region. He also directed and organized all daily operations including the management of assistant staff members, budget, scheduling and academic advising of student-athletes.

Deovlet also held assistant coaching responsibilities with the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox of the Cap Cod League in the summer of 2006. He mentored future Major League Baseball players Buster Posey, David Robertson, Michael Taylor and Josh Fields.

The 1999 San Diego State University graduate started his coaching career as a hitting instructor and defensive coordinator for outfielders at Villa Park High in Villa Park, California.

Deovlet received his bachelor's degree in social science from San Diego State in 1999, before obtaining a M.B.A. from the University of Phoenix in 2008.

2000 College W

The 2000 San José State baseball team went deeper into the postseason than any other team in school history. After being Western Athletic Conference co-champions, the Spartans won three out of four games in the NCAA Regional in Waco, Texas to advance to Super Regionals. There, SJSU took two out of three from Houston, and advanced to the College World Series for the first time in school history. San José State's run in Omaha ended after losses to Clemson and Louisiana Lafayette. The 2000 season remains the most successful in San José State baseball history.

SJSU Baseball Hall of Fame

Retired Number

Gene Menges, Head Coach, 1970-86

The only number in San José State baseball history to have ever been retired - #22 - belongs to former Spartan head coach Gene Menges, the second-winningest coach in the school's 94-year baseball history. He led the team for 17 seasons and compiled a 467-434-4 record. In 1978 and 1979, he was named Coach of the Year by the Northern California Baseball Association.

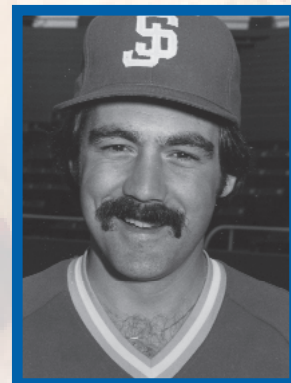

Menges earned his degree from San José State in 1951 and his master's degree in 1957. The quarterback of the 1948-50 Spartan football teams, his career totals still rank among the best in Spartan history. He joined the Spartan coaching staff in 1952 as an assistant baseball coach before assuming the head coaching duties in 1970. He has the rank of professor emeritus in the human performance department at SJSU, and is also a member of the San José State University Sports Hall of Fame.
