San Jose State Football

The next chapter of San Jose State football began December 17, 2009 when Mike MacIntyre was named the Spartans' head coach.

Coach MacIntyre's program is based on discipline and conditioning and his four building blocks for success.

- Foundation

"It's our job to help these young men gain responsibility and accountability while they're with us."

- Family

"I want us to grow as a team and really care about each other."

- Future

"That's academics. It's a year-round process to be successful. Our players will learn how to succeed at and graduate from San Jose State."

- Football

"If a player has a good foundation, if he loves and cares about his teammates, and if he's doing really well in school, then he will be a focused football player."

San José State University

Founded in 1857, SJSU is the oldest public institution of higher education on the West Coast. Its distinctive character has been forged by its long history, location, and vision - a blend of the old and the new, the traditional and the innovative.

There is an uncompromising commitment to offer access to higher education to all who meet the criteria for admission, yielding a stimulating mix of age groups, cultures, and economic backgrounds for teaching, learning, and research.

Located in the center of San José, the University offers 134 bachelor's and master's degrees and the excitement of a large, metropolitan campus where many cultures meet. Yet, students get personal attention in the setting of the university's seven colleges.

Known for the high quality of its academic programs, its excellent faculty, and its diverse and committed student body, San José State successfully educates students to compete in today's complex, high tech and global economy.

San José State is annually ranked among the top-ten masters-level public universities in the West by U.S. News & World Report's survey of "America's Best Colleges."

San José State is the number-one supplier of education, engineering, computer science and business graduates to Silicon Valley, the world's high tech capital. One of the largest universities in the 23-campus California State University (CSU) system, SJSU attracts students from throughout the United States and 100 countries of the world.

Academic Success

Seventy-nine (79) Spartans from the last five San Jose State football teams have earned a bachelor's degree. Three also have earned a master's degree.

Spartan Strength

"The Koret Athletic Training Center is one of the 'crown jewels' of the San Jose State University athletics program. The sheer size of the facility stops you in your tracks. We have everything a strength and conditioning program could conceivably need at our fingertips. Our student-athletes and coaches are truly blessed to have such a beautiful facility." – Chris Holder, San Jose State director of strength & conditioning

"Our Philosophy"

- Our goal is to teach student-athletes how to use their bodies for conditioning and competition.
- We emphasize skill development.
- Every element of our program is grounded in the sciences and draws on many training disciplines.

- Speed training, resistance exercise and flexibility development are components of our program.
- We focus our training on “fine tuning” the nervous system which will enable our student-athletes to perform at very high levels with a minimal amount of stress.
- Every exercise, every piece of equipment, and every drill we conduct is tailored to help our student-athletes perform their best and to remain injury-free.

- We don't align ourselves with the idea of coming in to the weight room every day and lifting tons of weight simply to achieve a standard.
- We believe that strength is not an attribute nor a by-product of weight training, but its own unique skill.
- Our student-athletes and their success will be the finished product of our program.

Mike MacIntyre Head Coach

Mike MacIntyre, the 2009 American Football Coaches Association Football Bowl Subdivision Assistant Coach of the Year was named the 29th San Jose State University football coach on December 17, 2009.

The 45-year old MacIntyre is a head coach for the time in a progressively successful 20-season coaching career that includes positions in the Football Bowl Subdivision and the National Football League.

"By hiring Mike MacIntyre, San Jose State University takes a tremendous step forward enhancing its football program. Mike MacIntyre was the unanimous first choice of the search team..." said San Jose State athletics director Tom Bowen upon MacIntyre's appointment. "He offered the most compelling case to build upon the great base that (former coach) Dick Tomey created in his five years. Mike's tireless energy and dynamic leadership will motivate our student-athletes to reach great heights in the classroom and on the playing field as they did under Dick Tomey."

MacIntyre spent the last two seasons at Duke as the defensive coordinator. His defensive units recorded some of the Blue Devils' best annual statistics over a 20-year span. The 2008 team allowed 356.9 yards per game, 67.4 fewer yards than the year before, and 23.4 points per game, 9.8 fewer than the previous season. In 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. Three Duke defenders received 2009 All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) honors – the university's largest total in a single season in several years.

Prior to joining the staff at Duke, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the NFL with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06) coaching defensive backs. Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on post-season competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

Talk About Mike MacIntyre

"Mike is a high energy guy who is an outstanding coach and a superior recruiter. He is a son of a head coach and has been around football all his life. He will do a great job in bringing good football players, and quality individuals, to San Jose State. I know he will do everything he can to insure that the program reaches the high standards he will set for it." – Bill Parcells, Miami Dolphins Executive Vice-President - Football Operations

"...To be sure, Mike left a lasting positive impression on many of our student-athletes. San Jose State is getting a man of the highest integrity, and we wish nothing but success for Mike and his family in this endeavor. Mike represents an excellent hire for San Jose State University." – Duke University Vice President & Director of Athletics Dr. Kevin White

"...I've had the privilege of hiring Mike not once, but twice, and would do it a third time if I could. Obviously, he has coaching in his blood as his father, George, is one of the finest football coaches I've been lucky enough to know. Mike also has had the fortune of being around some terrific football coaches and he has taken advantage of it by learning from all of them. He has great energy and passion for football and is a true student of the game. His team will be prepared to play on Saturdays. Most importantly, Mike will have a very positive impact on the lives of the young men in the San Jose State program, both on and off the field..." – Duke University Head Coach David Cutcliffe

"I just know that they got themselves a great coach in the sense that he recruited me when I was coming out of high school for Ole Miss and he really sold me on Ole Miss. I couldn't say that I wouldn't have gone to Ole Miss if it hadn't been for him, but he really sold me on it. So, they have a great recruiter and a great guy, an all-around professional. He's coached professional and college, the best of both worlds, so I think they got themselves a great coach." – San Francisco 49ers All-Pro linebacker Patrick Willis

Along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current NFL players including current Cincinnati Bengals safety Roy Williams, the eighth overall selection in the 2002 draft. Williams was selected to the Pro Bowl each of the four seasons MacIntyre coached him in Dallas. MacIntyre was instrumental in recruiting current San Francisco 49ers All-Pro linebacker Patrick Willis to Mississippi.

His coaching career began as a two-year graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (1990-91). He then worked one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four at Tennessee Martin (1993-96), and two at Temple (1997-98).

A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech, he played two seasons (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George MacIntyre, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85.

MacIntyre earned a bachelor's degree in business management at Georgia Tech and then earned a master's degree in education with an emphasis on sports management from Georgia in 1991.

Born on March 14, 1965, in Miami, Fla., he and his wife, Trisha, have three children, Jennifer, a freshman at Baylor University, Jay Michael and Jonston.

Kent Baer Defensive Coordinator/ Linebackers Coach

Kent Baer is in his third season on the San Jose State University football staff. After two seasons as the linebackers coach, he adds the duties of defensive coordinator in 2010. In his first two seasons with the Spartans, Baer's teachings produced a two-time second-team All-WAC selection in Justin Cole and Travis Jones, the team's top tackler in 2008.

In a noteworthy coaching career, he has been a defensive coordinator at six Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) universities and participated in eight bowl games and the 1986 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He was the interim head coach of the University of Notre Dame for the 2004 Insight Bowl. Three teams - Notre Dame in 2002 (17th), California in 1991 (8th) and Idaho in 1986 (16th) finished a season ranked in the Top-20 by the Associated Press.

As a defensive coordinator, Baer molded outstanding groups that excelled in stopping the run. At Notre Dame in 2004, the Fighting Irish yielded just five rushing touchdowns and was third nationally in rushing defense. The 2002 Notre Dame team was nationally ranked in scoring defense (9th), pass efficiency defense (10th), rushing defense (10th), and total defense (13th). Baer was recognized for the Irish's accomplishments that season as a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding assistant coach. Arizona State ranked seventh nationally in total defense in 1992.

Among a select group of coaches to work at the three Bay Area FBS schools, he was at Stanford for four bowl games including the 2000 Rose Bowl during his seven seasons on the staff. The 2001 Cardinal led the Pac-10 in rushing defense - just the second Stanford unit to top the conference in that category. California won 17 of 23 games in his final two seasons there.

The last 24 years, he has coached and coordinated the New Era Bowl in Japan. The game annually integrates top Japanese college players with selected American players and coaches.

Baer was a standout linebacker at Utah State during the 1969 through 1972 seasons. He set a school record for total tackles, 116, a record that stood for 10 years. Baer graduated from Utah State in 1973 as a physical education and recreation major.

He has three adult sons - Brian, Aaron James (A.J.), and Steven Blake. Baer also has three grandchildren through his son, Brian, and wife Kristen - girls, Alex and Isabella, and a boy, Max.

Tim Landis Offensive Coordinator/ Tight Ends Coach

After serving as a head coach at three Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) schools for the last 17 seasons, Tim Landis joined the San Jose State University coaching staff in January 2010. In his first season with the Spartans, he will serve as the offensive coordinator and coach the tight ends.

As a head coach, Landis could be termed a turnaround specialist. He had 10 seasons of .500 or better win-loss records. Six times between 2000 and 2006, his teams were ranked nationally in the top-10 for rushing offense in the FCS.

Landis comes to San Jose State from Bucknell University where he was the head coach from 2003 through 2009. His arrival followed the untimely death of his predecessor, Tom Gadd, who went to Bucknell in 1995 after two seasons as San Jose State's defensive coordinator. The Bison finished with a .500 or better three times and compiled a 32-46 win-loss record.

His first head coaching position came at Davidson College starting in 1993 where he was one of the youngest Division I head coaches at age 29. The 1998 and 1999 seasons were his best. Davidson had never won eight football games in a single season and the Wildcats did it twice, first, in 1998, and again in 1999. In four of his seven seasons, Davidson had .500 or better winning percentages. His coaching record at Davidson was 35-36-1.

At Saint Mary's College, Landis reversed a Gaels program that won just four times in two years. He strung together three win-loss records of .500 or better from 2000 through 2002. With a 6-5 record in 2001 and 6-6 in 2002, he was named the Division I-AA Independent Coach of the Year.

His overall major college head coaching record is 85-98-1.

The 1986 graduate of Randolph-Macon College majored in English and was an accomplished two-sport student-athlete. Landis was a first-team All-Old Dominion Athletic Conference quarterback in football and pitcher in baseball. As a senior, he was the school's recipient of the Compton Award recognizing excellence in athletics and academics. In 2000, Landis was inducted into the Randolph-Macon Athletic Hall of Fame.

His first coaching position was in 1986 as Randolph-Macon's wide receivers coach. Three seasons coaching high school football and baseball in the suburban Philadelphia area preceded his return to college football when he was hired as an assistant football coach at Davidson in 1991.

A member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Landis is a former chair of the FCS All-America Selection Committee and a member of the Board of Directors Executive Committee.

Landis and his wife, Karen, have three sons, T.J., Jack and Charlie, and a daughter, Jordan.

Season Outlook

Following an emphasis on the game's basics, establishing a new level of conditioning and much position experimentation during 2010 spring practice, San Jose State University embarks on its next chapter of major college football led by new head coach Mike MacIntyre.

In his debut as a head coach at any level, MacIntyre inherits a team with 39 returning letterwinners, 14 of them starters from the 2009 Spartans that finished with a 2-10 overall win-loss record and a 1-7 mark in Western Athletic Conference action. A corps of 19 redshirts and a promising recruiting class look to make their mark and turn the program's fortunes in a positive manner.

"I'm really excited about watching the whole team come together. We have a group of young men on a mission. We're playing the ninth hardest schedule in America. These young men know it. We're excited about taking the challenge," says MacIntyre. "So, I'm looking forward to seeing us grow as a team every week as the year goes on."

"We're going to have good mixture of young guys and older guys. We're still going to be primarily a young football team. There's going to be a learning curve in the beginning as our young men improve."

Competition for playing time and starting roles should be fierce when pre-season drills commence in August. Many positions remain up for grabs especially since the Spartan coaching staff looked at nearly every player in spring practice as a potential contributor on offense and defense.

"We moved a lot of guys around (in the spring). Now, they've got to get down to the fundamentals of where they are going to play. Our two-way players (we've identified) must utilize their strengths at both positions," says MacIntyre who has specialized roles in mind for a two-way player's secondary position.

"The other thing we have to hone in on (in preseason camp) is our special teams. We have to get a core of special teams players. We did quite a bit of that in the spring. Now, that I know who the starters kind of are, I've got to get a core of special teams guys that can take our special teams and run with it. "

OFFENSE

A balanced attack is at the root of San Jose State's offensive philosophy. For the Spartans, a necessary staple is an effective ground game. San Jose State last averaged over 4.0 yards per carry in 2006 - the most recent season the program finished with a winning record and participated in a bowl game.

The Spartans have a veteran group of linemen to lead the way. Guards Isaac Leatiota (6-4, 305, SR, 3V) and Ailao Eliapo (6-2, 320, SR, 3V) have 47 starts between them since 2007. Tackle Fred Koloto (6-3, 290, JR, 2V) is a two-year starter while center Robbie Reed (6-3, 290, SR, 2V) and tackle Andres Vargas (6-4, 305) broke into and stayed in the starting lineup last season. Tackle David Quessenberry (6-6, 290, SO, 1V) is the only other lineman with any major college action. Any number of the five returning redshirts and four incoming freshmen can work their way quickly up the depth chart and earn playing time.

The line plans to be an effective unit for possibly San Jose State's most varied set of running backs in years. The Spartans have nearly a dozen prospects. There are a number of big back hopefuls, all-around backs that are capable pass receivers, big-play threats and grinders who look to churn out a repetition of first downs.

Running Backs

Lamon Muldrow, 5-9, 210, SR, 1V
Brandon Rutley, 5-10, 195, JR, 2V
Ina Liaina, 6-1, 225, SO, 1V
Wade O'Neill, 6-1, 225, SO, 1V
Marcos Garces, 5-10, 176, JR, SQ
Osa Aigbuza, 5-9, 185, SO, SQ
Matt McCoy, 6-0, 250, JR, RS
Newcomers
Vince Buhagiar, 6-3, 235, FR, HS
David Freeman, 5-8, 195, SO, TR
Forrest Hightower, 5-10, 180, FR, HS
Derek Muuava, 6-1, 215, FR, HS
Ben Thompson, 6-2, 220, FR, HS
Josh Brown, 5-7, 180, JR, WO

Lamon Muldrow (5-9, 210, SR, 1V) topped the 2009 team with 592 yards, a disappointing total to him, and a 4.5 yards per carry average. Brandon Rutley (5-10, 195, JR, 2V) seeks to show more of the form he displayed in 2008 when he was the team's number-two rusher and a meaningful multi-purpose threat. With an interest to use some two-back sets, Wade O'Neill (6-1, 225, SO, 1V), a 2009 redshirt, from linebacker to a running back role and tops the opening fall depth chart at one of the backfield positions. Ina Liaina (6-1, 225, SO, 1V) was used as a power back runner in 2008 and also is coming off a redshirt season.

As many as six newcomers could find themselves with specific running back roles. David Freeman (5-8, 195, SO, TR), a transfer from the University of Washington, averaged 5.6 yards per carry for the Huskies and played effectively in 2008 games against BYU, Oklahoma and Stanford. Vince Buhagiar (6-3, 235, FR, HS), Derek Muuava (6-1, 215, FR, HS) and Ben Thompson (6-2, 220, FR, HS) are three incoming freshmen hoping to provide power and versatility to the running game and the offense.

Quarterbacks

Jordan La Secla, 6-3, 205, SR, 1V
 Matt Faulkner, 6-2, 205, JR, JC
 Dasmen Stewart, 6-3, 205, FR, RS
 Newcomer
 Blake Jurich, 6-4, 220, FR, HS

Throughout the spring, quarterbacks Jordan La Secla (6-3, 205, SR, 1V), Matt Faulkner (6-2, 205, JR, JC) and Dasmen Stewart (6-3, 205, FR, RS) waged an even battle for the number-one job. La Secla made a quantum leap as a quarterback in 2009. A starter eight times, he threw for 1,926 yards and 10 touchdowns. Faulkner and Stewart were productive and successful before joining the Spartans. Following the 2010 Spring Game, MacIntyre stated the number-one quarterback won't be named until closer to the start of the playing season.

"...All of them are capable. All three of them have different strengths," said MacIntyre following the Spring Game. He also has newcomer Blake Jurich (6-4, 220, FR, HS) joining the mix at quarterback in August.

Wide Receivers

Jalal Beauchman, 6-4, 220, SR, 3V
 Michael Avila, 5-9, 175, JR, 2V
 Josh Harrison, 5-11, 183, SO, 2V
 James Orth, 6-2, 190, SO, 1V
 Andrew Reyes, 6-1, 180, JR, SQ
 Devin Newsome, 5-10, 185, SR, 3V
 Noel Grigsby, 5-10, 170, FR, RS
 Chandler Jones, 5-9, 165, FR, RS
 Jason Kafka, 6-2, 175, SO, SQ
 Newcomers
 Akeem King, 6-3, 190, FR, HS
 Sean Linton, 6-2, 180, FR, HS
 Kyle Nunn, 6-3, 190, FR, HS
 Damon Ogburn, Jr., 5-11, 180, FR, HS
 Doug Parrish, 6-2, 195, FR, HS

Tight Ends

Ryan Otten, 6-5, 235, SO, 1V
 Ray Rodriguez, 6-1, 265, SO, 1V
 Avelino Valencia, 6-4, 250, SR, 1V
 Keenan Brown, 6-4, 260, SO, SQ
 Newcomers
 Vince Buhagiar, 6-3, 235, FR, HS
 Travis Raciti, 6-4, 245, FR, HS
 Foloi Vae, 6-3, 245, FR, HS

Wide receiver Jalal Beauchman (top) and tight end Ryan Otten (bottom) are two big targets for whomever quarterbacks the Spartans.

Whoever is under center will have a young pass receiving corps of wide receivers and tight ends. Jalal Beauchman (6-4, 225, SR, 3V) and Josh Harrison (5-11, 183, JR, 2V) each caught 35 passes a year ago and are the top returning pass catchers. Devin Newsome (5-10, 185, SR, 3V) and James Orth (6-2, 190, SO, 1V), two defensive backs in 2009, now are wide receivers. Five incoming freshmen and three returning redshirts all have a chance to become part of the playing rotation at wide receiver.

Ryan Otten (6-5, 230, SR, 3V), who had 10 receptions in 2009, stood out at tight end in the spring, particularly with his two touchdown grabs in the 2010 Spring Game. Going into preseason camp, he tops a group of seven hopefuls. Five of the seven could find themselves at another position as the Spartans develop their position depth throughout the roster.

As a unit, the entire offense seeks more productivity in all areas compared to a year ago. An increase in meaningful output can go a long way to making the San Jose State defense have a much better season in 2010.

DEFENSE

Quite simply, the defense intends to be better in every phase of play. The majority of playing experience is in the backfield, but there is a viable core to build on in the defensive line and at line-backer.

The Spartans return three of their six busiest tacklers and their co-leader in sacks from the 2009 team. Safety Duke Ihenacho (6-1, 210, SR, 3V) is a two-time, first-team All-Western Athletic Conference player. As a safety in 2009, his 89 tackles were second best on the team. Linebacker Pompey Festejo (6-0, 215, SR, 3V) earned a starting role early in the season and was right behind Ihenacho with 83 tackles. Festejo tops the opening fall depth chart at middle linebacker in the Spartans' new defensive scheme.

Defensive linemen Pablo Garcia (6-2, 290, JR, 2V), who shared the team lead with 4.0 quarterback sacks, and Travis Johnson (6-3, 235, SO, 1V), who started the final four 2009 games at a defensive end position, return for 2010. The Spartans are counting on Mohamed Marah (6-0, 245, SR, 2V) playing a key role. Marah started as an end in the 2009 season opener, picked up a quarterback sack against #4-USC, was injured in the game and missed the remainder of the season.

Season Outlook

Anthony Larceval (6-1, 265, FR, HS), a redshirt freshman, joins Johnson, Garcia and Marah at the top of the opening fall depth chart. Justin Willis (6-1, 290, SR, 2V) and Vincent Abbott (6-0, 230, SO, 1V) had their best season as freshmen in 2006 and 2008, respectively and hope to steadily increase their playing time. End Joe Nigos (6-2, 260, JR, 1V) has starting experience from a year ago. It's possible Ailao Eliapo and Ray Rodriguez (6-1, 265, SO, 1V), a two-way player in 2009, will be part of the defensive line group.

With a real need for players and depth in the defensive line, the Spartans signed eight prospects, two of which are possible multi-positional players. Ja'Rodd Watson (6-2, 275, JR, JC) was the only one of the eight making an impression in spring practice. The coaching staff expects the other seven to report when pre-season drills commence.

Linebackers Pompey Festejo (above) and Tiuke Tuipulotu (40, below) were two of the busiest tacklers on the 2009 San Jose State team.

Besides Festejo, Tiuke Tuipulotu (5-10, 205, JR, 2V) and Kyler O'Neal (5-11, 225, SO, 1V) top the opening fall depth chart at the linebacker positions. Tuipulotu was safety his first two seasons with the Spartans. O'Neal, a 2009 red-shirt, was a contributing reserve linebacker as a freshman. Ryno Gonzalez (6-1, 230, SR, 3V) and Braden Storaasli (6-0, 213, SR, 3V) have started games for the Spartans. Rashad Gayden (6-2, 255, JR, JC) had the advantage of being a mid-year transfer and participated in 2010 spring practice.

Pompey Festejo, 6-0, 215, SR, 3V
Tiuke Tuipulotu, 5-10, 205, JR, 2V

Bené Benwikere, 6-0, 190, FR, HS
Damon Ogburn, Jr., 5-11, 180, FR, HS
Elijah Shittu, 6-0, 185, SR, JC

Safeties

Duke Ihenacho, 6-1, 210, SR, 3V
Dominique Hunsucker, 5-10, 194, SR, 3V
Manu Ngatikaura, 6-0, 180, SR, 1V
Evan Taylor, 6-0, 192, SO, SQ
Courtlin Thompson, 6-2, 195, FR, RS
Newcomers
Doug Parrish, 6-2, 195, FR, HS

In the defensive backfield, Dominique Hunsucker (5-10, 194, SR, 3V) returns to the defensive side and a safety position along side of Ihenacho. He saw some action as a safety in 2006. Peyton Thompson (5-11, 180, JR, 2V) and Ronnie Yell (5-9, 165, SO, 1V) top the opening fall depth chart at the corner-back spots. Thompson was credited with 48 tackles and a pair of interceptions in his first full season as a starter. Yell started the final six games as a true freshman. Redshirt returnees Brandon Driver (6-0, 185, JR, RS) and Ralph Johnson (5-10, 175, SO, 1V), Alex Germany (5-9, 181, JR, 2V) Chris Hill (5-9, 175, SO, SQ) and Evan Taylor (6-0, 192, SO, SQ) are battling for significant roles in the secondary. Newcomers Bene Benwikere (6-0, 190, FR, HS), Damon Ogburn, Jr. (5-11, 180, FR, HS) and Douglas Parrish (6-2, 195, FR, HS) can make a strong first impression during preseason camp.

Specialists

Harrison Waid (P/K), 6-1, 175, FR, RS
Ben Zorn (LS), 6-3, 270, JR, SQ

SPECIALISTS

Harrison Waid (6-1, 175, FR, RS), is the Spartans' number-one kicker. He is in line to handle all of the kicking responsibilities. Ben Zorn (6-3, 270, SO, SQ), was the top long snapper in the spring.

THE SEASON AHEAD

San Jose State is one of six Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams playing 13 regular-season games in 2010. For the second time in school history and first since 2000, the Spartans open a season against a pre-season #1-ranked team when they travel to defending national champion Alabama. By the end of September, San Jose State will face Wisconsin and Utah, two more 10-win teams from 2009, on the road.

In all, the Spartans play two teams, Alabama and Boise State, that went undefeated in 2009, and five more squads (Wisconsin, Utah, Nevada, Fresno State, and Idaho) that played in a bowl game a year ago.

San Jose State's on-the-field challenges begin September 4.

2009 In Review

San Jose State at #4-USC Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif. September 5, 2009 84,325 in attendance

Los Angeles, Calif.----San Jose State started the 2009 season quickly, but USC, ranked pre-season #4, took over in the middle of the second quarter en route to a 56-3 victory.

Thanks to some heady defense that forced a pair of USC fumbles in the first quarter, Tyler Cope put the Spartans (0-1) on the scoreboard first with a 41-yard field goal.

The Trojans had established their ability to stop the San Jose State offense early on yielding just three first downs. In the second quarter, USC's offense found its groove scoring four touchdowns, all on the ground.

USC extended its 28-3 halftime lead with two more rushing touchdowns in the third quarter for a 42-3 advantage. By game's end, the Trojans balanced a dynamic ground attack with sharp passing by quarterbacks Matt Barkley and Aaron Corp, who combined to complete 19--of-23 passes for 278 yards.

One Spartan highlight was the punting by Philip Zavala. His 43.4 yard average was the first sign of what would be a very effective season for the San Jose State punter.

Punter Philip Zavala had a busy and productive day in the season opener.

San Jose State vs. #17-Utah Spartan Stadium, San Jose, Calif. September 12, 2009 23,684 in attendance

San Jose, Calif.----The University of Utah came into Spartan Stadium for San Jose State's home opener with a 15-game winning streak - the longest in the nation. The Spartans pushed the Utes to the brink before dropping a 24-14 decision in the first game played on the new FieldTurf surface in the stadium.

Like the opener at USC a week earlier, the plan at quarterback was for Kyle Reed to start and Jordan La Secla to play. La Secla, who had thrown just 22 passes in two seasons, had his biggest game to date at the major college level. Showing off his strong arm, the San Jose State passing game came to life.

Wide receivers Kevin Jurovich and Marquis Avery each had seven receptions. Jurovich went over the 100-yard mark in receiving yardage. Avery's 1-yard touchdown reception late in the fourth quarter gave San Jose State hopes for a major upset.

The defense which stopped Utah with a goal line stand at the 1-yard line in the first half and created two more turnovers on fumble recoveries needed one more stop. A 46-yard run from midfield by running back Shakerin Sausan, his first carry of the season, set up a 25-yard field goal by Joe Phillips to keep Utah's winning streak in tact.

Defensive end Carl Ihenacho recovered a fumble for the second consecutive week.

San Jose State at Stanford Stanford Stadium, Stanford, Calif. September 19, 2009 33,560 in attendance

Stanford, Calif.----Two special teams touchdowns, one on the opening kickoff and a second-half punt return, propelled Stanford to a 42-17 win over San Jose State.

The Cardinal picked up a third score on a Corey Gatewood 23-yard interception return at the start of the second half.

Jordan La Secla made his first start for San Jose State, completed 17-of-30 passes with the interception for 155 yards and engineered a 70-yard scoring drive capped by a 1-yard Jalal Beauchman touchdown reception to close the deficit to 14-7.

Lamon Muldrow capped San Jose State's scoring for the evening with a 14-yard touchdown run. Other than Muldrow's fourth quarter running, the Spartans struggled to complete the passing of La Secla and Kyle Reed. San Jose State gained just 24 yards rushing.

The defense came up with three more fumble recoveries and a Peyton Thompson pass interception, but that was not enough.

Tight end Ryan Otten had a season-high four receptions against Stanford.

San Jose State vs. Idaho Spartan Stadium, San Jose, Calif. October 10, 2009 15,321 in attendance

San Jose, Calif.----San Jose State had its biggest passing day of the season throwing for 302 yard, but Idaho spoiled Homecoming with a 29-25 come-from-behind victory.

There were six lead changes and neither team led by more than eight points.

The Spartans had trouble rushing the football gaining just 45 yards, but Jordan La Secla had seven different targets in the game. Kevin Jurovich and Brandon Rutley each caught eight passes.

The San Jose State defense maintained its ability to create turnovers. The Spartans intercepted three passes and came up with a fumble recovery. Yet, an interception by Idaho line-backer Jono Grayson near the end of the first half may have been the game's biggest play. Idaho kicker Trey Farquhar went on to boot a 52-yard field goal with no time left as a result of the turnover.

The Spartans took their last lead with 10:46 remaining on a Tyler Cope 20-yard field, but after two changes in possession, Idaho executed a nine-play, 67-yard touchdown drive to win the game.

Safety Duke Ihenacho led all players with 12 tackles and intercepted a pass.

In the game, wide receiver Kevin Jurovich set the San Jose State career receiving record

San Jose, Calif.-----Tyler Cope kicked a career-best 46-yard field goal in the first half and closed out the game with a 19-yard boot with 34 seconds remaining giving San Jose State a 13-10 win over New Mexico State.

The Spartans got on the scoreboard first after Jordan La Secla replaced an injured Kyle Reed. La Secla's first play of the game was a fourth-down pass for a 7-yard touchdown to Kevin Jurovich.

Western Athletic Conference

In its nearly 50-year existence, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best inter-collegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the nine schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of academic success at their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. Since 2001, the WAC has sent 31 teams to bowl games. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games in three of the last four seasons.

The WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in 24 of the past 27 seasons. Every current WAC school has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In baseball, the WAC boasts two national champions in the past seven years.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure. An extension was signed in 2008 that guarantees over 300 regular season WAC contests and 45 championship events will be aired on the ESPN networks through 2017. The WAC officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

Karl Benson
WAC Commissioner

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title. New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967. Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name.

Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from

Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added. TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew.

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY

The skyline of downtown San Jose

Situated at the hub of Silicon Valley is San Jose – the third largest city in California and the 10th largest in the nation. San Jose, strategically located at the sunny, southern tip of the San Francisco Bay, is surrounded by rolling hills and striking mountains. San Jose’s vibrant and growing downtown is the setting for San Jose State University and the focus for important financial, commercial and arts communities.

*“ San Jose is a confident and exciting city, full of optimism and opportunity. We treasure our past. We embrace our diversity. We nurture our future, in our children and through stewardship of our resources. People are proud to live here. Our city is committed to sustaining and improving the quality of life in every neighborhood, for every resident, now and in the future.” –

San Jose offers a neighborhood feel in a metropolitan environment.

Regional growth and stability are complemented by an active cultural life. San Jose is the home of the Silicon Valley High Technology and the Children’s Discovery museums, the San Jose Museum of Art, San Jose Symphony, the San Jose-Cleveland Ballet, numerous galleries and arts centers, Opera San Jose, the Winchester Mystery House and other respected professional and community group theater groups.

Light rail and historic trolley lines, the 18,000-seat HP Pavilion at San Jose, convention facilities, shops and a diverse night scene add to the excitement. Reflecting the cultural richness of the community is a wide range of restaurants.

A reason the South Bay has grown so dramatically is its quality of life. The mild climate encourages an active and casual lifestyle. There are more than 100,000 acres of land for biking, rollerblading and other outdoor activities. Boasting nearly 300 days of sunshine and an average sum-

- 30 minutes from the Pacific Ocean
- Population - 990,000
- Average annual household income of $84,857 according to Money magazine
- One of the top-25 “brainiest” cities in the country
- More college graduates per 100 residents than any other major U.S. city
- More home owners than any large city in the country
- Worker productivity is twice the national average
- Best public safety record of any large metropolitan area in the United States the last 10 years.
- International airports – San Jose, San Francisco and Oakland

mer temperature of 74 degrees, San Jose symbolizes the best California has to offer. The region’s 1.6-million residents enjoy recreational and entertainment opportunities year-round. Within a short drive are San Francisco, beaches from Santa Cruz to Carmel, the California coastal redwoods, Lake Tahoe and Yosemite National Park.

San Jose State University hosted the 2010 NCAA Division I Men’s Basketball Championship First & Second Round games at the 18,200-seat HP Pavilion in downtown San Jose.

San Jose State University, Silicon Valley's metropolitan university, is pre-eminent in broadly educating leaders and professionals for an increasingly complex and global society.

Located in the heart of the Silicon Valley, this university has aided the development of the computer industry and the resulting technological advances in our nation by providing the largest source of engineering, science and business graduates to Silicon Valley companies.

Graduating about 7,000 students annually, San Jose State University also provides the professional infrastructure for the region – from teachers to social workers to artists to law enforcement officers to nurses. The terms, “leaders and professionals,” describe not just the types of graduates who earn their degrees at San Jose State, but also the roles they assume in their communities and in their fields of endeavor.

San Jose State University's place in history is well-established. Founded in 1857, it was the first public institution of higher education on the West Coast. From its humble beginnings as a normal school to train teachers for the developing frontier, it has matured into a master's university offering 191 bachelor's and master's degrees.

The university's 30,000 students study in eight fully-accredited colleges: Applied Sciences and the Arts, Business, Education, Engineering, Humanities and the Arts, Science, Social Sciences and Social Work. One strength of the academic program is the broad general education curriculum that brings common elements -- critical thinking, writing and communication skills, and cultural pluralism -- to diverse studies. Academic strength also is seen in the university's nationally-recognized programs. Examples include the School of Music, the School of Art and Design, the School of Journalism and Mass Communications, the School of Nursing and the School of Library and Information Science.

In each discipline, quality teaching remains a priority. Tenured faculty teach introductory as well as advanced courses with an emphasis on small classes. Learning facilities include computer-equipped classrooms, the Western world's only undergraduate nuclear science facility and North America's largest Beethoven Center. Focusing on applied research, faculty receive a growing number of contracts and grants each year. From Moss Landing Marine Research Laboratory to the NASA Ames Research Center, faculty are exploring everything from the depths of the ocean to the surface of Mars.

San Jose State University also finds strength in its diversity. For many first-generation students, it is a gateway to economic independence and social mobility. It is also an incubator of cultural and intellectual development and an opportunity for lifelong learning. Students range in age from first-time freshmen to college transfers to professionals seeking additional education. Student demographics – with ethnic pluralism – provide the benefits of multiple cultures and diverse student interests and activities. From residence life to athletic teams to social clubs to co-op jobs – student activities meet the needs of this diverse student body.

Don W. Kassing, Interim President

Don W. Kassing, who retired as San Jose State University President in 2008, graciously agreed to return on an interim basis for 2010-2011. During his term, the California State University chancellor will conduct a national search for a permanent replacement.

As president from 2005 to 2008, Kassing moved the university forward in several key areas. The campus engaged in a university-wide strategic planning process, and made great strides in private fundraising with $35 million in gifts leading to the naming of the Donald and Sally Lucas Graduate School of Business, the Charles W. Davidson College of Engineering and the Connie L. Lurie College of Education. He also appointed Athletics Director Tom Bowen.

"San Jose State makes an enormous difference in one of the best communities of America. I'm excited about the great future we are shaping together." - Don W. Kassing

As president and vice president for administration and finance, Kassing led the development of two campus landmarks: the award-winning Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, based on a unique and highly successful partnership with the city of San José, and Campus Village, a state-of-the-art residential complex for students, faculty and staff that is among the largest such CSU projects, and the focus of a renewed sense of community on campus.

Kassing's 18 years of experience in higher education includes vice president for university relations and administrative services at Murray State University in Kentucky and vice president for development and public affairs at Western State College in Colorado. At Belleville Area College in Illinois from 1975 to 1986, Kassing taught management and marketing and served as department chair. He was also president of the Granite City campus for two years.

Don Kassing was San Jose State University's President when the Spartans won the 2006 New Mexico Bowl.

In addition to his career in higher education, Kassing worked for 11 years in private industry, including eight years in corporate finance and operations management for Brown Group Inc. and three years with General Motors Corporation.

- * Joint Venture Silicon Valley
- * Silicon Valley Higher Education Roundtable
- * Western Athletic Conference

Kassing holds a master's degree in business administration and a B.S. in economics from St. Louis University.

Don Kassing shares a moment with former Spartan All-American and record-setting quarterback Mike Perez at an alumni reunion.

Tom Bowen, Director of Athletics

Tom Bowen was named San Jose State University's director of intercollegiate athletics on December 20, 2004. Under his leadership, San Jose State is a viable Division I-A intercollegiate athletics program with proven athletics and academic successes and financial advancements to his credit.

"CULTURE OF CHAMPIONS"

At the core of Bowen's mission for San Jose State University athletics is building a "Culture of Champions" academically, athletically and in the community. To reach that end, the Notre Dame alum has instilled a greater sense of purpose, commitment and execution from student-athletes, coaches, staff, alumni and friends. He has invested resources both in external and internal operations; enhanced the department's internet and social media presence; and expanded marketing, promotions and advertising opportunities locally, regionally and nationally through the creation of Spartan Sports Properties.

Bowen has led the Spartan Foundation - the department's fund-raising component - through consistently challenging and uncertain economic conditions to unprecedented fiscal heights at the university. The Spartans have produced annual budget surpluses four straight years under his direction and have re-invested their gains back into their student-athletes and teams.

An integral member of the University's presidential staff, he has created and implemented short and long-term revenue streams for intercollegiate athletics and other campus extra-curricular activities. His initiatives and leadership foster energy university-wide. Athletics' increased visibility has coincided with major and significant donations coming to the University.

At a 2009 home game, Bowen welcomes San Jose State record-setter and Hamilton TigerCats quarterback Adam Tafralis.

Since taking over, San Jose State has more football wins in the latest four-year period than any similar span since 1990-93. The 2006 through 2008 Spartans are the first three Spartan teams to post consecutive .500 or better records in the Western Athletic Conference football standings. The 2006 Spartans capped their finest season in many years, posting a 9-4 overall record and capturing the New Mexico Bowl championship.

Recent athletics accomplishments add to his Culture of Champions. Women's soccer and women's golf are the latest teams to win a Western Athletic Conference championship. Women's water polo is a consistent top-10 national program. Women's swimming finished 2008-09 with the longest dual meet winning streak in Division I. Women's gymnastics is entrenched as a NCAA Regional Championship qualifying team. Men's basketball, men's soccer and men's golf have produced measurable gains, particularly in conference competition.

Spartans have earned All-America honors in football, women's golf, baseball and women's water polo. San Jose State had its first women's gymnastics individual NCAA Regional champion in 2009. Twelve student-athletes were honored nationally and more than 100 at the conference level for academic achievements in 2009-10.

Tom Bowen is a widely-known and highly-effective athletics administrator. The San Jose Mercury News recognizes him regularly in its Top-25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in the Bay Area.

Bowen's vision for student-athlete success and excellence led to the creation of a Student Success Services component. Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores, as measured by the NCAA, have risen steadily and strikingly under his watch and were at a then university-best in 2009 and were surpassed in the 2010 report.

He has appointed new head coaches in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's golf, women's golf, women's swimming and diving, softball, women's softball, women's cross country and women's volleyball. Since 2005, coaches in women's soccer, baseball, women's golf, water polo and softball have received conference Coach of the Year recognition.

In 2008, San Jose State was named as one of 12 Division I universities cited for Overall Excellence in Diversity in the most recent national study by Texas A&M University on behalf of the NCAA.

A VALUED PROFESSIONAL

Bowen's proven administrative and managerial record at San Jose State has resulted in meaningful national appointments in college athletics. He is one of eight Football Bowl Subdivision directors of athletics serving on the 24-member NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. In 2009, Bowen was one of 12 named to serve as a mentor to aspiring women and ethnic minority athletics administrators in the NCAA Fellows Leadership Program. He was the Tournament Director for the 2010 NCAA Men's Basketball Division I Championship first and second rounds games played in San Jose.

Bowen came to San Jose State after serving three years as the Director of Community Affairs and the executive director of the 49ers Foundation for the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League. He directed all of the team's fund-raising activities and was responsible for alumni and current player participation in the community.

His Division I experience at the collegiate level includes athletics administration positions at the University of California and Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif. As an assistant and associate director of athletics at the University of California from July 2000 through September 2002, he was responsible for athletics fund-raising. Bowen was credited with developing the first comprehensive planned giving program for the Golden Bears.

At Saint Mary's College, he was the Director of Foundations and Corporate Relations from May 1995 to January 1997 before being appointed to an associate director of athletics position by the president of the college. From January 1997 through April 2000, he managed the athletics department's budget, directed a corporate sponsorship program and interacted with the academic senate, faculty and university personnel on student-athlete issues.

His first professional leadership appointment in athletics was at De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif. From 1987 through 1995, he held the positions of athletics director and assistant football coach.

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY

The 1983 graduate of the University of Notre Dame majored in theology/sociology and spent six years studying for the priesthood with the Holy Cross Fathers. Bowen went on to earn a master's degree in administration/education from the University of San Francisco in 1990.

Active throughout the entire Bay Area, he has been named to the San Jose Mercury News' Top-25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in the Bay Area. He serves on the board of the San Jose Sports Authority. He is an adjunct professor at the University of San Francisco School of Sports Management and at San Jose State University's Department of Kinesiology where he teaches sports management classes. Bowen is a frequent guest lecturer at several Bay Area university campuses and is a welcomed speaker before major corporations headquartered locally on the topics of leadership, management and motivation.

He is a Level 2 certified member of the College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) and has memberships in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Society of Fund Raising Executives.

San Jose State University Vice-President for Administration and Finance Rose Lee and Bowen await a 2009 ribbon-cutting ceremony dedicating Spartan Stadium's new FieldTurf playing surface.

The Denver, Colo., native and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children: sons, Andrew and Peter, and, daughter, McKenna.
