San José State-Utah State Postgame Notes

Tonight's victory marked the program's fourth consecutive win over Utah State.

San José State has now won six of its last seven conference openers.

The Spartans are off to a 2-0 start for the first time since the 2013-14 campaign.

SJSU is one of just 30 remaining unbeatens among teams who have started the 2020-21 season.

San José State's 28-point third quarter was the program's best quarter offensively since Jan. 22 (31-point first quarter vs. New Mexico).

Senior Tyra Whitehead's 18 points and 10 rebounds gave the senior her 15th career double-double in a Spartan uniform (and second in as many games this season).

Senior Meghan Oberg tallied a career-high 18 points in the win.

Freshmen Sophia Jones and Alani Fluker made their SJSU debut on Monday.

The Spartans have now won five consecutive regular season games.
