Spartan Coaching Staff

John Dormann Head Coach 11th Season at SJSU

Re-establishing a national prominence for Spartan women's golf, John Dormann is in his fourth season as the San Jose State University women's golf head coach. Now in his 11th season affiliated with San Jose State golf, Dormann was the assistant for both the men's and women's teams from October 1998 through 2005 when he took over as the head coach for both teams. Dormann was named the women's head coach in April 2005.

As head coach, the Spartans played in the NCAA Regional Championships each of the last three seasons, won the 2006 Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Championship, captured four in-season tournament titles and been ranked in the top-30 of the GolfStat rankings. Current senior Erica Moston played as an individual at the 2008 NCAA Championships. San Jose State has been a consistent threat at any tournament it has entered for top team honors since Dormann took over. The Spartans have placed in the top-three in 15 of 35 tournaments.

Dormann has recruited effectively and honed the games of young talents into tournament-proven skilled players. The 2006 WAC Coach of the Year has coached two of the past three WAC champions including Moston, and two WAC Freshmen of the Year including junior Cristina Corpus. San Jose State players have received three four and seven second-team all-conference honors with Dormann as head coach.

As the assistant coach for the men's and women's programs, the Spartans women's teams finished in the top-20 at the 1999 through 2001 NCAA Championships including a 15th place finish in 2000. San Jose State men's and women's golfers received All-Western Athletic Conference first or second-team recognition 24 times while he was the assistant coach. Ashley Gomes, a 2004 honorable mention All-American, was the 2004 WAC champion and "Player of the Year." In the classroom, Spartan golfers received 25 Academic All-WAC awards and 10 national awards for academic excellence from the Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) and the National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA) during his tenure as the Spartans' top assistant.

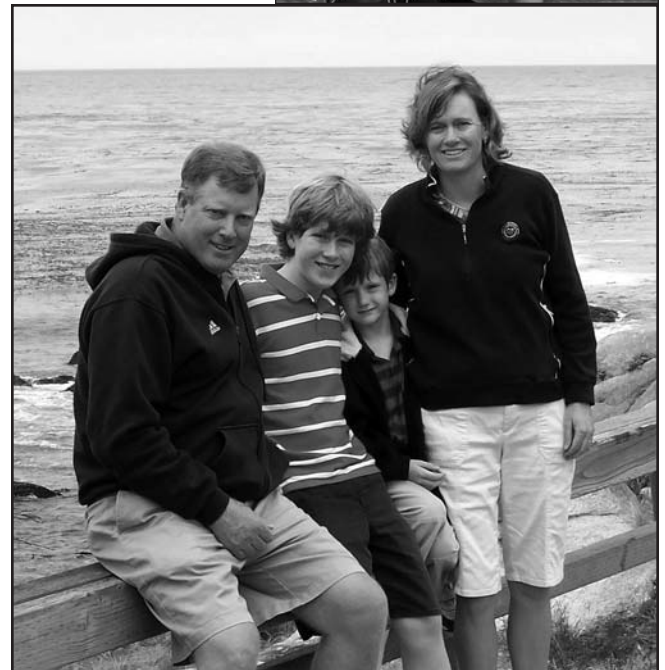

"In addition to building a national championship-caliber team, we want to develop a program and student-athletes that represent the best in San Jose and the university," says the Spartans' coach.

Before coming on board with the Spartans, Dormann was a professional caddy on the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour. He worked for Meg Mallon, the 1991 LPGA Player of the Year and two-time U.S. Open champion, and his wife, Dana Dormann, when she, too, was one of the LPGA's top players of the 1990's. Though Dana no longer competes as a LPGA touring pro on a regular basis, the Dormanns have reunited as player and caddy at the last three U.S. Open Championships.

The native of Daly City, Calif., is a 1979 graduate of Riordan High School in San Francisco, Calif. A 1989 graduate of San Jose State, he majored in social studies. John and Dana Dormann have two sons, William and Jason, and reside in Pleasanton, Calif.

John Dormann was the 2006 WAC Coach of the Year. He has caddied at every LPGA major championship.

Dana Dormann Assistant Coach 5th Season at SJSU

Dana Dormann returns for her fifth season as an assistant women's golf coach. Dormann played on the San Jose State University women's golf teams during the 1985 through 1988 seasons. She was a member of the Spartans' 1987 NCAA Championship team. Dormann was a four-time tournament winner; the 1987 Pacific Coast Athletic Association "Player of the Year" and a three-time All-American. Her 76.46 stroke average for 141 rounds of college competition puts her in the top-10 all-time on the San Jose State list.

Dormann was the 1985 U.S. Junior and Junior World champion. The win at the U.S. Girls Junior Championship earned her an invitation to the 1986 U.S. Open. The native of Oxnard, Calif., began her professional career on the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET). In her first LPGA event, the 1991 Oldsmobile LPGA Classic, she finished in second place. She won the 1992 Las Vegas LPGA International, birdieing her last hole, and won the 1993 McCall's LPGA Classic in Stratton Mountain, Vermont. Dormann was also a member of the 1992 and 1993 U.S. Nicheri Cup teams that competed against teams from Japan. She was the 1993 Most Valuable Golfer of the competition. Dormann still ranks #110 on the all-time LPGA money winning list.

She was one of five Spartan All-Americans to make the cut at the 2006 U.S. Open after qualifying for her 13th Open of her career. She won the 2005 LPGA T-and-CP Championship for teaching and club professionals. That win garnered her an invitation to the 2006 LPGA Championship. No longer active on the LPGA Tour, she is a teaching professional at the Pleasanton (Calif.) Golf Academy.

Dormann is a member of the San Jose State Sports Hall of Fame.

Dormann compete in 250 LPGA Tour events in 11 years and made the cut 70.0 percent of the time.

2007 marked Dormann's 14th U.S. Open Championship.

Golf Facilities

Almaden Golf & Country Club

Almaden Golf & Country Club, former host to the LPGA and Nike Tours, is one of a few courses used by the women's golf team for practice. The 2008 Spartan Invitational will be played on the course from March 3-4.

Los Altos Golf & Country Club

Los Altos Golf & Country Club, the home of Juli Inkster, is a premier facility 20 minutes from San Jose State.

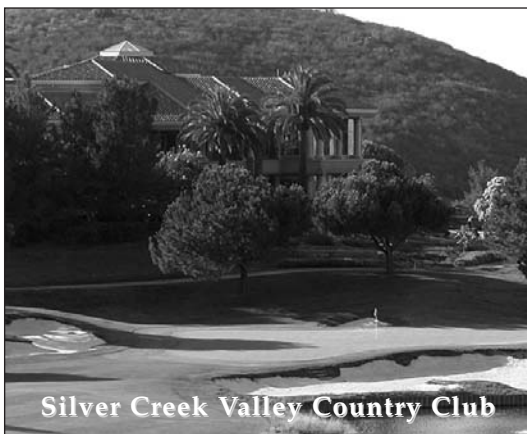

"We are extremely fortunate to have the opportunity to practice at such first-class facilities. They offer our student-athletes a unique variety of golf experiences. We are very grateful for the generosity of the courses."

Head Coach John Dormann

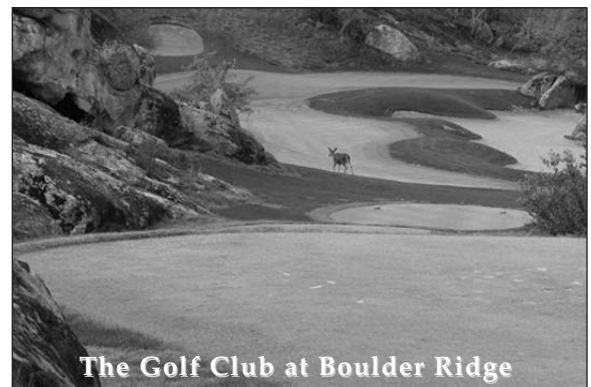

Coyote Creek Golf Club

Coyote Creek Golf Club, San Jose's premier public golf facility, serves as the women's golf team primary practice course. The facility hosted the 2006 WAC Championships.

Silver Creek Valley Country Club

The Silver Creek Valley Country Club is a 20-minute drive southeast from campus. Renovated in 2002 by architect Mike Strantz, the course is more visually stimulating and beautiful than ever.

The Golf Club at Boulder Ridge

The Golf Club at Boulder Ridge, located in San Jose, serves as one of the women's golf team's practice courses.
