UNLV-San José State Postgame Notes

San José State's 62-60 victory improves the team to 7-0 at home in regulation this season.

The Spartans are now 6-1 in Mountain West play, the program's best seven-game start to conference play since the 1978-79 season (went 12-0 in NorPac action).

Five of San José State's last six games have been decided by two possessions or less (with the other ending in overtime).

The Spartans allowed just six points in Wednesday's fourth quarter. The team has now held its opponent to a single-digit fourth quarter in back-to-back games.

SJSU snapped a five-game losing streak to UNLV and ended the Lady Rebels' current five-game winning streak with the two-point win.

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo led all scorers with 17 points in the victory. The point guard entered the day leading the Mountain West in scoring.
