Boise State-San José State Postgame Notes

San José State's 74-61 victory gives the team its sixth straight win, marking the program's longest winning streak since the 2005-06 season.

The Spartans are still undefeated in regulation at home on the 2019-20 campaign.

The win over Boise State marks SJSU's second-ever victory against a team selected to win the Mountain West in the conference's preseason poll.

SJSU is now 15-6 on the season, clinching the program's first winning regular season since the 2004-05 campaign (went 17-11 in regular season).

This is the program's first time with a record nine games above .500 since that 2004-05 campaign (also started 15-6).

The Spartans finished the month of January with a 7-1 record, matching the second-best January in program history (also went 7-1 in 1981-82).

San José State snapped a nine-game losing streak against the Broncos with the win.

Sophomore Ayzhiana Basallo led all scorers with 28 points in the victory. The point guard entered the day leading the Mountain West in scoring.
