2019 Coaching Staff

LAUREN HANSON

Head Coach
Sixth Season
Portland, 2003

In five seasons as San José State's head coach, Lauren Hanson, a two-time Mountain West Coach of the Year, has guided the program to unprecedented success including two Mountain West Tournament titles (2015 and 2018) as well as a regular season title (2017), and two NCAA postseason appearances. Her 35 regular season conference victories are the most by any head coach in Spartan women's soccer history, and her 30 wins in the last four seasons are tops in the 12-team league. The Spartans are the only team to finish in the top four in the final conference standings in each of the last four seasons.

Since her arrival there have been 24 All-Mountain West selections and 37 Academic All-Mountain West honorees. Hanson coached five All-Mountain West selections as part of the 2018 squad, including First Team selections Paige Simoneau, Darriell Franklin and Kristen Amarikwa. Simoneau had the one of the best seasons of any Spartan Goalkeeper as she set school records in single-season shutouts (11), career shutouts (21) and career goals against average (0.92).

Franklin was named to the 2018 First Team for the second-straight season and was the 2017 Defensive Player of the year just two years after being in discussions for Freshman of the Year as a forward. Other latest all-conference selections include Amarikwa and Jamilecxth Becerra, the 2017 Newcomer of the Year. Former Spartan keeper Zoe Makrigiannis ended the 2015 regular season with seven shutouts and was the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year as well with Hanson's guidance.

Other outstanding individual accomplishments for Hanson's players include Dorthe Hoppius' invitation to compete for her native German Women's National Team at the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, and Darriell Franklin's invitation to train with the United States' Women's National U-20 Team. Hoppius also became San José State's first player to become an NSCAA Scholar All-American, one of 33 Division I players in 2016 to do so. Hoppius, along with fellow 2017 All-Mountain West First Team selection Myia Wilkes currently play for first Division German Club: MSV Frauen Offiziell

In 2018, Hanson led the Spartans to a 9-7-6 record, their second Mountain West Tournament Championship and to the first round of the NCAA Tournament. SJSU's defense was among the very best in the nation as they led the conference with 11 total shutouts, including a Mountain West record eight in league play. Heading into the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans' 11 shutouts were tied for the fourth-most in the nation and their goals against average of .620 ranked in the top-25 nationally and led the conference. In addition to Simoneau, Franklin and Amarikwa, she guided freshmen defenders Jada Wilson and Hannah Mathews to All-Conference recognition. Her squad won the conference tournament championship as a four-seed, becoming the first Mountain West team to do so since 2004.

Hanson was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons in 2017 after guiding the Spartans to a 9-1-1 record during league play. The team finished on a seven-game unbeaten streak and won every Mountain West match played at home. Hanson did it with proven leaders such as the 2017 Defensive Player of the Year Darriell Franklin and All-MW First Team players Dorthe Hoppius and Myia Wilkes. However, she also started multiple freshmen in six league matches and had three or more underclassmen on the pitch to start eight contests. Hanson plugged in seven different starting lineups throughout conference play.

Hanson, the winner of NCAA Women's College Cup championships as a coach and player, was made the sixth head women's soccer coach at San José State University on December 18, 2013.

The 2015 Mountain West Tournament title, won against San Diego State at the SDSU Sports Deck, was the first MW championship for any sport at SJSU since aligning with the conference in 2013. It was just the second time in program history (16 years) that San José State had reached the postseason.

The Spartans blew the seventh-place MW preseason prediction out of the water that year by finishing 8-3-0 in conference play. Eight wins in conference play were the most in program history, one of many records broken during the team's run in 2015.

SJSU finished 3-14-1 overall the year prior to Hanson and her staff's arrival. In the first year under Hanson's direction, the team had a marked improvement in a number of statistical categories that led to an 8-8-3 overall record. That year, the Spartans doubled their offensive output, scoring 22 goals after just 10 went into the net in 2013. The defense also saw a huge lift, allowing 18 goals when the year before it gave up 33.

Hanson won both of her NCAA Women's Cup championships with the University of Portland. In 2005, she was an assistant coach with the Pilots and in 2002, was the team captain of Portland's championship team. Her college coaching career began at her alma mater in 2004.

In 2005, Portland completed an undefeated season (23-0-2) en route to its second NCAA Women's College Cup championship. In 2006, Hanson was named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) West Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Portland earned a berth to the NCAA Women's College Cup in four of her five seasons on the Pilots' staff.

As the University of Oregon's Associate Head Coach during the 2009 through 2011 seasons, she coached the Ducks' backline and was the program's recruiting coordinator.

As Lauren Orlandos, Hanson enjoyed an illustrious playing career as a four-year centerback for Portland. She was a member of three Pilot teams to play in the NCAA Women's College Cup. The 2000 and 2001 clubs reached the semifinals, and she captained the 2002 Pilots to the program's first NCAA Women's College Cup championship.

Additionally, she was a finalist for the 2002 MAC/Hermann Trophy for National Player of the Year, was a two-time West Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year (2000, 2002), garnered First Team NSCAA All-West Region and All-WCC First Team honors in 2000, 2001 and 2002, and was twice named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team (2000, 2002).

In August of 2018, Hanson was inducted into the University of Portland Hall of Fame for her achievements with the Pilots.

Hanson also has national team playing experience. She was a member of the United States Women's National Team in 2001 and competed on the U-18 and U-21 U.S. women's national teams.

Hanson played one season professionally after she was the ninth-overall selection in the 2003 Women's United Soccer Association (WUSA) draft by the New York Power.

A native of Lake Forest, Calif., Hanson graduated from Portland in 2003 with her Bachelor of Arts degree. She and her husband, Travis, have two children, Cole and Taylor.

2019 Coaching Staff

ADRIANNE FASS

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season
Florida, 1999

Adrienne Fass joined the San José State University women's soccer team staff in the summer of 2014 as a volunteer assistant coach, she was appointed to assistant coach in July of 2015.

In her five seasons, Fass has helped guide the Spartans to two Mountain West Tournament Championships in 2015 and 2018, and also the regular season title in 2017. During that time, San José State's 30 Mountain West regular season wins are the most among the 12-team league and the Spartans are the only team to finish in the top four in the MW standings in each of the past four seasons.

Along with head coach, Lauren Hanson, and the rest of the staff, Adrienne has helped guide 22 San José State players have earned All-Mountain West recognition including Defensive Players of the Year Darriell Franklin (2017) and Zoe Makrigiannis (2015) and Newcomer of the Year Jamilexth Becerra (2017). In 2018, she helped guide a trio of Spartans to First Team All-Conference honors: Paige Simoneau, Darriell Franklin and Kristen Amarikwa.

Fass is responsible for player instruction, opponent scouting and match preparation. She coordinates team travel, and is also dedicated to assisting the team's community relations outreach.

Fass came to the Spartans after serving as an assistant coach at Foothill College for five seasons. During that time, the Owls won Coast Conference championships in 2009, 2010 and 2012. The 2013 team advanced to the California Community College Final Four and finished ranked 17th nationally for two-year institutions.

Fass also held various coaching responsibilities and administrative positions with the De Anza Force Soccer Club of Northern California since 2001.

In her first season with the staff Fass helped lead the Spartans to an 8-8-3 overall record and 5-5-1 in Mountain West play. The .500 record came one year after the team finished 3-14-1 and 2-7-1 in conference play. The team doubled its offensive output in 2014, scoring 22 goals after just 10 went into the net in 2013. The defense also saw a huge lift, allowing 18 goals when the year before it gave up 33.

The 1999 graduate of the University of Florida majored in exercise and sports science. As a college player, she played on Gators teams that compiled a combined record of 82-11-3 during the 1995 through 1998 seasons, made three NCAA Tournament appearances and won the NCAA Championship her senior season in 1998.

An outstanding defender, she was an honorable mention All-America choice by Soccer Buzz as a sophomore, a two-time all-region selection and a two-time, second-team All-Southeastern Conference pick. She was named her team's Most Valuable Player as freshman as Florida shutout 11 opponents that season.

Fass currently holds United States Soccer Federation (USSF) Class C, B and A coaching licenses and a National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Director of Coaching License. She is a past recipient of the USSF's Robert McNulty Award given to the coach who best exemplifies performance, attitude and devotion when earning the Federation's Class C coaching license.

TINA ESTRADA

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Santa Clara, 2007

Tina Estrada joined San Jose State Women's Soccer as an assistant coach on January 30, 2018 after an immensely successful three seasons at Saint Mary's.

In her first season with the Spartans, Estrada helped lead women's soccer to the 2018 Mountain West Tournament Championship and the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Five Spartans from that squad earned Mountain West All-Conference honors, including three on the first team. Two more were named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region.

Estrada joined the Spartans after spending the last three seasons as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Saint Mary's. During that time four Gaels were selected All-West Coast Conference (WCC) and another was a National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-West Region choice.

Upon her arrival in Moraga in 2015 Estrada helped coach Hannah Diaz to First-Team All-WCC honors, the first for a Saint Mary's player in five years. The Gaels started the year 5-0-2, beat conference foes Pepperdine and San Diego on the road and played nationally ranked Santa Clara to a draw.

At the conclusion of the 2015 season Estrada was named the NSCAA National Assistant Coach of the Year. She beat out a pool of the top-nine assistant coaches in the country representing each region.

Saint Mary's was honored nationally by the NSCAA in two of Estrada's three years on staff as an All-Academic Team for programs that maintain a team GPA of 3.0 or better.

Prior to her time at Saint Mary's Estrada was an assistant coach for six seasons at DePaul University. She began her time with the Blue Demons as a graduate assistant in 2008 and was appointed as assistant coach in May of 2010.

DePaul reached the title match of the 2013 Big East Tournament and went on to play in the NCAA Tournament. In all, five Blue Demons were selected All-Big East including one Goal Keeper of the Year with Estrada on staff.

That same year Estrada was nominated and accepted into the NSCAA's 30-Under-30 education and mentorship initiative for a select few young up-and-coming NCAA coaches. The program included a trip to the association's annual convention and admission to the NSCAA Advanced Coaching Academy where she would earn a national diploma in 2014.

ZOE MAKRIGIANNIS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second Season
San Jose State, 2015

Zoe Makrigiannis joined the Spartans' women's soccer staff prior to the 2018 season as a volunteer assistant coach. The former Spartan Goalkeeper is in charge of overseeing and coaching the goalkeepers.

In her first season in the role, Makrigiannis coached her former teammate Paige Simoneau to one of the most successful seasons by a Spartan Goalkeeper in program history as San Jose State claimed their second Mountain West Tournament Championship of the last four seasons. Simoneau was a First Team All-Mountain West selection and the MVP of the 2018 Mountain West Tournament Championship.

Under Makrigiannis' tutelage, Simoneau broke the school record for both single-season shutouts (11) and career shutouts (21), both formerly held by Makrigiannis. Simoneau also finished the season with the lowest goals against average in a single season (0.81) and holds the career record as well (0.92).

Makrigiannis coached Simoneau to a pair of Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week honors in 2018. She finished the season with only five goals conceded in conference play, and her eight shutouts in league play are a Mountain West record. Heading into the NCAA Tournament, Simoneau was tied for fourth nationally with her 11 shutouts.

Prior to her coaching role, Makrigiannis was a four-year star in the net at SJSU from 2012-2015, picking up two First Team All-Mountain West accolades and securing her place in the record books with 17 career shutouts, ranking second only to Simoneau.

Makrigiannis captained the 2015 squad that won the school's first-ever

Mountain West Championship. The Canadian native had five road shutouts while holding MWC opponents to a league-best 0.53 goals per game en route to being named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and picking up First Team All-MWC honors.

As a junior in 2014, Makrigiannis became the first Spartan to ever be named to a Mountain West All-Conference team. She registered a then-single-season school record seven shutouts in 19 matches en route to earning First Team All-MWC honors.

Makrigiannis began her mark on the Spartans' program early, making 11 starts in the goal in both her freshman and sophomore seasons.

Makrigiannis is currently working towards completing her Masters of Education at SJSU. Prior to her time at SJSU, she served as assistant coach at Langara College in Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

Makrigiannis was a two-time First Team All-Mountain West selection in her four-year Spartan career.

The San José State women's soccer team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in school history in 2018 after winning their second Mountain West Tournament Championship Title in the last four seasons. Five Spartans earned All-MW honors with Paige Simoneau, Kristen Amarikwa and Darriell Franklin earning first team nods and Jada Wilson and Hannah Mathews landing on the All-Newcomer Team. Wilson was also a second team selection.

Paige Simoneau's Spartan career ended eerily similar to how it all started. As a freshman in 2015, she was tasked with handling penalty kicks in the MW Tournament for both the semifinal and championship matches. She rose to the occasion to make three total stops and won tournament MVP honors.

Fast forward to 2018 and Simoneau found herself in a similar situation. Facing No. 1 seed Boise State in the semifinal, penalty kicks once again was the only way to decide a victor. In a way only fitting to close out a storied career, Simoneau made back-to-back critical saves to stave off the Broncos as SJSU won 4-3 and advanced to the championship match. They took care of business with a 1-0 shutout and Simoneau once again walked away with tournament MVP honors.

Led by first team All-Mountain West selection junior Kristen Amarikwa, the Spartan defense ranked among the very best in the nation in 2018. With Amarikwa, Natasha Harris, Hannah Mathews and others patrolling the back line and senior Paige Simoneau guarding the net, the Spartans posted a school-record 11 shutouts on the season, which ranked fourth nationally. Eight of those shutouts came in conference play, which is a Mountain West record. The defense held a goals against average of .620 entering the NCAA Tournament vs. No. 4 UCLA, which at the time led the conference and ranked in the top-25 in the nation.

The Spartans claimed their second Mountain West Tournament Championship Title in four seasons in 2018 as they defended their home turf to win the trophy and earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament. SJSU faced a difficult road as the No. 4 seed. They defeated rival Fresno State, 2-1, in the opening round to set up an instant classic against No.1 seed Boise State in which the Spartans won 4-3 in penalty kicks. In a rematch of the 2017 quarterfinal, SJSU faced No. 3 seed New Mexico in the final. The Spartan scored an early goal and held on for the remainder to win 1-0.

On January 29, 2019, the San Jose City Council honored the Spartans for their 2018 accomplishments by awarding them a commendation at the council's bi-weekly open council meeting at city hall. Coach Lauren Hanson, the team and director of athletics Marie Tuite were invited to attend the meeting and were welcomed by San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo and sponsoring council woman Dev Davis (District 6). "We were just honored to be recognized by the city with a commendation," Hanson said. "It was really just a remarkable experience to be in there and represent our school, athletics department and program, and to be recognized for our accomplishments."

The thrilling Mountain West Tournament Semifinal vs. the No.1 seeded Boise State Broncos ended with a finish that is not soon to be forgotten by anyone in attendance at the Spartan Soccer Complex that evening. After playing to a 1-1 draw at the end of regulation and two overtimes, the team's turned to penalty kicks to decide the winner and who would go on to face New Mexico in the championship match. Both teams converted successfully on their first three attempts until senior goalkeeper Paige Simoneau stepped up to make the first of two monumental stops, setting up fellow senior Darriell Franklin's go-ahead point for the 4-3 advantage. The tension in the air could be cut with a knife as Boise State lined up for their final attempt looking to tie, but once again Simoneau came through in the most pivotal of moments to make the save and send the Spartans on the championship match.
