PRESEASON POLL

The Spartans were picked ninth in the Mountain West preseason poll, receiving one first-place vote and 105 points.

FRESH FACES

The Spartans have NINE newcomers to the program in 2021-22. SJSU debuted three freshmen in its season opener- Sidney Richards, Sammy Shields and Jady Watson. San José State also added five transfers to the lineup- A'tyanna Gaulden (Georgia Southern), Deja Ross (Xavier), Stephanie Torres (Eastern Florida), Ellie Boni (Colorado State) and Ella Ogier (Omaha).

In her Spartan debut, A'Tyanna Gaulden led SJSU with 14 points in its season opener at Washington State on November 9, 2021 in Pullman, Wash.

Ella Ogier was the first Spartan to notch 20 points in a single game this season at Eastern Washington on November 11, 2021. Ogier scored 20 for the second time at Saint Mary's on November 30, 2021.

SPANNING THE GLOBE

The 2020-21 Spartans will have supporters in plenty of different time zones this season. This year's roster features student-athletes from 10 different states (California, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Texas, Washington) and three countries (Australia, Canada, United States).

TURNAROUND

No team in the nation had a larger single-season win turnaround than San José State in 2019-20. The Spartans went from six victories in the 2018-19 season to 19 wins on the 2019-20 campaign.

 with Sacramento State*

On September 16, 2013, Jamie Craighead Turner was named the eighth head women's basketball coach at San José State University.

Entering 2021-22, her ninth season leading the Spartans, Craighead Turner's teams have set and then broken the program's record for points scored in a season, and in 2019-20 set a San José State and Mountain West Conference single-game record when the Spartans scored 128 points in a win over La Verne.

Under Craighead Turner's guidance the Spartans have reached the semifinals of the 2015 and 2020 Mountain West Tournaments. These trips marked just the second and third times in the 42-year history of the program that the team advanced that far in its conference tournament. In addition, the team's 19 wins on the 2019-20 campaign were the program's most since the 1979-80 team won 22 games.

The 2013-14 squad established single-season marks for free throws attempted (726) and made (493) as well as three-pointers attempted (793) and made (245). In 2014-15, the Spartans set new marks for three-pointers attempted (872) and made (271) in addition to total field goal attempts (2,262).

Her most successful team to date, the 2019-20 squad owned the nation's largest single-season win turnaround, going from six victories in 2018-19 to 19 wins the following year. Led by the youngest coaching staff in the Mountain West, the 2019-20 Spartans finished in a tie for third place in the Mountain West standings, the best-ever finish for a team picked last in the conference's preseason poll.

In her nine seasons, Craighead Turner's players have earned 11 conference post-season awards for their play on the court. In addition, they have earned 36 Academic All-Mountain West (3.0+ GPA), 14 Mountain West Scholar-Athlete honors (3.5+ GPA), six Dean's Scholar (3.65+ GPA) and four President's Scholar designation (4.0 GPA+) as well as nine Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sport-Scholar Award and a first-team Capital One Academic All-District VIII honor. Finally student athletes, Ta'Rea Cunnigan, the school's all-time leader in scoring, and Emily Vann graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Craighead Turner came to San José State after spending four seasons at Sacramento State (2010-13), where she was the winningest women's head basketball coach in 20 years and the only coach to post a winning conference record at Sacramento State since they entered the Big Sky Conference in the 1996-97 season. Under her guidance the Hornets reached the Big Sky Conference Tournament for just the fifth (2012) and sixth (2013) times in program history. In those appearances, Sacramento State earned its first tournament wins and reached the semi-final round both years.

The youngest head coach in Division I when she took over the Hornets, Craighead Turner's teams, playing a fast-break type offense, led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in each of her four seasons.

Sacramento State set several program records in 2012-13 including field goals made, assists, blocked shots and fewest turnovers committed. In addition, the team's 19 wins equaled the program's single-season record, which was set in the 1990-91 season. The Hornets led the Big Sky in points, 3-pointers, and assists and on the defensive end, topped the league in steals and blocks.

As a collegiate player at the University of Oregon, Craighead Turner led the Ducks to the 2002 WNIT championship after three appearances in the NCAA Tournament. When she finished her career, her 182 3-point field goals made ranked second all-time in Ducks history.

Craighead Turner earned honorable mention Academic All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and graduated from Oregon with a bachelor's degree in educational studies in 2002. She is a native of Elma, Wash.
