2023 NOTABLES

- The Spartans finished the season ranked seventh nationally which is the highest ranking they have been since the program was reinstated in 2015.
- No. 8 San Jose State (13-9, 7-2 WCC) will take on No. 1 USC (15-6, 1-5 MPSF) in Los Angeles on Friday for the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The winner will move on to face either California or Fordham on Saturday. This will be the first time SJSU has appeared in the tournament since 1973.
- No. 14 San Jose State Spartans beat Pacific, Loyola Marymount, and Cal Baptist to win the first ever WCC Conference Championship.
- Brendon Gyapjas was named the WCC All-tournament MVP for his outstanding efforts in the cage. Manteja Botic and Laszlo Szieben were also named to the all-tournament team.
- Three Spartans were named to the All-WCC teams, with junior Bence Szabo (first team), freshman Manteja Botic (second team), and freshman Bendon Gyapjas (honorable mention).
- Brendon Gyapjas was a force in the cage this season recording 179 saves and 16 steals in the 14 games he played.
- Freshman Manteja Botic led the team in goals (41), assist (23), and multi-goal games (12).
- Szabo led the team in drawn exclusion (37) and ranks second in goals scored (34).
- San Jose State has appeared in four NCAA Championship tournaments finishing second in 1971, fourth in 1970 and 1972 and fifth in 1973.
- The San Jose State water polo program was discontinued in 1981 after 45 years and was reinstated in 2015.
