Jeff Cammon returns for his third season as head coach for the Saint Mary's women's basketball program ahead of the 2025-26 season. Cammon took over the program in March of 2023. Prior to arriving in Moraga, Cammon spent six seasons as the head coach at Long Beach State.

In his second season with the program, Cammon and the Gaels finished with a 14-17 overall record and were an even 10-10 in conference play, good for their second consecutive 6th place finish. Saint Mary's saw an early exit in the 2025 WCC Tournament as they fell to Pacific in what was the third round as they received a double-bye with their 6th place finish. Cammon and his squad would get an opportunity to play beyond the conference tournament though, getting an invitation to the WNIT for the first time since 2019. Their season would come to an end though in Houston with a 54-50 defeat to Texas Southern. Cammon did help produce a pair of WCC award winners as Emily Foy was named the league's Sixth Woman of the Year and Kennedy Johnson was named Newcomer of the Year.

In 2022-23 with Long Beach State, Cammon was named The Big West Coach of the Year after leading the Beach to their first 20-win season since 2016-17. They won 15-straight games from January 12 to March 2, the longest in Big West action this season. The team's 17 Big West wins were the most conference victories since 1988-89.

As a team, the Beach ranked in the Top 10 nationally in steals per game (11.5) and turnover margin (6.1). Cammon was the Beach's first Big West Coach of the Year since Mary Hegarty in 2005-06. Cammon comes to Saint Mary's with an overall record of 84-90.

In his time as Head Coach at LBSU, Cammon's players received a slew of Big West accolades. He's coached 16 All-Big West players, five All-Defensive players, two Best Defensive Players, a Newcomer of the Year, and in his last season coached the Big West Player of the Year in Torri Harris.

Long winning streaks have been a frequent occurrence in his stint at Long Beach. Along with the team's 15-game win streak during the 2022-23 campaign, his team began the 2021-22 season on a seven-game winning streak for the program's best start to a season since 1985-86. The Beach went on to boast a 19-9 overall record en route to earning a No. 3 seed in The Big West Conference Tournament after putting together a 12-6 league mark. Cammon and the Beach also earned an at-large bid to the 2022 WNIT.

In a shortened 2020-21 season, due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, Cammon's Beach squad went on a 10-game winning streak, which at the time was the program's longest such streak since the 1987-88 season. Long Beach State earned a No. 3 seed in the Big West Tournament after finishing 12-9 overall record and 11-7 in Big West Conference action.

Cammon was part of former Long Beach State head coach Jody Wynn's first coaching staff, spending five years with LBSU. During his first stint with the Beach, Cammon was instrumental in the team's turnaround. He served as an assistant coach for Long Beach State from 2008-14, before returning to the Beach as head coach in 2017.

In 2012-13, Long Beach State made its first postseason appearance in over 10 years, earning a selection into the WNIT. In each of Cammon's five seasons as an assistant at Long Beach State the Beach reached the Big West Tournament. Cammon left LBSU to join the coaching staff at Cal, where he helped lead the Golden Bears to the 2014-15 Pac-12 Conference Championship game as well as to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. During his time in Berkeley, Cal posted a 40-27 record.

His final stop as an assistant coach before returning to LBSU was at Colorado, where he once again played a big part in a major turnaround. Doubling the team's win total from a season earlier, Colorado went 17-16 overall and started the season 10-0, including a win over a ranked Kentucky team. The Buffaloes also picked up a win over No. 24 California on the road, the first away win over a ranked opponent for CU since 2007.

Prior to coaching at the Beach, Cammon spent two years as the head girls' varsity coach at Bishop Alemany High School in Mission Hills where he also taught history. He also coached on the men's college basketball side as an assistant at Kentucky Wesleyan, Chaffey CC and his alma mater, Alcorn State.

A three-year starter at point guard with the Braves, Cammon was the team captain for two years and led Alcorn State to three conference championships and an NCAA Tournament appearance.

Cammon graduated from Alcorn State in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in Political Science, and then completed a master's degree in Physical Education two years later in 2005.

2025-26 Saint Mary's Women's Basketball Game Notes

Notes and Current Headlines

SCOUTING THE SPARTANS

San Jose State enters the week with a much different story, winless through their first five games with all five defeats being decided by double-digits. The Spartans defeated Jessup in an exhibition game back in October, 91-84, but have since lost all countable games including BYU, Cal Baptist, UC Santa Barbara, Pepperdine and most recently Portland State. San Jose will take on 22nd ranked Washington tonight at 6:00 PM before hosting the Gaels on Thursday at 7:00 PM. The Spartans were picked to finish 12th in the 2025 Mountain West preseason poll after recording just three conference wins during the 2024-25 season.

The Spartans are only averaging 56.4 points per game while allowing 73.0 points per game over their five-game start. SJSU is shooting over 70% from the free throw line and averaging over 13 free throws per game. Rylei Waugh and Maya Anderson are the two double-digit scorers for the Spartans with Waugh averaging 12.6 points and 11.2 for Anderson. Both players get it done on the glass as well, leading the team with 6.6 boards per game.

HOOPFEST CHALLENGE RECAP

Saint Mary's went into Thanksgiving week with a 5-1 record after a narrow seven-point defeat to Cal for their first loss of the season. The Gaels spent the first half of Thanksgiving week in Frisco, Texas for a pair of games against Oregon and North Texas in the Hoopfest Women's Challenge. The Gaels overcame an 11-point deficit from the first quarter and even took a lead as many as nine points in the third quarter before entering the fourth with the game tied at 46. Oregon exploded though for a 25-point fourth quarter as the Gaels only made two field goals over the final ten minutes, ballooning the Ducks lead to 18.

Saint Mary's turned around the next day to conclude their MTE in their first ever matchup with the Mean Green of North Texas. Both teams came in with similar defensive makeups and it would take double overtime to decide the game as North Texas held on for the 67-65 win, holding the Gaels scoreless over the final minute and a half. The Gaels shot 40% from the field and matched their season high with nine made three-pointers but turned the ball over 25 times for their second highest total of the season.

Edie Clarke led the team, averaging 12.5 points while shooting 66.7% from the field. Clarke led the team with 14 points against RV Oregon Ducks on Tuesday and then added 11 points and 8 rebounds in their double-overtime loss to North Texas. She's averaging 9.9 points, 5.5 rebounds and over three steals per game through her eight games.

STARS IN FRISCO

Edie Clarke led the team during the Hoopfest Challenge, averaging 12.5 points on 66.7% shooting as she continues to showcase her versatility on both ends of the floor. Clarke also led the Gaels with 13 combined rebounds and four steals over her two games as she leads the conference with 27 steals.

Addi Wedin got the start against Oregon and finished with just three points on 1-4 shooting but bounced back nicely off the bench against North Texas, leading Saint Mary's with 16 points, 8 rebounds and a whopping 40 minutes of action. Wedin drilled three triples in the game and hit some clutch shots in the second half to keep the game close. Jada Hunter also bounced back nicely after the Oregon game to put up eleven points and a career high three three-pointers against North Texas.

Georgia Grigoropoulou was also a much needed spark off the bench for the Gaels in their game against the Ducks, helping lead their second quarter surge with nine points and a couple boards in her ten minutes of action. She was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field and 3-for-3 from the charity stripe as well.

BEYOND THE BOXSCORE

Saint Mary's entered the fourth quarter tied in both games in the Hoopfest Challenge, 46-46 against the Ducks and 42-42 against the Mean Green of North Texas. Oregon went into the week receiving votes in the national poll and after another slow start to the game, Saint Mary's shot a combined 53.5% over the second and third quarter to knot the game at 46. A 25-7 fourth quarter though in favor of the Ducks would provide for a lopsided 18-point defeat for the Gaels.

In their first ever matchup with North Texas, Saint Mary's would dictate much more of that game, leading for 28 minutes compared to 16 for the Mean Green, and enter the fourth quarter with the game tied at 42. The Gaels were just 3-for-11 from the field over the final ten minutes of regulation though, letting North Texas back into the game as they converted a transition layup to tie the game with 49 seconds remaining. Saint Mary's made just one field goal in the second overtime period and missed a pair of crucial free throws down the stretch that helped flip the game in favor of the Mean Green.

SERIES HISTORY

Saint Mary's had an impressive 12-0 record over San Jose State all-time dating back to 1988, but saw that unbeaten streak come to an end last season after a 46-51 road defeat to the Spartans. Nine of the Gaels twelve wins over SJSU have come by double digits as the Gaels will look for their first road win in San Jose since 2022.

WCC PRESEASON POLL

The West Coast Conference announced the 2025-26 preseason coaches poll on Thursday, October 23rd as Saint Mary's was picked to finish seventh out of the twelve member institutions. Oregon State earned nine first place votes for the top spot in the poll. Gonzaga was picked to finish second with three first place votes while Washington State was picked to finish third with 94 points. The Gaels were an even 10-10 in conference play last season, finishing sixth in the WCC standings. They earned a double-bye into the third round but saw an early exit after falling to Pacific.
