RAMBLINGS

· Loyola took Wichita State down to the wire last week at Gentile Arena. It was a two-point game in the final minute with the Ramblers having possession with 14 seconds to play. The Shockers held on to win, 79-75.

· Ryan Agarwal dropped the second 20-point performance of the year by a Rambler vs. Wichita State. He dropped a career-high 22 points. He tied his career-best with five made threes and set new career-highs with four steals and two blocks.

· Jason Schofield added a season-high 14 points, while Chris Jeffrey and Guillaume Grotzinger scored 11 and 10 points, respectively.

· After the first five games of the season, two starting Ramblers are averaging at least 10 points per game. Schofield leads Loyola with 11.4 ppg on 68.6 percent from the field. He opened the year with a 10-point and 12-rebound double-double. He followed up with 12 points vs. West Georgia. He most recently scored a season-best 14 points vs. Wichita State to extend his double-figure scoring streak to five games.

· Dayan Nessah adds 10.0 points per game on 51.3 percent from the field. He scored 19 points on 8-13 from the field in the season opener vs. The Citadel. He followed up with 15 vs. West Georgia and 10 at Air Force to complete a three-game streak with at least 10 points.

· Grotzinger is one of the league's top point guards after the first five games. His 5.6 assists per game ranks second in the league and 54th in the country. His 28 total assists ranks 66th in the country and 3.5 assist to turnover ratio is 81st.

· The Ramblers rank in the NCAA's top-100 in eight categories. They come in at 23rd with a 6.2 turnover margin, 30th with 17.4 turnovers forced per game, 65th with a 38.5 field goal percentage defense, 67th with 32.4 bench points per game, 86th with 8.8 steals per game, 87th with 17.2 assist per game, and 95th with 11.2 turnovers per game.

· Drew Valentine enters his sixth season as head coach and 10th overall with the Ramblers. At the helm, he holds a 95-77 record.

SCOUTING SAN JOSE STATE

· The Spartans are 3-2 heading into the tournament and have won their last two games against Fresno State and Alabama State. San Jose State was tabbed seventh in the Mountain West preseason poll after going 9-24 last year and 3-17 in league play.

· Mekhi Manson leads SJSU with 20.8 points per game. He's made 16 threes this season and is shooting 50.8 percent from three. He's on a three-game double-figure scoring streak that saw a season-best 30 points against Fresno State last week.

· The Spartans are one of the NCAA's top shooting teams, averaging 52.7 percent from the field to rank 17th. Their 41.9 percent from three-point range ranks 15th.

· Tim Miles is in his sixth season at the helm and holds a 65-106 record.

SERIES HISTORY

The all-time series is tied after San Jose State picked up a win over Loyola last year at the Acrisure Series.

LAST TIME OUT

Ryan Agarwal exploded for a career-high 22 points Wednesday night and scored seven straight in the final two minutes to get Loyola Chicago within a possession of Wichita State. The Shockers held on for the win in Gentile, 79-75.

How It Happened

The first half was a back-and-forth battle that saw 10 lead changes over the 20 minutes. Wichita State tallied the opening points, while Loyola forced the first lead change on the next trip down court with an Agarwal three. Neither team led by more than one possession until the Ramblers went up four on a Jayden Dawson three at the 12:43 mark.

The Shockers turned it into a four-point lead for themselves with the next eight points unanswered. Their largest lead yet came two minutes later on a three to go up 39-33. Agarwal had two late threes for Loyola who would trail at the break, 46-41. The Ramblers forced 10 turnovers in the first but only converted them to three points.

Loyola scored the first five points of the half to tie it up on Dawson's three a little over a minute in. The Ramblers would tie it again before swinging the lead back in their favor at the 15:05 mark on Agarwal's jumper. It was the final lead for Loyola in the game as Wichita State started to put together a 14-4 run to take its largest lead of the game at 10 with 6:59 to play. The Ramblers faced a six-minute stretch without a field goal during that run, but Schofield snapped it for Loyola and helped provide a late offensive spark.

In the final four minutes, the Ramblers responded with a 12-5 run to get within two of the shockers. Agarwal hit his fifth three of the night to get Loyola within four. He went on to score seven straight, including a layup set up by a Dawson steal that made it a two-point game. Despite having possession with 14 seconds to go, Loyola couldn't convert on its final attempt and fell after a pair of WSU free throws, 79-75.

THE FLOOR GENERAL

Guillaume Grotzinger is one of the league's top point guards after the first five games. His 5.6 assists per game ranks second in the league and 54th in the country. His 28 total assists ranks 66th in the country and 3.5 assist to turnover ratio is 81st.

DEFENSIVE DAWGS

After the first four games, the Ramblers continue to find themselves in the nation's top-50 in field goal percentage defense. They rank 42nd and hold their opponents to 35.9 percent from the field. In all three wins this year, Loyola's opponents shot below 35 percent and were held to under 60 points. The Ramblers also force 16.5 turnovers per game, which ranks 58th. The Citadel, West Georgia, and Colorado State all recorded 17 or more turnovers.

DAWSON SEEKING FIFTH YEAR

The Omaha, Nebraska native played for the Ramblers during the 2022-25 seasons before transferring the Kansas for his senior year. Jayden Dawson returned to campus in August for classes and was granted temporary edibility. He is practicing with the team pending the final rulings on his permanent eligibility.

While at Loyola, Dawson totaled 701 points while shooting over 40 percent from the field and 36 percent from three. He added 133 rebounds, 97 assists, 62 steals and 33 blocks. He had a breakout season as a junior in 2024-25, averaging a team-best 13.9 points on 41 percent from the field. He shot over 36 percent from three, making 86 total on the year. Dawson started in 32 games for the Ramblers, dropped at least 10 points 23 times, scored 20 points six times, and surpassed 30 points once. Dawson was a pivotal piece in Loyola's NIT Semifinal run that season and also helped the Ramblers to a share of the 2023-24 A10 Regular Season Title in his sophomore campaign.

AMOS & ANDERSON ARE BACK

Xavier Amos and Nic Anderson are the lone returners from the 2025-26 squad. Amos was second on the team in scoring last year, averaging 11.1 points per game on 39.3 percent from the field and 30.3 percent from three. He added 4.3 rebounds, 0.7 assists, 0.4 steals, and 0.4 blocks per game. Amos Had nine double-figure outings, including a season-high 25 points at Saint Louis (March 4) on 9-12 from the field with a career-high six made three-pointers.

Anderson stepped up last year amid the injuries, making five starts and 27 appearances for Loyola. He averaged 5.1 points, 2.4 rebounds, 0.5 assists, 0.5 steals, and 0.3 blocks per game. Anderson recorded a career-highs with 17 points and seven rebounds against George Mason (Jan. 13).

RETURNERS BY THE NUMBERS

With just Xavier Amos and Nic Anderson back from last year, Loyola returns only:

- 15.7 percent of its scoring (348 of 2,204)
- 13.1 percent of its rebounding (148 of 1,126)
- 6.1 percent of its assists (29 of 460)
- 15.7 percent of its steals (21 of 134)
- 12.8 percent of its blocks (16 of 125)
- 14.5 percent of its minutes (964 of 6,625).

DREW VALENTINE

HEAD COACH | 6TH SEASON
RECORD AT LOYOLA - 95-77
CAREER RECORD - SAME

Drew Valentine enters his sixth season as head coach of Loyola men's basketball in the 2026-27 season and 10th overall year with the Ramblers, having spent the four seasons prior as an assistant coach.

During his tenure as head coach, the Ramblers have a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship, a NCAA Tournament appearance, an Atlantic 10 Regular Season Title, and back-to-back NIT appearances.

Valentine piloted the Ramblers to a NIT semifinal run and a program record 17 home wins in 2024-25. Those were two accomplishments to come out of a 25-12 overall finish. Loyola earned a double-bye in the A-10 Tournament with a 12-6 record that claimed third place.

For the second straight season, Valentine was named an Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Collegiate Coach of the Year and guided Jayden Dawson to A-10 Second Team and Miles Rubin to A-10 All-Defensive Team honors. Rubin's defensive efforts were once again seen around the rim, breaking the single-season block record for the second consecutive year with 85 total blocks. He also landed in the record books with a program-best 71.4 field goal percentage on the year.

Valentine's squad also saw the single-season three-point record shattered by Sheldon Edwards Jr. with his 86th made three of the year. He went on to total 106 before the season ended.

In 2023-24, Valentine led the Ramblers to one of the NCAA's best turnarounds with the fourth highest win improvement from the 2022-23 season. Loyola increased its win total by 12 wins, going from 10-21 to 22-10 against Division I opponents.

Loyola finished with a 23-10 overall record and 15-3 finish in the A-10 in 2023-24. The Ramblers took home a share of the league's regular season title, ultimately earning an NIT bid.

Valentine was named an Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Collegiate Co-Coach of the Year, while guiding Des Watson, Braden Norris, and Miles Rubin to All-Conference honors. Watson was tabbed to the A-10 Second Team, Norris to the A-10 Third and All-Academic Teams, and Rubin to the A-10 All-Rookie and All-Defensive Teams. Watson also earned NACB All-District Second Team accolades.

Rubin made a statement in his freshman campaign, breaking a 40-year-old single-season block record after finishing the season with 76. He ranked first in the country in block percentage (14.1 percent). Rubin was the driving force behind Valentine's squad that also set the single-season team block record at 166 that stood for over 40 years.

Valentine also saw four of his 2023-24 graduates sign professional deals, highlighted by Philip Alston who inked a contract with the Milwaukee Bucks in August 2024. Norris, Dame Adelekun, and Patrick Mwamba all signed overseas.

The Lansing, Mich. native made his head coaching debut in the 2021-22 season and was the youngest coach in NCAA Division I hoops at the age of 30. Valentine made quite a splash in his first season as Loyola's head coach setting a program record for wins by a first-year Rambler skipper (25), while also becoming the only first-year coach in program history to lead Loyola to a NCAA Tournament appearance.

One of only three first-year head coaches to steer his club to 25 or more wins in 2021-22, Valentine also became the youngest head coach since Todd Bozeman in 1993 to lead his team to a national ranking. Loyola earned a No. 22 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll in mid-January.

Valentine put his twist on the Rambler program in 2021-22 and once again Loyola ranked among the nation's top offensive and defensive teams in the nation, while also establishing a single-season school record by knocking down 293 three-point field goals. Under Valentine's tutelage, five Ramblers collected All-Missouri Valley Conference accolades, including guard Lucas Williamson, who was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season, and also garnered first team all-league recognition.
