[Appendix I] The Four Noble Truths (Cattāri Ariyasaccā)

Pāḷi Text:
Cattāri ariyasaccāni – dukkha ariyasacca, dukkhasamudayo ariyasacca, dukkhanirodho ariyasacca, dukkhanirodhaṃni paṭipadā ariyasacca.

English Translation:
The Four Noble Truths are: (1) the noble truth of suffering, (2) the noble truth of the origin of suffering, (3) the noble truth of the cessation of suffering, and (4) the noble truth of the path leading to the cessation of suffering.

Guide in {Fundamental Abhidhamma – Part II, Sayādaw Dr.Nandamālābhivaṇṇa, Chapter 9, pp.133}:
Ariyasacca means “Noble Truth”. It is divided into 4:
(1) Dukkha Ariyasacca – The Noble Truth of suffering,
(2) Dukkhasamudaya Ariyasacca – The Noble Truth of the cause of suffering,
(3) Dukkhanirodha Ariyasacca – The Noble Truth of the cessation of suffering,
(4) Dukkhanirodhaṃni Paṭipadā Ariyasacca - The Noble Truth of the way to the cessation of suffering.

Herein, the First Noble Truth is composed of all types of mundane states namely, 81 mundane citta, 51 associated cetasikas (except lobha), and 28 matters.

The Second Noble Truth is composed of only lobha [cetasika], as the major cause.

The Third Noble Truth is composed of only Nibbāna, but the Fourth Noble Truth is composed of 8 Factors of the Path. They are 8 mental states namely, paññā, vitakka, 3 virati, viriya, sati and ekaggatā all of which associate with Magga citta.

Special Note:
The 4 Magga citta and its [remaining] 28 associated mental states (except the 8 factors of the Path), the 4 Phala citta and its 36 associated mental states are not included in the Four Noble Truths. They are free from sacca (Truth-free / Sacca-vimutta).

Guide in {A Comprehensive Manual of Abhidhamma, Bhikkhu Bodhi, Chapter VII, pp.289}:
The Four Noble Truths are the fundamental teaching of the Buddha, discovered by him on the night of his Enlightenment and expounded by him repeatedly during his long ministry. These four truths are called noble (ariya) because they are penetrated by the noble ones; because they are the truths taught by the supreme Noble One, the Buddha; because their discovery leads to the state of a noble one; and because they are the real, unalterable, undeceptive truths about existence.

The noble truth of suffering is expounded as twelfold: the suffering of birth, aging, death, sorrow, lamentation, pain, grief, despair, association with the unpleasant, separation from the pleasant, not to get what one wants, and the five aggregates of clinging. Concisely, the noble truth of suffering comprises all phenomena of the three mundane planes of existence except craving.

The noble truth of the origin of suffering is a single factor, namely, craving (taṇhā), which is identical with the cetasika of greed (lobha). Craving, however, has three aspects: craving for sense pleasures (kāmataṇhā), craving for continued existence (bhavataṇhā), and craving for annihilation (vibhavataṇhā).

The Abhidhamma texts explain craving for continued existence as lust accompanied by the view of existence (bhavadiṭṭhi), i.e. by the eternalist view; craving for annihilation as lust accompanied by the view of non-existence (vibhavadiṭṭhi), i.e. by the annihilationist view.

{See Vibh Chap 916}

The noble truth of the cessation of suffering is also singlefold: it is Nibbāna, which is to be realized by the eradication of craving.

The noble truth of the way to the cessation of suffering is the Noble Eightfold Path. In the teaching of the four truths, this is the collection of eight cetasikas corresponding to the eight path factors arisen in the cittas of the four supramundane paths. It should be noted that while in the section on the requisites of enlightenment, the eight path factors may be either mundane or supramundane, in the teaching of the Four Noble Truths they are exclusively supramundane.

{The Four Noble Truths are explained in detail in Vism. XVI}

Summary: (here shown partially only)

Dukkha tebhūmaka vaṭṭam, taṇhā samudayo bhave.
Nirodho nāma nibbānam, maggo lokuttaro mato.
Maggayuttā phalā ceva, catusaccavinissalā.
Iti pañcappabhedena, pavutto sabbasaṅgahō.

The round of existence in the three planes is suffering. Craving is its origin. Cessation is Nibbāna. The path is regarded as supramundane. Mental states associated with the paths and the fruits are excluded from the four truths.

Guide of the summary:
Mental states associated with the paths: Apart from the eight cetasikas corresponding to the eight path factors, the other constituents of the supramundane path consciousness – the citta itself and the associated cetasikas – are not strictly speaking part of the eightfold path, and thus are not comprehended by the Four Noble Truths. The four fruits as well are excluded from the framework of the Four Noble Truths.

1. Purepañhā (question dealing with only preceding point, that is Sanni ḫāna) Such a question applies to only Paccanika (negative) and in this question the point of Samsaya has no meaning, but the Sanni ḫāna is possible. To that question the answer is to be called Pāligati (an answer that follows the term of question without negative. (e.g. na uppajjhitthāti? Uppajjhitthā.)

2. Pacchāpañhā (question dealing with only following point, that is Sa saya) Such a question applies to both, Anuloma and Paccanika. In this question the two points, Sanni ḫāna and Samsaya, are totally the same in dhamma, or Sanni ḫāna is less and Samsaya is more though some dhammas are the same. To that question the answer is to be called Paṭivacana (answer in admission) that replies Āmantā (yes).

3. Paripunñapañhā (question dealing with the complete points, the preceding and the following). Such a question applies to where the Sanni ḫāna is more in dhamma than the Samsaya though some are similar. To that question the answer is to be called Sarūpadassana (answer with classification).

4. Moghapañhā (question in vain). Such a question deals with both, Anuloma (positive) and Paccanika (negative). When it deals with Anuloma, however, it applies to where there is no point of Samsaya. To that question the answer is to be called Paṭisedha (negative) denying Samsaya (e.g. Yo rūpakkhandho parijanitthā so vedanākkhandho parijanissati? No). If it deals with Paccanika, it applies to where there is no point of Sanni ḫāna. To that question the answer is to be called Paṭikkhepa (rejection) rejecting Sanni ḫāna. (e.g. Yassa rūpakkhandho na nirujjhitthā tassa vedanākkhandho na nirujjhiṣattīti? Natthi).

Cittakkhaṇa means mental moment. A mental moment comprises three sub-moments: arising-moment (uppāda-khaṇa), stopping-moment (thiti-khaṇa), and ceasing-moment (bhaṅga-khaṇa). The three sub-moments form a life-span of one mind.

Life-existence starts with rebirth consciousness. It remains for only 3 very short moments—arising, stopping, and ceasing. Then the same type of consciousness appears with the object of rebirth consciousness. It is named bhavaṅga due to being the condition of life. In the end, the same type of consciousness arises with the same object and it is named cuti due to the cessation of life.

Then immediately after cuti, it continues as another paṭisandhi. Then bhavaṅga and vithicitta follow depending on conditions throughout the whole life. Finally, cuti arises as the end of life-existence. This process continues non-stop, revolving like a wheel, until one attains parinibbāna.

Bhavaṅga

(the bhavaṅga again arises and ceases, and continues thus whenever there is no intervention of a cognitive process.)

(Guide) Taṇhā has not arisen to Suddhāvāsānaṃ before, until the 1st Javana. In this 1st Javana taṇhā has not arisen, because taṇhā is only arising at that moment. Starting from the 2nd Javana, taṇhā has arisen to those beings at that plane.

The couple of investigative points on suddhavasa nanam upapatticittassa bhaṅgakkahe:

At the arising-moment of upapatti-citta of pure-abode beings, suffering-truth is arising at that plane; but [it is] not that path-truth had arisen to those beings at that plane.

Magga-sacca has not arisen to Suddhavasa nanam upapatticittassa before. Magga-sacca will only arise at the 1st magga-citta javana of pure-abode beings at that plane. At that moment, magga-sacca is arising. Thereafter at the 2nd magga-citta javana arises, at that moment magga-sacca is arising and also has arisen.

PREFACE

THIS TRANSLATION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,
THE MOST VENERABLE
BADDANTA KUMĀRĀBHIVAṂSA

SĀSANADHAZA SIRĪPĀVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
SAKKYASĪHA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
AGGA MAHĀ PANDITA, AGGA MAHĀ GANDHA VĀCAKA PĀNDITA,
NAINGANTAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION’S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIPIṬAKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPIṬAKA PUCCHAKA

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaṃsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copied book of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the Ayākyaūk (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone. i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one’s dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Sarīkhāra Yamaka translation is started on 27.2.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 11.4.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHATPAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLANKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

YAMASSA VISAYĀTĪṬAṂ, LOKANĀTHAM BHIVANDIYA,
DHAMMAṂ SAṂGHANÇA AMALĀṂ, GUṆASĀMIṆČA ME GARUṂ. (*)

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS, BEINGS’ VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS,
OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAṂGHĀ,
AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR
TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONOURED, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAṽĀ. (²)

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha’s doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Sargāti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator’s):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma
Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or

5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there’s or there’ll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit

(1) The Pāḷi verse is from AYAKUK (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāḷi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness
GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

(a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
(b) Must not sway in the meaning
(c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
(d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
(e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḷi words
(f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
(g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḷi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḷi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḷi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well….)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamānā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḷi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḷi, Ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṙ/ṛ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.
For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvācāra is translated as sense sphere\(^1\) or sensuous sphere\(^2\) or sensual sphere\(^3\). And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be Yamako\(^4\).

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

\(^1\) Too much following and flowing in sensation at this plane
\(^2\) Too much delighted at this plane
\(^3\) Too much gratified, attractive, indulged at this plane
\(^4\) The one who overcomes zāti (which causes death) and five upādānakkhandha (which die)
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

(a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
(b) The sublime Dhamma
(c) The great Sarīghā
(d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
(e) The Dhamma Scholars
(f) The lay supporters
(g) The every kind of supports of far and near
(h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīkhāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāḷi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity (such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time … and many more) is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.
PAIRS ON FORMATIONS (SAṆKHĀRA YAMKA PĀḷī)

Veneration to that Exalted, the Purified, the Fully Self-Enlightened.
(NAṂO TASSA BHAGAVATO ARAḤATO SAṂĀṢAMBUDDAH)

1. SUMMARY CHAPTER ON TERMS
(PAṆṆMITI VĀRA UDDESA)

1. (There are) three formations: body formation, verbal formation, and mental (consciousness) formation. Breath-in and breath-out are body formations. Initial application and sustained application are verbal formations. Both perception and feeling are mental formations. Excluding initial application and sustained application, all associates of consciousness are also mental formations.

THIS TRANSLATION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,

THE MOST VENERABLE

SĀSANADHAZA SĪRĪPAVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
SAKKYASĪḤA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
AGGA MAHĀ PĀṇḍITA, AGGA MAHĀ GANDHA VĀCAKA PĀṇḍITA,
NAINGANTAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION’S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIṆIṬAKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIṆIṬAKA PŪCCHAKA

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaṃsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copied book of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAU$k (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone. i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one’s dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Anusaya Yamaka translation is started on 12.4.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 15.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

YAMASSA VISAYĂTĪTAṀ, LOKANĀTHAṀ BHIVANDIYA, DHAMMAṀ ŚAṂGHANČA AMALAM, GUṆASĀMINČA ME GARUṀ. (¹)

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS, BEINGS’ VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS, OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAMĀḤĀ, AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONOURED, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAṽĀ. (²)

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha’s doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Sāṅgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator’s):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there’s or there’ll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit action).
(1) The Pāḷi verse is from AYAKAUk (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) Gāravā (Pāḷi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness
GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

(a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
(b) Must not sway in the meaning
(c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
(d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
(e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḷi words
(f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
(g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḷi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḷi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḷi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well….)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamāṇā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḷi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḷi, Ṭ/ṭ is used, instead of Ṭṭ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.
For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvācāra is translated as sense sphere\(^1\) or sensuous sphere\(^2\) or sensual sphere\(^3\). And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be Yamako\(^4\).

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

(a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
(b) The sublime Dhamma
(c) The great Sarīghā
(d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
(e) The Dhamma Scholars
(f) The lay supporters
(g) The every kind of supports of far and near
(h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīkhāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāḷi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity (such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time ... and many more) is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

3. CHAPTER ON RENOUNCING (PAZAHANA VĀRA)32

32 Sotāpatti Maggatthāna person totally renounces latent state of wrong-views and latent state of doubts. To other kilesā (moral defilements), Sotāpatti Maggatthāna person only renounces the power of āpāyaagamanīya (which leads to woeful planes <āpāya
This person is renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Is that person renouncing latent state of hatred?
Yes.

This person is renouncing latent state of hatred. Is that person renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures?

This person is renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Is that person renouncing latent state of pride?

This person is renouncing latent state of pride. Is that person renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures?

This person is renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Is that person renouncing latent state of wrong-views .... pe ...... latent state of doubts?

This person is renouncing latent state of doubts. Is that person renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures?

This person is renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Is that person renouncing latent state of attachment to existence .... pe ...... latent state of ignorance?

So it can be said that Sotāpatti Magga officer renounces a part of those un-renounced kilesā. Sakadāgāmi Magga officer person weakens latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures and latent state of hatred, (and totally renounces none). Anāgāmi Magga officer person totally renounces latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures and latent state of hatred, and weakens the (left) un-renounced kilesā. Arahatta Magga officer person totally renounces latent state of pride, latent state of attachment to existence and latent state of ignorance, and also totally eradicates (all) other kilesā.

Only four Magga persons are explained here.

33 The original word pazahati means (it) "renounces". But this verb which is in present tense is changed into present participle in order to get/hold the deep and precise meaning (i.e., "is renouncing" - by the rule of "vattamāna paccuppanne"). This whole Pazahana Vāra should be understood accordingly.

34 Tadakaṭṭham (Pāli) : a part of it at the same (thāna) station/situation/state (i.e., Anāgāmi Magga officer person when renouncing latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures which can be said as (ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta) consciousness with greed without wrong-views that craves to sensual planes; that person renounces a part of latent state of pride which accompanied at that (ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta) consciousness with greed without wrong-views that craves to sensual planes. That person does not totally renounce it (i.e., the latent state of pride). "Which part(s) of pride is left behind?" if asked: A part of latent state of pride that associated with greed which accompanied at (ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta) consciousness without wrong-views that craves to Rūpa and Arūpa (fine-material and immaterial) planes which can be also said as Rūpa-rūga and Arūpa-rūga or lust of fine-material and lust of immaterial; such pride is left behind <i.e., un-renounced> which can only be renounced by Arahatta Magga officer.

35 (for the answer of reverse question) Sotāpanna person renounces lobha (latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures) which is associated with ditthigata sampayutta lobha citta when renouncing latent state of wrong-views; and to a part of lobha (latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures) which is associated with ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta when renouncing ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta that is not apāyagamanīya (which leads to woeful planes <apāya planes>). And Sotāpatti Magga officer person does not renounce totally. Which is left un-renounced? The latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures which is associated with ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta that is not apāyagamanīya (which lead to woeful planes <apāya planes>) is left un-renounced. That type of latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures is (only) renounced by Anāgāmi Magga officer.

36 Anāgāmi Magga officer person totally renounced (lobha, or) latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures which is associated with ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta. When renouncing it, it weakens the latent state of attachment to existence which is associated with ditthigata vipayutta lobha citta that is of different citta-moment. 275. Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures has been eliminated at this plane. Has latent state of hatred been eliminated at that plane?

Neither “(it) has eliminated” nor “(it) has not eliminated” should be said.50

Latent state of hatred has been eliminated at this plane. Has latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures been eliminated at that plane?

Neither “(it) has eliminated” nor “(it) has not eliminated” should be said.

50 Why is it “neither (it) has eliminated nor (it) has not eliminated should be said,” rather than “no” just like in CHAPTER ON LATENCY (ANUSAYA VĀRA)? It is said as there is no relation at that certain plane. The plane where latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises is at one plane, and latent state of hatred is at another. The latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises at the pleasant feeling and indifferent feeling of sensual element (Kāma Dhātu) to the person who is meditating on Magga. That person, at that certain plane, on Magga moment, has eliminated that latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Latent state of hatred does not arise on that same (certain) plane/situation (as latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures does) and vice versa. So when it is asked, “Does latent state of hatred has eliminated at the same (certain) plane where latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arise?” then, neither (it) has eliminated nor (it) has not eliminate should be said is the (only) appropriate answer. E.g. the southern monastery has a mango tree, and it has no jack-fruit tree. The northern monastery has a jack-fruit tree, and it has no mango tree. When each monastery is cutting down its tree (respectively), Mr. A is the one who is cutting the mango tree at the southern monastery. If he (Mr. A) is asked whether he has cut jack-fruit tree at the southern monastery; as that (southern monastery) has no jack-fruit, “neither it is cut nor it is not cut” should be replied.

52 Same as the CHAPTER ON LATENCY (ANUSAYA VĀRA). Verb is now “arise” rather than “lays latent.” When the word (upazzati) arises is seen, do not take only “at the arising-moment”. As long as (the respective latent state) has not been eliminated by Magga; for that time being, take (all) three periods: had arisen (past), arise (present) and will arise (future).
330. Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises to this person. Does latent state of hatred arise to that person? Yes.
Latent state of hatred arises to this person. Does latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures to that person? Yes.
Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises to this person. Does latent state of pride arise to that person? Yes.
Latent state of pride arises to this person. Does latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures to that person? In Anāgāmi, latent state of pride arises; and latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures does not arise at that person. Both latent state of pride and latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arise in three persons.

59 (In Pāli) anusayā bhangā natthi: anusayā = latent states; bhangā - bhārizitabbā = there lays such (latent states), and there does not lay such (latent states); such classification; natthi = (is) none. [Seven latent states lay latent in Puthujjana. In these seven, these latent states lay latent; these latent states do not lay latent; these latent states sometimes do not lay latent; such classification should not be done. Because according to respective Okāsa, variation takes place. For instance, at Puthujjana alone, at the un-pleasant feeling of Kāma Dhātu, latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures does not lay latent, but lays latent (again) at pleasant feeling of Kāma Dhātu. So, latent states should not be classified by means of element. And should not be done at Sotāpanna and Sakadāgāmi as well ]
60 There is no latent state of hatred in fine-material plane. There is also no latent state in the plane of Asaññasatta (non-percipient beings). Even though such absence as of planes, still “seven latent states lay latent...” is answered as the beings (Puthujjana) of those planes have not eliminated the latent states by Magga (i.e., not arising; but had arisen and will arise).

Brahma plane will never reborn at the lower Brahma plane. Needless to say from Brahma plane to Kāma plane for the Aṇīyā persons. There is none.

Even though not sensual element, from immaterial element to fine-material is impossible. So, immaterial element to another (immaterial element) should be understood. "Why there is no bearing in fine-material plane for the person who is from immaterial plane"? If asked, there is no rūpa-jhāna kusala which is able to perform paṭisandhi-citta of fine-material element in the immaterial plane.

\textit{(ANUSAYA YAMAKAPÅ¥U NIṬṬHITA}\textsuperscript{64})

\textsuperscript{63} When it is said that "latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures lays latent at the two feeling of sensual element", it should be understood in this way:

"Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures lays latent" is said due to the main (task as in distinction) for the easy understanding. And do take that it also lays latent at \textit{īṭṭhārum} (pleasing object) and \textit{dhamma} which are associated (and concerning) with (\textit{vedanā} as well. At \textit{īṭṭhārum} (pleasing object), \textit{domanassa} (displeasure) does not lay latent. Only at \textit{aniṭṭhārum} (non-pleasing object), the appropriate \textit{kilesā} (moral defilements) arise. For that reason, it should be noted that latent state of hatred lays latent only at \textit{aniṭṭhārum} (non-pleasing object). And such method should be understood for the whole chapter of pairs on latent states.

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumābhīvaṃsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copy of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone. i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one’s dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This CittaYamaka translation is started on 15.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 18.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

YAMASSA VISAYÄTTIĀM, LOKANĀTHAṂ BHIVANDIYA, DHAMMAṂ SAMGHAṆCA AMALĀṂ, GUṆASĀMIṆCA ME GARŪṂ (¹)

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS, BEINGS’ VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS, OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAṂGHĀ, AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONOURED, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAVĀ. (²)

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha’s doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chatṭha Sarīgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator’s):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there’s or there’ll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit action).
(1) The Pāḷi verse is from AYAKAUK (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāli) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness
GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

(a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
(b) Must not sway in the meaning
(c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
(d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
(e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḷi words
(f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
(g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḷi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḷi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḷi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well…..)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamāṇa paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḷi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḷi, Ḍ/ṁ is used, instead of Ḍ/ṃ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.
For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvācāra is translated as sense sphere\(^1\) or sensuous sphere\(^2\) or sensual sphere\(^3\). And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be Yamako\(^4\).

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

(a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
(b) The sublime Dhamma
(c) The great Sārīghā
(d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
(e) The Dhamma Scholars
(f) The lay supporters
(g) The every kind of supports of far and near
(h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sārīghāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāḷi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity (such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time … and many more) is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time.

Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

THIS TRANSLATION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāṇa Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaṃsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copy of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone. i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one’s dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Dhamma Yamaka translation is started on 18.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 20.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

Nandamedhā
The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha’s doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chatṭha Sarīgī Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator’s):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there’s or there’ll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit action).
(1) The Pāḷi verse is from AYAKAUK (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāḷi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness
GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

(a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
(b) Must not sway in the meaning
(c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
(d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
(e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḷi words
(f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
(g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḷi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḷi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḷi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well….)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamāṇā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḷi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḷi, ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṣ/ṣ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.
For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvācāra is translated as sense sphere\(^1\) or sensuous sphere\(^2\) or sensual sphere\(^3\). And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be Yamako\(^4\).

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

(a) The un-comparable Sāmāsambuddha
(b) The sublime Dhamma
(c) The great Sarīghā
(d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
(e) The Dhamma Scholars
(f) The lay supporters
(g) The every kind of supports of far and near
(h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīkhāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pājヤ Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity (such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time … and many more) is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

EDITORIAL PREFACE

THIS EDITION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED
TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,
THE MOST VENERABLE
BADDANTA KUMĀRĀBHIVĀMSA
SĀSANADHĀZA SIRĪPĀVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
SAKKYASĪHA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
AGGA MAḤĀ PĀNDITA, AGGA MAḤĀ GANDHA VĀCAKA PĀNDITA,
NAINGAN TAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION’S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIPIṬAKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPIṬAKA PUCCHAKA.

In November 2011, I came to know that a copy of the English version of the Indriya Yamaka which was written by the Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivālsa is found back. As it was made around 45 years ago and type-writer version, it is not easy to make a book and to publish it. By which it will be very helpful to Abhidhamma lovers and especially by the wish of Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw, this work (re-typing and editing) is firstly established.

Firstly, the copy of Indriya Yamaka English version is scanned and posted to those who wish to help in re-typing by computer. Mg Hein Thu Aung and his friends from Meik Hti Lar, in middle Myanmar acted as a centre to run this project. They also re-typed more than 200 pages. Ven. Ariyajyoti of Bangladesh from International Theravāda Buddhist Missionary University (ITBMU), Yangon who is studying his M.A. (Buddhism) and his friends of various nationals, mostly from ITBMU also re-type 265 pages. After collecting all re-typed versions (465 pages), Mg Hein Thu Aung sent them to me while I am helping for the local Sāsana in rural area. This Indriya Yamaka translation is then re-arranged and editing was started on 13.5.2012 and finished on 22.5.2012 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTREY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Region, the Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

This edition is solely done by me (the editor) alone. i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one’s dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

Even though I am taking the responsibility of an editor, I changed very little of it as by the wish of Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw. Chaṭṭa Sangayanā version is the main source to do it so. But for most of the words they are un-changed to honor the original translator, Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw. Arisen, Had arisen, and (It had) arisen are used in random just for the word Upajjitha. And some usages like; common worldlings for Putthujjana, Non returner for Anāgāmi; might not be very pleased to some English scholars, but to understand the original translation, no editing is made on such cases. It is my suggestion that Pāḷi language should be learned to get the better and precise meanings.

My sincere thanks go to Mg Hein Thu Aung and his friends from Meik Hti Lar, Bhante Ariyajyoti of Bangladesh and his friends from ITBMU for their volunteer effort in re-typing. Mahā Thera Ven. Samvara of YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTERY and Ven. Silācāra of U SHIT PIN VILLAGE MONASTERY for lending their PCs to do the editing. The devotee, U Than Htun of Chaung Nar village for his incomparable deeds especially by taking PCs back and forth to the monastery to recharge them in the middle of the very hot sun every day. Mya Than Tar Soe for her service for taking this edited material from the rural area and post it to e-friends of Dhamma which may be a small act but a must which is not easy for us (for living in rural area). And the great gratitude I owe to is the most Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw for personally asking and choosing me for this edition, by which my Dhamma friends and I can accumulate meritorious deeds in many ways.
My (the editor) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

May everyone be Indriya seeker and holder.
