Notification to Students of Differences between US and UK evaluation systems

Students enrolled in the dual degree program with the University of Roehampton must keep in mind that due to differences between the US and UK educational and evaluation systems and criteria, the course requirements may differ, thus leading to the possibility of different final course grades. Successfully passing the course for one institution, does not guarantee successful completion for the other. University of Roehampton grades are unofficial until validation from the exam board occurs.

COVID-19 Scholarship - Undergraduate and Graduate

Eligibility:

Schiller International University is offering a limited number of exceptional hardship scholarships to help current students facing financial difficulties due to the COVID-19 crisis.

The scholarship is only available to cash-paying students because it is designed to help students who can demonstrate the need for assistance in order to pay tuition.

Conditions:

- This scholarship is applicable to students taking full semesters (12 credits or more) in 2020/2021. This scholarship cannot be prorated.
- The scholarship is open to students who will be starting Semesters or Parent Terms from May 2020 through December 2020.
- The scholarship is restricted to students who have previously been in good financial standing.
- There is no GPA requirement for this scholarship.
- This scholarship will be awarded up to a maximum of € 1,458 ($ 1,569 for Florida students) regardless of whether the student is a Graduate or Undergraduate.
- The scholarship is awarded for a maximum of 2 terms – ending with the December 2020 Semester or Parent Term.
- The scholarship cannot be added to any other SIU scholarships
- The scholarship is only applicable to current students; it is not available to new students starting after May 2020.
- Each campus has the following maximum amount of funds available for the COVID scholarship:

Florida	10,000 dollars
Paris	15,000 euros
Heidelberg	15,000 euros
Madrid	20,000 euros

Documentation:

Scholarship Application requires the completion of the standard Schiller scholarship application form plus a 500-word essay in English explaining the students' financial need.

Documentation proving financial need due to COVID should be provided.

Evaluation:

A point system will be used to ensure fairness:

- Loss of job due to COVID (student or parent if parent is paying tuition) (5 points)
- Number of siblings currently attending the University (5 points per sibling)
- Number of siblings who have graduated from Schiller in the past. (2 points per sibling)
- Points will also be awarded for the essay (10 points)

The application, essay and documentation will be reviewed by each Campus Scholarship Committee who will make the final decision to award or deny the scholarship based on the points awarded and the essay up to the maximum allocated amount per campus.

COVID-19 Pandemic Waiver

Undergraduate Programs:

PROOF OF HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION (SECONDARY EDUCATION) OR GED

Applicants are required to submit their academic transcripts from their high school of graduation, or evidence of having successfully completed the General Education Development (GED) test. Official High School transcripts are those that are received by Schiller that do not state "released to student" or any wording thereof expressing that transcript was released to student. If acceptable proof of High School completion is not received by the first day of class the student will not be allowed to start classes at the University.

However, in view of the COVID-19 Pandemic we realize that you may not be able to obtain Validated Proof of your High School/GED transcripts. Therefore, if you cannot obtain Official proof of your high school/GED we will allow you to start school and provide the proof when high schools or GED agencies re-open.

Early Acceptance Schiller International University

SIU is now accepting PRE-applications from high school seniors.

Students in the last year of high school can pre-apply to begin their college career at one of SIU campuses.

Conditional approval will be determined by the designated campus

Who can Apply?

All students in their last year of high School who want to reserve a place in advance at SCHILLER INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY to begin their studies in the following academic year.

What are the benefits of early tuition payments?

- Enroll and pay tuition 6 months prior to the expected start of your academic career and receive $1,500 toward your tuition.
Example: enroll and pay tuition BEFORE March 2021, and your academic career begins September 2021
- Enroll and pay tuition 5 months prior to the expected start of your academic career and receive $1,000 toward your tuition.
Example: enroll and pay tuition BEFORE April 2021, and your academic career begins September 2021
- Enroll and pay tuition 3 months prior to the expected start of your academic career and receive $500 toward your tuition.
Example: enroll and pay tuition BEFORE June 2021, and your academic career begins September 2021

Schiller will reserve a place for the student until the expected enrollment start date.

Payments are non-refundable. Exceptions may apply if:

Student doesn't get the High School Diploma or GED

Student doesn't get the VISA to go to the campus Country

What are the advantages for SIU?

SCHILLER INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY can organize your classes in a more effective way:

- Knowing how many students will actually make up the class.
- Closing enrollment when, according to our admissions policy, a class is full.
- Preparing the materials to respond to the profiles of the students who are pre-applying
- Scheduling efficiencies – a planned schedule will be offer to the student based on their career path. The schedule will follow a cohort (a group of students) that can take the same classes, maximizing the classroom experience.
