HONOREE: HELLE SØHOLT

For Excellence in Urban Planning

CEO + Founding Partner,
Gehl

Helle Søholt is the driving force behind Gehl's 23 year journey delivering people-first urban development the world over. From San Francisco's Market Street to Shanghai's Huangpu Waterfront to Sydney's George Street, Helle has ensured an eye-level, human scale touch to many a public realm. Described as a pragmatic idealist, Helle is responsible for the direction of over 140 employees, situated in Copenhagen, New York, San Francisco and a growing number of local market locations. From theory to practice, the Gehl consultancy has built a leading knowledge base and prize winning portfolio within urban strategy, design, landscape design, mobility and public life data. Today, you will find Helle focused on expanding Gehl's digital service offer with a range of proprietary public life observation apps, progressing health, equity and sustainability impacts in rapidly developing cities and urban areas, and leading Gehl's knowledge development across social infrastructure, foodscapes, and the future of retail themes, amongst others.

HONOREE: TRINA TURK

For Excellence in Fashion Design

Founder + Creative Director, TRINA TURK

A California local, Trina Turk is inspired by the Golden State's multicultural mix, creativity, architecture, and landscape. Turk's modern and optimistic outlook meld graphic pattern and vivid hues with a California confidence. Founded in 1995 by Turk and her late husband, photographer Jonathan Skow, as a women's clothing collection, Trina Turk has evolved into a print and color driven lifestyle brand, now including swimwear, Mr Turk menswear, eyewear and home goods.

The first retail store opened in Palm Springs in 2002 and has since expanded into five boutiques. Trina Turk is an active philanthropist, giving back in communities where the company has a retail presence, as well as contributing generously to arts, education and architectural preservation causes.

TRINA TURK signature boutiques are located in Burlingame. TRINA TURK | MR TURK boutiques are located in Atlanta's Phipps Plaza, Dallas' West Village, Palm Springs and Palm Desert.

HONOREE: MA YANSONG

For Excellence in Architecture

Founder + Principal Partner,
MAD Architects

Ma Yansong is committed to developing futuristic, organic, and technologically advanced designs that embody a contemporary interpretation of the Eastern affinity for nature. With a vision for the city of the future based in the spiritual and emotional needs of residents, he endeavors to create a balance between humanity, the city, and the environment.

As the first Chinese architect to win an overseas landmark-building project, Yansong founded MAD Architects in 2004 and now has offices in Beijing (China), Los Angeles (USA) and Rome (Italy). Ma leads design across various scales globally for different needs of social groups, such as urban complexes and infrastructures, museums and theaters, kindergarten, public housing.

In recent years, Yansong has created a series of imaginative works, including Absolute Towers, Harbin Opera House, Lucas Museum of Narrative Art, FENIX

Museum of Migration, Chaoyang Park Plaza, Baiziwan Social Housing, Yuecheng Courtyard Kindergarten, Quzhou Sports Park, Jiaxing Train Station etc. Parallel to his design practice, he has also been exploring with the public the cultural values of cities and architecture through exhibitions, publications and art works.

In 2022, MAD Architects was recognized as “Best Cultural Firm” by Fast Company and became the first architectural firm to win this award in China. In 2016, he was honored as “Certificate of Recognition” by City of Los Angeles. In 2014 he was awarded “Young Global Leaders (YGL)” by World Economic Forum. In 2010 he became the first architect from China to receive a RIBA international fellowship.

Yansong holds a Master of Architecture degree from Yale University, and a bachelor’s degree from the Beijing Institute of Civil Engineering and Architecture.
