Experience rural life

From gamboling lambs to Highland cows, The South of Scotland is an excellent place to visit for farm fun and to immerse yourself in rural life.

Discover new unique stays

From award-winning getaways to quirky escapes, The South of Scotland is proud home to an ever growing collection of unique accommodation.

Witness a floral kaleidoscope

Discover the botanical beauty of our wild woods in spring and explore a bevy of floral delights across our historic estates and gardens.

Embark on a two-wheeled adventure

As spring breezes warm the air, why not try our ideas for cycling day trips, embark on a route like the Kirkpatrick C2C, or join one of our cycling events!

Visit for Spring Fling

Visit us at the end of May and be inspired when more than 100 artists open their doors and share how they create their masterpieces.

Seek out Scotland's Smallest Theatre

Enjoy a cosy performance in a restored and converted byre at The Swallow Theatre, or take in a show at one of our regions' other intimate arts venues.

Indulge your palate

Savour the flavours of the region, from our exceptional restaurants and friendly farm shops to unique tours and experiences at our local distilleries and chocolatiers.

Traverse our historic halls

Explore the rich tapestry of history as many of our grand houses reopen their doors for the season, shedding light on the stories of the past.
