San Diego State-Brigham Young Tangle in Matchup of Top-10 Teams with the Mountain West Conference Lead on the Line Wednesday in Provo

No. 4 San Diego State (20-0 overall; 5-0 Mountain West Conference), one of two undefeated teams entering the week and owners of the nation's second longest active win streak (20) and second longest active road win streak (9), travels to Provo, Utah, for a Mountain West showdown against ninth-ranked Brigham Young (19-1 overall; 5-0 MWC).

Announced game time at the Marriott Center is set for 8 p.m. MT (7 p.m. PT), with the contest airing nationally in high definition on CBS College Sports (San Diego Cox Cable 321, San Diego Time Warner 415, DirecTV channel 613, Dish Network channel 152, AT&T U-Verse 1643) and simulcast in high definition in the San Diego market on Channel 4 San Diego. The game can also be heard on radio in Southern California on AM 600 KOGO.

San Diego State became the first team to reach the 20-win plateau and improved to 5-0 in league play for the first time since 1967 last Wednesday, after claiming a 68-55 victory over Air Force. For the first time in his career, senior guard D.J. Gay posted consecutive games with at least 20 points, following up his career-high 30-point performance at New Mexico, with a team-high 20-point effort against the Falcons. The senior connected on six three-point field goals in the contest and has now made 13 of his last 20 attempts from bonus distance (65.0 percent). Sophomore forward Kawhi Leonard added 10 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for his fifth double-double in his last six games, his 13th this season and the 30th of his career, which is tied for second most in school history. Senior forward Billy White added 12 points and five rebounds.

Air Force became the first team this season to shoot better than 50 percent from the field against the Aztecs, connecting on 51.2 percent (22-of-43), but the Aztecs countered with a 34-20 advantage on the glass and owned a 24-8 advantage in points off turnovers to secure the victory.

For the Aztecs, who led the entire second half, the victory extended several winning streaks, including a 29-game winning streak against unranked teams at any location, 26-game home winning streak against unranked teams, 14-game winning streak at home and a 10-game winning streak against MWC opponents at any location.

Brigham Young has won nine consecutive games overall and is 8-0 at home this season, while winning by an average margin of 26.9 points. The Cougars have won 29 of their last 30 home games and are led by national player of the year candidate Jimmer Fredette (26.7 ppg, 3.4 rpg). Jackson Emery (13.0 ppg) and Brandon Davies (11.3 ppg) also average double figures in scoring for Brigham Young.

The teams are meeting for the 69th time, with BYU owning a 46-22 series advantage. The Aztecs have won 10 straight games against MWC teams and have won their most recent encounter with every league opponent, except Brigham Young. The Cougars swept the series last season, claiming a 71-69 win at Viejas Arena (Jan. 23) and an 82-68 decision at the Marriott Center (Feb. 24). Complete series information can be found on pages 9-11.

▶ San Diego State is 20-0 for the first time in school history. This is the 90th season of Aztec Basketball.

▶ The 20-game winning streak is the longest winning streak in the 90-year history of the program, snapping the 1955-56 team's 13-game unbeaten run.

▶ The Aztecs enter the week as one of only two undefeated teams in the nation (Ohio State).

▶ Of San Diego State's 20 wins this season, 13 have been by double digits.

▶ San Diego State has won 29 consecutive games against non-ranked opponents at any site.

▶ With 11 straight road/neutral wins under its belt, SDSU has established a new school record. The previous record was six.

▶ The No. 4 Aztecs have 11 road/neutral wins this season (11-0), which is at least four more than any of the top-3 teams in the Associated Press poll, entering Monday's games. The following is what the top three have done in road/neutral games this year: No. 1 Ohio State 6-0, No. 2

Pittsburgh 6-1, No. 3 Duke 7-1.

► A win on Wednesday, would extend head coach Steve Fisher's longest winning streak to open a season of his storied career. A win would also extend the longest winning streak overall in Fisher's career. His 1992-93 squad won 12 in a row on the way to a spot in the national title game.

► Entering Wednesday, the fourth-ranked Aztecs are one of just two teams to have not suffered a loss this year. The other is No. 1 Ohio State.

► SDSU has won 10 straight over Mountain West foes with just three of those decisions coming at Viejas Arena (March 3 vs. Colorado State, Jan. 12 vs. UNLV, Jan. 19 vs. Air Force).

► In addition, the Aztecs own a victory over every Mountain West Conference opponent in their most recent meeting, with the exception of Brigham Young.

The last time the Aztecs owned a victory in their most recent meeting with every MWC school was during the 2005-06 season.

► San Diego State is 5-0 in Mountain West Conference play for the first time in the 12-year history of the program. The Aztecs are also 5-0 in league action for the first time since 1966-67 when they were playing in the CCAA.

► Another example of San Diego State's ability to win away from home is shown by the RPI win total. The RPI gives different win values depending upon where the game is played (a home win is worth 0.6, a neutral win is worth 1.0 and a road win is worth 1.4). Only Division I games count in the RPI. Below are the teams with the highest RPI win total entering Tuesday's games.

Locating The Run

This season, the Aztecs have enjoyed some dominating scoring runs, which have helped them jump out to their 20-0 start. San Diego State has enjoyed 27 runs of 9-0 or greater. San Diego State appears to be particularly effective at jump starting the run between the 16- and 12-minute marks of the second half. Below is a look at some key season stats during that four minute stretch.

8. Pittsburgh

► Kawhi Leonard and Malcolm Thomas enter the Brigham Young game averaging a double-double in conference action. Leonard is averaging 15.6 points and 12.4 rebounds, while Thomas is chipping in with 12.6 points and 11.2 boards.

► D.J. Gay enters the BYU game having played 195 of a possible 200 minutes during conference action.

► San Diego State has secured its school-record sixth consecutive 20-win season.

► The Aztecs finished the non-league portion of its schedule having won 18 straight vs. non-conference opposition, which is the best mark in school history. The school record does not account for postseason games.

Home Sweet Home

► San Diego State's 14-game home winning streak is tied for the 14th longest in the nation as of Jan. 12.

► San Diego State has won 26 consecutive home games against teams from outside the AP Top 25.

► Since the start of the 2005-06 campaign, San Diego State has compiled a 77-10 record (.885) at home and has lost only three times on Montezuma Mesa the last two seasons.

► The Aztecs have won 14 straight at Viejas Arena by an average of 18.0 points (252 points total).

► SDSU finished the non-MWC portion of the slate having won a program-record 22 straight home dates vs. non-conference foes.

► During its school-record 22-game non-conference home winning streak, San Diego State won by an average of 20.8 points (458 points total).

SDSU-BYU Series History

Complete series history, along with the last three game recaps/box scores between SDSU and Brigham Young can be found on pages 9-11.

► This is the 69th meeting between the two schools with BYU owning a 46-22 series advantage.

► San Diego State is 17-17 against Brigham Young in games played in San Diego and 6-6 inside Viejas Arena. However, in games in Provo, BYU is 28-3 vs. the Aztecs. In neutral site games, SDSU owns a 2-1 lead, including a win in the 2009 MWC tournament semifinal contest, which was San Diego State's last win the series.

► San Diego State owns three victories against Brigham Young in Provo, with those wins coming on Jan. 31, 1985

(77-71), Dec. 31, 1996 (89-86 in overtime) and Jan. 8, 2005 (59-57).

► San Diego State has only won one time at Marriott Center during the Steve Fisher era and that was back on Jan. 8, 2005, when the Aztecs earned a hard-fought 59-57 victory. That season was also the last time SDSU swept the season series.

► Brigham Young swept the season series last year and has won the last four regular-season meetings. The Aztecs are just 1-5 in the last six games with the Cougars and 4-8 since 2006, which was the season after SDSU swept the season series.

► Eighteen of the last 22 games in the series have been decided by 11 points or less or in overtime with 11 of the 22 most recent meetings being decided by four points or less or in overtime.

► The team that has committed fewer turnovers has won 18 of the last 23 games in the series.

The Last Win in Provo

Jan. 8, 2005 - San Diego State 59, Brigham Young 57

PROVO, Utah -- After missing four straight practices prior to the game and taking a flight to Philadelphia to see a specialist for his ongoing injury to his hip flexor/groin, Chris Walton put in a performance that will be remembered by Aztec fans for years to come.

The fifth-year senior scored a season-high 12 points (two more than he had scored the rest of the season combined) and added six rebounds including a put-back seven-foot jumper as time expired to give San Diego State a 59-57 victory over Brigham Young in the conference opener for both teams.

The Aztecs won for just the third time in at the Marriott Center despite trailing by 13 points in the first half, 11 points in the second half and by four points with 48 seconds remaining.

San Diego State limited the Cougars to 35.1 percent shooting from the field and forced 17 turnovers, including 10 after intermission.

The Aztecs trailed by 11 early in the second half, but used a 25-8 run to take a six-point lead with 9:25 to play. The Cougars responded with a 9-0 run and led 51-48 with 4:18 remaining.

BYU led by four points with 48 seconds to play, but Heath connected on a driving layup off the glass to cut the Aztecs' deficit to two. Following a Cougar turnover, Brandon Heath converted another driving layup to tie the game at 57. After a BYU missed free throw, the Aztecs melted the clock setting the stage for Walton's follow off a Heath miss.

► Current San Diego State seniors were sophomores in high school the last time the Aztecs won in Provo. Sophomore forward Alec Williams, the Aztecs' youngest player, was 13 years, 1 month and 8 days old when Chris Walton's fadeaway putback at the buzzer gave San Diego State a victory on a frigid night in 2005. Other current Aztecs that had not celebrated their 14th birthday yet include Kawhi Leonard, Jamaal Franklin, LaBradford Franklin and Chase Tapley.

Win Streaks

Below is a look San Diego State's major active win streaks. Those that are on the line Wednesday are designated with a ►.

29-game streak against unranked teams.

26-game homecourt winning streak against unranked teams at any location.

► 20-game overall winning streak (school-record, 2nd longest active streak in NCAA).

14-game homecourt winning streak

► 11-game winning streak in road/neutral games (school record).

► 10-game winning streak against Mountain West Conference teams (school record, longest active MWC streak).

► 9-game overall road winning streak (school-record, 2nd longest active streak in NCAA).

► 5-game winning streak in road games at Mountain West Conference teams.

Quality Road Wins

With a 7-0 road record and an 11-0 mark away from home this season, it would be tough to believe that any team in the nation has a more impressive resume away from home than San Diego State.

Below is a game-by-game look at the Aztecs' road wins this season. All information is through Sunday's games.

A few notes from several of the road victories this season.

at Gonzaga (W, 79-76) - The Zags are 10-0 in their other home games this season... SDSU's win snapped Gonzaga's 12-game homecourt win streak... After the loss, Gonzaga's record in the building's lifetime was 77-5.

at California (W, 77-57) - The victory snapped Cal's 21-game homecourt win streak against non-conference teams... The Bears were 19-1 in their previous 20 home games before falling to SDSU.

at New Mexico (W, 87-77) - San Diego State snapped New Mexico's 12-game homecourt winning streak... San Diego State built an 18-point lead at one point, marking the largest deficit for a Lobo team at The Pit since Jan. 24, 2007.

Beating the Best

As of Tuesday morning, San Diego State owned three victories over teams currently leading their conferences and five victories over teams currently in second place in their league standings.

The Aztecs have victories over conference-leading Long Beach State (Big West), Miami (Ohio) (MAC-East) and Saint Mary's (West Coast Conference). The victories over the 49ers and RedHawks both came on the road.

Teams that SDSU owns victories over that are currently in second place in their league standings include Cal Poly (Big West), Wichita State (Missouri Valley), two wins over IUPUI (Summit) and San Francisco (West Coast). Three of those victories against teams in second place in the standings were at neutral sites.

Against Ranked Opponents

► San Diego State 17-80 all-time against Associated Press Top-25 teams.

► San Diego State is 5-4 in its last nine games against teams ranked in the AP Top 25. The Aztecs were 4-41 in their previous 45 games against nationally ranked teams prior to this stretch.

► The Aztecs are 2-45 all-time in road games against AP Top-25 teams. Despite the all-time record, San Diego State won its most recent road game against a ranked team. The Aztecs defeated 11th-ranked Gonzaga, 79-76, on Nov. 16, 2010.

More notes on the win over Gonzaga:

► That victory snapped a 33-game road losing streak to teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25.

► San Diego State's victory over No. 11 Gonzaga represents the highest-ranked team the Aztecs have ever defeated on the road.

► That was just the second road win over an AP Top-25 team in school history and the fourth road/neutral victory over a ranked opponent in school history.

► That was the fifth-highest ranked team the Aztecs have defeated in school history.

► The win snapped a nine-game losing streak to non-conference AP Top-25 teams, dating back to a Dec. 8, 2001 victory over 21st-ranked Fresno State.

► It was the first time SDSU had ever defeated a top-25 team in the month of November.

► It was the San Diego State's 17th victory over an AP Top-25 team, with seven of those victories coming during the Steve Fisher era.

Leonard and Thomas Make History

Kawhi Leonard and Malcolm Thomas etched their names in the San Diego State record book with their performance vs. UNLV on Jan. 12. Leonard finished with a game-high 17 rebounds, while Thomas added 16. The effort marked the first time in the 90-year history of the program that two Aztecs had at least 15 rebounds in the same game.

Three 1K Scorers is Rare

San Diego State now has three players that have scored 1,000 career points - D.J. Gay, Malcolm Thomas and Billy White.

Through Sunday's games, only nine Division I schools in the nation had three current 1,000-point scorers: Boston College, Charleston, Citadel, Florida, Illinois, Ohio State, Purdue, Richmond and San Diego State.

Gay and Bob Cousy in Same Sentence

D.J. Gay is one of 20 finalists for the 2011 Bob Cousy Award, it was announced Jan. 12. The senior was on the initial watch list and made the first cut, the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame announced.

The annual award is given to college basketball's top point guard and is named after Hall of Famer and former Boston Celtics great Bob Cousy. An original list of 70-plus candidates was trimmed to 20 by a Hall of Fame appointed, nationally based committee. The current listing of 20 finalists for the 2011 Bob Cousy Award will be narrowed down to 10 players by February 3 and then further to five players by March 3. The final five players in contention for the award will be presented to Mr. Cousy and the Hall of Fame's selection committee.

Gay Joins Century Club

Senior point guard D.J. Gay made his 100th career start at Utah. He became just the seventh player in school history with at least 100 starts, joining Brandon Heath (120), Michael Cage (112), Leonard Allen (110), Richie Williams (109), Billy White (107) and Chad Nelson (103). The senior currently has started 103 career games.

Gay enters Saturday having played in all 122 games since he stepped foot on campus.

Leonard Makes Wooden Award Cut

Kawhi Leonard, it was announced Jan. 6, is one of 30 midseason candidate for the 2010-11 John R. Wooden Award. A preseason top-50 candidate, Leonard is one of five sophomores on the list, one of four players from non-power conference and one of two from the Mountain West Conference.

Created in 1976, the John R. Wooden Award is the most prestigious individual honor in college basketball. It is bestowed upon the nation's best player at an institution of higher education who has proven to his or her university that he or she is making progress toward graduation and maintaining a minimum cumulative 2.0 GPA

Running Away

This season, the Aztecs have enjoyed some dominating a scoring runs, which have helped them jump out to their 20-0 start. San Diego State has enjoyed 27 runs of 9-0 or greater. A complete list can be found on page 46.

Two More Hit the 1,000 Mark

D.J. Gay and Malcolm Thomas both hit the same milestone Billy White hit earlier this year - 1,000 points for their career.

Gay entered the New Mexico game with 972 career points, while Thomas sat at 994. When the final horn sounded, Gay had 30 points and Thomas finished with six, which allowed them to hit the 1K mark. Thomas' total spans his career at both Pepperdine and San Diego State.

Gay became the 26th player in SDSU history to accomplish the feat and the 18th to do so in the Division I era (1970-71). He is also the ninth player to score 1,000 career points for Steve Fisher at San Diego State.

Thomas Heating Up

Malcolm Thomas is heating up when the weather is getting cold and he is playing some of his best basketball of his career. He has posted five double-doubles in his last 10 outings (just missed two more with 10+ points and nine rebounds) and has been unstoppable from the floor lately. The San Diego native has connected on 56 of his last 94 field-goal attempts (59.6 percent). As a result, Thomas has upped his field-goal percentage for the season to 57.1 percent. His recent precision is a stark contrast to his first four games of the season when he was successful on just 10 of his 24 field-goal attempts (41.7 percent).

Thomas Turning the Corner at the Line

Entering the season, Malcolm Thomas was a 55.1-percent free-throw shooter and had never enjoyed a season above 53 percent from the charity stripe.

That may be coming to an end this season.

Thomas is shooting 64.5 percent from the line this year and is 46 for his last 65 (70.8 percent), which comes after a sub-par start where he made just 13 of his first 28 attempts (46.4 percent).

Gay Becomes All-Time Wins Leader at SDSU

Senior D.J. Gay became the all-time wins leader at SDSU after the Aztecs' victory over Occidental on Dec. 31, 2010. The win over the Tigers gave Gay 86 wins for his career. The guard surpassed his predecessor in Richie Williams who finished his four-year career with 85 wins. The record dates back to 1975-76. To date, Gay has participated in 91 victories

Billy White, meanwhile, is not far behind as he has contributed in 87 wins (second place).

A Tale of Two Halves

San Diego State has been a second-half team this season thus far, outscoring its opponents, 780-582 (+198). In the first half alone, the Aztecs own just a 690-595 (+95) scoring advantage. Below is a comparison of SDSU's production in each half.

Category	1st	2nd
Scoring	34.5	39.0
Opp. Scoring	29.8	29.1
FG percentage	.463	.524
Opp. FG percentage	.417	.384
3FG percentage	.297	.417
Opp. 3FG percentage	.338	.319

Cutting Down on the Turnovers

After committing 81 turnovers in the first six games of the season, San Diego State has cut down on its total considerably the last 14 games where it has just 140 miscues. In the first half dozen outings, the Aztecs averaged 13.5 turnovers compared to only 10.0 in their last 14.

Iron Man

D.J. Gay is arguably one of the nation's iron men as he has played in every game since he has stepped foot on campus. The guard from Sun Valley, Calif., has seen action in all 123 games, while earning the starting nod 103 times. In each of his three seasons on campus, Gay has seen his minutes per game increase from 23.8 as a freshman to 26.7 as a sophomore to a team-best 34.6 minutes last year as a junior. This season, he is averaging 34.3 minutes and has played 195 of a possible 200 minutes in Mountain West Conference action. The senior has also started 54 straight games.

Double-Double Machine

Just a sophomore, Kawhi Leonard is tied for second place for most double-doubles in school history (since 1975-76 season) with 30 career double-doubles. Leonard's 17 double-doubles last year were a freshman school record, which was previously owned by Michael Cage when he had 10 in 1981, and were the fourth-most in a single season in program history. One more double-double this season would put him second all time, ahead of Marcus Slaughter's 30, but behind Cage's 61 career double-doubles.

Spark Off the Bench

Sophomore newcomer James Rahon has provided a huge spark off the bench this season. The San Diego native is averaging 7.3 points, which ranks sixth on the team, and is shooting 44.4 percent from the field, including a team-best 42.9 percent from three-point distance (min. 10 att.).

This season, Rahon has reached double figures in scoring six times (eight points or more nine times), has shot 50 percent or better from the field eight times and has connected on multiple three-pointers on nine occasions. He is also averaging 21.5 minutes.

Thomas Picks Up Third MWC Player of the Week Award

For the third time this season, Malcolm Thomas was named MWC player of the week on Jan. 10. For the week, the senior averaged team-best figures in points (17.5), rebounds (12.0), blocks (2.0), steals (1.5), field-goal percentage (.560) and free-throw percentage (.667) in victories over TCU and Utah on the road.

At TCU, Thomas had 18 points (8-10 FG), 10 rebounds, two assists, two blocked shots and two steals. Then at Utah, Thomas recorded his second straight double-double with 17 points and a game-high 14 rebounds.

The second time he won the award was on Dec. 20, when Thomas averaged 18.0 points, 12.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 3.5 blocks, while shooting 82.4 percent from the field (14-17) and 72.7 percent from the free-throw line (8-11) in wins over Cal Poly and UC Santa Barbara.

Against the Mustangs, Thomas finished with game-high figures of 18 points, 15 rebounds, three assists and five blocked shots. Then against the Gauchos, Thomas went for another 18 points and added 10 rebounds, four assists and two blocked shots.

The first time he was the award was on Dec. 7, when Thomas helped the Aztecs to wins over Saint Mary's and Wichita State.

In a 69-55 win over Saint Mary's, Thomas blocked a career-high-tying six shots and added 12 points, six rebounds, one assist and a steal.

Against the Missouri Valley Conference favorites, Wichita State, Thomas blocked four shots and chipped in 12 points, five rebounds, one assist and one steal.

For the week, Thomas averaged 12.0 points, 5.5 rebounds, 5.0 blocks, 2.0 steals, 1.0 assists and had a field-goal percentage of 66.7 percent (10-of-15).

White Joins 1,000-Point Club

Billy White became the 25th player in school history and the 17th since 1970-71 (Division I era) to score 1,000 points for his San Diego State career on Dec. 1, 2010. The four-year starter needed seven points vs. Saint Mary's to hit the 1,000 mark and finished with nine on the night. He was awarded with a game ball in a pregame ceremony prior to the Wichita State game on Dec. 4.

Leonard Named MWC Player of the Week for Second Straight Week

Kawhi Leonard was named Mountain West Conference Player of the Week, the league announced Nov. 22. In the first two weeks of the season, the sophomore earned the MWC weekly honor both times.

Leonard averaged a team-best 20.3 points, 10.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 2.0 steals in a week where the Aztecs won at No. 11 Gonzaga and picked up neutral-site victories vs. Green Bay and IUPUI. The five-time MWC player of the week also shot 50.0 percent from the field and knocked down a team-best four three-pointers (4-8 3FG).

In the game at Gonzaga, Leonard went for 18 points and a game-high 12 rebounds, while adding a team-high three assists and two steals. Three days later in Oxford, Ohio, the sophomore led the Aztecs to a win over Green Bay by scoring a game-high 23 points on an efficient 7-of-9 shooting and a career-high nine free throws. Leonard also grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds and dished out two assists. Then to close the week, Leonard was back at it again, this time scoring a game-high 20 points, pulling down a game-high 10 rebounds, matching his season high with three assists and setting a new season best with three steals against IUPUI. Leonard also knocked down all four of his three-point attempts in the second half vs. the Jaguars to help SDSU to its second neutral-site victory in as many days.

The first time he won the award, Leonard helped San Diego State to a season-opening win at Long Beach State.

Leonard scored a game-high 21 points and led all players with 12 rebounds. Leonard also completed his 29th consecutive starting assignment with three assists, one blocked shot and two steals.

After sharing the scoring lead with D.J. Gay in the first half with 13 points, Leonard went to work on the boards and nearly outrebounded the 49ers by himself in the second half. The sophomore collected 12 rebounds to Long Beach State's 16 and had 11 on the defensive end, which was equal to LBSU's second-half total.

Leonard on Naismith Watch List

Kawhi Leonard added another honor to his long list of accolades as he was named to the Naismith preseason watch list on Nov. 16. The sophomore is one of 50 players representing 44 schools on the list. This comes several weeks after Leonard was named to the Wooden preseason top-50 list.

Aztecs Ranked for First Time in School History

San Diego State started the 2010-11 campaign ranked 25th in the preseason Associated Press Top-25 poll. The Aztecs' preseason ranking marked the first time the program has been ranked in any of the two major polls (AP, Coaches) in school history.

Entering its 90th season and its 41st at the Division I level, SDSU received 158 votes to earn its No. 25 ranking.

According to collegepollarchive.com, San Diego State became the seventh school since 1974 to make its AP poll debut in the preseason rankings. The Aztecs join UNLV (1974), Charlotte (1977), UAB (1982), Cleveland State (1987), Rhode Island (1998) and Gonzaga (2000) as the only schools to have accomplished the feat.

This marked the first time since the 2000-01 season that a team has made its debut in the AP poll. That season, Gonzaga was coming off a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament and the Bulldogs went on to post a 26-7 record and advanced to the 2001 NCAA Sweet 16.

Aztecs First in Preseason MWC Media Poll

San Diego State was picked to win the Mountain West Conference in the league's preseason media poll. The Aztecs earned 261 points, including 21 of a possible 30 first-place votes. SDSU finished ahead of second-place BYU, which had 220 points and five first-place tallies.

The 261 points and 21 first-place votes are the most the Aztecs have earned in school history and the first-place prediction marks the third time the MWC media has made SDSU the preseason favorite. In 2005-06, the Aztecs were the favorite and wound up winning the regular-season and tournament championship. The other time, 2006-07, San Diego State finished in third place.

Leonard, Thomas Preseason All-MWC Picks

Kawhi Leonard and Malcolm Thomas were voted to the preseason all-MWC team by the conference media. The starting frontcourt entered 2010-11 as the nation's top returning rebounding duo after averaging 17.5 boards last season.

Leonard is coming off a fantastic freshman campaign in which he was named MWC freshman of the year, Mountain West tournament most valuable player and became the first freshman in the history of the league to garner all-MWC first-team accolades. Leonard, who was the only freshman in Div. I last year to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament while leading his team in scoring and rebounding, averaged 12.7 points and 9.9 rebounds. The Riverside, Calif., native also set the freshman school record for double-doubles with 17, a figure that ranked 13th among all Division I student-athletes. Leonard is the only non-senior on the five-man preseason team.

Thomas, meanwhile, enters his senior season after averaging 10.9 points and 7.6 rebounds, while shooting 54.3 percent from the floor as a junior in 2009-10. Hailing from San Diego, the 6-9 Thomas earned all-MWC second-team honors a year ago and finished the season leading the team in blocked shots, while handing out the second-most assists on the team.

San Diego 2010

#14/13 Brigham Young 71
San Diego State 69

Jan. 23, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - SDSU had its 14-game home court winning streak snapped as No. 14/13 Brigham Young escaped with a 71-69 victory at Viejas Arena.

Brigham Young got off to a hot start by making its first five shots to race out to an 11-7 lead. The Cougars' lead quickly increased to 12 on a three-pointer by Tyler Haws, but seven straight Aztec points brought SDSU to within 22-17 with 8:14 left before halftime.

BYU went up by nine shortly thereafter, but San Diego State responded with nine unanswered points to tie the game at 30 with 2:33 remaining and eventually went into the locker room down, 35-34.

Early in the second half, D.J. Gay scored eight straight points to give SDSU a 47-43 lead, but then the Aztec offense stalled. Over the next eight-plus minutes, San Diego State could only muster three points until Kawhi Leonard knocked down a three-pointer. Unfortunately by then, Brigham Young enjoyed a 60-53 lead with 5:23 to go.

Following Leonard's three, the Aztecs slowly crawled back into the game and was down, 67-66, with 53 seconds to play. BYU, however, put the ball in Fredette's hands and he made a driving layup to put the Cougars up by three with 22 seconds left.

On the ensuing SDSU possession, Kelvin Davis drove the lane and appeared to be fouled, but no such call was made and the Aztecs were forced to foul Fredette, who knocked down both free throws to seal the game for BYU. Fredette finished with a game-high 33 points.

Provo 2010

#13/11 Brigham Young 82
San Diego State 68

Feb. 24, 2010 ♦ Provo, Utah
Marriott Center ♦ Att.: 20,124

PROVO, Utah - SDSU, with a chance to knock off its third ranked team of the season and snap Brigham Young's 20-game home court winning streak, failed in both attempts as the Aztecs were dropped, 82-68, by the 13th/11th-ranked Cougars at Marriott Center.

Four players scored in double figures for SDSU, but the team's leading scorer and rebounder, Kawhi Leonard, was at less than full strength, suffering from flu-like symptoms. Regardless, D.J. Gay led the Aztecs with 15 points and a game-high five assists, and was joined by Malcolm Thomas and Chase Tapley's 13 points, and Billy White's 11.

The two telling stats in this game were fastbreak points and points off turnovers. BYU used a 20-4 advantage in points off the break and a 23-9 advantage in points off turnovers to eventually pull away.

With the game tied at 25 with 3:49 left in the first, the Cougars ran and ran some more, scoring 11 unanswered points. Thankfully for SDSU, Tapley connected on a three right before the buzzer to bring the Aztecs to within, 36-28, at the intermission.

Coming out of the break, SDSU controlled the tempo and managed to tie the game at 44 after Kelvin Davis hit a three. But like the first half, the Aztecs could not find the bottom of the bucket for a long stretch as BYU went on a 14-2 run over the next four minutes to open up a 12-point lead.

San Diego State cut the lead to seven on two different occasions over the next two minutes, but the Cougars enjoyed a 12-2 run after that to get the lead back into double figures as they cruised to the win.

(4) San Diego State 64
(1) #25/rv Brigham Young 62

March 13, 2009 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 11,629

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State edged out Brigham Young to win their fifth straight game, advancing to the Mountain West Conference finals by defeating the Cougars, 64-62.

The game started off close as both teams traded baskets, resulting in five ties in the opening 8:20. A jumper by San Diego State's Lorenzo Wade broke the tie and sparked a 7-0 run, proving to be their biggest lead of the half. BYU's Jonathan Tavernari stopped the run with a three-point shot that led to a run of their own, tying the game yet again, this time at 25 apiece with 4:54 left in the first. The Aztecs were able to regain their lead as they led 31-28 at halftime.

In the second half, BYU couldn't find an answer for Wade, who scored 16 of his 24 points in the final 20 minutes.

San Diego State opened the second half strong as they increased their lead to eight points with 16:53 remaining. However, BYU was able to battle back, tying the game twice before a three-pointer by Lee Cummond gave the Cougars their first lead since 12:03 in the first period.

The Aztecs found themselves down 57-56 with 2:31 left in the game, until a three-pointer by Wade gave San Diego State a two-point advantage. With only 10 seconds remaining, Wade was intentionally fouled and sent to the line, where he hit two free throws, giving the Aztecs a two-possession lead that led to a victory.

Wade went 11-11 from the free-throw line and Kyle Spain added 13 points in the win.

Steve Fisher

National Coach of the Year Candidate

- ▶ Has guided San Diego State to a 20-0 record, which is the best start to a season in the 90-year history of the program.
- ▶ In leading the Aztecs to a 20-0 record, San Diego State is one of two undefeated teams left in NCAA Division I (Ohio State - 21-0).
- ▶ Has led San Diego State to the second-longest active winning streak in the nation (Ohio State - 21).
- ▶ Has coached the Aztecs to the second-most victories (20) in Division I (Ohio State - 21).
- ▶ Led San Diego State to its first national ranking this season, opening at No. 25 in the preseason Associated Press Top-25 poll.
- ▶ The Aztecs have been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 every week this season, including a season-high ranking of No. 4 in the Jan. 24 poll.
- ▶ Has already coached San Diego State to its school-record sixth consecutive 20-win season.
- ▶ Has guided the Aztecs to the second-longest road winning streak in the nation (9) behind only Ohio State's 11.
- ▶ Has guided San Diego State to a perfect 11-0 road/neutral record this season, which is at least four more than any of the top-3 teams in the nation (No. 1 Ohio State - 6-0, No. 2 Pittsburgh - 6-1, No. 3 Duke - 7-1).
- ▶ Of the Aztecs' 11 road/neutral wins, seven have been true road games.
- ▶ Has coached San Diego State to a 5-0 mark in the Mountain West Conference, which is the fourth-best RPI conference according to CollegeRPI.com.
- ▶ Has SDSU with a perfect 5-0 record in conference play for the first time since 1966-67.
- ▶ Has led the Aztecs to 10 consecutive victories over Mountain West Conference foes with just three of those coming at home.
- ▶ Has guided San Diego State to 14 consecutive home wins, which is the 11th-longest in school history.

Kawhi Leonard

All-America Candidate

- ▶ Leading scorer and rebounder for No. 4 and 20-0 San Diego State.
- ▶ Is a 2010-11 Naismith Award candidate.
- ▶ Is a 2010-11 midseason top-30 candidate for the Wooden Award.
- ▶ Ranks fourth in NCAA Division I with 13 double-doubles and 13th in rebounding (10.3) through games of Jan. 23.
- ▶ Is averaging 15.7 points and 10.3 rebounds overall and 15.6 points and 12.4 rebounds in Mountain West Conference action.
- ▶ Leads the Mountain West Conference in rebounding, offensive rebounding and defensive rebounding. Ranks third in scoring, sixth in field-goal percentage, seventh in steals and seventh in minutes played.
- ▶ Leads San Diego State in scoring, rebounding and steals, ranks second in assists in minutes played and third in blocked shots.
- ▶ Has 13 double-doubles this season, which is the most on the team, and has 30 in his career, which is tied for second most in school history (Marcus Slaughter). Michael Cage owns the school record with 61.
- ▶ Has six 20-point scoring performances this year with all six coming away from home (3 road, 3 neutral). Had a season-high 23 vs. San Francisco in Las Vegas, Nev., and vs. Green Bay in Oxford, Ohio.
- ▶ Along with Malcolm Thomas (8.1), the duo is the fourth-best rebounding twosome in NCAA Division I, collecting an average of 18.4 rebounds per game (Leonard - 10.3, Thomas - 8.1).
- ▶ Has scored in double figures in 17 of 19 games this season and has 13 double-digit rebounding efforts.
- ▶ Has led the team in rebounding 14 times this season, eight times in scoring and six times in assists.
- ▶ Two-time MWC Player of the Week and CBE Classic Oxford Subregional Most Valuable Player.

D.J. Gay

Cousy Award Finalist

▶ "I've said repeatedly that D.J. Gay is our most important player and I somewhat quantified it and probably made him mad by saying he is not our best player but he is our most important player. ... He plays with no fear, no agenda and couldn't care less if he shoots it." - San Diego State Head Coach Steve Fisher

▶ Team captain and team leader in assists, three-point field goals and minutes played for the No. 4 and 20-0 San Diego State Aztecs.

▶ Is averaging 12.8 points, 2.0 rebounds and 3.2 assists overall. In Mountain West Conference games, he is averaging 15.4 points, 2.6 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

▶ Mountain West Conference ranks (league games only): first in minutes, third in assist-to-turnover average, third in three-point field goals made, tied for seventh in scoring, ninth in assists, ninth in three-point field-goal percentage

▶ Has played and started all 20 games this season and has played 195 of a possible 200 minutes in Mountain West action.

▶ Has 12 double-figure scoring performances this season.

▶ Has three 20-point scoring performances this season, the second most on the team. Is coming off two straight 20-point games for the first time of his career (30 at New Mexico, 20 vs. Air Force).

▶ Has led the team in assists 10 times this season and in scoring four times.

▶ Has six turnover-free outings and 11 games with one turnover or less.

▶ Knocked down multiple three-point field goals 12 times in 2010-11 and has made 13 of his last 22.

▶ Logged 37 or more minutes 11 times this season and has played 39 or more minutes six times, including three straight.

Steve Fisher

20th-Full Season • 12th Season at SDSU • Illinois State, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2010-11 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa until 2012-13.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament, the 2007-09 NIT, including the NIT semifinals in 2009, and the 2010 NCAA Tournament. In addition, the Aztecs have one of their deepest teams ever, which will keep SDSU competitive this season and seasons ahead.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last four seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to four additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 26 wins and an NIT semifinal berth in 2009 and a MWC tourney crown and a spot in the NAAs in 2010, and he doesn't look like he is stopping anytime soon.

Game 1

#25/- San Diego State 81
Long Beach State 65

Nov. 13, 2010 ♦ Long Beach, Calif.
Walter Pyramid ♦ Att.: 5,143

LONG BEACH, Calif. - No. 25 San Diego State went on the road and defeated Long Beach State, 81-65, to open the 2010-11 season before a Walter Pyramid-record 5,143 fans.

The Aztecs used three consecutive three-pointers from sophomore newcomer James Rahon with just over nine minutes to play in the second half to pull away from the 49ers.

San Diego State was nursing a 56-55 lead in a back-and-forth affair when Rahon caught fire. The guard knocked his first three-pointer with 9:01 left in regulation and his teammates found him on the next two trips and were rewarded with two more threes, the last of which gave the Aztecs a 65-55 cushion with 6:49 remaining.

Long Beach State tried to rally and used an 8-1 run after Rahon's third three-point field goal to cut the lead to four, but the nationally ranked Aztecs proved to be too much down the stretch and emerged with the decision.

In the first half, the 49ers raced to a 16-9 lead in the first seven minutes of the game. The Aztecs, however, hung around and eventually took an eight-point lead with 3:51 left before the half. Then in the final two minutes, LBSU closed the half on a 7-0 run and forced the Aztecs into three missed three-point field goals and a turnover as the frame ended in a 42-42 tie.

Kawhi Leonard led all players with 21 points and 12 rebounds, all of which came in the second half. In comparison, the 49ers only had 16 rebounds themselves in the second period. D.J. Gay added 20 points, while Rahon finished with 14 points off the bench. Malcolm Thomas ended with 10 boards and a career-high matching six assists.

Game 2

#25/- San Diego State 79
#11/12 Gonzaga 76

Nov. 16, 2010 ♦ Spokane, Wash.
McCarthy Athletic Center ♦ Att.: 6,000

SPOKANE, Wash. - No. 25 San Diego State used a career-high 30-point effort from Billy White and trailed for only a 14-second stretch early in the second half to defeat 11th/12th-ranked Gonzaga at the McCarthy Athletic Center.

The Aztecs became just the fifth team to defeat the Bulldogs in 82 games at "The Kennel." The victory snapped a 33-game road losing streak to teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 and marked the highest ranked team the Aztecs have defeated on the road.

San Diego State scored the first basket of the night and was able to keep the Zags at arm's length for much of the first half. The Aztec lead swelled to 10 with 6:20 remaining in the half, but the Bulldogs crept to within five, 42-37, at the halftime buzzer.

A 7-0 Gonzaga run to start the second half gave the Bulldogs a brief two-point lead, but D.J. Gay answered 11 seconds later with a three to help SDSU reclaim the lead.

Minutes later, White caught fire and scored 11 straight points in a 2 minute, 51 second span to keep GU in a seven-point hole with 9:40 left in regulation.

Gonzaga, led by Steven Gray's career-high 35 points, rallied to within one point at 77-76 with 23 seconds on the clock. Following two Kawhi Leonard free throws, Gray turned the ball over and the Zags fouled Chase Tapley, who missed the front end of a bonus situation. After securing the rebound, Gray had a chance to tie the game with a halfcourt shot, but the attempt was well short and the Aztecs emerged with the decision.

Game 3

#25/- San Diego State 79
Green Bay 70

Nov. 19, 2010 ♦ Oxford, Ohio
Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 2,117

OXFORD, Ohio - San Diego State, ranked 25th in the Associated Press Top-25 poll, overcame a sluggish start and rallied to defeat Green Bay, 79-70, at the Oxford Subregional of the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic.

The Aztecs found themselves down 22 points (28-6) with 11:15 to go in the first half before emerging with the nine-point win. The rally was the largest winning comeback of the Steve Fisher era, which is in its 12th season.

Green Bay scored the first four points of the game and used a swarming defense down low to create problems for SDSU. Couple that with the fact the Phoenix hit four of seven three-pointers and went 10-of 12 from the line in the first half resulted in the Aztecs trailing by 22 early.

With a daunting task ahead of it, San Diego State continually pounded the ball inside and fought their way back into the game. At halftime, the Aztecs trailed, 38-33.

SDSU opened the second half on an 8-0 run, all of which were scored in the paint, and took a 41-38 lead and an advantage it would not relinquish.

Down the stretch, the Phoenix cut the SDSU lead to three, but the Aztecs went on a 12-5 run to enjoy its first 10-point lead of the game with 1:52 left in regulation. Green Bay got to within 76-70 with 31 seconds left, but three Kawhi Leonard free throws iced the outcome for SDSU.

Leonard led all players with 23 points and 10 rebounds and was joined in the frontcourt by Malcolm Thomas, who finished with 12 points, eight boards and three assists. Chase Tapley, meanwhile, chipped in 14 points and three assists.

Green Bay was led by Rahmon Fletcher's 18 points.

Game 4

#25/- San Diego State 61
IUPUI 46

Nov. 21, 2010 ♦ Oxford, Ohio
Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 1,863

OXFORD, Ohio - No. 25 San Diego State overcame a slow start for a second straight game, used a suffocating defense in the second half and ultimately erased a seven-point deficit to defeat IUPUI, 61-46, in the Oxford Subregional of the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic.

The Aztecs fell behind, 11-4, in the first five minutes of the game and chipped away at the Jaguar lead before finally taking a 20-19 lead with 3:50 left in the opening half. IUPUI, however, scored the last three points of the half and carried a 23-20 lead into the locker room.

The first seven minutes of the second half was a back-and-forth affair. A long-range jumper by James Rahon and a three by Rahon on consecutive possessions kickstarted the Aztecs, which led to a 15-0 run and a 48-36 lead with 9:33 remaining.

IUPUI cut the SDSU lead to eight points with 7:31 left on the clock, but eight straight points by Billy White and two three-pointers from Kawhi Leonard, who made all four three-point attempts in the second half, helped the Aztecs run away with the 15-point win.

Leonard finished with a game-high 20 points and 10 rebounds to post his fourth double-double in as many games this season. The sophomore, who entered the game 0-for-6 from three-point distance for the season, went 4-for-5 from behind the arc. The four threes were a career best. White, meanwhile, recorded 14 points and six rebounds. Chase Tapley added nine points and a career-high tying four steals.

Alex Young and Mitchell Patton led IUPUI with 12 points apiece.

Game 5

#18/22 San Diego State 77
Miami (Ohio) 56

Nov. 22, 2010 ♦ Oxford, Ohio
Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 1,858

OXFORD, Ohio - San Diego State, sporting a new No. 18 AP ranking and debuting at No. 22 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' poll for the first time in school history, used a pair of stifling runs to defeat Miami (Ohio) on its homecourt, 77-56, in the final game of the CBE Classic Oxford Subregional.

For the third time in three games, the Aztecs faced a first-half deficit, this time a 17-6 hole not even seven minutes into the contest. But like the first two games in Oxford, SDSU battled back by scoring 16 unanswered points and ultimately went on a 25-2 run to take a 39-34 lead into halftime.

After Miami (Ohio) scored the first five points of the second period to knot the score at 39, San Diego State proceeded to go on a 25-0 run to put the game out of reach. During its scoring spree, SDSU held the RedHawks off the scoreboard for 12 minutes, 35 seconds. The Aztecs' lead eventually swelled to 28 points before they settled for the 21-point victory.

D.J. Gay led all players with 19 points and four assists, while backcourt teammate James Rahon came off the bench to contribute 15 points and a career-high three steals. In the frontcourt, Kawhi Leonard had 12 points, 13 rebounds and four assists, and Malcolm Thomas added 16 points and six rebounds.

At the conclusion of the game, Thomas was named to the all-tournament team and Leonard was named the subregional's most valuable player.

Game 6

#18/22 San Diego State 88
San Diego Christian 69

Nov. 26, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,674

SAN DIEGO - Following six straight games away from Viejas Arena to start the season, San Diego State returned home and defeated San Diego Christian, 88-69, on a night the school unveiled its 2010 Mountain West Conference tournament championship banner.

The victory was the sixth straight in as many games this season for SDSU and the 16th consecutive at home vs. non-conference foes, which tied the school record.

The Aztecs struck first with a layup by Malcolm Thomas and the tone for the night was set as San Diego State never looked back and ended up scoring 60 of its 88 points in the painted area.

Despite being outscored by 40 in the paint, San Diego Christian was up to the task against the nationally ranked Aztecs. The Hawks trailed by one with 7:19 to play in the first half and were behind 29-25 as late as 5:28 remaining the opening period before SDSU closed with a 15-9 run to take a 44-34 lead at halftime.

SDCC got as close nine in the opening minutes of the second half, but San Diego State scored eight straight points in the paint to extend its lead to 17 (54-37) and cruised to victory.

Eleven Aztecs saw action and all 11 scored. Sophomore Kawhi Leonard and Chase Tapley each scored 14 points apiece to lead San Diego State, and Billy White contributed 10. The trio combined to shoot 17-27 from the floor on an evening where SDSU shot 60.3 percent from the field.

Aaron Felix led all players with 21 points and Tyler Mutton added 19 for the Hawks.

Game 7

#17/19 San Diego State 69
Saint Mary's 55

Dec. 1, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 17/19 San Diego State used a balanced offensive attack and smothering defense to defeat Saint Mary's at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs trailed 2-0 for just 23 seconds before rattling off 14 consecutive points behind three-pointers from Billy White and D.J. Gay. Saint Mary's fought back and trailed just 23-19 with seven minutes remaining in the half. SDSU, however, closed the half on a 14-5 run behind the hot shooting of Chase Tapley, who scored 10 points during the run.

After trading baskets in the early stages of the second half, San Diego State used another big scoring run to push the lead to 20 points, 55-35, with 10 minutes to go in regulation. Saint Mary's would not go down easily, as four Rob Jones three-pointers helped cut the SDSU lead to nine with 3:12 left in the contest.

Despite the SMC rally, the Aztecs had an answer for each Gael run. Gay hit a pair of tough jump shots down the stretch to help preserve the win. SDSU prevailed behind three different scoring runs where they outscored the Gaels a combined 33-0.

Chase Tapley led the Aztecs with 14 points, while Malcolm Thomas added 12 points to go with six rebounds and a career-high six blocks. Billy White and James Rahon added nine points apiece. In all, eight different Aztecs scored at least five points.

The Gaels were led by 17 points from Jones and 15 from Matthew Dellavedova, who also added five rebounds and four assists.

The capacity crowd marked the ninth sellout in the history of Viejas Arena, and second against SMC. The first came during the quarterfinals of the 2009 NIT.

Game 8

#17/19 San Diego State 83
Wichita State 69

Dec. 4, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Billy White enjoyed a near flawless evening and the No. 17/19 Aztecs defeated Wichita State, 83-69, in the second annual Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge in front of a sold-out crowd of 12,414 at Viejas Arena.

In 27 minutes, White scored a game-high 24 points on 10-of-12 shooting, four rebounds, two assists and two steals, and was a key figure in SDSU taking a commanding second-half lead.

San Diego State trailed 47-46 with just over 14 minutes remaining in regulation until White converted on a three-point play with 14:04 left. White's effort along with a stifling full-court press led to a 14-0 run in a matter of 71 seconds. White scored nine of the 14 and suddenly the Aztecs found themselves ahead, 60-47.

Down the stretch, the Shockers peppered SDSU with a healthy dose of three-pointers and shot their way back into game. Wichita State cut its deficit to nine with 8:15 to go, got to within eight at 75-67 as a result of a Graham Hatch three and eventually found itself down, 76-69, with 1:48 left in regulation. But as the Aztecs had done all game, they answered the call, this time in the form of a game-closing 7-0 run to continue their best start to a season in the 90-year history of the program.

Joining White in double figures was Kawhi Leonard (16 points, 12 rebounds, 5 assists), D.J. Gay (14 points, 6 assists) and Malcolm Thomas (12 points, 4 blocks).

David Kyles led Wichita State, which went 9-from-18 from beyond the arc, with 18 points (4-5 3FG).

Game 9

#14/15 San Diego State 77
California 57

Dec. 8, 2010 ♦ Berkeley, Calif.
Haas Pavilion ♦ Att.: 9,426

BERKELEY, Calif. - No. 14/15 San Diego State turned a two-point game at halftime into a 20-point blowout and the Aztecs beat California on the road, 77-57.

The victory snapped a 20-game road losing streak to Pac-10 opponents and stopped a 19-game losing skid at Power-6 league schools. The decision also gave SDSU its first 9-0 start in 90 years of basketball.

San Diego State held the Golden Bears to a pair of free throws over a 9-minute, 18-second stretch before Harper Kamp scored to halt the Aztecs' 10-2 run. After Kamp's bucket, however, SDSU only led 22-18.

The Aztecs led, 28-20, with 2:26 left in the first period, but Cal closed the half on a 6-0 run to trail, 28-26, at intermission.

The Bears, in the second half, cut the SDSU lead to 43-42 with 13:39 remaining, but consecutive three-pointers by D.J. Gay gave the visitors a 49-42 advantage. Gay's two threes spurred a 15-2 run and gave San Diego State a 58-44 lead.

The Aztecs used a full-court press and a stifling defense in the halfcourt to force California into taking bad shots and to create turnovers, which led to easy buckets as SDSU's lead swelled to 21 before it settled for the 20-point win.

Kawhi Leonard led all players with 20 points and James Rahon scored 11 of his 15 in the first half. Gay, meanwhile, scored all of his 14 in the second half and Billy White added 10 points and four assists. Malcolm Thomas shared team-high honors with White as he finished with four assists as well.

Game 10

#14/15 San Diego State 77
San Diego 49

Dec. 11, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Playing in front of its first-ever third straight sellout at Viejas Arena, No. 14/15 San Diego State claimed its fifth consecutive city championship after defeating cross-town foe San Diego, 77-49.

The Toreros, who came into the game with a 1-7 record, were not intimidated by the undefeated and nationally ranked Aztecs and owned a 25-18 lead following a Darian Norris three-pointer with 5:39 left in the first half. SDSU, however, closed the first half with a 16-3 run to take a six-point lead into the locker room.

With the Aztecs holding a 34-28 lead as the second period began, they continued what they started and opened with a 14-2 spurt. All told, San Diego State put together a 30-5 run to jump out to a 48-30 lead before USD scored with 13:10 left in the regulation.

From there, SDSU continued its dominating second-half play, something it has done all season, and watched its lead grow into the 20s before moving ahead by 30 with 34 seconds left in the contest.

Malcolm Thomas led all players with 20 points behind the strength of a career-high eight free throws and 6-of-8 shooting from the field. D.J. Gay, who made four three-pointers at California, added another four en route to 16 points and four assists. Kawhi Leonard, meanwhile, picked up another double-double with 13 points and a season-high-tying 13 rebounds.

Game 11

#11/10 San Diego State 51
Cal Poly 45

Dec. 13, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 7,971

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State, ranked No. 11 in the Associated Press poll and No. 10 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll, held off a late Cal Poly run to escape with a 51-45 victory to keep its season-opening 11-game winning streak intact.

Prior to the game, SDSU found out sophomore starters Kawhi Leonard and Chase Tapley were unable to play due to flu-like symptoms. Taking their place in the lineup were sophomore James Rahon and freshman LaBradford Franklin.

Both teams were dreadful from the field in the first half. The Aztecs finished the half shooting 33.3 percent (7-for-21), including 0-of-9 from beyond the arc. SDSU, however, forced the Mustangs into a 5-for-27 shooting exhibition (18.5 percent) and took a 16-15 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs found their rhythm in the second half and opened with a 13-2 run to jump out to a 29-17 lead. Cal Poly ended the streak with a three with just under 11 minutes to play to get within 29-20.

The Mustangs hung around and managed to make the contest a two-possession game multiple times in the last five minutes, but D.J. Gay made eight straight free throws in the final 38 seconds to secure the victory.

At the final horn, San Diego State limited Cal Poly to just 29.2 percent shooting and was plus-13 in the rebounding category.

Malcolm Thomas led the way for the Aztecs with 18 points, 15 rebounds and five blocks. Rahon, meanwhile, scored 14 points in his first career SDSU start. Between the pair, they accounted for 13 of San Diego State's 16 total field goals. Gay, who went 1-for-11 from the field, finished with 10 points.

Game 12

#11/10 San Diego State 90
UC Santa Barbara 64

Dec. 18, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 11/10 San Diego State shot a blistering 69.0 percent from the field, including 61.5 percent from beyond the arc, in the first half to overwhelm UC Santa Barbara and cruise to a 90-64 victory in front of 12,414 fans - the fourth sellout of the season at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs held a slim 15-13 lead with 12 minutes, 15 seconds left in the first half and then SDSU used precise shooting and a lock-down defense to take control. In the final 7:45, San Diego State outscored UCSB, 42-16, and carried a 57-29 lead into the halftime break. During the first-half-closing run, SDSU used a 10-2 run to break the game open and a 17-1 spurt, including 15 unanswered points, to put an end to the first 20 minutes. At this point, San Diego State had three players score in double figures and five with at least eight points.

In the second half, UC Santa Barbara never got closer than 21 points and the Aztecs were well on their way to a 12-0 record - their best start to a season in 90 seasons of basketball on Montezuma Mesa.

Six Aztecs scored in double figures, including Malcolm Thomas, who connected on his first six field-goal attempts and finished with a game-high 18 points and 10 rebounds. Guards D.J. Gay and Chase Tapley each scored 12 points apiece on the strength of four three-pointers. Billy White and Brian Carlwell, meanwhile, both contributed 11 points and Kawhi Leonard posted 13 points and seven rebounds.

Game 13

#7/7 San Diego State 62
San Francisco 56

Dec. 21, 2010 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
South Point Arena ♦ Att.: 1,202

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - No. 7/7 San Diego State defeated San Francisco, 62-56, at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic to improve to 13-0 on the season.

With the victory, the Aztecs equaled the longest winning streak in school history, continued the best start to a season in program history and won its seventh straight road/neutral outing to establish a new school record.

SDSU, which was not sharp, committed 15 turnovers and was outrebounded, 32-30.

Despite not being on its game, San Diego State looked as if it was going to have an easy time with the Dons as evidenced by its 14-5 lead with 11:46 left in the first half. USF, however, outscored the Aztecs by nine as the half came to a close and went into the break tied at 31 following an Angelo Caloiaro three at the buzzer.

In the second half, the game remained close and San Francisco held a 43-41 lead with under eight minutes to play. The contest was tied for the 13th time with 5:29 left on the clock before Kawhi Leonard broke the 48-all tie to help SDSU pull away and record the six-point win.

Leonard connected on a career-high 10 field goals, two of which came from behind the arc, en route to a season-high-tying 23 points and season-best 14 rebounds. D.J. Gay added 14 points and three assists, and Malcolm Thomas chipped in 10 points and three blocks in a winning effort.

Michael Williams, who had 14 points in the first half, finished with 16. Caloiaro and Perris Blackwell, meanwhile, contributed 14 points apiece.

Game 14

#7/7 San Diego State 56
IUPUI 54

Dec. 22, 2010 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
South Point Arena ♦ Att.: 1,095

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - In its final game before the Christmas break, No. 7/7 San Diego State held on to defeat IUPUI, 56-54, at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic.

The Aztecs, who were meeting the Jaguars for a second time on a neutral court this season, went on a 13-0 run early in the second half to pull away. IUPUI, however, gave up just nine points in the final seven-plus minutes and held SDSU scoreless in the final 5 minutes, 55 seconds, but came up short in the end.

Alex Young stopped the San Diego State 13-0 run, which led to eight unanswered IUPUI points to bring the Jaguars to within five points. After Tim Shelton's back-to-back baskets, SDSU enjoyed a 56-46 lead. But down the stretch, IUPUI slowly chipped away and were threatening to hand the Aztecs their first loss of the season.

Similar to San Diego State, IUPUI was not an offensive juggernaut itself in the final 5:55, scoring just three field goals and going 2-for-4 from the free throw line. The missed free throws proved costly in the end, but the Jaguars had its chance to tie the score with under 20 seconds remaining. Young, who finished with a game-high 19 points, could have won the game with a three-pointer, but took a contested jumper that was off the mark and the Aztecs gathered the rebound and escaped with the two-point win.

For the first time in 2010-11, San Diego State was outshot from the field, 47.7 percent to 46.9 and was outrebounded for the third straight game, 28-23. The Aztecs did, however, force IUPUI into committing 16 turnovers.

D.J. Gay led the Aztecs, who trailed 29-27 at halftime, with 18 points. Malcolm Thomas added 12.

Game 15

#7/7 San Diego State 93
Occidental 50

Dec. 31, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 7/7 San Diego State had 10 players see the court and all 10 scored as the Aztecs defeated Division III Occidental, 93-50, to wrap up their non-conference schedule with a perfect 15-0 record.

SDSU's school-record 15th consecutive victory was played before 12,414 fans, marking the fifth sellout in seven home dates this season for the home team.

The Aztecs took a 2-0 lead in the first 16 seconds of the game after two Malcolm Thomas free throws and never looked back en route to San Diego State's third wire-to-wire win of the campaign.

At halftime, SDSU owned a 42-24 lead and its size was apparent as it held an 18-6 edge in points in the paint and a 15-0 advantage in second-chance points. After 20 minutes of action, eight of 10 Aztecs scored, including James Rahon, who knocked down two three-pointers in eight minutes after going scoreless in the two previous games in Las Vegas.

In the second half, San Diego State continued its dominance and was nearly perfect from the field. The Aztecs were successful on 21 of their 24 field-goal attempts, which helped them enjoy a 47-point lead late in the game and score a season-high 93 points.

Rahon, who made a career-best five three-pointers, and Chase Tapley led the Aztecs with 15 points apiece. Kawhi Leonard added 14 points and 10 rebounds, and Thomas scored 14 after going 6-for-6 from the free-throw line.

Game 16

#6/6 San Diego State 66
TCU 53

Jan. 5, 2011 ♦ Fort Worth, Texas
Daniel-Meyer Coliseum ♦ Att.: 4,287

FORT WORTH, Texas - No. 6 San Diego State overcame two early fouls assessed to super sophomore Kawhi Leonard and a somewhat sluggish start, to defeat TCU on the road, 66-53, to open Mountain West Conference play.

Leonard picked up two fouls in the first 1:19, which sent him to the bench. Playing without their leading scorer and rebounder, the Aztecs found it difficult to do what he does best as they shot only 40.6 percent from the field and were outrebounded, 22-20, with eight of TCU's 22 boards coming on the offensive side in the first 20 minutes.

The Horned Frogs controlled the game for much of the first half, thanks to the aforementioned figures, leading by as many as six (25-19) with 3:14 to go in the half. James Rahon, who replaced Leonard in the lineup, however, knocked down consecutive three-pointers, which helped SDSU close the half on a 10-1 run and enjoy a three-point lead at halftime.

Coming out of the break, the Aztecs continued where they left off, rattling off a 20-5 run to open the second half. The combined 30-6 run gave San Diego State a 16-point lead, which eventually swelled to 19, and the visitors cruised to their 16th consecutive victory.

Malcolm Thomas led the Aztecs with 18 points and 10 rebounds and Leonard added 14 points and 11 boards. Chase Tapley chipped in with 12 points and four assists, while backcourt teammate D.J. Gay dished out a game-high six assists. Leading the SDSU reserves was Brian Carlwell, who had eight points and a career-high six rebounds in just nine minutes of action.

Garlon Green led TCU with 13 points.

Game 17

#6/6 San Diego State 71
Utah 62

Jan. 8, 2011 ♦ Salt Lake City, Utah
Huntsman Center ♦ Att.: 8,571

SALT LAKE CITY - San Diego State senior guard D.J. Gay caught fire in the second half and starting frontcourt teammates Malcolm Thomas and Kawhi Leonard combined for 37 points and 23 rebounds as the No. 6 Aztecs defeated Utah, 71-62, at Huntsman Center.

The victory was SDSU's 17th straight to open the season and marked the third straight win over Utah, a first in the history of the program.

Gay, who went 1-for-5 from the field, 0-for-4 from beyond the arc and 1-for-4 from the free-throw line in the first half, was stellar for SDSU in the second period, which trailed, 34-33, at halftime.

With the Utes ahead by one, Leonard nailed a jumper and then Gay knocked down two straight three-pointers in a span of eight seconds to help the Aztecs create a seven-point lead.

SDSU's lead ballooned to nine, but Utah fought back and got to within one only to have Leonard convert a layup and have Gay go three-pointer, jumper and three-pointer. After four straight buckets, the Aztecs were up 67-56 with 5:52 left in regulation and went on to post a 2-0 record in league play.

Gay finished with 15 points in the second half alone, connecting on 4-of-6 three-pointers, en route to 18 points for the game. Leonard, meanwhile, led San Diego State with 20 points and grabbed nine rebounds. Malcolm Thomas enjoyed a fine performance as he turned in 17 points and a game-high 14 rebounds to post his second straight double-double.

Utah was led by a pair of newcomers in Josh Watkins and Will Clyburn. The former scored a game-high 24 points, while the latter scored 17 and collected 10 rebounds.

Game 18

#6/6 San Diego State 55
UNLV 49

Jan. 12, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 6 San Diego State returned home for the first time in 2011 and defeated UNLV, 55-49, at a soldout Viejas Arena.

The crowd of 12,414, which marked the sixth sell-out of the season, saw the Aztecs improve to 3-0 in Mountain West Conference action for just the second time in the 12-year history of the league and win their 18th straight game. The 18-game unbeaten streak, at game's end, represented the longest active winning streak in the nation.

SDSU was able to extend its season-opening winning streak to 18 thanks to defense and rebounding. The Aztecs limited UNLV to 36.1-percent shooting from the field, 5.6 percent (1-18) from three-point range, and outrebounded the Runnin' Rebels, 42-31. In fact, Kawhi Leonard (season-high 17 rebounds) and Malcolm Thomas (career-high 16 boards) outrebounded UNLV by themselves, 33-31.

Entering the second half with a 28-26 lead, San Diego State outscored the Runnin' Rebels, 16-6, in the first 8:06 of the period to take a 44-32 lead. UNLV, however, kept within striking distance and on many occasions, had open looks to make it a one-possession game, but couldn't convert down the stretch as the Aztecs went on to post the victory.

Leonard finished with a game-high 15 points and four assists to go along with his 17 rebounds, while Malcolm Thomas added 14 points. The frontcourt duo became the first players in SDSU history to finish with 15 or more rebounds in the same game.

Also scoring in double figures for San Diego State was Billy White, who had 10, including six on a career-high two three-pointers.

Anthony Marshall led the Rebels with 11 points and Oscar Bellfield chipped in with 10 points and four assists.

Game 19

#6/6 San Diego State 87
New Mexico 77

Jan. 15, 2011 ♦ Albuquerque, N.M.
The Pit ♦ Att.: 15,411

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - No. 6 San Diego State continued its unbeaten run with a rare victory at New Mexico and The Pit. The Aztecs won their 19th straight game to open the season with an 87-77 decision over the Lobos.

With the victory, SDSU snapped New Mexico's 16-game home winning streak and improved for 4-2 in its last six trips to the venue. The rest of the nation, meanwhile, was just 9-75 vs. the Lobos inside The Pit at game's end.

San Diego State led 2-0 to open the game, but fell behind shortly thereafter and trailed by as many as seven in the first eight-plus minutes. The Aztecs, however, responded by going on a 12-0 run, which included two three-pointers by Chase Tapley and a three from sophomore classmate Kawhi Leonard, to take a five-point lead.

With under 2:15 to go in the first half, D.J. Gay made three straight three-point field goals, the last of which came from beyond midcourt ahead of the buzzer to give the Aztecs a 37-29 lead at intermission.

SDSU's opening possession ended much like the first half as Gay hit another three to open up an 11-point cushion. Then just before the first media timeout of the second half, the Aztecs went on a devastating 19-6 run to go up by 18 with 10:58 left and never looked back.

Gay finished with a game-high 30 points on the strength of a career-high seven three-pointers and four assists. Leonard, meanwhile, continued his stellar play by scoring 19 points, grabbing a game-high 15 rebounds and dishing out four assists. Tapley added a season-high 15 points.

Game 20

#6/6 San Diego State 68
Air Force 55

Jan. 19, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Behind another stellar performance from senior guard D.J. Gay, No. 6 San Diego State defeated Air Force, 68-55, in front of a sellout Viejas Arena crowd. With the victory, the Aztecs became the first team to reach 20 wins and improved to 20-0 in the process.

Gay, who torched New Mexico in his last outing with 30 points and seven three-point field goals, followed that performance with a team-high 20 points thanks to another six three-pointers. His effort marked the first time the guard has scored 20 or more points in consecutive games in his career.

The Aztecs grinded through a first half which saw Air Force enjoy a 28-22 lead as late as 3:18 before halftime. SDSU, however, responded by outscoring the Falcons, 12-3, which included two three-point field goals by Gay, in the final 2:53 to take a 34-30 lead at the mid-game break.

San Diego State opened the second half with a Malcolm Thomas layup to record its 11th straight point and open up a six-point lead. The Aztecs would increase their lead to 10 with 11:40 to play, but consecutive Falcon three-pointers trimmed the SDSU lead to four.

With the game hanging in the balance, the Aztecs went on a crippling 13-3 run keyed by two straight Billy White threes and 10 points overall, which gave the home squad a comfortable 14-point lead and eventually the victory.

White finished the game with 12 points and Kawhi Leonard posted another double-double, this time going for 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Air Force was led by Tom Fow, who scored a game-high 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting, including a 4-for-6 performance from beyond the arc.
