Aztec Basketball Opens 2010-11 Season With No. 16/15 UCLA Friday Night

The San Diego State women's basketball team will have no time to ease into its 2010-11 campaign, as the Aztecs play host to the No. 16/15 UCLA Bruins on Friday at Viejas Arena for both teams' season-openers. Tip time is slated for 7 p.m., with the contest being televised live on The Mtn. with Tracy Warren and Andrea Lloyd calling the action.

SDSU and UCLA are playing each other for the first time since the 1999 campaign and the 26th time overall. This could be the Aztecs' first of three potential meetings with schools out of the Pac-10 Conference in the next two months, as they could face USC on Dec. 19, followed by a home game against Washington State on Dec. 21.

The Aztecs are coming off one of the program's most successful seasons ever, going 23-11 overall, winning the school's first MWC tournament championship and advancing to their first NCAA Sweet Sixteen since the field was expanded to 64 teams.

SDSU returns a trio of starters from that team, with all three being seniors, and six letterwinners overall. The Aztecs have been picked to finish second in the Mountain West Conference preseason poll in 2011, and for the second year in a row, are receiving votes in both national top-25 preseason polls.

Friday night's game with the Bruins will also feature a live audio feed with Josh Hoffman, as well as live stats, on goaztecs.com.

Last Time Out: SDSU Easily Downs UC San Diego In 86-43 Exhibition Game Victory

The San Diego State women's basketball team hit its first eight shots from the field to open a 19-6 lead and never looked back, easily handling visiting UC San Diego, 86-43, on Nov. 4, at Viejas Arena in its first and only exhibition contest of the 2010-11 season.

Aztec senior forward Jessika Bradley (Sacramento, Calif.) recorded a triple-double with 12 points, 10 rebounds and 10 blocked shots in only 23 minutes of action. Senior Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.), who was 7-for-7 from the field, and sophomore Courtney Clements (Long Beach, Calif.), who saw her first court time in an SDSU uniform, tied for the team lead in points with 14 apiece. Senior guard Coco Davis (Sacramento, Calif.) also contributed a double-double with 10 assists and 12 points, while all 11 Aztecs to see action scored at least a bucket.

After the two sides traded field goals to open the evening, SDSU used its dominance in the paint to rattle off eight consecutive points in a span of less than two minutes, before pushing its lead up to 13 on three consecutive triples by Clements and sophomore Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.).

The Aztec advantage moved out to 19 points, but the Tritons kept it to within 15 points on three occasions, including with 2:37 left in the first half. SDSU, however, went on a 10-4 run and went into the locker room up 47-26.

The lead would eventually get into the 30s at the 11:22 mark of the second half at 66-36 on a free throw by Davis and ended up settling at 43 points at 86-43 at the end of the game.

SDSU shot 57.8 percent from the field, including a 67.9 mark in the first half, and owned a plus-18 advantage on the glass. The Aztecs had 22 assists, 17 blocked shots and 12 steals on the night.

For Openers

San Diego State is beginning its season at home for the second time in the last three years and the sixth time in the last decade.

The Nov. 12 tip-off is the second-earliest opener in program history, with the earliest being a Nov. 11 game at Nevada in 2007. Overall, the Aztecs boast a 5-2 record when they have started a season prior to Nov. 15.

SDSU is 19-15 all-time in season-openers since the program's inception in 1976-77, and have won three straight. The Aztecs are an amazing 27-7 in home openers and are beginning a campaign in California for the 22nd time.

San Diego State has played a current member of the Pac-10 Conference its first time out in a season only once previously, downing Oregon State, 63-56, at home on Nov. 16, 1997.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over the UCLA will mean:

► SDSU has won its fourth straight season opener and its fourth consecutive home opener.

► SDSU improves to 6-7 vs. teams ranked in the AP top 25 over the last three seasons and has won two in row on its home floor.

► SDSU improves to 7-19 all-time against the Bruins and is 50-70 vs. current members of the Pac-10.

► SDSU wins its fifth-straight regular season non-conference outing.

UCLA Tid-Bits

The Bruins return four starters from their 2009-10 team that went 25-9 overall and 15-3 in league action under third-year head coach Nikki Caldwell ... UCLA advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament, defeating NC State, before falling to Nebraska ... The Bruins placed second in the Pac-10 Conference and were their league tournament runners-up behind Stanford ... UCLA returns six of its top seven scorers and all three of its top rebounders from a year ago ... Junior forward Jasmine Dixon, a former Rutgers transfer, averaged a team-high 15.3 points and 8.0 rebounds a contest in 2009-10, and is currently on the preseason watch list for both the Wade Trophy and Naismith Award ... Senior Doreena Campbell was a first-team all-league pick in 2010, while sophomore Markel Walker was second in scoring with 10.8 ppg. ... The Bruins traveled to Viejas Arena a year ago to participate in the JHG Jam, however, they did not face the Aztecs, defeating Utah instead, 69-33, on Nov. 21, in the second half of a doubleheader.

SDSU-UCLA Series Notes

- The two schools played one another at least twice a year from 1977 to 1986, as both were members of the Western Collegiate Conference and later the Big West.

- UCLA dominated the earlier part of the series, winning 14 of the first 15 meetings. SDSU, however, has won five of the last 10 contests.

- Four of the Aztecs' six victories over the Bruins have come in San Diego.

- Beth Burns faced UCLA twice in her first stint as the Aztecs' head coach, going 1-1 from 1991-92, with the visiting team coming out ahead in both contests.

Preseason Points

The reigning MWC champion San Diego State women's basketball team were picked to finish second in the league in 2011 in a vote by the nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 13, at the conference's annual media day in Denver, Colo.

The Aztecs received three first-place votes and 147 points overall, trailing only TCU, which had 16 first-place votes (174 points). SDSU, which has been picked first or second each of the last three years, just edged out Brigham Young for second place, as the Cougars had 145 points and garnered the other two first-place votes. Utah was picked fourth, followed by Wyoming, New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State and Air Force.

San Diego State has posted its two highest finishes in conference history the last two seasons, tying with Utah for first place in 2009, and for third place in 2010.

Aztec Individual Accolades

Aztec senior center Paris Johnson was tabbed to the five-member preseason all-league squad for the third straight year at the MWC's annual media day last month. In addition, sophomore guard Courtney Clements, who redshirted a year ago after transferring from Arizona, was picked as the MWC's newcomer of the year and guard Melissa Sweat (Bakersfield, Calif.) was chosen preseason freshman of the year.

Clements is the second SDSU player in a row to pick up the MWC's preseason newcomer of the year distinction, as senior Jessica Bradley was honored and went on to win the award last March.

Sweat, meanwhile, is the second Aztec on the current roster to earn the league's preseason freshman-of-the-year award, joining Johnson, who was honored in 2007.

Poll Watching

For the second consecutive season, San Diego State is receiving votes in both national preseason top-25 polls. The Aztecs garnered the 34th-most votes (22 total) in the USA Today ESPN coaches edition, while they had the 37th-most votes (8 total) in the Associated Press Top 25.

SDSU earned votes in the coaches' poll eight times in 2009-10, including on Nov. 23, when it reached the No. 24 slot. The Aztecs finished the campaign at No. 20, the first time they had been ranked in the coaches' poll to end a season since it began in 1986.

The team also broke through in the AP poll a year ago, earning its first top-25 ranking (23rd on Nov. 23) since March 1995, when the team ended up 22nd following a 24-6 campaign.

SDSU is joined by TCU as the only two Mountain West Conference schools to receive votes in either poll thus far in 2010-11.

Ranked Foes

Over the last two seasons, San Diego State has played 12 contests against teams ranked in the Associated Press top 25 at the time of the game.

After falling to No. 1 UConn and No. 25 Iowa State at the outset of the 2008-09 campaign, the Aztecs shocked then unbeaten and No. 4 Texas, 60-55, in San Diego on Dec. 30, 2008. The victory was the program's first over a ranked foe in 17 tries and first overall since 1994.

Since then, the Aztecs have notched top-25 wins over No. 23 New Mexico (57-52), No. 23 TCU (84-61), No. 17 Texas (74-63) and No. 10 West Virginia (64-55). Four of SDSU's seven losses vs. ranked opponents during the last two years have come against schools rated in the top six overall.

Strength Of Schedule

In 2010-11, SDSU has potentially seven regular-season games against teams receiving votes in the AP preseason poll, including a match-up with No. 16 UCLA to open the campaign on Nov. 12, in San Diego. Besides No. 23 TCU, who the Aztecs play twice, No. 8 Texas A&M (Dec. 30), North Carolina State (Nov. 27), Dayton (Dec. 18) and USC (Dec. 19) are all ranked or receiving votes..

Home Sweet Home

San Diego State finished its regular-season home campaign with a 12-2 record in 2009-10. Combined with the 2008-09 squad that went 15-1, the Aztecs recorded back-to-back campaigns with double-digit wins at home for the first time since the 1996-97 squad went 11-2 and the 1995-96 team was 13-0.

SDSU actually has more than 10 wins at home in three of the last four seasons, as the squad went 11-5 in 2006-07.

Overall, the Aztecs have claimed 27 of their last 30 home games, entering the opener with UCLA.

Sisters of Blocks & Boards

One of San Diego State's biggest strengths this season will most obviously be in the paint, where seniors Jessika Bradley and Paris Johnson return. The duo ranked one-two on the team in both rebounding and blocked shots in 2009-10.

Johnson needs just 42 blocks this year to become the school's all-time career leader, surpassing current record-holder Michelle Suman, who had 251 from 1992-95. Johnson is also eighth in the SDSU record book in career rebounds with 679, and is one of only five Aztecs to post 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks in their careers.

After only one season in the Red & Black, Bradley needs just eight more blocks to enter the SDSU top 10, after posting a squad-best 63 as a junior.

In 2009-10, they helped the Aztecs rank 18th nationally in blocked shots per game (5.4) and moved from 263rd (-3.3) to 109th in rebounding margin (+2.0).

Other Things To Watch For In 2010-11

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in Aztec basketball history, here are a few other things to look for in 2010-11:

- SDSU is scheduled to play the program's 1,000th game on Nov. 26, when the Aztecs take on Minnesota in Reno, Nev. San Diego State has an all-time record of 528-468.

- SDSU senior center Paris Johnson has started all 97 career contests since coming to Montezuma Mesa in 2007-08. She needs to start the next 26 outings to beat the school record for consecutive starts of 122, set a year ago by Quenese Davis.

- The Aztecs have 34 Mountain West Conference wins in the last four seasons after having only 19 in the league's first seven years.

- SDSU has advanced to the final of the Mountain West Conference Championships three years in a row, after not winning a single game in the MWC tournament's first eight years of existence.

Back Again

San Diego State returns three starters, including senior center Paris Johnson, senior forward Jessika Bradley and senior guard Coco Davis. Three other letterwinners also are back in juniors Candace Chambers (Seattle, Wash.) and Kalena Tutt (Long Beach, Calif.) and sophomore Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.), who redshirted a year ago after lettering in 2008-09.

Noting The Newcomers

Of the 13 student-athletes on this year's roster, eight players did not compete for a full season with the Aztecs in 2009-10.

Four of the eight were on campus, but sophomores Courtney Clements (Long Beach, Calif.) and Malia Nahinu (Hayward, Calif.) both had to sit out a year after transferring from Arizona. Gabrielle Clark and Kiyana

Stamps (Moreno Valley, Calif.), meanwhile, each tore an ACL either before the season began (Clark) or less than two games into the campaign (Stamps), and utilized their medical redshirt year.

Two players, guards Chelsea Hopkins (Las Vegas, Nev.) and Sajoyia Griffin (San Antonio, Texas), came from Duke and South Plains College, respectively, while guard Melissa Sweat and forward Jasmine Porter (Layton, Utah) are true freshmen.

Overall, five players account for 341 of the 366 total career games played (93.2 percent) in an Aztec uniform by the entire SDSU 2010-11 roster.

Best In The MWC

San Diego State women's basketball's 2009-10 recruiting class was rated best in the Mountain West Conference and 31st nationally, according to Espn.com's HoopGurlz national rankings, which are based solely on high school prospect signings.

The Aztecs were easily the top ranked school among Mountain West Conference members, as TCU is the only other team listed in the top 60 at No. 51. San Diego State's recruiting class is rated higher than several notable programs including Virginia (No. 40), Purdue (No. 41), Rutgers (No. 47), UCLA (No. 56), Nebraska (NR) and North Carolina (NR).

Current SDSU freshmen Jasmine Porter was ranked by HoopGurlz as the 17th-best prospect nationally at forward in 2009-10, while Melissa Sweat was the No. 20 rated guard.

Hopkins Join The Aztecs

San Diego State women's basketball head coach Beth Burns announced in early July that Chelsea Hopkins transferred to the Aztecs from Duke University. Hopkins, a 5-8 point guard, has two years of eligibility remaining and will be able to play for SDSU beginning with the 2011-12 season.

Hopkins appeared in 46 contests for the Blue Devils from 2008-10, helping the team to a pair of NCAA tournament appearances, including a trip to the Elite Eight this past year, and a combined record of 57-12.

Hopkins signed with Duke after a successful four-year career at Mojave High School in Las Vegas, where she led the state in scoring as a junior (27.7 ppg.) and senior (28.5 ppg.). The 2006 and 2008 Las Vegas Athletic Club Female Athlete of the Year was a two-time first-team all-state and three-time all-conference honoree. Her freshman season she was named the state of Nevada's Gatorade Newcomer of the Year.

As a prep, Hopkins was rated the 63rd-best player in America and the No. 12 point guard by Hoopgurlz.com, and played during the summer for coach Brian Crichlow's West Coast Premier Black club team, alongside current Aztec guard Kiyana Stamps.

Hopkins has also excelled in the classroom, earning a spot on the Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll and in high school, boasted a 4.7 GPA and was her class salutatorian and treasurer.

The Welcome Mat

Aztec head coach Beth Burns added two new members to her staff over the summer, while a third took on a new role.

Burns announced the hiring of Mark Trakh as associate head coach in mid-June. Trakh (pronounced TRACK) has nearly 30 years of head coaching experience, most recently serving as the head coach at USC from 2004-09, where he compiled a 90-64 overall record and earned two trips to the NCAA tournament.

The Long Beach State graduate took the job at USC after a highly successful 11-year tenure as head coach at Pepperdine from 1993-2004. Under his direction, the Waves posted six consecutive 20-win seasons from 1997-2003, made six straight postseason appearances and claimed four West Coast Conference titles. Trakh was twice named the league's coach of the year in both 1999 and 2002, and ended his tenure with a 199-123 overall record and a 99-55 mark in the WCC.

Before entering the collegiate ranks, Trakh had a Hall of Fame career as the head girls' coach at Brea Olinda High School in Brea, Calif., from 1981-93. He helped lead the Ladycats to national prominence with a 354-45 (.887) overall record, highlighted by four state titles (1989, 1991, 1992 and 1993), six CIF Southern Section championships and 12 Orange League Crowns.

A week later, Burns announced that Jorge Cerna had been hired as an assistant coach after two seasons as the team's director of player development. Fellow SDSU graduate Mike Bynum took Cerna's spot in late August.

2009-10 Rewind

The San Diego State women's basketball team made a remarkable run in 2009-10, highlighted by its first Mountain West Conference tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Below are a few of the accomplishments of last year's team:

- ♦ Earned its first-ever final top 25 ranking in ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll (No. 20), becoming the first MWC school to do so since 2006. The No. 20 spot ties as the program's highest-ever final ranking in a national poll (No. 20 in AP in 1985).

- ♦ Earned the program's first AP top 25 regular-season ranking since 1995 (Nov. 23 - No. 23)

- ♦ Posted back-to-back seasons with at least 23 wins for the first time since 1994-95 (24) and 1993-94 (26) ... Logged the program's 13th, 20-win campaign with six of those coming under coach Beth Burns ... Had an eight-game win streak, the team's longest since 1996-97

- ♦ Recorded three wins over AP top 25 teams (No. 10 West Virginia, No. 17 Texas, No. 23 TCU) ... Eight of 11 losses were to teams advancing to the NAAs, including three vs. teams advancing to the Sweet 16

- ♦ Earned the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance (64-team bracket) and won two NCAA games in the same season for the first time in school history.

- ♦ Garnered the program's eighth NCAA tournament bid and made back-to-back NCAA appearances for the first time since 1994-95

- ♦ Was the lowest seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2007, was the first No. 11 seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2004, and the first MWC team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2006 ... Was the 12th double-digit seed all-time to advance to the Sweet 16

- ♦ Won its first MWC championship title and advanced to the third consecutive MWC championship game.

statistical highlights:

- ♦ SDSU led the MWC in field-goal percentage (44.5), three-point field-goal defense (27.0), blocked shots (5.4), offensive rebound percentage (40.7), victories (23 – tied)

- ♦ SDSU ended the year ranked eighth nationally in three-point field goal percentage defense, 18th in blocks per game, 22nd in field goal percentage and 25th in assists per game.

- ♦ The Aztecs limited 18 of its 34 opponents to under 60 points a game, including a 55-spot by No. 10 West Virginia. Eight foes scored 50 or fewer points and three didn't reach the 40-point barrier.

- ♦ Twelve of the Aztecs' 23 wins were by 19 or more points, after posting only six such victories in 2008-09.

- ♦ SDSU held opponents to three or fewer 3-pointers in a game 20 times last season, including a combined 3-for-22 mark in the NCAA First & Second Rounds.

- ♦ The Aztecs shot at least 40 percent from the field in 26 of 34 outings, topping the 45 mark on 14 occasions. The team's final season field-goal percentage of 44.5 is its best since the 1995-96 squad shot 45.6 percent.

- ♦ SDSU posted a school-record 155 three-pointers for the second season in a row and improved its team free-throw percentage from 61.2 in 2008-09 to 69.9 in 2009-10.

Award Central

The awards were aplenty for this past year's Aztec squad, as several individuals were singled out for their achievement.

Guard Jené Morris' was named an honorable mention State Farm Coaches' All-American for the second year in a row, was tabbed the 2010 MWC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season and became the first Aztec to earn first-team all-league honors twice since Jodi Nowlin-Tres in 1996-97. Morris, who was the first SDSU player to ever lead the MWC in scoring, also garnered a spot on the MWC all-defensive team and MWC championship all-tournament squad. She began the season by being named to the national watch list for both the Naismith and Wooden Awards, and the Wade Trophy.

Fellow guard Quenese Davis completed her career by picking up the MWC tournament MVP honors after averaging 18.7 points, 12 steals and a 55.6 three-point percentage over the three games. Davis was a third-team all-league pick, while junior Paris Johnson was a second-team honoree.

SDSU forward Jessika Bradley was the other big award-winner as the 2010 MWC Newcomer of the Year.

Aztec In The WNBA

Guard Jené Morris became San Diego State's first-ever WNBA Draft pick on April 8, 2010, going in the first round (11th pick overall) to the Indiana Fever. Morris, who was one of 14 players invited to the Draft announcement in Secaucus, N.J., also is the first Aztec to ever don a WNBA jersey.

The San Francisco native became the 11th player in Mountain West Conference history to be tabbed in the WNBA Draft and the fourth selected in the first round. She is the league's highest pick overall since 2006, and third highest in MWC history, trailing only Utah's Shona Thorburn (7th overall) and TCU's Sandora Irvin (3rd).

A two-time honorable mention All-American and Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year, Morris was the first Aztec to ever lead the MWC in scoring (17.1 ppg.), is the conference's all-time leader in career steals (293) and ranks third in the SDSU record book in career points with 1,499, despite only playing three seasons in the Red and Black.

She played 25 games during her rookie campaign for the Fever, before moving to Poland after the WNBA season to play professionally for CCC Polkowice.

TV Time

The Aztecs will have seven regular-season televised games in 2010-11. After the UCLA contest that will be carried by The Mtn., SDSU will have six of its' MWC regular-season games on TV, including three straight in January. In all, the Aztecs will have six games on The Mtn. and one on CBS College Sports.

Listen/Watch Live

For the 10th straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alum Chris Ello will have the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road for the fourth straight season.

Again in 2010-11, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the televised games, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Viejas Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

Burns Named To WBCA Board

This past June, San Diego State head coach Beth Burns was reelected to a three-year term on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors. She continues to serve as a Division I at-large representative on the 23-member board.

Burns had been serving a one-year term in the same position before she was elected in 2010. She is an active member of the WBCA, having previously served as a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award and being on the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 8, 2005, and enters the sixth season of her second stint with the Aztecs.

Burns took the program to new heights in 2009-10, as the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field was expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010, and lowest overall since 2007.

In the last two seasons, San Diego State has posted a combined record of 47-19, including a 27-3 mark on its home court, with Burns at the helm. The Aztecs claimed the program's first-ever MWC tournament championship in 2010, after earning a share of the regular-season crown in 2009. SDSU has made two consecutive NCAA appearances, going 2-0 in first-round games, after not earning a postseason bid in the 11 previous years.

In her first stint as Aztec head coach from 1989-97, Burns took the SDSU women's basketball program full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. During her eight seasons, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A four-time conference coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 18-year overall head coaching record of 312-220, while her school record stands at 231-155 over 12 seasons.

Earlier this fall, Burns signed a five-year contract extension to stay as SDSU's head coach through the 2014-15 campaign.
