The UNLV men's basketball team (16-8 overall, 5-7 Mountain West), winner of four of its last five games, will play its second straight road game on Saturday, Feb. 11 at No. 25/23 San Diego State. The 1 p.m. game at Viejas Arena will be televised nationally on Fox.

LAST TIME OUT: In their last game, which was Wednesday night in Laramie, the Runnin' Rebels recorded the regular-season sweep over Wyoming with a 69-59 win at the Arena-Auditorium. EJ Harkless made a season-high five 3-pointers and led all scorers with a career-high-tying 33 points, while Keshon Gilbert added 10 points for UNLV.

THIS SEASON: Harkless leads the team in scoring with 18.1 ppg (2nd in MW) and is contributing 5.1 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 1.5 steals per game (8th in MW). Gilbert is second in scoring at 12.3 ppg with a team-leading 3.6 apg (10th in MW) and 2.0 spg (2nd in MW). Luis Rodriguez is third in scoring with 11.5 ppg, while leading the team in rebounding (5.6 rpg, 10th in MW). He is second on the squad in steals (2.0 spg, 3rd in MW). David Muoka is third on the team in rebounding (4.6 rpg) and leads the squad in blocks with 1.3 bpg (4th in MW).

This season's Runnin' Rebel squad features six returners and nine newcomers, including six transfers from the Division I level. The 15-man roster is made up of 10 upperclassmen.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT: No. 25/23 San Diego State (19-5, 10-2) enters Saturday's game having won two straight games and six of its last seven. The Aztecs are coming off a 72-52 home win over Boise State on Feb. 3 and a 63-61 road win at Utah State on Wednesday. SDSU has two players averaging in double figures in scoring: Matt Bradley with 13.0 ppg and Darrion Trammell with 10.5 ppg. Nathan Mensah is the team's leading rebounder with 5.8 rpg (9th in MW), while Lamont Butler leads in steals at 1.6 spg (6th in MW) and Trammell leads in assists with 3.6 apg (8th in MW). San Diego State is 12-1 at home this season with its only loss coming to New Mexico on Jan. 14 (76-67). The Aztecs rank 23rd in the country in 3-point field-goal percentage defense (30.0). SDSU finished the 2021-22 season with an overall record of 23-9, finishing third in the MW's standings with a 13-4 league mark. SDSU lost to Creighton in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. This season's team was picked to finish first out of 11 in the MW's preseason poll with Bradley being selected to the preseason all-conference team and Trammell named Preseason Newcomer of the Year. The Aztecs' 17-man roster includes 13 upperclassmen. SDSU is coached by Brian Dutcher, who is in his sixth season at the school with a career record of 138-45 (.754).

LAST MEETING: SDSU won the first meeting earlier this season between the two teams, 76-67, in Las Vegas on Dec. 31. Luis Rodriguez scored a career- and game-high 24 points, including four 3-pointers, with a team-high-tying six rebounds, while EJ Harkless added 18 points with a season-high eight assists, and Justin Webster contributed 10 points on three 3-pointers. The Aztecs had two players score over 20 points in Matt Bradley (23) and Darrion Trammell (21). The pair was 9 of 15 on 3-pointers. Nathan Mensah had a game-high 11 rebounds.

BROADCAST INFO: Saturday's game will be televised nationally on Fox with Noah Eagle and Casey Jacobsen calling the action. Jon Sandler, former Runnin' Rebel Curtis Terry and Steve Cofield (sidelines) will handle the UNLV radio call, which may be heard live on ESPN Radio 1100 in Las Vegas. All streaming links and live stats will be available at UNLVRebels.com and through the UNLV Rebels App.

LAST SEASON: The Runnin' Rebels turned in a successful season in 2021-22, their first under head coach Kevin Kruger, winning 18 games, which marked the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West play, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the league standings. With a revamped roster that included nine transfers, the team continually improved as the season progressed, advancing 43 spots in the KenPom ratings along the way. Under Kruger's leadership, three UNLV individuals earned All-Mountain West accolades last season: Bryce Hamilton (First Team), Donovan Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) and Royce Hamm Jr. (Honorable Mention).

THE UNLV RUNNIN' REBELS (16-8, 5-7 MOUNTAIN WEST)

- The 2022-23 season marks the second as head coach for Kevin Kruger. Following the 2021-22 season, Kruger was named one of 15 finalists for the Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I men's college basketball by collegeinsider.com. An assistant for the Runnin' Rebels for the previous two seasons (2019-21), he was hired as head coach in March 2021. The point guard on UNLV's 2007 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 Team as a senior under his father, legendary coach Lon Kruger, Kevin returned to Las Vegas after spending three years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma (2016-19). During his first season at the helm of the program, Kruger led the Runnin' Rebels to 18 wins - the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West play, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the league standings. He and his staff revamped the roster with nine transfers and the team continually improved as the season progressed, advancing 43 spots in the KenPom ratings along the way.
- Under Kruger's leadership, three UNLV individuals, who are now departed, earned All-Mountain West accolades last season: Bryce Hamilton (First Team), Donovan Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) and Royce Hamm Jr. (Honorable Mention).
- This season's squad features six returners and nine newcomers, including six transfers from the Division I level.
- The lone returning starter is 6-foot guard Jordan McCabe, who was a senior last season and is in his fifth year for 2022-23. Other returners include 6-3 senior guard Justin Webster, 6-10 senior center David Muoka, 6-4 sophomore guard Keshon Gilbert, 6-7 senior forward Victor Iwuakor and 6-3 senior guard Cameron Buriat.
- The newcomers are: 6-10 redshirt sophomore forward Isaiah Cottrell, who is originally from Las Vegas but transferred to UNLV from West Virginia, 6-7 freshman guard Keyshawn Hall from Cleveland, Ohio, 6-3 fifth-year guard EJ Harkless, who transferred from Oklahoma, 5-11 sophomore guard Jackie Johnson III, who transferred from Duquesne, 6-10 junior forward Karl Jones, who transferred from LA Southwest College, 6-6 sophomore guard Shane Nowell, who transferred from Arizona, 6-4 fifth-year guard Elijah Parquet, who transferred from Colorado, 6-6 senior guard Luis Rodriguez, who transferred from Ole Miss and 6-1 junior guard Nick Walters, who transferred from the College of Southern Nevada.
- After 24 games, Harkless leads the team in scoring with 18.1 ppg (2nd in MW) and is contributing 5.1 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 1.5 steals per game (8th in MW). Gilbert is second in scoring at 12.3 ppg with a team-leading 3.6 apg (10th in MW) and 2.0 spg (2nd in MW). Rodriguez is third in scoring with 11.5 ppg, while leading the team in rebounding (5.6 rpg, 10th in MW). He is second on the squad in steals (2.0 spg, 3rd in MW). Muoka is third on the team in rebounding (4.6 rpg) and leads the squad in blocks with 1.3 bpg (4th in MW).
- This year's 15-man roster is made up of 10 upperclassmen.
- The UNLV coaching staff also includes three newcomers in assistant coaches Barret Peery, John Cooper and Jamaal Williams. Peery came to UNLV from Texas Tech, Cooper from SMU and Williams from Portland State.
- The Runnin' Rebels return six letterwinners from last season.
- UNLV was picked to finish sixth in this year's Mountain West race by a vote from select media.
- The Runnin' Rebels went 18-14 overall last season, finishing fifth in the MW standings with a 10-8 league mark.

THE NO. 25/23 SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS (19-5, 10-2 MOUNTAIN WEST)

- No. 25/23 San Diego State enters Saturday's game having won two straight games and six of its last seven. The Aztecs are coming off a 72-52 home win over Boise State on Feb. 3 and a 63-61 road win at Utah State on Wednesday.
- SDSU has two players averaging in double figures in scoring: Matt Bradley with 13.0 ppg and Darrion Trammell with 10.5 ppg. Nathan Mensah is the team's leading rebounder with 5.8 rpg (9th in MW), while Lamont Butler leads in steals at 1.6 spg (6th in MW) and Trammell leads in assists with 3.6 apg (8th in MW).
- San Diego State is 12-1 at home this season with its only loss coming to New Mexico on Jan. 14 (76-67).
- The Aztecs rank 23rd in the country in 3-point field-goal percentage defense (30.0).
- SDSU finished the 2021-22 season with an overall record of 23-9, finishing third in the MW's standings with a 13-4 league mark. SDSU lost to Creighton in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.
- This season's team was picked to finish first out of 11 in the MW's preseason poll with Bradley being selected to the preseason all-conference team and Trammell named Preseason Newcomer of the Year.
- The Aztecs' 17-man roster includes 13 upperclassmen.
- SDSU is coached by Brian Dutcher, who is in his sixth season at the school with a career record of 138-45 (.754).

SERIES HISTORY

- This will mark the mark the 79th all-time meeting between UNLV and San Diego State in men's basketball.
- SDSU leads the all-time series 41-37.
- San Diego State won this season's earlier meeting on New Year's Eve in Las Vegas, 76-67.
- SDSU has won four straight against UNLV.
- In 2019-20, the two teams split the season series with each winning on the other's home floor. The Runnin' Rebels' win at SDSU on Feb. 22, 2020, their most recent over the Aztecs, spoiled SDSU's perfect record as the then-No. 4 ranked team in the country entered the contest 26-0. It marked the highest-ranked opponent that UNLV defeated in a true road game in 29 years.
- The Runnin' Rebels are 13-18 all-time at SDSU and their win in 2020 snapped a six-game losing streak at SDSU.
- The series started back in 1966.
- UNLV is 396-210 (.653) all-time against teams that currently make up the Mountain West.

UP NEXT

After playing in San Diego on Saturday, UNLV will return home to host San Jose State on Tuesday, Feb. 14 at 7 p.m. at the Thomas & Mack Center.

2022-23 MOUNTAIN WEST STANDINGS

Through Thursday, February 9

Table with columns: (AP/USA Rank), MW Games (W, L, Pct.), All Games (W, L, Pct.). Lists teams like San Diego St., UNR, Boise State, Utah State, New Mexico, San Jose State, UNLV, Fresno State, Air Force, Colorado St., Wyoming.

UNLV'S 2023-23 RECORD WHEN IT...

Table listing various game scenarios (e.g., plays at home, leads at halftime, shoots a higher FG%) and their corresponding records.

BEST NON-CONFERENCE RECORD IN 32 YEARS

With an 11-1 non-conference record this season, UNLV lost only one game prior to conference play for the first time since the 1992-93 season.

10-0 FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 32 YEARS

UNLV's 10-0 start this season was its best since the 1990-91 squad started the year with 34 straight wins.

UNLV WAS 1 OF JUST 7 UNDEFEATED TEAMS REMAINING

With a perfect 10-0 mark to start the season, UNLV was one of just seven schools that remained undefeated in men's basketball this season heading into the Dec. 17 games.

RECEIVING VOTES IN BOTH POLLS

After defeating then-No. 21 Dayton on Nov. 15, the national media took notice of the Runnin' Rebels. UNLV was in the others receiving votes category of the Associated Press Poll that week.

TOP-25 WINS

- UNLV's win over then-No. 21 Dayton on Nov. 15 marked its first win over a ranked non-conference opponent at the Thomas & Mack Center since defeating then-No. 3 Arizona (71-67) on Dec. 23, 2014.

AMONG THE NATION'S LEADERS...

UNLV ranks No.2 in the nation in turnover margin at 6.2 and No. 4 in turnovers forced per game at 18.3. The Runnin' Rebels are also No. 9 in steals at 9.5 per game and 34th in fastbreak points (13.1).

DEFENSIVE IDENTITY

When UNLV has won this season it has been with a defense-first mindset. The Runnin' Rebels have held 10 opponents this season to 63 points or less.

14-0 WHEN LIMITING OPPONENTS TO 72 POINTS OR LESS

72 points seems to be the Runnin' Rebels' magic number. In the 14 games this season where they hold their opponent to 72 or less, they are undefeated at 14-0.

HARKLESS IS HOT

UNLV senior guard EJ Harkless leads the team in scoring this season with 18.1 ppg and has scored 27 or more in four of his last eight games, including a career-high 33 points against Colorado State on Jan. 14.

RODRIGUEZ WAS COMING ON STRONG

UNLV senior guard Luis Rodriguez, who is third on the team in scoring with 11.5 ppg, leads the team in rebounding at 5.6 rpg and is second in steals at 2.0 per game.

WHAT AN IMPROVEMENT!

UNLV sophomore guard Keshon Gilbert only averaged 2.6 ppg last season with a season-high eight points vs. Wichita State. This season, Gilbert is second on the Runnin' Rebels in scoring at 12.3 ppg with double-digit points in 17 of his 24 games.

PARQUET HAS RETURNED

UNLV senior guard Elijah Parquet has proven to be a key starter for the Runnin' Rebels. Parquet, who has averages almost 24 minutes per game, was injured in the win over Washington State on Dec. 10.

WEBSTER FROM 3-POINT RANGE IN MOUNTAIN WEST PLAY

In Mountain West play prior to the game at Colorado State on Jan. 31, UNLV senior guard Justin Webster led the league in 3-point field-goal percentage at .561 (23 of 41).

"BIG GUARD" GOT HIS CHANCE AND TOOK ADVANTAGE OF IT

UNLV freshman Keyshawn Hall, who has the nickname of "Big Guard" saw extremely limited action during non-conference play and didn't play in any of the Runnin' Rebels' first five Mountain West contests.

SHANE NOWELL GETTING AN OPPORTUNITY

UNLV sophomore guard Shane Nowell had also seen extremely limited time earlier this season, but over the last five games he has averaged 18.4 minutes per game and has scored a total of 26 points and has grabbed 15 rebounds over those five contests. In his last five games, he has made 7 of 13 from 3-point range (.538).

HARKLESS EARNS MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS THREE TIMES

UNLV senior EJ Harkless was named the Mountain West Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Nov. 21, again on Jan. 9 and again this week. It is the first three such honors for a Runnin' Rebel this season.

In wins over then-No. 21 Dayton (60-52) and High Point (78-68), Harkless led UNLV with 19.5 points per game. He also averaged 5.5 rebounds, 5.0 assists, three 3-pointers and a steal per contest. In the victory over the Flyers, UNLV's first over a ranked non-conference team on its home floor in eight years, Harkless scored a game-high 24 points on 9 of 19 shooting with six rebounds and three assists. He wrapped up the week in the win over the Panthers with 15 points, tallying seven assists.

Then, in UNLV's lone game of the week - an 84-77 road win over then-No. 21 New Mexico at the sold-out Pit - Harkless scored 21 of his season- and game-high 25 points in the second half. The victory snapped a two-game losing streak for UNLV and marked its second win over a ranked team this season. Harkless was 8 of 16 from the field against the Lobos, including 2 of 5 on 3-pointers, while making all seven of his free-throw attempts. The Lobos entered the game undefeated on their home floor. Harkless also contributed six rebounds, a game-high-tying five assists with only one turnover and a steal and a block in 35 minutes of action, giving the Runnin' Rebels their first win in conference play this season. In the second half alone, Harkless was 7 of 11 from the field and 2 of 4 on 3-pointers. It was UNLV's eighth win over New Mexico in the last nine meetings overall and the Runnin' Rebels are now 6-3 in their last nine games at The Pit.

He won his third award after the Runnin' Rebels won two straight home games - 86-72 over Wyoming and 68-62 against intrastate rival UNR. He averaged 23.0 points, 8.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists and a steal per game in an average of 30 minutes per contest. He led all scorers against Wyoming with 28 points as he shot 8 of 15 from the field and collected a game-high-tying eight rebounds. Against the Wolf Pack, he again led all scorers with 18 points, while grabbing a season-high-tying and team-high nine rebounds. He also dished out five assists and recorded two steals. With 37 seconds remaining in the game and UNR having a chance to tie, Harkless took a charge with ended up being a critical play in the win.

KRUGER EARNS ESPN COACH OF THE WEEK HONOR

ESPN's Jeff Borzello picked UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger as his coach of the week in his weekly power rankings write-up on Monday, Dec. 12 after the Runnin' Rebels defeated Washington State at MGM Grand Garden Arena on the Las Vegas Strip. He wrote: "UNLV was picked sixth in the Mountain West preseason poll, but Kevin Kruger now has the Rebels as one of just three teams with double-digit wins and zero losses. (UConn and Purdue, the top two squads in the Power Rankings, are the other two.) The Rebels ... beat Dayton in mid-November and took care of business against Washington State on Saturday. If they can beat San Francisco and Southern Miss in Las Vegas in their next two games, the Rebels will enter conference play at 12-0. Kruger, college basketball's first graduate transfer, has built his roster almost exclusively via the portal: eight of his top nine players started their careers elsewhere. The lone exception, sophomore guard Keshon Gilbert, went for 25 points in the win over Washington State."

RODEO ROADTRIP

Every December while the National Finals Rodeo takes over UNLV's home arena at the Thomas & Mack Center, the Runnin' Rebels have to be out for approximately three weeks. UNLV had a span of 21 days between home games from Nov. 26 vs. Life Pacific to Dec. 17 vs. San Francisco. During their "Rodeo Roadtrip" this season, the Runnin' Rebels played at San Diego, vs. Hawaii in Henderson, Nevada, and against Washington State at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas - all wins.

SO CLOSE TO SETTING A RECORD

UNLV's 72-point win over Life Pacific on Nov. 26 was very close to setting the program's all-time margin of victory record. It fell one point shy, however, as the Runnin' Rebel record for win margin is 73, which was set in 1987 when UNLV defeated Hawaii-Loa on the road by 73 points (120-47). The previous mark was 72, a 129-57 win over UC Irvine in 1975. The most points UNLV has ever scored in a game was 164 vs. Hawaii-Hilo in 1976.

UNLV CLAIMS SOCIAL CHALLENGE TITLE

With its wins over Southern Illinois and Minnesota at the Pavilion at JSerra in San Juan Capistrano, California, UNLV claimed the championship of the SoCal Challenge just before Thanksgiving. It marked the Runnin' Rebels' first MTE (multi-team event) title since capturing the MGM Resorts Main Event tournament in 2017 at T-Mobile Arena.

SOCAL CHALLENGE ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM REPS

UNLV had two members of the SoCal Challenge All-Tournament team: Keshon Gillbert, who was named the event's Most Valuable Player, and EJ Harkless.

CANADIAN TRIP

UNLV was able to take advantage of a preseason foreign tour during this past summer as the Runnin' Rebels played three games in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada in August. A major benefit to embarking on a trip such as this is the 10 full practices the team is permitted to conduct during what is traditionally the offseason. While in Vancouver, UNLV played against the University of British Columbia, the University of Calgary and the University of the Fraser Valley.

NEW COACHES

The Runnin' Rebel program also welcomed three new assistant coaches to Kevin Kruger's staff during the offseason. Barrett Peery joined UNLV from Texas Tech, John Cooper came from SMU and Jamaal Williams from Portland State.

THE KEVIN KRUGER HEAD COACHING ERA AT UNLV

Former Runnin' Rebel student-athlete and assistant coach Kevin Kruger was appointed the new head coach of the UNLV's men's basketball program in March 2021. Following the 2021-22 season, Kruger was named one of 15 finalists for the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I men's college basketball by collegeinsider.com. During his first season at the helm of the program, Kruger led the Runnin' Rebels to 18 wins - the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West play, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the league standings. He and his staff revamped the roster with nine transfers and the team continually improved as the season progressed, advancing 43 spots in the KenPom ratings along the way. Under Kruger's leadership, three UNLV individuals earned 2021-22 All-Mountain West accolades: Bryce Hamilton (First Team), Donovan

Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) and Royce Hamm Jr. (Honorable Mention). Kruger completed his second year as an assistant coach for the UNLV program in 2020-21 after he returned to his alma mater in April 2019. The point guard on UNLV's 2007 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 team as a senior under his father, legendary coach Lon Kruger, Kevin returned to Las Vegas after spending three years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma (2016-19). With Kevin on the coaching staff, Oklahoma made multiple NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also an assistant coach at Northern Arizona for two seasons (2014-16) following a year as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. Prior to making the move into coaching, Kevin played professionally from 2007-13. During his first season on the coaching staff at UNLV in 2019-20, the Runnin' Rebels tied for second place in the Mountain West, marking the program's best league finish in 12 years. The team also sent shockwaves through the college basketball world with its victory at fourth-ranked and previously undefeated San Diego State, posting the program's best true road win since 1991 (a span of 29 seasons). Achievement in the classroom has been just as important with Kruger on staff. The team turned in a semester grade point average of 3.57 for fall 2020, the program's highest ever. It also achieved a record-cumulative GPA of 3.32 with an all-time program-high nine student-athletes on the Dean's Honor List. Kruger began his collegiate playing career at Arizona State, where he earned his criminal justice degree in 2006, before transferring to UNLV. In his lone season as a Runnin' Rebel student-athlete, UNLV won 30 games. He earned All-Mountain West Third Team honors and was named to the conference's all-tournament team. At ASU, Kruger was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 and second-team NABC District 15 selection in his third and final season in Tempe. Also a Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention pick, Kruger left the Sun Devils ranked fourth in career free throw percentage at ASU, fifth all-time in 3-pointers made and attempted and seventh in 3-point percentage. Kruger had professional basketball stints in Bulgaria, Italy, China, Mexico, Belgium and Germany in addition to NBA training camp invitations from the Orlando Magic and Milwaukee Bucks. He also played with the Utah Flash and Los Angeles D-Fenders of the NBA D-League before launching his coaching career. His father, Lon, coached the Runnin' Rebels from 2004-2011 and made four NCAA Tournament appearances (2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011) and an NIT (2009). Kevin earned a master's degree from Oklahoma in human relations in 2017 and is married to the former Allison Gerding. The couple has two daughters, Cameron, who celebrated her third birthday in October and Vivienne, who was born in November 2021.

PRESEASON MOUNTAIN WEST POLL

UNLV was picked to finish sixth in this year's Mountain West standings as voted on by select media and announced during the conference's media days in October. San Diego State was predicted to win the conference title this season, while Wyoming was second, Boise State third, Colorado State fourth and New Mexico fifth.

"3-POINT GOAL..." - UNLV HOLDS NCAA RECORD

UNLV holds the NCAA record for most consecutive games scoring at least one 3-pointer. Since the 3-point field goal was adopted by the NCAA in 1986-87, UNLV has converted at least one 3-pointer in all 1,185 games played. With Vanderbilt failing to make one in a game during the 2019-20 season, UNLV and Princeton are the only schools left that have made at least one 3-pointer in every game played since the shot was introduced.

NON-CONFERENCE RECORD IN KEVIN KRUGER'S TWO SEASONS

With an 8-5 non-conference record in Kevin Kruger's first season as head coach (2021-22), it marked the best non-conference mark for the Runnin' Rebels since they went 11-2 in 2017-18. With an 11-1 non-conference mark this season, it is the program's best in non-conference play by percentage since the 1990-91 team was 9-0 in non-conference action.

HOME MARK

The Runnin' Rebels went 12-4 at home during the regular season in 2021-22, with their only losses at the Thomas & Mack Center coming to then-No. 2 UCLA, San Diego State, Fresno State and Boise State (all ranked in the top 73 by KenPom). This season, UNLV is 8-5 at home - the Runnin' Rebels have won 20 of their last 29 regular-season games at the Thomas & Mack Center.

UNLV'S 2021-22 ALL-MOUNTAIN WEST AWARDS

UNLV men's basketball's now departed senior Bryce Hamilton, senior Royce Hamm Jr. and junior Donovan Williams each earned All-Mountain West recognition for the 2021-22 season:

- The MW's 11 head coaches voted on the league's awards, while the media's were conducted independent of conference oversight.
- Hamilton was selected First Team All-Mountain West by both the coaches and media, while Hamm Jr. was named honorable mention by the coaches, and Williams earned Sixth Man of the Year by the media.
- Hamilton was also named First Team All-Mountain West following the 2019-20 season, so he has become UNLV's first two-time first-team selection since Odartey Blankson was honored in 2004 and 2005.
- Hamilton, a 6-foot-4-inch guard from Pasadena, California, led the Mountain West in scoring last season, averaging 24.1 points per game during conference play. He also averaged 5.9 rebounds per contest (10th in the MW), while recording 2.4 assists per game. He ranked first in the MW in 3-pointers made per game (3.06), shot 36.9% from long range, which was second in the league, made 42.3% of his shots from the field (11th in MW) and was sixth in free-throw percentage (77.3).
- Hamilton scored in double figures in all 18 league contests, eclipsing the 30-point mark five times in MW play and 20 or more in 12 games. He scored a career-high 42 points at Colorado State, which is the ninth-highest point total by an individual in a single game in Runnin' Rebel history. In addition to being a first-team honoree in 2019-20, Hamilton was named to the second team in 2020-21.
- Hamm Jr., a 6-foot-9-inch forward from Houston, who transferred to UNLV from Texas, averaged 8.4 ppg and 8.9 rpg, while shooting 50% from the field and 86.7% on free throws during league games this season. He was third in the MW in rebounding average, recording double figures in scoring six times in MW action and in rebounding on eight occasions.
- Williams, a 6-foot-6-inch forward also from Houston and a Texas transfer, averaged 12.3 ppg, shooting 49.6% from the field and 45.2% on 3-pointers. He started six of 13 MW games played, tallying double figures in scoring seven times, including 20 or more points twice.

AT THE THOMAS & MACK CENTER

The 2022-23 season marks the 40th year of Runnin' Rebel basketball in the Thomas & Mack Center. UNLV has posted an all-time record of 529-147 (.783) in the arena since it opened in 1983, which includes a 12-4 mark in the building during the regular season in 2021-22 - the program's best in six years (14-3 in 2015-16).

65TH YEAR OF RUNNIN' REBEL BASKETBALL

The 2022-23 season marks the 65th year of Runnin' Rebel basketball at UNLV. Since the program's inception in 1958-59, the Runnin' Rebels have posted an all-time record of 1,351-619 (.686).

SIXTH-WINNINGEST PROGRAM EVER

With an all-time record of 1,309-601 (.685) against four-year American institutions (entering the 2022-23 season), UNLV ranks as the sixth-winningest program by percentage in NCAA Division I history (min. 25 years in Div. I). The only schools ahead of UNLV are Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas, Duke and UCLA. UNLV has finished the season with a winning percentage above .500, 58 times in its 64-year history.

BROOKLYN HICKS & ROB WHALEY JR. BOTH SIGN WITH RUNNIN' REBELS ON FIRST DAY OF EARLY PERIOD

The UNLV men's basketball program received signed commitments on the first day of the early signing period from Brooklyn Hicks and Rob Whaley Jr. to join the Runnin' Rebels for the 2023-24 season.

Hicks, a 6-foot-3-inch, 180-pound guard, from Seattle, Washington, attends Timberline High School. Rated as the second-best player in the state of Washington, he is a four-star recruit by ESPN.com. 247 Sports lists him as the 87th overall player in his class. As a junior last season, Hicks averaged 24 points, 10 rebounds, three assists and two steals per contest, earning All-Area Player of the Year honors by The Olympian and was a first-team selection to The News Tribune's All-Area Team. The back-to-back MVP of the 3A South Sound Conference led the Blazers to a state tournament appearance, leading the league in points per game, rebounds and was top three in steals. Playing for nationally renowned AAU program Seattle Rotary, he averaged 17.9 ppg, 8.1 rpg and 2.6 apg during the Nike Peach Jam this summer. Hicks chose UNLV over San Diego State, Cincinnati, Oregon State, Washington State, Saint Mary's and UNR. He will be a freshman for the Runnin' Rebels next fall.

Whaley Jr., a 6-foot-7-inch, 230-pound forward from Farmington, Utah, attends the College of Southern Idaho. As a freshman during the 2021-22 season, he earned second team All-Scenic West honors after averaging 10.9 ppg on 63 percent shooting, along with 4.9 rpg in 18.1 minutes played per contest. Ranked as a top-10 junior college prospect nationally, he played at Bountiful High School in Utah where he averaged 19.8 ppg and 6.8 rpg in 24 appearances as a senior, also adding 52 assists. He scored 26 points or more seven times during that season. CSI went 24-9 overall last season and after starting out this year 3-0 with two wins over ranked teams, earned National Team of the Week honors by JucoRecruiting.com. Whaley Jr. chose UNLV over Boise State, Utah State and Wichita State, and will be a junior for the Runnin' Rebels next fall. His father was the 51st overall pick in the 2005 NBA Draft by the Utah Jazz.

NBA DRAFT PICKS

UNLV had a total of four NBA Draft picks over a four-year span from 2013-16: Anthony Bennett (No. 1 overall in 2013 by the Cleveland Cavaliers), Rashad Vaughn (No. 17 overall in 2015 by the Milwaukee Bucks), Patrick McCaw (No. 38 overall in 2016 by the Golden State Warriors) and Stephen Zimmerman Jr. (No. 41 overall in 2016 by the Orlando Magic).

RUNNIN' REBELS IN THE NBA

There were three former Runnin' Rebels on NBA rosters when this season began. They are Khem Birch (Toronto Raptors), Derrick Jones Jr. (Chicago Bulls), and Christian Wood (Dallas Mavericks). Birch, Jones Jr., and Wood all went undrafted. Jones Jr. won the Slam Dunk Contest over Aaron Gordon during the 2020 NBA All-Star Weekend in Chicago on Feb. 15, 2020.

SEASON TICKET PRICING ADJUSTED FOR THE 2022-23 SEASON

UNLV men's basketball season ticket pricing has been adjusted for the 2022-23 season, with affordability and family-friendly value at the forefront of the changes.

- Season ticket prices have been lowered in every price level.
- Lower Bowl season tickets are available for as low as $305. That averages out to just $19 per game and is almost a 50% reduction from what the same seats cost this past season.
- Upper Bowl season tickets are available for as low as $95 ($6 per game).
- There are fewer price-level categories, making for an easier-to-understand seat selection process.
- Lower Bowl 1 pricing has been drastically reduced, now costing less than $2,000 per season ticket with a major gift requirement no longer necessary.
- Current Center Balcony fans can move to the Lower Bowl for just $25 more per season ticket.
- Loyalty Circle members, Rebel Athletic Fund members and current season ticket holders have been given exclusive windows to renew their tickets.

New season tickets may be purchased now. To purchase or for more information, visit UNLVtickets.com or call 702-739-FANS (3267).

PROMOTIONS FOR 2022-23 ANNOUNCED

UNLV Athletics has unveiled a robust slate of promotions available to Runnin' Rebel fans before its men's basketball games this season.

- The popular Runnin' Rebel Fest returns this season. The free pregame events will take place before 10 games this season, which is twice as many as previous years. It includes tailgate games (new games are being added this season), inflatables (a new basketball inflatable is also being introduced) and other activities for kids, along with drinks for all fans. Certain days of the week throughout the season will feature other promotions:
- The Family 4 Pack, which includes four tickets and four chicken finger meals at a price starting at just $52, will be offered during three of the season's select Saturday home games.
- $2 Beer Night will return for games that take place on Monday through Thursday, thanks to a partnership with Miller Lite.
- A new 50% off Fridays for certain food items will be available for games on Friday nights.

Additional promotions will be geared directly toward UNLV students, including the opportunity to earn a free UNLV basketball retro-inspired jersey, early entry into the Thomas & Mack Center, and exclusive food options at Runnin' Rebel Fest. Student-specific giveaways will include a tuition giveaway, concert tickets, exclusive apparel and more. Game-by-game promotions may be found on the UNLVRebels.com men's basketball schedule page.

THE KEVIN KRUGER RADIO SHOW

The Kevin Kruger Radio Show airs during select weekdays during the season in live in Las Vegas on KRLV 920 AM from 5-6 p.m. The show originates from Bourbon Street Lounge at The Orleans Hotel & Casino and is hosted by Jon Sandler, UNLV Sports Properties' play-by-play voice of the Runnin' Rebels, along with former Runnin' Rebel and current radio analyst Curtis Terry. Featuring UNLV men's basketball head coach Kevin Kruger, guests will also be on the show frequently throughout the season, including UNLV men's basketball assistant coaches and student-athletes. Fans are encouraged to attend the show in person and questions to be asked on air may be Tweeted to @UNLVonTheRadio. Remaining show dates: Wed., Feb. 15, Wed., Feb. 22, Tues, Feb. 28.

REBZONE TV SHOW ON FOX 5

Now in its 10th season, KVVU Fox 5 is the home of the official UNLV television coach's show. Sports Reporter Paloma Villicana joins UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger Sundays during the season for a unique half-hour of game reviews, previews and program features. The award-winning "RebZone Sports Show" airs Sundays nights at 10:30 p.m. exclusively on Fox 5. The first episode of the basketball season will take place on Dec. 4. The show is also available on an archived basis on YouTube.

RUNNIN' REBELS DEFEAT SOUTHERN 66-56 IN SEASON OPENER

UNLV was led by Keshon Gilbert's career-high 13 points as team forces 28 turnovers at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (1-0) opened the 2022-23 season on Nov. 7 at the Thomas & Mack Center with a 66-56 win over Southern (0-1).

The Runnin' Rebels were led by Keshon Gilbert's career-high 13 points, while EJ Harkless scored 11, Jackie Johnson III contributed 10 and Luis Rodriguez added nine. Rodriguez led the team with seven rebounds.

The Jaguars were led by Bryson Etienne's 25 points on 9 of 18 from the field, including 6 of 11 on 3-pointers.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV forced Southern into committing 28 turnovers on the night, including 17 in the first half.

TURNING POINT: With a three-point lead at 39-36 three-and-a-half minutes into the second half, UNLV went on a 12-0 run to take a 51-36 lead with just under 13 minutes to play. The Runnin' Rebels were in control from there, but a 10-0 late SU run cut its deficit to just seven with about two minutes left. The Jaguars would get no closer.

QUOTABLE: "The defense saved us... 28 turnovers. Offensively, we hit some stagnant stretches, but it was nice to have a security on the bench and the feeling that if we could just move it and get a couple of good shots and buy a little time offensively, that our defense was holding strong. Our fight was really good and we just figured out a way to win a game. We are really happy happy for our guys and proud of them, and excited to get back in the gym because I think we're going have a ton of fun that we can look at and point out things that they'll notice, things that we have talked about that we can continue to improve on for Saturday." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

- NOTES:
- UNLV made 32 of 38 from the free-throw line as a team, led by Harkless' 7 of 9 and Gilbert's 6 of 6.
- 10 of the 11 Runnin' Rebels that played in the game scored.
- The Runnin' Rebels recorded 13 steals in the game, with four different players each recording at least two (led by Harkless' five).
- UNLV led by as many as 17 points with eight minutes left in the game.
- UNLV led in bench points 25-17, fast-break points 16-6 and second-chance points 11-5.
- UNLV led 33-25 at halftime.
- This was the first-ever meeting between UNLV and Southern in men's basketball and the Runnin' Rebels improved to 6-0 all-time against schools that currently make up the Southwestern Athletic Conference.
- UNLV improved to 51-14 all-time in season lid-lifters and 43-8 when opening the season at home.
- UNLV is now 28-4 in season openers at the Thomas & Mack Center and has won 15 of its last 18 season openers overall.
- Kruger improved his career record in season openers to 2-0.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,162 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS FLY PAST CARDINALS 88-63

UNLV runs record to 2-0 as Keshon Gilbert, Jackie Johnson III and Luis Rodriguez combine to shoot 64% from the field at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (2-0) defeated Incarnate Word (0-2) 88-63 on Nov. 12 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Keshon Gilbert recorded a career high in scoring for a second straight game, this time with 23 points on 6 of 10 shooting, including 4 of 5 on 3-pointers, 7 of 8 from the free throw line, while adding a career-high four steals. Jackie Johnson III added 13 points on 5 of 9 from the field, while Luis Rodriguez added 10 points (5 of 6) with a career-high six steals, six rebounds and five assists. The three combined to shoot 64% from the field.

The Cardinals had four players in double-figure scoring, led by Charlie Yoder's 15 points.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV shot 62.5% from the field and 57.1% on 3-pointers in the first half, finishing the game at 55.4% and 46.7%, respectively.

STAT OF THE GAME II: It marked the second straight game that UNLV forced 25+ turnovers as Southern committed 28 on Monday night and UIW turned it over 25 times.

WIRE TO WIRE: UNLV had the lead for 38:30 of the 40 minutes played, increasing its lead to as many as 28 points late. The Runnin' Rebels started the game on a 12-2 spurt and led by 17 at 24-7 halfway through the first half. UNLV led 43-29 at the half.

QUOTABLE: "I thought it was a really great effort defensively. Again, forcing 25 turnovers is what gets things going for us. I'm really proud and happy for them. We shot it well, shared the ball, got it in the paint, kicked it out, swung it, drove it - a lot of good plays for each other. We were able to get downhill and get to the free throw line, so that's going to have to be our M.O. offensively, just sharing it, driving and kicking, relocating, but all-in-all I thought it was a pretty good night for us." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

- NOTES:
- UNLV got to the free-throw line 26 more times than UIW did (29-3).
- The Runnin' Rebels out-rebounded the Cardinals 36-33.
- UNLV recorded 13 or more steals for the second straight game as it had 17 vs. UIW.
- UNLV held the Cardinals to just 41.9% shooting, including 32.3% on 3-pointers.
- UNLV scored 29 points off turnovers.
- The Runnin' Rebels outscored the Cardinals 42-22 in points in the paint, 23-6 on fast breaks and 33-13 in bench scoring.
- It is the second straight year that UNLV has started the season 2-0.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,163 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS MAKE STATEMENT IN WIN OVER NO. 21 DAYTON

UNLV improves to 3-0 on the season with first win over a ranked non-conference opponent at Thomas & Mack Center in eight years

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (3-0) defeated No. 21 Dayton 60-52 on Nov. 15 at the Thomas & Mack Center, marking its first win over a ranked non-conference opponent at home in eight seasons.

EJ Harkless scored a game-high 24 points on 9 of 19 shooting with six rebounds and three assists, while Keshon Gilbert added 16 points on 6 of 9 from the field with three assists and three steals.

The Flyers (2-1) were led by Kobe Elvis and Mike Sharavjants with 16 and 14 points, respectively.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV held Dayton without a field goal over the final 6:45. The Flyers made just five in the entire second half.

STAT OF THE GAME II: UNLV outscored Dayton by 18 points in the second half (38-20), shooting 48.1% from the field and holding the Flyers to just 25%.

THE TURNING POINT: After erasing a 10-point halftime deficit and leading Dayton 50-47 with 6:46 left in the game, the Runnin' Rebels held the Flyers to 0 of 5 shooting the rest of the way, while forcing five turnovers.

QUOTABLE: "Obviously a highly emotional game with a lot of energy, and couldn't be more proud of them. The two days of prep, they were locked in and ready. With this being the first opportunity to get a win against a ranked team for this group, we were excited about it, but as coaches you wish you had more time to prepare for it. It came quick, but the guys stepped up and responded. I think we faced a double-digit deficit twice and both times we just came back swinging. But that's what these guys have done and that's what they do in practice every day - they just compete like crazy. It was just great to see it pay off for them." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

- NOTES:
• The last win UNLV had against a ranked non-conference opponent at the Thomas & Mack Center was against then-No. 3 Arizona (71-67) on Dec. 23, 2014.
• It is UNLV's first win against any ranked team since last season when it defeated then-No. 22 Colorado State in Fort Collins on Jan. 28.
• UNLV forced Dayton to commit 24 turnovers, which marked the Runnin' Rebels' third time this season forcing their opponents to commit 24 or more miscues in a game.
• UNLV recorded double-digit steals for the third straight game, finishing with 11 against Dayton.
• UNLV scored 27 points off Dayton's turnovers, while the Flyers managed just eight off of UNLV's 17.
• The Runnin' Rebels led in points in the paint 20-12.
• UNLV trailed at the half, 32-22.
• It is the second straight year that UNLV has started the season 3-0.
• It was the first-ever meeting between the two schools in men's basketball and UNLV is now 5-2 all-time against schools that currently make up the Atlantic 10 Conference.
• UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,164 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS MOVE TO 4-0 FOR FIRST TIME IN FIVE YEARS

All five starters scored in double figures as UNLV closed out season-opening homestand with 78-68 win over High Point

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - All five starters scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team (4-0) defeated High Point 78-68 on Nov. 18 at the Thomas & Mack Center to close out its season-opening homestand. It marks the Runnin' Rebels' first 4-0 start to a season in five years.

EJ Harkless led UNLV with 15 points, while Luis Rodriguez recorded his fifth career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. David Muoka also contributed 12 points with nine rebounds, while Keshon Gilbert and Elijah Parquet added 11 points apiece. Gilbert scored in double figures for the fourth straight game, while Parquet tied his career high in rebounds with five.

The Panthers had four players score 10 or more points, led by Zach Austin and Abdoulaye Thiam each with 20.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV outscored High Point 14-2 in second-chance points after collecting 18 offensive rebounds.

DEFENSE WINS AGAIN: High Point had averaged 100 points per game over its first three contests of the season, but the Runnin' Rebels held the Panthers to just 68 for the game. After HPU shot 42.4% from the field, including 53.8% on 3-pointers in the first half, UNLV held it to 31.0% overall and 37.5% on 3-pointers over the final 20 minutes. The Panthers finished the game shooting 37.1%.

QUOTABLE: "I could not be prouder of our guys for the fight, especially in the second half. We knew that High Point was an incredibly dangerous team and I thought we did a really good job through stretches, especially to finish those last eight or so minutes of the game. The best lessons we could possibly learn are the ones that we're gonna take from tonight. When we just did our own thing, they made us pay. We gave up nine points on three different threes, doing things that were very uncharacteristic of us - leaving a shooter to gamble and then take a risk and they made us pay all three times. That was our biggest talking point at halftime - just to do what we've been doing. But to finish the game, the guys banded together and did what they needed to do to get good shots and get stops and rebounds." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

- NOTES:
• After forcing High Point to commit 20 turnovers in the game, UNLV has forced its opponents into 97 miscues over the first four contests of the season (24.3 per game).
• UNLV outrebounded High Point 48-38.
• After shooting just 1 of 12 on 3-pointers in the first half, the Runnin' Rebels shot 40% from beyond the arc in the second half (6 of 15).
• UNLV shot 47.2% overall in the second half and finished the game at 41.3%.
• UNLV led in points in the paint 46-14 and in fast-break points 19-6.
• High Point had the halftime lead, 36-33.
• Gilbert and Harkless combined for 15 of UNLV's 20 assists. Gilbert had a career-high eight, while Harkless tallied seven.
• Rodriguez added five steals, marking the second game with five or more for him this season.
• Jackie Johnson III also scored in double figures with 10 points.
• UNLV is now 2-0 all-time against High Point and 4-1 against teams that currently make up the Big South Conference.
• UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,165 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS CLAIM SOCIAL CHALLENGE TITLE WITH DOMINATING WIN OVER MINNESOTA

UNLV men's basketball led by as many as 22 points in 71-62 win over Golden Gophers in San Juan Capistrano, California, to keep record perfect at 6-0

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (UNLVRebels.com) - Four Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team (6-0) defeated Minnesota 71-62 on Nov. 23 in the championship game of the SoCal Challenge at the Pavilion at JSerra.

Keshon Gilbert scored a game-high-tying 17 points with four assists and three steals, while EJ Harkless scored 16 points, Luis Rodriguez added a career-high-tying 15 points with nine rebounds and Jackie Johnson III contributed 13 points on 4 of 7 3-point shooting.

The Golden Gophers (4-2) had three players score in double figures, led by Jamison Battle's 17 points. He also grabbed nine rebounds.

TURNING POINT: UNLV used a 19-4 run over the final 7:47 of the first half to take a commanding 38-24 lead at the half.

GAME WASN'T AS CLOSE AS FINAL SCORE: UNLV led by as many 22 points late in the second half.

QUOTABLE: "Just really proud of the guys. I thought the biggest concern going into the game was Minnesota's size and length. We knew that we had to be really disruptive and had to get underneath them as much as possible - make those passes as difficult as they could."

OPPONENT SHOOTING UNDER 40%: The Runnin' Rebels held their fourth opponent of the season under 40% shooting from the field as Minnesota managed only 36.8% (21 of 57).

NOTES:

- UNLV recorded at least nine steals in a game for the sixth straight time this season, recording nine swipes against the Golden Gophers.

RUNNIN' REBELS BLOW OUT LIFE PACIFIC 126-54

72-point win over NAIA school improves UNLV's record to 7-0 for first time in 11 years

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Five Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures led by Karl Jones' double-double of 20 points and 12 rebounds as the UNLV men's basketball team (7-0) defeated Life Pacific, a NAIA school from San Dimas, Calif., 126-54, on Nov. 26 at the Thomas & Mack Center. The Runnin' Rebels remained perfect through seven games, marking their best start to a season in 11 years.

Jackie Johnson III added 14 points, Keshon Gilbert scored 13, Jordan McCabe contributed 12 and David Muoka had 11 as 14 of the 15 Runnin' Rebels scored in the contest.

The game counted in UNLV's record but was an exhibition contest for the Warriors (7-0, 1-0 Golden State Athletic Conference), who were led by Albert Matute's 13 points and Kofi Aboagye's 10 rebounds.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGES: UNLV shot 61.9% (52 of 84) from the floor and 57.7% (15 of 26) from 3-point range, while holding LPU to just 28.8% (19 of 66) from the field and 25.0% (7 of 28) on 3-pointers.

FORCING TURNOVERS: UNLV, which entered the game ranked fourth in the country in turnovers forced with 22.5 per game, made Life Pacific commit 23 for the game. The Runnin' Rebels also recorded 14 steals and had nine blocks.

DOMINATION ON THE BOARDS: UNLV doubled up LPU on the boards, outrebounding the Warriors 58-29 for the game.

SHARING THE BALL: UNLV turned in assists on 32 of its 52 made field goals.

QUOTABLE: "Really proud of the guys for being locked in and competing together. In a situation like that, having 32 assists off 52 field goals, we are proud of them for having good spacing, sharing the ball and making plays for each other. I thought they did a really good job of that and it was really fun to see Karl have that opportunity to go out and score 20 points with 12 rebounds - watching him have fun out there, because he deserves it. He's been working with everybody every day, so it was fun to be able to see him have fun like that." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

NOTES:

- McCabe made 4 of 5 3-pointers, while dishing out eight assists and only committing one turnover.
UNLV only had 11 turnovers for the game.
Jones also had three blocked shots.
UNLV led in points off turnovers 27-8.
The Runnin' Rebels outscored the Warriors in the paint, 70-14.
UNLV had 21 second-chance points to LPU's eight.
The Runnin' Rebels had 27 fast-break points.
UNLV's bench outscored Life Pacific's 76-20.
UNLV led 65-36 at the half, and outscored LPU 61-18 over the final 20 minutes.
UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,168 straight games.

UNLV makes 13 3-pointers and scores 31 fast-break points in first true road game of the season at San Diego; Off to best start to a season in 11 years

SAN DIEGO (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (8-0) was dominant in its first true road game of the season recording a 95-78 victory over San Diego at the Jenny Craig Pavilion on Dec. 3. The Runnin' Rebels remained perfect through eight games, marking their best start to a season in 11 years (2011-12).

Four UNLV players scored in double figures, led Luis Rodriguez' career-high 19 points. EJ Harkless added 17, Justin Webster had a season-high 16 and Jackie Johnson III contributed 12.

USD (5-4) had five players score 10 or more points, led by Eric Williams Jr.'s double-double of 16 points and 14 rebounds.

THE REBELS WERE RUNNIN': UNLV shot 52.5% from the field for the game, 48.1% on 3-pointers, scored 31 fast-break points and led by as many as 31 halfway through the second half.

TURNING POINT: Trailing 14-12 early in the contest, UNLV used a 13-0 run over 2:30 to take a 25-14 lead with just under nine minutes until halftime. The Runnin' Rebels then took a 12-2 spurt into the break to lead by 21 at 49:28.

3-POINT GOAL: UNLV made 13 3-pointers on the night, which marked its second-highest total of the season.

DOUBLE-FIGURE STEALS: UNLV recorded 10 steals in the game, marking the fifth time this season it was in double figures in that category.

QUOTABLE: "Tonight showed our growth. They are having fun right now. We had a week layoff, which was a concern. We weren't sure how we were going to handle that, but our success has been a result of how hard they are playing defensively. We had guys doing a really good job running, getting to good spacing and creating good looks for each other. I think they had a lot of fun out there tonight." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

NOTES:

- David Muoka pulled down a team-high eight rebounds with eight points on 4 of 4 shooting with a season-high four blocks.
Keshon Gilbert dished out a game-high-tying seven assists without committing a turnover.
Rodriguez shot 7 of 9 from the field, including 3 of 5 on 3-pointers.
Webster made all four of his 3-point attempts.
UNLV shot 54.2% in the second half, including 53.8% on 3-pointers.
UNLV had 19 assists on 31 made field goals.
UNLV held USD to just 38.7% shooting in the first half, but the Toreros made 54.8% in the last 20 minutes, including 54.5% on 3-pointers.
UNLV forced USD to commit 17 turnovers for the game. UNLV has forced all eight of its opponents into at least 17 miscues this season.
UNLV led in bench points 38-20 with 28 of those coming from Webster and Johnson III.
UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,169 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS MOVE TO 9-0 AFTER 77-62 WIN OVER HAWAII IN HENDERSON

UNLV led by as many as 21 at the Dollar Loan Center; Off to best start to a season in 12 years

HENDERSON, Nev. (UNLVRebels.com) - For the first time in its 65-year existence, the Runnin' Rebels played a game in Henderson on Dec. 7 and in doing so, improved its record to 9-0 this season to mark their best start in 12 years.

Four players scored in double figures for the UNLV men's basketball team as it defeated Hawaii 77-62 at The Dollar Loan Center.

Luis Rodriguez led all scorers for the second straight game with 18 points, while grabbing seven rebounds with two steals, while Justin Webster and Keshon Gilbert each scored 13, and EJ Harkless added 10. David Muoka scored nine points with game highs of nine rebounds and three blocks.

The Rainbow Warriors (5-3) were led by Kamaka Hepa's 15 points, while Beon Riley contributed 12 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

THE TURNING POINT: UNLV closed the first half on a 17-4 run to take a 41-22 lead at the break. UNLV led by as many as 21 points early in the second half.

SINGLE DIGITS IN THE SECOND HALF: Hawaii cut its deficit to single digits late in the second half (7:25), but Rodriguez made back-to-back 3-pointers and later stole the ball, finishing with a dunk to make it a 65-51 game about a minute later.

FORCING TURNOVERS: UNLV ranks No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers. The Runnin' Rebels forced Hawaii into 18 miscues, marking the ninth straight contest that UNLV's opponent has committed at least 17 turnovers.

3-POINT GOAL: UNLV shot 62.5% on 3-pointers in the first half (5 of 8) and finished the game at 44.4% (8 of 18).

QUOTABLE: "Overall, the guys did what they've been doing. Did a great job of guarding people, creating a little bit of a cushion in the first half which ended up becoming the difference in the game. That's become their M.O. - a relentless defensive presence in the first half and when you're playing against teams that have a lot of pride, they make it interesting. We knew that, we expected it and we knew Hawaii was going to make a run. But our guys did what they needed to - turned it up a notch at the end and I think we were pretty fortunate to come away beating a very good Hawaii team." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- It was UNLV's seventh straight win against the Rainbow Warriors and improved its all-time record in the series to 25-9.
- UNLV held Hawaii to just 2 of 14 (14.3%) on 3-pointers in the first half and 6 of 29 for the game (20.7%).
- UNLV outscored Hawaii by 11 points at the free-throw line (23-12).
- Gilbert added team highs of four assists and three steals.
- Rodriguez (3 of 7) and Webster (3 of 4) each made three 3-pointers on the night.
- UNLV scored 21 points off turnovers, compared to Hawaii's 12 off of UNLV's 13 miscues.
- UNLV led in fastbreak points 18-2.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,170 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS STAY PERFECT WITH 74-70 WIN OVER WASHINGTON ST. ON THE STRIP

UNLV is off to its best start to a season (10-0) since the 1990-91 team won its first 34 games

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Keshon Gilbert scored a career-high 25 points and EJ Harkless added 20 as the UNLV men's basketball team (10-0) defeated Washington State 74-70 on Dec. 10 in the Las Vegas Clash at the MGM Grand Garden Arena.

The Runnin' Rebels are off to their best start to a season since the 1990-91 team won their first 34 games.

Gilbert was 10 of 15 from the field, including 2 of 5 on 3-pointers, while collecting a team-high five rebounds, three assists and three steals. Harkless was 7 of 18 from the field.

The Cougars (4-5) had three players score in double figures, led by TJ Bamba's 20 points on 7 of 11 shooting, including 4 of 6 from long distance. Mouhamed Gueye added a game-high eight rebounds.

MASSIVE RUN: UNLV started the game slow offensively as Washington State built a nine-point lead at 11-2. With the Cougars leading 13-4, UNLV then went on an 18-0 run over four minutes with five different Runnin' Rebels scoring during the stretch to give themselves a 22-13 lead.

CLOSE FINISH: UNLV led 33-30 at the half and although it built a 12-point advantage with seven minutes to go in the game, Washington State cut it to three points a couple of times late.

DEFENSE AGAIN: As the Runnin' Rebels have shown all season, defense was their calling card again on Saturday. UNLV forced Washington State into 22 turnovers, marking the seventh time this season that a UNLV opponent committed at least 20 miscues. UNLV came into the game ranked No. 2 in the country in forced turnovers. The Runnin' Rebels also recorded 12 steals, which is a category that they rank in the nation's top 10 in. It marked the sixth time that they have tallied at least 10 swipes in a game.

QUOTABLE: "I thought it was a great fight by our guys. I felt like we played a lot of that game at Wazzu's pace and their temperament, but I thought we did a good job of creating enough momentum swings in our direction to where we had favor in the way the game was going. It was a little more up and down which our guys do better at. When the game is moving, we are able to get turnovers, run and get good offensive looks that way. Washington State shot the ball really well and they do a really good job of finding the open guy and when you've got that many that can make plays and shoot it and make some of the shots they did today, that's what's probably going to happen. We just have to continue to get better in those situations and watch the film to see how a step here or a step there could make our life a lot easier or potentially a lot harder." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- UNLV only committed seven turnovers.
- WSU shot 61.1% from the field in the first half, finishing the game at 54.2%.
- The Cougars made 13 3-pointers, shooting 56.5% for the game from long distance.
- UNLV finished the game at 50.9% from the field.
- Washington State outrebounded UNLV 33-20.
- UNLV shot twice as many free throws as Washington State did (16-8).
- UNLV scored 31 points off of turnovers and 21 points on fastbreaks.
- UNLV's bench outscored Washington State's 19-7.
- It was just the second all-time meeting in men's basketball between the two schools. UNLV now leads the series 2-0 and is 63-64 all-time vs. teams that make up the Pac-12.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,171 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS SUFFER SEASON'S FIRST LOSS TO SAN FRANCISCO

The Dons scored the game's final 11 points in 75-73 decision snapping UNLV's season-opening 10-game win streak

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - For the first time in 11 games this season, the Runnin' Rebels came out on the losing end as San Francisco scored the game's final 11 points in a 75-73 decision on Dec. 17 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

UNLV (10-1) was led by EJ Harkless' 21 points, while Luis Rodriguez contributed 17 with seven rebounds and three steals. David Muoka also had seven rebounds, while Keshon Gilbert dished out six assists.

Three San Francisco (9-3) players scored 17 points apiece, while another was in double figures with 11. Zane Meeks led the Dons with a double-double of 17 points and a game-high 17 rebounds. He shot 8 of 10 from the field. Khalil Shabazz and Tyrell Roberts also scored 17 each.

TURNING POINT: UNLV led by as many as 11 points in the second half and after USF cut its deficit to just three with 7:30 to go, the Runnin' Rebels increased their advantage to nine at 73-64 with 3:07 to go. The Dons scored the game's final 11 points from there.

ENDING SEQUENCE: UNLV led by a point (73-72) with 12.9 seconds to play, and just four on the shot clock, but a Roberts 3-pointer barely beat the shot clock to give USF a 75-73 lead. Gilbert attempted a 3-pointer that missed at the buzzer.

QUOTABLE: "Obviously, a tough one. It felt like we played a pretty good game overall, just that stretch at the end ended up costing us. There is a lot to take from it. We will recalibrate on Monday, get back to it and tighten some things up going into the Southern Mississippi game on Thursday." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- UNLV entered the day as one of only seven remaining unbeaten teams in the country.
- The 10-0 start was UNLV's best in 32 years (1990-91).
- It was the 17th all-time meeting between the two schools in men's basketball. UNLV leads the all-time series 9-8. USF has won the last two meetings.
- UNLV held USF to just 38.2% shooting in the first half, including 16.7% on 3-pointers, but the Dons made 48.4% of their shots overall in the second half.
- UNLV shot 51.6% from the field in the first half, but just 40.6% in the second half, including 1 of 10 on 3-pointers.
- USF's biggest lead of the night was two points.
- The Runnin' Rebels led 46-37 at halftime.
- UNLV led in points in the paint 36-28, fastbreak points 11-5 and bench scoring 22-14.
- USF led in rebounding 41-36 and 16-11 in offensive boards.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,172 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS CLOSE OUT NON-CONFERENCE PLAY 74-63 WIN OVER SOUTHERN MISS

UNLV will enter Mountain West play with 11-1 record, best non-conference mark in 32 years

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-1) defeated Southern Mississippi 74-63 in its non-conference finale on Dec. 22 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

It marks the first time since the 1992-93 season that UNLV lost only one non-conference contest in a season and is the Runnin' Rebels' best non-conference record (by percentage) since going 9-0 in 1990-91.

EJ Harkless led the Runnin' Rebels with 19 points, while Luis Rodriguez added 18 and Justin Webster contributed 12. Keshon Gilbert grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds, while he, along with Harkless and Rodriguez, each had four steals.

Southern Miss (11-2) was led by DeAndre Pinckney's double-double of 23 points and 13 rebounds. He was 10 of 18 from the field, while Austin Crowley added 18 points.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE: UNLV held Southern Miss to 10.5% on 3-pointers (2 of 19). The Golden Eagles managed just 1 of 9 in the first half and followed in the second 20 minutes by making just 1 of 10. The Runnin' Rebels forced Southern Miss into 25 turnovers and UNLV recorded 13 steals.

TURNING POINT: UNLV held Southern Miss without a point for more than five minutes and used a 15-0 run to take a 55-43 lead with 9:32 to go.

QUOTABLE: "I can't really put into words how happy I am for the way they responded after halftime. After that first loss and having that feeling, which was new to this group, it carried on for a few days and that's tough. But they rallied together and figured it out. They made some adjustments and played for each other. When we are talking, bouncing around and getting great activity, we have shown that we can be elite and I thought, especially during that one stretch in the second half, we showed a lot of what we have been doing throughout the year. It's a great feeling to go into this break with the win before we get back together and get ready to go on the road to open Mountain West play." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- Harkless scored 15 of his points in the second half.
- Rodriguez was 5 of 8 on 3-pointers.
- Victor Iwaukor had eight points, eight rebounds and a career-high four blocks.
- Harkless and Rodriguez each had seven rebounds, while Harkless also had six assists.
- Southern Miss shot 50.0% in the first half and held a 33-32 lead at the break, but UNLV held the Golden Eagles to just 37.5% from the field after that, outscoring them 42-30 over the final 20 minutes.
- UNLV outscored Southern Miss by 13 at the free-throw line, 24-11.
- UNLV recorded double digits in steals for the eighth time this season and the third straight game.
- UNLV forced its opponent into 20 or more turnovers for the eighth time this season and has done so in two of its last three games.
- There were 13 lead changes and three ties throughout the game.
- UNLV scored 33 points off turnovers, compared to just 14 for Southern Mississippi.
- Southern Miss outscored UNLV in points in the paint, 32-22, and outrebounded the Runnin' Rebels 46-39.
- UNLV improved its all-time record against Southern Miss to 2-0. The previous meeting was in 1972.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,173 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS DROP MOUNTAIN WEST OPENER IN OVERTIME AT SAN JOSE STATE

75-72 loss snaps UNLV's 10-game win streak vs. Spartans

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-2, 0-1) lost in overtime at San Jose State, 75-72, in both teams' Mountain West opener on Dec. 28 at the Provident Credit Union Event Center.

EJ Harkless scored all of his game-high 20 points after halftime, while Justin Webster added 11 points on 3 of 4 3-point shooting. Luis Rodriguez had a team-high eight rebounds.

SJSU (10-4, 1-0) was led by Omari Moore's 15 points and game-high seven assists, while committing just three turnovers. Tibet Gorener and Robert Vaihola had a game-high 13 rebounds.

BIG RUNS: San Jose State ended the first half on a 16-2 run to take a 41-30 halftime lead, while the Runnin' Rebels went on a 17-1 run midway through the second half to take a 62-59 lead with under six minutes to go.

END OF REGULATION: Harkless' 3-pointer with 3:21 to go gave UNLV a 65-62 lead, however it would be the Runnin' Rebels' final points of the half. Tied at 65 and six seconds remaining, Luis Rodriguez made a short jumper, which looked to give UNLV a 67-65 lead, but it was waved off after review because the shot clock expired. Moore missed a contested 3-pointer at the buzzer, sending the game to overtime.

END OF OVERTIME: Trailing 72-70 with 30 seconds to go in the extra period, Jordan McCabe stole an inbound pass and got it to Keshon Gilbert in the open court. Gilbert's contested layup missed and San Jose State grabbed the loose-ball rebound before making free throws to seal the game.

QUOTABLE: "We will find out a lot about ourselves in the coming days. We went through a stretch tonight where we gave them a cushion and it proved too much to come back from. We will watch the film together tomorrow and then we will move on to get ready for San Diego State." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- UNLV shot 38.7% from the field in the first half, then 53.8% in the second half, while SJSU shot 48.4% in the first 20 minutes and 24.0% in the second half.
- San Jose State went to the free throw line 19 more times than UNLV, outscoring the Runnin' Rebels by 14 from the charity stripe.
- San Jose State outrebounded UNLV 49-35 and grabbed 16 offensive rebounds, turning those into 12 second-chance points.
- UNLV entered the game as the No. 1 team in the nation in forcing turnovers, causing more than 21 per game, but SJSU committed just 12, which was a UNLV-opponent season low.
- San Jose State led by as many as 13 points before UNLV's big run.
- There were 13 lead changes and 10 ties throughout the game.
- SJSU's bench outscored UNLV's 33-21.
- UNLV had won 10 straight against the Spartans overall and six in a row in San Jose.
- This marked UNLV's first loss to San Jose State since the 2016-17 season.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,174 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS SUFFER NEW YEAR'S EVE LOSS AT HOME TO SAN DIEGO STATE, 76-67

UNLV has a week between games with trip to No. 22 New Mexico up next

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-3, 0-2) suffered a home loss on New Year's Eve to San Diego State 76-67 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Luis Rodriguez scored a career- and game-high 24 points, including four 3-pointers, with a team-high-tying six rebounds, while EJ Harkless added 18 points with a season-high eight assists, and Justin Webster contributed 10 points on three 3-pointers.

The Aztecs (11-3, 2-0) had two players score over 20 points in Matt Bradley (23) and Darrion Trammell (21). The pair was 9 of 15 on 3-pointers. Nathan Mensah had a game-high 11 rebounds.

TURNING POINT: UNLV led 17-10 with 13 minutes to go in the first half when San Diego State went on a 21-6 run. The Aztecs then increased their advantage to 11 at the half, 44-33. UNLV cut the deficit to just five points on two occasions - the latest with under five minutes to play - but could get no closer.

FORCING TURNOVERS: UNLV entered the game ranked No. 3 in the nation in forcing turnovers and made San Diego State turn it over 22 times, which is the Aztecs' season high.

SHOOTING: SDSU shot 56.7% (17 of 30) from the floor in the first half, including 57.1% (8 of 14) on 3-pointers, but the Runnin' Rebels held them to just 28.6% from the field after halftime. SDSU managed just six field goals over the final 20 minutes, but finished the game at 45.1% (23 of 51) from the field and 52.4% on 3s (11 of 21). UNLV shot 44.4% (12 of 27) from the field in the first half and finished at 36.7% (22 of 60) overall.

QUOTABLE: "We are a team that hates losing so there's a lot of frustration in the result. There was a stretch where they got a cushion and we weren't able to come back. There was a lot of fight and compete, so we need to dust ourselves off and get back at it Monday to get prepared for next weekend." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- UNLV has forced at least 20 turnovers in nine of its 14 games this season.
- San Diego State won the rebounding battle, 39-28.
- San Diego State's bench outscored UNLV's 20-8.
- UNLV led in points off turnovers (18-16), points in the paint (20-18) and second-chance points (17-12).
- There were five lead changes and two ties throughout the game.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,175 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS WIN WILD ONE AGAINST NO. 21 NEW MEXICO AT SOLD-OUT PIT, 84-77

Lobos handed first home loss as UNLV defeats second ranked team this season

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (12-3 overall, 1-2 Mountain West) defeated No. 21 New Mexico 84-77 in front of a raucous sold-out crowd at The Pit on Jan. 7.

It marked the Runnin' Rebels' second win against a ranked opponent this season as it won at home against then-No. 21 Dayton in November.

EJ Harkless scored 21 of his season- and game-high 25 points in the second half, while four other Runnin' Rebels finished in double figures in points: Keshon Gilbert (14), Jordan McCabe (12), Luis Rodriguez (12) and David Muoka (11). Muoka had a team-high seven rebounds, while Harkless and Rodriguez each grabbed six. Gilbert and Harkless each dished out a game-high five assists, while Gilbert recorded a career-high-tying four steals.

The Lobos (14-2, 2-2), who lost their second straight game but first of the season at home, were led by Morris Udeze's 22 points on 8 of 12 shooting, along with a game-high 13 rebounds. Jamal Mashburn Jr. added 19 points and Jaelen House scored 12.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV shot 55.6% (15 of 27) in the second half, while holding UNM to just 34.3% (12 of 35) after halftime.

DOWN TO THE WIRE: UNLV led by six points with under 40 seconds to go. Mashburn Jr.'s fastbreak layup cut it to four and a miscue by Harkless going after a rebound gave the Lobos the ball back with 33 seconds to play. House was fouled on a 3-point try, but only made one of the three free-throw attempts with 22 seconds left. Rodriguez then made two free throws with 21 seconds left to seal the game.

QUOTABLE: "That atmosphere just gets everybody's competitiveness going. The guys were in it and everyone was fighting. It is easy to say it was a fun one now when you come out on top, but it is one of the best venues and atmospheres in college basketball and it got everyone going from the jump. We got off to a little bit of a slow start but the guys took a deep breath - everybody on our roster has been in that situation before. Either previously or even last year here (at The Pit) to an extent. Just incredibly proud of them." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

NOTES:

- UNLV has won eight of the last nine meetings with New Mexico overall and has won six of the last nine games at The Pit.
UNM led by as many as 12 points in the first half, 26-14 with 8:57 to go.
Trailing 43-38 at halftime, UNLV came out of the break by scoring the first nine points.
UNLV outscored the Lobos 46-34 in the second half and led by as many as eight with 9:41 to go.
The Runnin' Rebels finished the game shooting 51.8% (29 of 56), which marked their fifth game of the season shooting at least 50.0%. They are 5-0 in those games.
Harkless was 7 of 11 from the field and 2 of 4 on 3-pointers after halftime. He only scored four points in the first half on 1 of 5 shooting.
UNLV held House scoreless in the second half. After leading the Lobos in scoring over the first 20 minutes on 4 of 6 from the field, he shot 0 of 7 during the second half.
The win ended a season-high two-game losing streak for the Runnin' Rebels.
Announced attendance was 15,424.
Gilbert was 5 of 7 from the field. He committed two turnovers in the first two minutes of the game, but committed just three over the next 28 minutes of playing time.
Victor Iwuakor (3) and Muoka (2) combined for five blocked shots and UNLV recorded seven as a team to just one for UNM.
Harkless only had one turnover in 35 minutes of action.
New Mexico recorded 17 offensive rebounds to just five for UNLV but the Lobos only managed six more second-chance points than the Runnin' Rebels.
UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,176 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS LOSE HEARTBREAKER IN OVERTIME TO COLORADO STATE, 82-81

EJ Harkless scored 26 of his career-high 33 points after halftime at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (12-5 overall, 1-4 Mountain West) lost in heartbreaking fashion on Jan. 14 at the Thomas & Mack Center to Colorado State in overtime, 82-81.

EJ Harkless scored 26 of his career-high 33 points after halftime, while Justin Webster added 15 points and Luis Rodriguez contributed 12.

CSU (10-9, 2-4) was led by Isaiah Stevens' 33 points, while three other Ram players also scored in double figures.

END OF REGULATION AND OVERTIME: UNLV held a four-point lead with eight seconds left in regulation and another four-point advantage with 35 seconds to go in overtime. Stevens made two 3-pointers during each of those times to defeat the Runnin' Rebels.

HOW OT WAS FORCED: UNLV led by three with two seconds left in regulation after Harkless made two free throws. Stevens took the inbound pass and his two-handed overhead 3-point try from well beyond the arc banked in at the buzzer.

HOW CSU WON IT: After Jordan McCabe made one of two free throws to give UNLV an 81-79 lead with 16 seconds left in overtime, Stevens made the game-winning 3-pointer with four seconds left. Harkless' 3-point try as time expired was off the mark.

- NOTES: Stevens was 12 of 22 from the field, including 8 of 16 on 3-pointers with nine assists, eight rebounds and two steals. Harkless was 10 of 20 from the field and 11 of 13 on free throws, while he grabbed a game-high-tying nine rebounds with three assists and two steals. CSU shot 56.5% (13 of 23) in the first half, including 50.0% (6 of 12) on 3-pointers, and finished the game at 50.8% (31 of 61) and 43.8% (14 of 32), respectively. UNLV shot 38.5% from the field (25 of 65) and 32.0% on 3-pointers (8 of 25). Webster was 5 of 10 from the field, including 3 of 5 on 3-pointers. UNLV had 23 more attempts at the free throw line than CSU did (31-8), outscoring the Rams by 17 at the charity stripe (23-6). The Runnin' Rebels grabbed 13 offensive rebounds and outscored CSU in second-chance points 11-3. UNLV forced 20 CSU turnovers, marking the 10th game this season that a UNLV opponent has made 20 or more miscues in a game. UNLV recorded 10 steals, marking the 9th time this season it has had double figures in swipes. Keshon Gilbert also had nine rebounds. UNLV led by as many as 10 early in the game. There were nine lead changes and 12 ties throughout. It was UNLV's second overtime game of the season - both losses in conference play. Legendary "Voice of the Rebels" Dick Calvert was honored during the game with a banner in the rafters unveiled, which commemorated his 52 years of serving as the public address announcer. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,178 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS COMEBACK BID FALLS SHORT IN 75-71 LOSS AT UTAH STATE

Freshman Keyshawn Hall scores 19 in his first Mountain West action of the season

LOGAN, Utah (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (12-6 overall, 1-5 Mountain West) came back from nine down at halftime and held a 69-68 lead with 2:30 remaining in the game, but a couple of key baskets by Utah State gave the Aggies a 75-71 win on Jan. 17 at Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

Runnin' Rebel freshman Keyshawn Hall played in the first Mountain West game of his career and led the team with a career-high 19 points on 6 of 11 shooting from the field and 6 of 6 from the free-throw line. Jordan McCabe added a season-high 17 points on 6 of 10 shooting, including 5 of 7 on 3-pointers, and Keshon Gilbert contributed 14 points on 6 of 12 from the field.

Utah State (15-4, 4-2) was led by Taylor Funk who scored 31 of his 42 points in the first half. Steven Ashworth added 14, while Trevin Dorius had 10.

HOW IT ENDED: UNLV held the one-point lead when Ashworth's 3-pointer put the Aggies back in front, 71-69, with one minute to play. An offensive foul was called on Hall and after a timeout with two seconds left on the shot clock, Sean Bairstow made a free-throw line jumper to give Utah State a 73-69 advantage with 23 seconds left. Hall made two free throws with 16 seconds to go, but that was as close as the Runnin' Rebels would come.

SECOND-HALF DEFENSE: After Utah State shot 65.2% from the field in the first half (15 of 23), including 50% on 3-pointers (8 of 16), UNLV held the Aggies to just 37.5% (9 of 24) in the second half, including 33% on 3s (3 of 9). Utah State committed 12 of its 21 turnovers after halftime.

QUOTABLE: "If you are going to have a chance to beat Utah State, especially here, you have to fight your tail off to keep the dribble in front of you. I thought in the first half we were just chasing way too much. They are an elite passing team and obviously an elite shooting team - best in the country - and we were giving them good catch and rhythm shots, which is why we dug that hole. They had 14 assists on 15 made shots in the first half and I don't think that happens if we are flying around and keeping the ball in front and doing a better job of guarding the ball. But we adjusted in the second half and held them to 37 and a half percent. The guys talked and banded together, figuring out what changes and how to get the job accomplished. When you are holding them to that percentage in the second half, if we could have just bled it over a little more into the first, we probably win the game." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES: UNLV trailed 46-37 at halftime. UNLV shot 49.1% from the field (28 of 57) for the game. Victor Iwuakor scored a season-high nine points on 4 of 4 from the field with four rebounds and a career-high four steals. Utah State ended the game shooting 51.1% (24 of 47) from the field, including 44.0% on 3-pointers (11 of 25). UNLV recorded 14 steals, its second-highest total of the season, which marked the 10th time it has had double-digits in that category. UNLV forced Utah State to commit 21 turnovers, which is the 11th time this season it has forced its opponent into 20 or more miscues. Utah State led in rebounding 31-23. Funk was 7 of 9 in the first half from the field, including 6 of 8 on 3-pointers. After halftime, he was 0-2 and 0-1, respectively. Ashworth added a game-high nine assists. Utah State had 21 assists on 24 made field goals. USU was 16 of 18 on free throws. UNLV led in points off turnovers (27-16), points in the paint (42-26), fastbreak points (13-7) and bench scoring (38-13). There were seven lead changes and three ties throughout the game. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,179 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL AT FRESNO STATE, 76-63

EJ Harkless led UNLV with 15 points and seven rebounds

FRESNO, Calif. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team lost to Fresno State, 76-63, on Jan. 21 at the Save Mart Center.

EJ Harkless led the Runnin' Rebels (12-7 overall, 1-6 Mountain West) with 15 points, seven rebounds, four assists and two steals, while Keshon Gilbert scored 11 points and Keyshawn Hall added 10 points with five rebounds.

Fresno State (7-11, 3-4) was led by Isaiah Hill's game highs of 28 points and five assists. Eduardo Andre had a double-double with 16 points and 13 rebounds.

STAT OF THE GAME: Fresno State shot 54.3% from the field (25 of 46) and 47.4% on 3-pointers (9 of 19).

UNLV'S SHOOTING: The Runnin' Rebels shot 50.0% from the field in the first half (12 of 24), but managed just 33.3% over the final 20 minutes (9 of 27), finishing the game at 41.2%.

QUOTABLE: "There is frustration, but we need to just keep going at it. We need to get our edge and that chip back again and it's hard to do when you are struggling, but we have to understand and realize that coming into the season when no one really expected us to do anything, we had an edge and a chip and we have to get that swagger and confidence back. There were a lot of really good stretches (today) where we did things well, but unfortunately there were just a few more where we didn't." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
• Elijah Parquet returned from an injury he suffered on Dec. 10. He had missed eight straight games.
• Luis Rodriguez was injured late in the first half after scoring five points and didn't return.
• It marked UNLV's fourth-straight loss. Each opponent has shot over 50% from the field in those games.
• UNLV committed a season-low-tying seven turnovers.
• Fresno State out-rebounded UNLV, 33-23.
• Hill was 7 of 12 from the field, including 4 of 7 on 3-pointers and he made 10 of 12 free throws.
• Fresno State led by four at halftime, 37-33.
• It was a four-point game just before the final media timeout, 63-59, however Fresno State outscored UNLV by nine from there.
• UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,180 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS GET BACK IN WIN COLUMN WITH 86-72 VICTORY OVER WYOMING

Four UNLV players scored in double figures, led by EJ Harkless' 28 points

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Four Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team got back into the win column with an 86-72 victory over Wyoming on Jan. 24 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

EJ Harkless led all scorers with 28 points, while Keshon Gilbert and Jordan McCabe each contributed 12, and Keyshawn Hall added 10 for UNLV (13-7 overall, 2-6 Mountain West) as it snapped its four-game losing streak.

Wyoming (6-14, 1-7) was led by Noah Reynolds' 23 points. Xavier DuSell made a game-high six 3-pointers to tally 18 points and Hunter Maldonado had 11 points.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV shot 53.7% from the field (29 of 54) and 55.0% on 3-pointers (11 of 20). It marked the sixth game this season that the Runnin' Rebels made at least half their shots in a game. They are 6-0 in such instances.

DOMINANCE AT HOME VS. THE COWBOYS: With the win, UNLV has improved to 20-1 against Wyoming at the Thomas & Mack Center over its last 21 meetings.

WIRE TO WIRE: UNLV led the whole game and took a 41-31 lead into halftime. The Runnin' Rebels increased their advantage to 15 multiple times in the second half, but Wyoming kept fighting back and cut its deficit to five at 65-60 with nine minutes to go. That's when UNLV used an 11-0 run to propel it to its largest lead of the game at 16 points. Wyoming again cut into the lead to trail by six with four minutes to go, but UNLV scored the game's final eight points.

QUOTABLE: "Just a better overall game. It's easy to say you have to be more confident and to just figure it out, but it's just one of those things that when you lose it, it's tough to get it back. I thought tonight was a great step back toward playing the way we had been playing. We were much more in tune with each other than we have been lately. We had a couple of mistakes where we let guys get good looks, but outside of that combined with one of our better offensive games of the year, it was definitely a good step back in the right direction." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
• UNLV only committed seven turnovers, tying its season low.
• UNLV blocked six shots, while Wyoming had none.
• The Runnin' Rebels made 17 of 20 free throws, as Harkless made all 11 of his attempts.
• Harkless was 8 of 15 from the field, while Gilbert was 5 of 9. They both collected a game-high-tying eight rebounds.
• UNLV led in rebounds, 33-30.
• UNLV led in bench scoring, 28-3.
• UNLV led in points in the paint, 30-20.
• UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,181 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS DEFEAT UNR 68-62 IN FRONT OF SEASON'S BIGGEST CROWD

EJ Harkless scored a game-high 18 points and Justin Webster added a season-high 17 as UNLV won the Silver State Series game for the third straight time

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - EJ Harkless scored a game-high 18 points and Justin Webster added a season-high 17 as the UNLV men's basketball team (14-7 overall, 3-6 Mountain West) defeated UNR 68-62 on Jan. 28 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The game was a part of the Silver State Series presented by America First Credit Union.

Webster made five 3-pointers, while Harkless filled the stat sheet with a season-high-tying and team-high nine rebounds, five assists and two steals.

UNR (16-6, 6-3) was led by Jarod Lucas' 15 points, Kenan Blackshear's 13 and Darrion Williams' 13, while Will Baker had a game-high 10 rebounds.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV had 12 fast-break points on the night, while the Wolf Pack had zero.

HOW IT ENDED: UNLV held UNR without a point over the final 3:44. The Runnin' Rebels led by one (63-62) at that point and scored the game's final five points.

BIG CROWD: The announced attendance of 8,734 was UNLV's largest of the season.

QUOTABLE: (On the atmosphere) "There are no words you can put into how great it was to go out there and see that - how important it is. Hopefully everyone had a great time. I know the guys appreciated it and I know we appreciated it as a staff and also as a university. Just going out there and seeing people cheering and seeing people talking, it had that buzz of a rivalry game. There was no doubt that having the crowd get into it the way they did tonight was a huge advantage for us." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES: UNLV has now won three straight games against UNR. Webster made four 3-pointers in the first half as UNLV led by two at the break, 35-33. UNLV led by as many as 10 in the first half. UNR shot 5 of 9 on 3-pointers in the first half but only 2 of 8 after halftime. UNLV held the Wolf Pack to just 36.4% shooting on the night. The Runnin' Rebels shot 42.9%. Victor Iwuakor had a career-high five blocks and Keshon Gilbert had a career-high-tying four steals. Shane Nowell played a season-high 23 minutes and scored eight points with five rebounds. UNLV had 10 steals, recording double figures in that category for an 11th time this season. UNLV forced UNR to commit 19 turnovers. UNLV had seven blocked shots compared to just one for UNR. There were six lead changes and two ties throughout the game. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,182 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS ROLL TO THIRD STRAIGHT WIN WITH 83-71 VICTORY AT COLORADO ST.

UNLV led by as many as 22 points as five Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures with the bench contributing 33 points

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team rolled to its third straight victory with an 83-71 win at Colorado State on Jan. 31.

Five Runnin' Rebel players scored in double figures and the bench contributed 33 points. EJ Harkless led UNLV (15-7 overall, 4-6 Mountain West) with 17 points on 6 of 12 shooting, also contributing five rebounds, five assists and two steals. Keshon Gilbert added 16 points on 6 of 8 from the field, including 4 of 6 on 3-pointers, with five rebounds and two steals, while Luis Rodriguez and Justin Webster each scored 11 points. Keyshawn Hall scored 10 points on 4 of 6 shooting, including 2 of 3 on 3-pointers.

Colorado State (10-13, 2-8) had four players in double figures, each scoring at least 17. Isaiah Stevens, who scored 33 points in CSU's win at UNLV earlier this month, led the Rams with 18 points on just 5 of 11 from the field. He dished out a game-high seven assists.

BIG LEAD: UNLV led 39-30 at the half and increased it to as many as 22 points with 7:45 left to play. CSU cut its deficit to eight points with 1:39 to go but would get no closer.

SECOND-HALF SHOOTING: After shooting 43.2% (16 of 37) in the first half, UNLV made 13 of 24 after halftime to shoot 54.2% over the final 20 minutes.

QUOTABLE: "We have a little more confidence in the locker room right now. We had a tough two-week stretch and now we have had a good week-and-a-half stretch. Guys are feeling good and we know we are a good team. We are going to make good things happen and right now they are having fun doing it. They are guarding their tails off and making plays for each other, and it is just fun to watch them out there having fun." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES: Luis Rodriguez, who had started each of the season's first 19 games and missed the last two because of injury, came off the bench against the Rams. In addition to his 11 points, he led UNLV in rebounds with six and also tallied two steals. Jordan McCabe sat out the game because of injury. Shane Nowell made 2 of 3 3-pointers and has now shot 6 of 10 from behind the arc in his last three games combined. UNLV improved its advantage in the all-time series vs. CSU to 44-20 and is now 13-10 in games played in Fort Collins. The Runnin' Rebels have won two in a row at Moby Arena. UNLV shot 11 of 27 on 3-pointers for 40.7% and made 29 of 61 shots overall to shoot 47.5%. UNLV held CSU to just 5 of 17 3-pointers (29.4%). The Rams came into the game ranked second in the MW in 3-point shooting at 36.4%. UNLV out-rebounded CSU 36-32, led in points off turnovers 19-11, second-chance points 20-6 and fastbreak points 14-6. CSU's bench only managed to score two points. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,183 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL AT HOME TO FRESNO STATE, 82-79

EJ Harkless led all scorers with 27 points as UNLV has three-game win streak snapped

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team lost to Fresno State, 82-79, at the Thomas & Mack Center on Feb. 3.

EJ Harkless led all scorers with 27 points, while Keshon Gilbert added 19 and Luis Rodriguez contributed nine for the Runnin' Rebels (15-8 overall, 4-7 Mountain West), who had won three straight games entering the contest.

Fresno State (8-14, 4-7) was led by Jemari Barker Jr.'s 23 points. Isaiah Hill scored 22, while Isaiah Moore added 11.

STAT OF THE GAME: Fresno State shot 52.9% on 3-pointers (9 of 17). The Bulldogs made 5 of 10 in the first half and 4 of 7 in the second. Baker Jr. and Hill combined to shoot 8 of 11 from long distance.

QUOTABLE: "Clearly not the result that we wanted. We just couldn't quite get a rhythm going defensively and we couldn't get them off balance and force them into the shots that would have been good for us. They made some big shots and some good plays and we just weren't able to get over that hump in the second half." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

- NOTES:
- The game was a back-and-forth affair as there were 15 lead changes and eight ties through out.
- Fresno State outrebounded UNLV 33-27.
- Moore recorded a game-high eight rebounds.
- Iwuakor led UNLV in rebounding with seven, while Gilbert and Rodriguez each had five.
- Harkless shot 9 of 18 from the field and 7 of 9 on free throws, adding four rebounds and four assists.
- Gilbert shot 5 of 10 from the field and was a perfect 9 of 9 from the free-throw line.
- Iwuakor tied his career high with four steals.
- UNLV blocked six shots to Fresno State's 0.
- Fresno State shot 52.2% from the field (12 of 23) in the second half and finished the game at 49.0% (25 of 51).
- UNLV led 43-37 at halftime.
- Fresno State swept the regular-season series with UNLV, also winning in Fresno on Jan. 21 (76-63).
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,184 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS RECORD REGULAR-SEASON SWEEP OF WYOMING WITH 69-59 ROAD WIN

EJ Harkless made a season-high five 3-pointers and tied his career high with 33 points as UNLV has won four of its last five games

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team recorded a regular-season sweep of Wyoming with a 69-59 road win on Feb. 8 at Arena-Auditorium.

The Runnin' Rebels, who also defeated the Cowboys, 86-72, on Jan.24 in Las Vegas, have now won four of their last five games.

EJ Harkless made a season-high five 3-pointers and led all scorers with a career-high-tying 33 points, while Keshon Gilbert added 10 points for UNLV (16-8 overall, 5-7 Mountain West).

Wyoming (7-16, 2-9), which was down five players because of injuries and others leaving the team, had four score in double figures, led by Hunter Maldonado's 17 points.

STATS OF THE GAME: After shooting just 25% in the first half, UNLV shot 47.4% after halftime. The Runnin' Rebels made 22 of 25 from the free-throw line in the second half (88%).

TURNING POINT: After halftime, Harkless' two 3-pointers along with one from Jordan McCabe made up a 9-0 run for UNLV, which gave the Runnin' Rebels a 38-33 lead with just under 16 minutes to go. UNLV would not trail again in the game.

WYOMING DIDN'T GO AWAY: UNLV pushed its lead to 11 but Wyoming fought back to cut its deficit to just three at 52-49 with under eight minutes to play. Elijah Parquet's 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired gave UNLV a 61-50 advantage with four minutes to go and the Runnin' Rebels cruised from there. Of note, it was only the fourth made 3-pointer from Parquet this season.

- NOTES:
- UNLV improved to 14-0 this season when limiting its opponent to 72 points or less.
- Harkless, who entered the game shooting 24% on 3-pointers this season, made 5 of 8 against the Cowboys. He was 8 of 12 from the field, 12 of 14 on free throws, had a team-high eight rebounds and contributed two assists and a steal in 33 minutes of action.
- Harkless has now tallied double figures in scoring on 21 occasions this season. He has scored 20 or more eight times, including in each of the last two contests.
- Gilbert was 5 of 6 on free throws, had five rebounds, three assists and two steals.
- UNLV has now won seven of the last nine meetings in the series against Wyoming and nine of the last 12. UNLV has won three of its last four in Laramie.
- Wyoming led in points in the paint 30-8, but UNLV's bench outscored the Cowboys' 14-6.
- There were 10 lead changes and five ties throughout the game.
- UNLV's first six made shots of the game were all 3-pointers. The Runnin' Rebels finished the first half with just eight total field goals and led 25-24 at the break. UNLV didn't make a two-point shot until over 18 minutes had gone by in the game.
- Jordan McCabe returned to the lineup after missing the last two games.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,185 straight games.
