Postseason History

The San Diego State men's tennis program has become a familiar face with postseason play. Since 1998, the Aztecs have reached at least the second round of the NCAA Championships in five of the last eight years. In 2000, SDSU earned a spot in the Round of 16 before being ousted by NCAA runner-up Virginia Commonwealth, 4-3.

The Aztecs have notoriously had great success sending singles and doubles players to the NCAA Tournament. Since 1998, San Diego State has sent at least one singles player to the annual tournament and one doubles team four out of the last eight seasons. Oliver Maiberger in 2002 reached the quarterfinals before losing to the number one seed Jesse Witten of Kentucky. That same year, he teamed up with Ryan Redondo as the tournament's No. 3 seed and again was defeated in the quarterfinals by the number one duo of Phillip King/Michael Yani of Duke.

Twice the Aztecs have made the championship match of a Grand Slam event. In 2001-2002 the combo of Maiberger/Redondo won the second leg of the doubles grand slam by claiming the National Indoor championship. The same tandem also advanced to the NCAA finals as the No. 2 seed in 2003 before losing to the top ranked team of Rajeev Ram and Brian Wilson of Illinois, 6-4, 7-5, 6-1.

Alex Waske San Diego State 00 2005 Australian Open Doubles Semifinalist

A San Diego State graduate in 2000, Alex Waske has gone on to have a successful professional career. Since 2002, the German native has played in all four grand slam events. His best showing came in the doubles draw of the 2005 Australian Open, where he and Jurgen Melzer advanced to the semifinal round as the tournament's number one seed.

In addition to having success as a tour player, Waske has also represented his country in the 2004 Davis Cup. Along with Tommy Haas, the duo went 2-0 against Israel and the Slovak Republic.

Before moving on to the professional ranks, Waske was a singles All-American in 2000 and a three-time letterwinner at San Diego State, where he put his stamp on the Aztec record book.

In singles, Waske is second all-time in career winning percentage (.793), fourth in career victories (65), tied for fourth in victories in a season (27) with current assistant coach Oliver Maiberger and holds the fourth (.771) and fifth (.759) spots for winning percentage in a season.

In doubles, along with Adam Webster, the pair is ranked third in career victories (24), fifth in career team winning percentage (.774) and eighth in team victories for a season with 15. They also own the fifth- (.818) and tenth-best winning percentages (.750) for a team in a season. With Frank Morgan as his partner, the duo are ranked fourth in team victories for a season with 23 and seventh in team career winning percentage (.697).

As an individual doubles player, Waske ranks fourth in individual career doubles wins with 57, fifth in career doubles winning percentage (.740) and tied for seventh all-time in individual doubles victories in a season (23).

In his three years on Montezuma Mesa, Waske was a member of three NCAA Tournament teams, including 2000's Round of 16 squad. The 1999 team advanced to the second round before falling to UCLA.

Individually, Waske played in three NCAA Tournament singles draws, with his top effort coming in 2000 when he moved on to the round of 32.
