Aztec Hoops Vies For Third Consecutive Surf 'N Slam Title Thursday

The SDSU women's basketball team will try to claim its third consecutive San Diego Surf 'N Slam title Thursday, when the Aztecs take on No. 7/5 Texas A&M in the championship game at 7 p.m. PT at Viejas Arena.

San Diego State has won six straight Surf 'N Slam games over the last four seasons and finished first in 2008 with a stunning upset of previously unbeaten and fourth-ranked Texas, followed by an 11-point victory over Auburn for the championship in 2009. The Aztecs, who will be playing their final regular-season, non-conference contest of 2010-11, are a combined 23-5 during the month of December since 2006, and have come out ahead in five of their last six outings this year entering the match-up with Texas A&M.

SDSU (6-5) advanced to the championship of the Surf 'N Slam for the fourth time in the tournament's six-year history by routing UTSA on Tuesday, 72-52. The Aggies, meanwhile, also won easily 74-45 over Drexel later in the evening to improve to 10-1.

UTSA and Drexel will square off in the consolation game at 5 p.m. PT on Thursday, followed by the championship game between the Aztecs and the Aggies. The title contest will feature a live audio call by Chris Ello, while a live video feed and live stats will be available for both games on the Aztecs' official website, goaztecs.com.

Aztecs Rolls Past UTSA To Advance To Championship

The San Diego State women's basketball team recorded a season-best nine 3-pointers and had four players score in double-figures to lead the Aztecs to a 72-52 win Tuesday over visiting Texas-San Antonio in the first game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Viejas Arena. With the victory, SDSU moved to 6-5 and advanced to a tournament championship game for the third time in as many tries this season, while the Roadrunners dropped to 4-8 overall.

San Diego State got a 3-pointer from six different players, including senior Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.), whose first career triple gave her a team-best 14 points on the night to go with three blocked shots. Senior guard Coco Davis (Sacramento, Calif.) contributed 13 points and seven assists, freshman Melissa Sweat (Bakersfield, Calif.) reached double-figures for the first time in her career with 11 points and sophomore Courtney Clements (Long Beach, Calif.) added 11 points and three steals.

Aztec senior Jessika Bradley (Sacramento, Calif.) logged a career-best seven assists, hauled in a game-high 11 boards and rejected three shots in 34 minutes of action.

SDSU never trailed in the game, bouncing out to a quick 8-0 lead on a jumper by Bradley and consecutive triples from Clements and junior Sajoyia Griffin (San Antonio, Texas). The Roadrunners trimmed their early deficit down to only a pair at 17-15 following two free throws and trailed by three points at the 6:40 mark. From there, the Aztecs got eight straight points from Sweat in a span of less than a minute to push the home team's lead into double-figures for the first time at 29-18.

San Diego State had its largest lead of the first half heading into the locker room up by 13 points at 40-27, and moved out to an 18-point advantage on another triple at 47-29 with 14:50 left to go in the game. UTSA cut it to 13 points once, but was never able to get any closer as the Aztecs posted its biggest margin of victory this season, 72-52.

Other UTSA Notes

- SDSU had its largest halftime lead (13) and scored its most first-half points (40) this season against the Roadrunners.
The Aztecs posted a season low in both made (5) and attempted (9) free throws.
UTSA's 52 points and 31 rebounds are the fewest by an SDSU opponent this season.
The 20-point margin of victory is SDSU's largest this year (prev. 14 at Pepperdine) and best overall since the 30-point win vs. BYU in the MWC tournament semifinals in March.
The Aztecs had four players record double-figures in points in the same game for the first time in 2010-11.

70 And Beyond

San Diego State reached the 70-point barrier for the fourth time this season with its 72-point outburst against UTSA. The Aztecs are 4-0 when scoring more than 70 points in a game in 2010-11, and all four have come in their last six contests.

The team failed to reach the 70-point mark in its opening five outings, averaging just 59.6 points to post a 1-4 record. Since then, the Aztecs are 5-1 and are registering 70.5 points a game.

From Three

Entering the evening with just 36 triples in 10 games and ranking dead last in the MWC, the Aztecs posted a season-high nine 3-pointers in the win vs. UTSA. The nine shots from beyond the arc were two more than the team's previous game high of seven in a victory over Dayton earlier this month.

SDSU got at least one triple from six different players, including senior Paris Johnson, who made the first one in her 108 career contests as an Aztec.

The team has recorded 23, 3-pointers in its last four games, after tallying only 22 in its opening seven contests.

Reaching 1,400

San Diego State senior center Paris Johnson needs just 11 points in Thursday's game with Texas A&M to become only the fourth player in program history to reach the 1,400 barrier in her career.

Johnson currently boasts 1,389 points and ranks sixth in school history in scoring, trailing Jessica Haynes, who posted 1,395 points from 1986-1988, for fifth.

The only Aztecs to reach the 1,400-mark in career scoring are all-time leader Judy Porter (2,318 points), and All-Americans Falisha Wright (1,733), Jené Morris (1,499) and Chana Perry (1,445).

Johnson started the campaign in 15th place on the SDSU career list with 1,188 points and has since jumped nine spots in only 11 contests.

All About The Assist

Aztec senior guard Coco Davis continues to lead the Mountain West Conference in assists with 6.9 per game. She has 76 total helpers in all, 10 more than Utah's Janita Badon, who has 66 despite playing two more games.

Davis has at least six assists in nine of 11 contests this year, including in five-straight leading into Thursday's contest with Texas A&M. Her 333 career helpers rank eighth in school history.

The 5-9 guard is continuing the Davis family tradition, as her older sister and 2010 grad, Quenese, ranked first or second in the league in assists each of the last four seasons.

Not Yet Over 41

UTSA became the ninth Aztec opponent in 2010-11 to fail to reach the 40-percent mark in field-goal shooting, making just 19 of its 55 shots (34.5 percent).

Nine of 11 Aztec foes haven't even converted 38 percent, as current No. 8 UCLA shot 37.9 percent and both Cal State Bakersfield and UC Irvine put up a 36.5 field-goal mark. Minnesota, which entered the game with a 51.3 team shooting percentage, made just 20 of their 55 attempts for a 36.4 mark, while Nevada posted a 33.9 percentage and USD had a 35.3 effort. Pepperdine and Dayton each sported sub-32.0 performances, both of which were SDSU victories.

USC and Washington State are the lone exceptions in San Diego State's 11 contests, but not by much. The Trojans posted an opponent season-best 40.3 field-goal mark, while the WSU just made 40.0 percent.

Fast Facts: SDSU In Regular Season Home Tourneys

This year marks the sixth straight season that SDSU has played host to a tournament. Prior to 2005, the last time the Aztecs had a home tournament was in November 2000, when SDSU went 1-1 at the Pacific Bell Classic.

SDSU did not play host to a regular-season tournament in Beth Burns' first stint as head coach from 1989-97.

SDSU women's hoops has played host to 21 home tournaments in its previous 34 years of existence. SDSU is 19-2 in the first game of a home tournament and has won the team title 11 times, including each of the first four.

SDSU has split games in six of its last eight home tournaments. The team won the first game and lost the second in 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2006, and did the opposite in 2005 and 2007. The Aztecs are 4-0 in the last two Surf 'N Slams, winning the title over No. 4 Texas in 2008, and vs. Auburn in 2009.

The Aztecs are participating in three non-conference tournaments in the same season for the first time since the 1988-89 squad played at the Nevada-Reno Holiday

Fast Facts: Surf 'N Slam Tournament

►Drexel, Texas A&M and UTSA are making their first Surf 'N Slam appearances.

►Four different schools from four different conferences have won a tourney championship game in the Surf 'N Slam's five seasons. SDSU is the only repeat winner in 2008 and 2009.

►SDSU is 0-2 all-time vs. Texas A&M, while Drexel and UTSA are meeting for the first time.

►SDSU senior center Paris Johnson has received all-tournament honors at the Surf 'N Slam each of the last three seasons.

►No. 7/5 Texas A&M is the fourth team to be ranked in the top 25 nationally at the time of the Surf 'N Slam, joining No. 4 Texas (2008), No. 11 Georgia (2006) and No. 17 George Washington (2006).

►Three of the four squads went to the postseason last year with Drexel playing in the WNIT and Texas A&M and SDSU competing in the NAAs.

Ranked Foes

Over the last three seasons, San Diego State has played 13 contests against teams ranked in the Associated Press top 25 at the time of the game.

After falling to No. 1 UConn and No. 25 Iowa State at the outset of the 2008-09 campaign, the Aztecs shocked then unbeaten and No. 4 Texas, 60-55, in San Diego on Dec. 30, 2008. The victory was the program's first over a ranked foe in 17 tries and first overall since 1994.

Since then, the Aztecs have notched top-25 wins over No. 23 New Mexico (57-52), No. 23 TCU (84-61), No. 17 Texas (74-63) and No. 10 West Virginia (64-55).

SDSU dropped this year's season opener to then No. 16 UCLA, however, four of the team's eight losses vs. ranked opponents during the last three years have come against schools rated in the top six overall.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over Texas A&M will mean:

►SDSU wins its third-straight Surf 'N Slam title and has done so twice against top-10 opponents.

►SDSU is unbeaten over the last three seasons and has won seven consecutive Surf 'N Slam games.

►SDSU moves to 1-2 in non-conference tournament championship games this season.

►SDSU notches its first win over a top-25 foe since beating No. 10 West Virginia in last season's NCAA second round.

►SDSU defeats a ranked team for the sixth time in the last three years and improves to 6-8 overall against top-25 foes during that same span.

►SDSU earns its first win in three tries against the Aggies and defeats a Big 12 Conference school for the third consecutive season.

►SDSU is 24-5 during the month of December over the last five seasons, including a 5-1 mark this year.

►SDSU wins its 12th team title in 21 all-time home regular-season tournaments.

►SDSU wins its final regular-season non-conference game for the fourth straight year.

Texas A&M Tid-Bits

Texas A&M enters Thursday's championship game with a 10-1 overall record and have won four straight since a 61-58 loss at then No. 5 Duke on Dec. 6 ... The Aggies routed MWC preseason favorite TCU 91-66 in College Station ... Texas A&M is led by senior and national player-of-the-year candidate Danielle Adams, who averages 21.7 points and 8.5 rebounding per outing ... Adams also has 11 3-pointers and 17 blocked shots ... Tyra White (13.5 ppg.) and Adarora Elonu (10.4 ppg.) both average in double-figure scoring, while Sydney Colson has a team-best 54 assists and 22 steals ... The Aggies average nearly 80 points an outing and outrebound their opponent by almost nine boards a game ... Texas A&M won each of the two previous meetings between the two schools on SDSU's home court, including in the second round of the 1994 NCAA tournament in Peterson Gym ... The Aztecs have lost those two games by a combined four points.

Record Watch

San Diego State's senior trio of Coco Davis, Paris Johnson and Jessika Bradley are well on their way toward making a dent in the Aztec record book.

Johnson needs just 24 more blocks to become the school's all-time leader, surpassing current record-holder Michelle Suman, who had 251 from 1992-95.

Johnson is also fifth in the SDSU record book in career rebounds with 783, and is one of only five Aztecs to post 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks in Davis, meanwhile, moved into eighth in school history with 333 assists, is ninth in career triples (75) and in 3-pointers attempted (253).

After only 45 games in the Red & Black, Bradley is eighth in career blocked shots with 85, including a squad-best 63 as a junior and 22 in the opening 11 games in 2010-11.

Sweet December

With four victories already in hand, San Diego State has compiled an impressive 23-5 record during the month of December over the last five campaigns.

Two of the Aztecs' five losses have come against opponents who were ranked or receiving votes during the time of the game, including No. 2 UConn, No. 17 George Washington and USC (rv), while the other two were vs. Pepperdine in overtime last year and against Quinnipiac in the opening contest of the 2007 Surf 'N Slam.

Of course, it should be noted that SDSU has played 23 of those 28 December contests at home with the lone exceptions coming this year at Pepperdine, vs. Dayton and at USC, and a year ago at UC Riverside and at Loyola Marymount.

Other 2010-11 In Season Notes Thus Far

- Courtney Clements' 19 points vs. UCLA are the most by an Aztec in a season-opener since Michelle Strawberry had 29 points against Wichita State in November 2005.

- Paris Johnson's 18 rebounds vs. Cal State Bakersfield is a career high (prev. 15, twice) and most by an Aztec in a single outing since Ashlee Dunlap also had 18 in a win against American University in Dec. 2002.

- SDSU played its 1,000th contest in program history on Nov. 26, downing Minnesota, 61-59, in Reno, Nev.

- Each of the Aztecs' three seniors have earned a spot on an all-tournament team this season. Forward Jessika Bradley and center Paris Johnson were named to the all-tournament team at the Nugget Classic in Reno, Nev., while guard Coco Davis was tabbed at the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament in Los Angeles.

The honor is the sixth for Johnson, while it is the first of Bradley's and Davis' Aztec careers.

- San Diego State's win at USD is its first in overtime on an opponent's home court in program history. The Aztecs had been 0-5 in that category entering the night and are now 7-13 all-time in outings requiring the five-minute extra period.

- SDSU overcame a 12-point second-half deficit to defeat USD. It is its largest deficit in a win since being down by 14 points with just under 12 minutes remaining in a 63-59 win vs. Eastern Washington on Jan. 7, 2005. Prior to that, SDSU's largest comeback was 17 points on Feb. 13, 1994, in a 67-65 win at UTEP.

- The Aztecs are 3-0 this year and 12-1 overall when Paris Johnson scores 20 or more points in a game, winning 12 straight since 2007.

- SDSU has hauled in more than 50 rebounds in a game three times this season after not doing so in any of its 34 contests a year ago.

- The Aztecs have compiled six double-doubles, including at least one each by all three seniors. SDSU also had two double-doubles in the same contest at Pepperdine by Coco Davis and Jessika Bradley.

Aztecs Fall Recruiting Class Ranked 20th

San Diego State women's basketball's fall 2010 recruiting class has been rated 20th nationally and first in the Mountain West Conference according to Espn.com's HoopGurlz national rankings. The Aztecs moved up 11 spots from last year's No. 31 final ranking, after inking five high school seniors to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period, Nov. 10-17.

For the second campaign in a row, the Aztecs are easily the top ranked school among Mountain West Conference members, as TCU is the only other team listed in the top 40 at No. 38. San Diego State's recruiting class is rated higher than several notable programs including LSU (No. 22), Notre Dame (No. 25), Ohio State (No. 26), Georgetown (No. 27), West Virginia (No. 28), Nebraska (No. 34) and Michigan State (No. 51). The Aztecs are also the only school in a "non-automatic BCS qualifying" conference rated in the top 30.

San Diego State signed three, four-star recruits according to HoopGurlz, including forward Chairese Culberson, who was the No. 7 rated wing and 46th overall, forward Deajanae Scurry (No. 31 forward) and point guard Ahjalee Harvey (No. 32 point guard). Forwards Khristina Hunter and Erimma Amarikwa rounded out the Aztec fall signing class.

Preseason Points

The reigning MWC champion San Diego State women's basketball team has been picked to finish second in the league in 2011 in a vote by the nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 13, at the conference's annual media day in Denver, Colo.

The Aztecs received three first-place votes and 147 points overall, trailing only TCU, which had 16 first-place votes (174 points). SDSU, which has been picked first or second each of the last three years, just edged out Brigham Young for second place, as the Cougars had 145 points and garnered the other two first-place votes. Utah was picked fourth, followed by Wyoming, New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State and Air Force.

San Diego State has posted its two highest finishes in conference history the last two seasons, tying with Utah for first place in 2009, and for third place in 2010.

Aztec Individual Accolades

Aztec senior center Paris Johnson was tabbed to the five-member preseason all-league squad for the third straight year at the MWC's annual media day. In addition, sophomore guard Courtney Clements, who red-shirted after transferring from Arizona, was picked as the MWC's newcomer of the year and guard Melissa Sweat was chosen preseason freshman of the year.

Clements is the second SDSU player in a row to pick up the MWC's preseason newcomer of the year distinction, as senior Jessica Bradley was honored and went on to win the award last March.

Sweat, meanwhile, is the second Aztec on the current roster to earn the league's preseason freshman-of-the-year award, joining Johnson, who was honored in 2007.

Poll Watching

For the second consecutive season, San Diego State received votes in both national preseason top-25 polls. The Aztecs garnered the 34th-most votes (22 total) in the USA Today ESPN coaches edition, while they had the 37th-most votes (8 total) in the Associated Press Top 25.

SDSU earned votes in the coaches' poll eight times in 2009-10, including on Nov. 23, when it reached the No. 24 slot. The Aztecs finished the campaign at No. 20, the first time they had been ranked in the coaches' poll to end a season since it began in 1986.

The team also broke through in the AP poll a year ago, earning its first top-25 ranking (23rd on Nov. 23) since March 1995, when the team ended up 22nd following a 24-6 campaign.

SDSU is joined by TCU as the only two Mountain West Conference schools to receive votes in either poll thus far in 2010-11. The Aztecs garnered one vote in the first regular-season AP poll released Nov. 16, and had two in the Nov. 22 edition.

Strength Of Schedule

In 2010-11, SDSU has potentially six regular-season games against teams receiving votes in the AP preseason poll, which included the match-up with No. 16 UCLA to open the campaign on Nov. 12. Besides No. 23 TCU, who the Aztecs play twice, No. 8 Texas A&M (Dec. 30), Dayton (Dec. 18) and USC (Dec. 19) were all ranked or receiving votes.

Other Things To Watch For In 2010-11

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in Aztec basketball history, here are a few other things to look for in 2010-11:

- ◆ SDSU senior center Paris Johnson has started all 107 career contests since coming to Montezuma Mesa in 2007-08. She needs to start the next 16 outings to beat the school record for consecutive starts of 122, set a year ago by Quenese Davis.
- ◆ SDSU is a combined 27-3 at home over the last two campaigns entering this season. The Aztecs have 10 or more wins at Viejas Arena in three of the last four years.
- ◆ The Aztecs have 34 Mountain West Conference wins in the last four seasons after having only 19 in the league's first seven years.
- ◆ SDSU has advanced to the final of the Mountain West Conference Championships three years in a row, after not winning a single game in the MWC tournament's first eight years of existence.

Knox Joins Aztec Coaching Staff

Carlos Knox was named an assistant coach for the San Diego State women's basketball team, Aztec head coach Beth Burns announced Nov. 23.

Knox comes to the Aztecs from the WNBA's Indiana

Fever, where he was an assistant under head coach Lin Dunn. He also served a one-year stint with the Fever from 2008-09, as a volunteer assistant coach in player development.

Knox played collegiately at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) from 1994-98. He was a three-time All-American, two-time NCAA scoring champion and NCAA Division II Player of the Year for the Jaguars.

After graduating in 1998, he played professionally with the Indiana Pacers, before moving overseas where he competed in four different countries over a three-year span from 1999-2002.

The Dayton, Ohio, native has been a head men's coach in the CBA for the Indiana Alley Cats and Pittsburgh Xplosion, a head coach in the IBL for the Dayton Jets and an assistant men's coach at his alma mater. He spent 2009-10 as a head coach in the Saudi Arabia League (Division 1) with Club Al Hilal.

Knox has also worked with NBA and WNBA players to develop their basketball skills, as well as rehabilitate from injury.

2009-10 Rewind

The San Diego State women's basketball team made a remarkable run in 2009-10, highlighted by its first Mountain West Conference tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Below are a few of the accomplishments of last year's team:

- ◆ Earned its first-ever final top 25 ranking in ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll (No. 20), becoming the first MWC school to do so since 2006. The No. 20 spot ties as the program's highest-ever final ranking in a national poll (No. 20 in AP in 1985).
- ◆ Earned the program's first AP top 25 regular-season ranking since 1995 (Nov. 23 – No. 23)
- ◆ Posted back-to-back seasons with at least 23 wins for the first time since 1994-95 (24) and 1993-94 (26) ... Logged the program's 13th, 20-win campaign with six of those coming under coach Beth Burns ... Had an eight-game win streak, the team's longest since 1996-97
- ◆ Recorded three wins over AP top 25 teams (No. 10 West Virginia, No. 17 Texas, No. 23 TCU) ... Eight of 11 losses were to teams advancing to the NCAAs, including three vs. teams advancing to the Sweet 16
- ◆ Earned the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance (64-team bracket) and won two NCAA games in the same season for the first time in school history.
- ◆ Garnered the program's eighth NCAA tournament bid and made back-to-back NCAA appearances for the first time since 1994-95
- ◆ Was the lowest seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2007, was the first No. 11 seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2004, and the first MWC team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2006 ... Was the 12th double-digit seed all-time to advance to the Sweet 16
- ◆ Won its first MWC championship title and advanced to the third consecutive MWC championship game.

statistical highlights:

- ♦ SDSU led the MWC in field-goal percentage (44.5), three-point field-goal defense (27.0), blocked shots (5.4), offensive rebound percentage (40.7), victories (23 – tied)

- ♦ SDSU ended the year ranked eighth nationally in three-point field goal percentage defense, 18th in blocks per game, 22nd in field goal percentage and 25th in assists per game.

- ♦ The Aztecs limited 18 of its 34 opponents to under 60 points a game, including a 55-spot by No. 10 West Virginia. Eight foes scored 50 or fewer points and three didn't reach the 40-point barrier.

- ♦ Twelve of the Aztecs' 23 wins were by 19 or more points, after posting only six such victories in 2008-09.

- ♦ SDSU held opponents to three or fewer 3-pointers in a game 20 times last season, including a combined 3-for-22 mark in the NCAA First & Second Rounds.

- ♦ The Aztecs shot at least 40 percent from the field in 26 of 34 outings, topping the 45 mark on 14 occasions. The team's final season field-goal percentage of 44.5 is its best since the 1995-96 squad shot 45.6 percent.

- ♦ SDSU posted a school-record 155 three-pointers for the second season in a row and improved its team free-throw percentage from 61.2 in 2008-09 to 69.9 in 2009-10.

Aztec In The WNBA

Guard Jené Morris became San Diego State's first-ever WNBA Draft pick on April 8, 2010, going in the first round (11th pick overall) to the Indiana Fever. Morris, who was one of 14 players invited to the Draft announcement in Secaucus, N.J., also is the first Aztec to ever don a WNBA jersey.

The San Francisco native became the 11th player in Mountain West Conference history to be tabbed in the WNBA Draft and the fourth selected in the first round. She is the league's highest pick overall since 2006, and third highest in MWC history, trailing only Utah's Shona Thorburn (7th overall) and TCU's Sandora Irvin (3rd).

A two-time honorable mention All-American and Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year, Morris was the first Aztec to ever lead the MWC in scoring (17.1 ppg.), is the conference's all-time leader in career steals (293) and ranks third in the SDSU record book in career points with 1,499, despite only playing three seasons in the Red and Black.

She played 25 games during her rookie campaign for the Fever, before moving to Poland after the WNBA season to play professionally for CCC Polkowice.

In addition, fellow 2010 graduate point guard Quenese Davis is currently competing for the Flying Foxes in Austria.

TV Time

The Aztecs will have seven regular-season televised games in 2010-11. After the UCLA contest that was carried by The Mtn., SDSU will have six of its' MWC regular-season games on TV, including three straight in January. In all, the Aztecs will have six games on The Mtn. and one on CBS College Sports.

Listen/Watch Live

For the 10th straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alum Chris Elio will have the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road for the fourth straight season.

Again in 2010-11, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the televised games, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Viejas Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

Burns Named To WBCA Board

This past June, San Diego State head coach Beth Burns was reelected to a three-year term on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors. She continues to serve as a Division I at-large representative on the 23-member board.

Burns had been serving a one-year term in the same position before she was elected in 2010. She is an active member of the WBCA, having previously served as a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award and being on the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 8, 2005, and enters the sixth season of her second stint with the Aztecs.

Burns took the program to new heights in 2009-10, as the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field was expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010, and lowest overall since 2007.

In the last two seasons, San Diego State has posted a combined record of 47-19, including a 27-3 mark on its home court, with Burns at the helm. The Aztecs claimed the program's first-ever MWC tournament championship in 2010, after earning a share of the regular-season crown in 2009. SDSU has made two consecutive NCAA appearances, going 2-0 in first-round games, after not earning a postseason bid in the 11 previous years.

In her first stint as Aztec head coach from 1989-97, Burns took the SDSU women's basketball program full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. During her eight seasons, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A four-time conference coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 19-year overall head coaching record of 318-225, while her school record stands at 237-160 over 13 seasons.

Earlier this fall, Burns signed a five-year contract extension to stay as SDSU's head coach through the 2014-15 campaign.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 1-2

No. 16/15 UCLA 55, San Diego St. 48 Game 1 ■ Nov. 12 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team scored only four points in the final 6:58 of the game, as the Aztecs were unable to pull off the upset of 16th-ranked UCLA in front of 2,196 fans at Viejas Arena. The Bruins rallied from an eight-point halftime deficit to claim the 55-48 victory in both schools' season-openers.

SDSU sophomore Courtney Clements had a game-high 19 points, despite missing her first nine shots from the field. Clements also added six rebounds in her first outing as an Aztec, while senior center Paris Johnson pulled down a team-best 10 boards to go with her eight points. Senior Coco Davis chipped in nine points and seven assists in her first start at point guard.

UCLA scored the first five points of the game, before San Diego State notched its first bucket of the 2010-11 campaign by freshman Melissa Sweat at the 17:41 mark. The Bruins went up by seven at 9-2, but the Aztecs went on a 7-0 run to tie the contest at 9-9.

The squads would be tied twice more in the first half, including at 16-16. Davis then hit a jumper and Clements scored seven points in a row to put the Aztecs up by nine at 25-16. After UCLA cut its deficit to five twice in the final two minutes, SDSU's Gabrielle Clark hit a 3-pointer with 23 seconds remaining to give the home team a 32-24 advantage heading into the locker room.

The Aztecs' shooting woes from the field continued into the second half, as the Bruins scored the first eight points to tie the score at 32-32. San Diego State finally got on the scoreboard with a Davis triple to stay ahead, but the lead changed hands five times, including at the 5:53 mark when UCLA hit a pair of free throws to put it up 45-44.

SDSU would manage only four more points the rest of the way as UCLA ended the evening on a 10-4 run to secure the 55-48 victory.

Cal State Bakersfield 73, San Diego St. 62 Game 2 ■ Nov. 17 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Cal State Bakersfield outscored San Diego State 12-3 in the final four minutes of the game to earn a 73-62 victory over the host Aztecs at Viejas Arena. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 0-2 on the season, while the Roadrunners improved to 3-0 following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

San Diego State senior center Paris Johnson led the Aztecs both offensively and on the glass, tallying her 16th career double-double with a career-best 18 rebounds and 19 points on 7-for-8 shooting.

Sophomore Courtney Clements was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 15 to go with eight rebounds and three assists. Freshman Melissa Sweat had eight points and was a perfect 2-for-2 from beyond the arc, while senior Jessika Bradley had nine rebounds and three assists. Senior Coco Davis had a team-best eight assists, but was 1-for-11 from the field.

Cal State Bakersfield jumped out to an early 10-point lead, taking advantage of SDSU's five turnovers in the first three minutes, and the hot shooting of Roadrunner guard Britney McGee, who had 10 points during that same span. The Aztecs finally were able to put some offense together, scoring six straight points to get to within four at 14-10 at the 13:07 mark.

CSUB, however, pushed its lead back up to nine points until a late run, including a pair of triples by junior Sajoyia Griffin, put the home team down by only three at 33-30 heading into the locker room.

San Diego State came out of the break and tied the game at 35, before pushing out to its largest lead of the night at 44-37 less than four minutes into the second half. That advantage quickly disappeared when the Roadrunners converted two more Aztec giveaways into points and a 44-44 tie.

After another tie at 48-48, SDSU had another turnover and missed two free throw attempts which ignited a 7-0 CSUB run. The Aztec deficit would grow to 10 with 1:33 remaining and left too little time for another rally, as the Roadrunners came away with the 73-62 win.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 3-4

UC Irvine 68, San Diego St. 66

Game 3 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - A pair of turnovers in the final 1:33 of the game proved costly, as the San Diego State women's basketball team was unable to record its first victory of the season, falling to visiting UC Irvine, 68-66, at Viejas Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs, who rallied to tie the score after a pair of seven-point deficits, dropped to 0-3 overall and the Anteaters improved to 1-3 on the year.

SDSU sophomore guard Courtney Clements posted a team-best 16 points on 7-of-15 shooting, while seniors Jessika Bradley and Paris Johnson both chipped in 13 points apiece. Bradley was one rebound short of a double-double with nine boards and senior guard Coco Davis matched her career-best with five of the Aztecs' 13 steals on the night.

San Diego State got off to a good start, scoring eight straight points within the first two minutes of the contest for an 8-0 lead. The Anteaters finally got on the board with a jumper by Jade Smith-Williams, followed quickly by a 3-pointer by Kassandra McCalister to cut their deficit to just three.

The Aztecs continued to hold a two possession advantage until going up by seven points twice, including at 22-15. UC Irvine didn't back down, eventually knotting the game at 22 and again at 24 points, and taking the lead for the remainder of the first half with an 18-11 run and a 42-35 advantage at the break.

SDSU quickly erased the UCI lead by scoring the first six points of the second half and tying the game for the third time at 44-44. The Aztecs, however, were never able to jump ahead, as the game was knotted three more occasions, but the Anteaters continued to score the very next bucket.

The final tie came at 63-63 with 3:58 left in the game. UC Irvine got a fast-break basket off a steal, followed by a miscommunication on a hand-off between Clements and Davis that resulted in another giveaway, which the Anteaters converted into two free throws with 18 seconds left. Davis hit a long 3-pointer to close the gap to just two, but too little time was left as the Anteaters came away with the 68-66 victory.

Game 4 ■ Nov. 26 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - Behind Paris Johnson's 27 points and 12 rebounds, the San Diego State women's basketball team claimed its first victory of the season, defeating Minnesota, 61-59, in its first contest of the Nugget Classic at the Lawlor Events Center in Reno, Nev. The Aztecs moved to 1-3 on the year following 1,000th game in SDSU program history, while the Gophers dropped to 3-3 on the season in the first meeting between the sides in 25 years.

Johnson dominated the paint, scoring 15 of her game-high 27 points in the first half, while also adding 12 rebounds for her second double-double of the campaign. The 6-4 center was 11-of-17 (64.7 percent) shooting for her biggest offensive output since 2008, and the 11th, 20-point scoring game of her career.

Jessika Bradley, was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 12 to go with her seven rebounds and season-best four blocked shots. Johnson had three of SDSU's other eight rejections on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements added nine points and Coco Davis contributed eight assists.

San Diego State held a two-point lead at 61-59 with only 20 seconds remaining, as the Gophers ended up getting a pair of chances to tie or win the game. Minnesota guard Leah Cotton missed a jumper on her team's first opportunity, but the rebound resulted in an alternate possession which gave the ball back to the Gophers with 12 seconds left.

Coming out of a timeout, Minnesota's Micaella Riche got the ball in the low block, but then tried to muscle her way to the basket, knocking over a defender and was called for an offensive foul and a turnover. The Aztecs then just had to inbound the ball, which they did, to secure the victory.

The game was tied five times in the first half, before an 18-4 run gave SDSU its largest lead at 39-25. Minnesota, however, would close that gap all the way down to only five points at the break at 39-34 on a lay-up at the buzzer.

The Aztecs started the second half quickly, moving their advantage back up to 11 points twice and later 10 points at 57-47 with 8:39 to go in the game. The Gophers staged yet another rally as SDSU struggled to find the basket, scoring only two points over a more than six-minute span to allow Minnesota to get to within two points twice, including in the final minute.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 5-6

Nevada 63, San Diego St. 61

Game 5 ■ Nov. 27 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - The San Diego State women's basketball team rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to take the lead, but couldn't come away with the victory, falling in the championship game of the Nugget Classic to host Nevada, 63-61, at the Lawlor Events Center. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 1-4 on the season, while the Wolf Pack improved to 5-1.

Senior Paris Johnson once again led SDSU with 19 points on 8-for-13 shooting, while also tallying seven rebounds and a pair of blocked shots. Johnson was one of two Aztecs named to the all-tournament squad along with classmate Jessika Bradley, who had eight rebounds and three blocks. Sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points, while junior Sajoyia Griffin had her best performance of the year with a career-high nine points, five rebounds and seven assists, compared to just one turnover.

There were four ties and six lead changes in the first 10 minutes of the game as each side boasted a four-point advantage. Nevada went on a 9-0 run to go up 28-19, but the Aztecs responded with two buckets by Clements and one by Candace Chambers to close the gap to 28-26.

The Wolf Pack began to pile up trips to the free-throw line using a 13-for-16 performance at the stripe to head into the break up by six points at 39-33.

After the two sides combined for only six points in the first four minutes, the Wolf Pack broke their stalemate first, building its largest lead of the game at 51-40 at the 13:59 mark.

The Aztecs, however, wouldn't go down easily, answering with a 9-2 run to close to within four points twice, before a fast-break bucket made it a one-point game and two free throws put the visitors ahead 58-57 with 3:03 to go.

Coming out of a timeout, Nevada's Tahnee Robinson hit a 3-pointer, but Johnson tied it at 60 with a lay-up. Robinson struck again the next time up the floor, making what would turn out to be the winning basket with 25 seconds remaining to give her squad another two-point advantage at 62-61.

Bradley was fouled on the Aztecs' next possession, but was only able to make the first of her two free throws, as Robinson secured the rebound and was then fouled herself. She made one of two shots at the stripe and Coco Davis attempted to get the ball down the court with only four seconds left, but was unable to make the final shot near half court, as the Wolf Pack survived for the 63-61 win.

Game 6 ■ Nov. 30 ■ Jenny Craig Pavilion ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored host University of San Diego 15-6 in overtime to cap a dramatic rally, as the Aztecs came away with a 72-63 victory. SDSU, which trailed by 12 points with just 8:25 left to play, improved to 2-4 overall and won for the first time at Jenny Craig Pavilion since the annual series restarted in 2002.

Senior Paris Johnson and sophomore Courtney Clements combined for 40 of the team's 72 points. Johnson posted her fourth game with 19 or more points, finishing with 22, including a 10-for-12 effort at the stripe. Clements, meanwhile, had 18 points, six rebounds and a career-high three steals.

Johnson also had nine boards, matching the team game-high also put up by her front court classmate Jessika Bradley. Senior Coco Davis had nine points and five assists, while junior Kalena Tutt had a career-best eight rebounds.

The Aztecs had three turnovers in their first four possessions of the night, as the host Toreros raced to a 5-0 lead and later went up by seven at the 14:52 mark, but the Aztecs then kept it to within two possessions before gaining their first lead of the night on a lay-up by Melissa Sweat at 21-19.

The Toreros scored their first points after an over five-minute drought to tie the contest at 21 apiece and the two sides traded leads before heading into the break with the home side up 25-22, after SDSU failed to score for the final 4:25.

The second half began much the same way as the first with the Aztecs turning the ball over, while USD once again went up by seven at 31-24. Clements scored each of San Diego State's first seven points, helping to close the gap to only two, before the Aztecs' shooting woes began to catch up with them as USD reeled off a 14-4 run to gain its largest lead at 47-35 heading into a timeout.

San Diego State finally began to hit some shots with the help of point guard Sajoyia Griffin, who notched a 3-pointer and two free throws followed by a Clements jumper to get the deficit down to five at 47-42.

It was only a three-point game heading into the final two minutes, as Davis converted a three-point play to tie the score at 55-55. USD went up by two after a steal in the backcourt, but Johnson equalized with two free throws. The Aztecs had the final possession in regulation, however, Bradley's hook shot hit off the back of the rim forcing overtime.

Bradley struck back on the first possession in overtime, hitting a reverse lay-up as SDSU opened the extra period with a 6-0 run. The Toreros cut that deficit in half with a 3-pointer until Johnson matched that with a three-point play and the Aztecs made all six of their free-throw attempts in the final 25 seconds to secure the 72-63 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 7-8

San Diego St. 75, Pepperdine 61

Game 7 ■ Dec. 7 ■ Firestone Fieldhouse ■ Malibu, Calif.

MALIBU, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team got double-doubles from seniors Jessika Bradley and Coco Davis to help propel the Aztecs to a 75-61 victory over host Pepperdine at Firestone Fieldhouse. SDSU avenged an overtime loss to the Waves last season to claim its' second win in a row and improve to 3-4 on the year, while Pepperdine dropped to 5-5.

Several Aztecs had career nights with Bradley posting a career-high 16 points to go with 10 rebounds for her first double-double of the year and fourth of her career. Davis found her shooting touch recording 10 of her 14 points in the first half, while matching her career high with 10 assists to tally her first double-double in the Red & Black. Junior Kalena Tutt notched her first career double-figure scoring outing after going a perfect 4-for-4 from the field and 3-for-3 at the line for 11 points, and senior Paris Johnson was the fourth Aztec in double-figures with 16 points on 8-of-11 shooting.

San Diego State trailed just once in the game, when Pepperdine hit the opening basket of the night. Davis and Johnson then combined to record all 12 of the Aztecs' first points. SDSU would go up by six on a Davis triple at 16-10 and later built a nine-point advantage following an 8-1 run.

Pepperdine took advantage of several Aztec turnovers in the back court to climb all the way back to within four on three occasions. SDSU, however, headed into the locker room with a six-point lead at 35-29, as the Waves were unable to convert a last-second jumper.

The Aztecs got each of their first six points after the break from Johnson and Bradley and later utilized a pair of nifty passes on the baseline to push ahead 45-33, as the Wave offense went dormant for nearly four minutes.

After Pepperdine cut it to a 10-point deficit, San Diego State turned on the after burners, more than doubling its advantage at 68-47 over the next seven minutes. The Waves made a late run with the Aztec starters already on the bench, getting to within 14 points, including the final score, 75-61.

Game 8 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - Despite an 11-day layoff between games, the San Diego State women's basketball team returned to action and never trailed a strong Dayton squad, using a 50.9 field-goal percentage to earn a 74-62 victory at the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the win, the Aztecs evened their record at 4-4 on the year, while the Flyers, who advanced to last year's NCAA second round, dropped to 5-5 in 2010-11.

SDSU got another outstanding outing from a pair of seniors in guard Coco Davis and center Paris Johnson. Davis notched a career-best 19 points, including three triples, to go with a season-high seven rebounds and six assists, while Johnson scored 16 of her 19 points in the second half and also pulled down a game-high 10 boards for her third double-double of the year.

The Aztecs reeled off six quick points, hitting three of their first four shots, while the Flyers were 0-for-5 before finally scoring at the 16:08 mark. SDSU would build an eight-point advantage, but Dayton closed the gap with consecutive rebound baskets and continued to hit the glass to negate the Aztecs' hot shooting start.

The Flyers later closed to within one on two occasions with the first coming after a 10-5 run. SDSU then got consecutive triples from Davis and Clements and a three-point play from junior Kalena Tutt for its largest lead thus far at 32-23. Dayton's Justine Raterman kept her team within striking distance with a pair of triples and her squad ended up tying the score for the first and only time at 35 with 1:18 left until the break.

The Aztecs owned a slight 38-35 advantage heading into the locker room following a three-point play by 6-6 center Malia Nahinu. Scoring continued to come from the interior on both sides as SDSU went up by seven to start the second half courtesy of Johnson, who scored eight points in a row.

Dayton was within four following a three-point play at 50-46, until the Aztecs got a pair of free throws from Gabrielle Clark, which kick started an 8-0 run to move out to a 58-46 lead. The Flyers closed once again to within seven, but was never able to get any closer as SDSU ended the game on a 14-9 run over the final 6:08 to secure the first ever meeting between the two foes at 74-62.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 9-10

Southern California 74, San Diego St. 64

Game 9 ■ Dec. 19 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 15-point halftime deficit down to just four points, but could not get any closer as the Aztecs saw their three-game win streak come to an end with a 74-64 defeat to the host Trojans in the championship game of the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 4-5, while USC, which is a perfect 5-0 on its home court, improved to 7-3 overall.

Aztec senior Paris Johnson had a team-high 18 points on 6-for-11 shooting and a 6-for-6 performance at the free-throw line. Classmate Coco Davis, who was named to the all-tournament team for the first time in her career, scored in double-figures for the third outing in a row with 16 points and seven assists in playing all 40 minutes. Davis and Johnson finished the weekend by combining for 72 of the team's 138 points in the two outings.

SDSU's third senior, Jessica Bradley, had a game-high 11 rebounds, while Johnson added nine to fall just short of her second consecutive double-double. Sophomore Courtney Clements and freshman Melissa Sweat each tallied seven points for the Aztecs, who owned a slight advantage over the Trojans on both the boards (39-36) and shooting from the field (41.4 to 40.3 percent).

USC junior guard Ashley Corral made each of her first five attempts from the field, including three triples, in the first 4:18 alone to give the Trojans a 15-4 lead heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs closed it to single digits at eight points on three occasions, but USC continued to make nearly all its shots coming down the floor, hitting on 16-of-35, including 4-of-7 from beyond the arc, to go up by as many as 15, including at 42-27 at the half.

SDSU held the Women of Troy without a point for the first three and a half minutes coming out of the locker room to cut the deficit to eight and later got to within six points following a 6-0 run. A 3-pointer by Briana Gilbreath following a long offensive rebound, however, quickly restored the Trojan lead out to 52-43.

The Aztecs trailed by just four on four separate occasions, including at 62-58 with 4:34 left, and had the ball on offense to cut it to a single possession. Instead, USC erupted with an 8-0 run, capped by consecutive triples from Corral and another by Christina Marinacci following a steal to go up by 12 points at 70-58. A late triple by Davis cut the margin to single digits, but the Trojans ended the evening with four more points to the Aztecs' three to garner the 74-64 win.

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Playing its first home game in the last 28 days, the San Diego State women's basketball team got 26 points from senior Paris Johnson, including 17 in the first half alone, to lead the Aztecs to a 66-57 victory over Washington State. SDSU came out ahead for the first time at Viejas Arena this season and evened its record at 5-5, while the Cougars dropped to 2-10.

Johnson was 8-for-11 from the field in the first 20 minutes and ended up 11-for-21 for 26 points, her seventh outing with 18 or more points in 10 total contests this season. Johnson also tallied 15 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year and second in the last three games.

Jessika Bradley was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 11 and pulled down seven rebounds. Senior guard Coco Davis recorded a season-best eight boards and contributed nine of the team's 18 assists on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements notched nine points on 4-for-9 shooting.

The two sides combined for five lead changes in the first four minutes of action, until SDSU turned a one-point advantage into a nine-point lead via an 8-0 run, featuring three consecutive buckets in the paint at 19-10. WSU would climb back to within five on three occasions, but the Aztecs outscored the visitors 8-4 in the final five minutes to go into the locker room up 11 points at 36-25.

After a Cougar bucket to open the second half made it just a nine-point game, SDSU went on a 12-0 run, highlighted by its only 3-pointers on the evening by center Malia Nahinu and Clements, to jump ahead by 21 points at 48-27.

After a timeout, WSU took a huge bite into the deficit, cutting it down to only nine points with just under eight minutes remaining, as SDSU missed several chances around the rim to put the game out of reach. The lead was nine on two more occasions before the end of the game, including at the 2:52 mark at 61-52, but the Aztecs pushed the advantage back out to 13 points with a jumper by Gabrielle Clark and three free throws. The Cougars finished out the night with two lay-ups in the final 31 seconds to round out the 66-57 SDSU victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Game 11

San Diego St. 72, UTSA 52

Game 11 ■ Dec. 28 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team recorded a season-best nine 3-pointers and had four players score in double-figures to lead the Aztecs to a 72-52 win over visiting Texas-San Antonio in the first game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Viejas Arena. With the victory, SDSU moved to 6-5 and advanced to a tournament championship game for the third time in as many tries this season, while the Roadrunners dropped to 4-8 overall.

San Diego State got a 3-pointer from six different players, including senior Paris Johnson, whose first career triple gave her a team-best 14 points on the night to go with three blocked shots. Senior guard Coco Davis contributed 13 points and seven assists, freshman Melissa Sweat reached double-figures for the first time in her career with 11 points and sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points and three steals.

Aztec senior Jessika Bradley logged a career-best seven assists, hauled in a game-high 11 boards and rejected three shots in 34 minutes of action.

SDSU never trailed in the game, bouncing out to a quick 8-0 lead on a jumper by Bradley and consecutive triples from Clements and junior Sajoyia Griffin. The Roadrunners trimmed their early deficit down to only a pair at 17-15 following two free throws and trailed by three points at the 6:40 mark. From there, the Aztecs got eight straight points from Sweat in a span of less than a minute to push the home team's lead into double-figures for the first time at 29-18.

San Diego State had its largest lead of the first half heading into the locker room up by 13 points at 40-27, and moved out to an 18-point advantage on another triple at 47-29 with 14:50 left to go in the game. UTSA cut it to 13 points once, but was never able to get any closer as the Aztecs posted its biggest margin of victory this season, 72-52.
